Douglas A. Cruickshank, a boy 10 years of age, was arrested at 8:30 o'clock this morning for the alleged larceny of four pairs of rubber boots and three pairs of rubbers from the polishing mill at Barclay Bros' shed. The boots were missed when the men came to their work at the shed this morning, and W. A. Clark, one of the men whose boots were missing, started for the police station to report the loss. On his way he saw the Cruickshank boy with a small cart piled full of rubber boots and rubbers, coming down North Main street.

Mr. Clark looked the boots over and recognized his own and a pair belonging to his brother. He then went to the station and saw Chief Sinclair, who arrested the boy as he was going down the Barre Railroad tracks with his cart and the boots. The boy told the chief that he got all of the boots, except one pair, out of the Barclay shed, and the other pair he got from the Hughes shed. He said he was going to the junk dealer's this morning to sell them. The chief looked the boy up and he will probably be arraigned in court some time to-day on the charge of larceny.
