

ALL TIRED OUT

Hundreds More in Barre in the Same Plight. Tired all the time; Weary and worn out night and day; Back aches; side aches; All on account of the kidneys...

TRAVELERS' RAILWAY GUIDE.

Central Vermont Railway. Trains leave Barre for White River Junction and Boston, and vice versa, also Windsor and Bellows Falls and New York...

WEBSTERVILLE.

The quarterly election of the Knights of King Arthur will be held on Friday evening, Aug. 5, at the Baptist church in Websterville.

EAST BARRE.

Silverleaf Circle will hold a dance in Forester's hall, East Barre, Friday evening, August 5, at 8 o'clock. Admission 50 cents per couple.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The M. E. ladies' aid society will meet with Mrs. Orville J. Gale on Thursday afternoon and evening of this week.

THE BEST HOUR OF LIFE

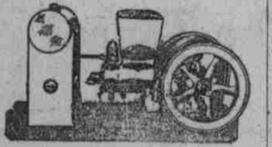

Is when you do some great deed or discover some wonderful fact. This hour came to J. R. Pitt of Rocky Mt., N. C., when he was suffering intensely...

Notice.

All parties owing money to S. J. Segel & company, the clothing, will please call and settle same at once, in the Arcade, black corner of Main and Pearl streets, next door to Dreamland theatre.

BEST AND HEALTH TO MOTHER AND CHILD.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over SIXTY YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEething, with INFALLIBLE SUCCESS...

Wanted, in every town in Vermont a good agent to take orders for specialties. The work is suitable for ladies, as well as men.

C. H. TAFT, State Manager, Randolph Center, Vt.

The Reason Why

we recommend BOBBIN WOOD so highly is because we believe that it is the best wood for the money on the market. It costs us the same as chair wood or second-growth wood...

Morse & Jackson 265 No. Main St. Office Tel. 237-; Yard Tel. 13-M.

CABOT.

Frank Kenerson spent Sunday in Barre. Miss Della Lucia spent Sunday in Websterville. Mrs. Leslie Tucker is laid up with a sprained ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Fifield spent Sunday in Hardwick. Dr. W. L. Adams of Hardwick was in town Monday. Aubrey Nelson and family are at their cottage at Lake St. Joseph.

A. W. Baker of Boston has arrived at his summer residence on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenerson of Barre were at his brother, Frank's, Monday.

Rev. Mr. Fisk of Whitefield occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. Myers have returned from visiting their daughter, ten days in Post Mills.

Mrs. Sadie Cleveland and son, of Orono, have been guests at A. A. Hopkins' the past week. Dr. H. G. Williams and daughter, Nellie are visiting his sister, Mrs. Nellie Pitt, at St. Albans.

Mrs. Maudie Foster and sister, Miss Vanderpore of New York, were guests at E. P. Walbridge's, Friday. Gifford Phillips, who has spent some time in South America, has been a guest at T. H. Osgood's, the past week.

Charles Hatch has gone to St. Johnsbury to work. Mrs. Hatch and daughter are stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. There will be a piano and violin recital at town hall Wednesday evening, August 10, by the pupils of Miss Grace Moses and Miss Christine Currier.

Miss L. L. Walbridge and daughter, from Pittsfield, Mass., will be here spending a week at W. W. Fifield's, having gone to Montpelier for a few days. Hermon Osgood, Will Stone and Justin Stone went to Lacombe, N. H., last Tuesday to attend the funeral of their cousin, Judge Charles Stone, who was once a Cabot boy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fifield gave a lawn party to their friends and neighbors last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. L. L. Walbridge and daughter of Pittsfield, Mass. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. Miss Mary Collins, who has been a missionary among the wild Indians, will speak at the Congregational church next Sunday. She will portray her work there, which will be very interesting. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

The little three-year-old son of Allan Smith met with a serious accident last Saturday. While playing with a baby carriage wheel he fell on it and a broken wire penetrated one eye, passing nearly through the eye ball. He was immediately taken to an eye specialist in Barre but he could not tell whether the sight is destroyed or not. A few days more will decide the case.

Photo-Era for August.

Photo-Era for August is eminently strong in its letter-press and pictorial departments. C. H. Claudy, whose knowledge on up-to-date photographic topics, seems to be inexhaustible, writes straight from the shoulder regarding the photographic dealer unwilling to properly serve his customers—whether amateur or professional. The well known pictorialist, W. S. Davis, presents his second paper, "When the Sun is Low," showing how the beauties of a landscape may be revealed by the camera before the sun has risen high or is about to set. His advice is delightfully clear and numerous beautiful views from his camera second his able articles. The editor, Mr. Wilfred A. French, contributes an illustrated paper on the pictorial beauties of his native city—Boston. From the numerous attractive pictures accompanying his article, it is seen that the Hub truly rejoices in pictorial opportunities for the earnest unsurpassed by any city in this or any other country.

The Round Robin Guild department is brim full of suggestions helpful to every worker, from the merest beginner to the experienced and full-fledged expert. The regular monthly letters by experts describing the photographic doings in London and Berlin are unusually interesting this month. The regular monthly contest is devoted to down-hill perspective, and the successful pictures show how this important feature may be utilized with eminent pictorial success. The prime artistic feature in the form of the regular monthly insert is a beautiful full-page landscape printed in sepia, by F. A. Saundersson, and is well worth being detached and framed. Every earnestist will be interested in the editor's two page article on timely suggestions—what to do in order to make the most successful pictures in every department of photography.

For sale at photo-dealers or sent post-paid for 15 cents by the publisher, Wilfred A. French, Boston, U. S. A.

A PACKAGE OF MEDICINE FREE.

Every subscriber to this paper who will write to the address below will receive, free of expense, a package containing small boxes of the following well known medicines: Lane's Tea for the bowels, Kidneys for the kidneys, Lane's Pleasant Urinary Tablets for colds and grip, and Sherman's Headache Remedy. Address, Orator F. Woodward, Le Roy, N. Y.

WHO WANT'S HAIR?

Who Wants to Get Rid of Dandruff? Read These Letters.

"On March 25, 1910, E. A. Widman, 8 Norfolk Street, Newark, N. J., writes: 'My hair was falling out and my head was full of dandruff. Since using Parisian Sage, the dandruff has disappeared and now have quite a growth of new hair.'

On April 2, 1910, Mrs. R. M. Worden, 3 St. James Avenue, Holyoke, Mass., writes: 'Parisian Sage is the best hair dressing I ever used. It gave my hair life and a gloss which no other dressing ever did, besides stopping it from falling out. It is the only dressing for up-to-date women.'

March 24, 1910, Mrs. J. C. Ketcham, 4 Chester place, Bangor, Me., writes: 'My husband, J. G. Ketcham, was troubled with dandruff, which caused his hair to fall out, and your Parisian Sage has freed the scalp from dandruff and given a natural gloss to the hair. No money could persuade him to be without it.'

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy, to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant. It is a delightfully refreshing hair dressing, cooling the scalp, and will immediately banish all odors. Large bottle 50 cents at druggists' everywhere and at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

WIDER SAYS THAT HE IS GUILTY

The Cashier Arraigned; Will Be Sentenced on August 10 for Looting Russo-Chinese Bank.

New York, Aug. 4.—Erwin J. Wider, the young cashier of the Russo-Chinese bank in this city, whose stealings from the bank's security box resulted in a loss of upward of $600,000 to the institution, pleaded guilty yesterday to the indictment found against him in connection with the embezzlement. Wider was remanded for sentence on August 10.

The indictment against Wider specifically charged him with stealing stock valued at $11,400. On his plea of guilty to this indictment, he can be given an indeterminate sentence of from five to ten years. The district attorney's office, however, has intimated that it might ask Wider's indictment on the other larceny charges against him in connection with his wholesale stealings of the bank's securities.

Wider's defalcations had continued over a considerable period, coincident with his extensive speculations in Wall street, while he was receiving a salary of $1,200 a year. While waiting in the prisoners' pen to be taken to the Tombs after his sentence yesterday, he took occasion to deny that he had made a profit in his cotton speculation and had money hidden away.

Smoking a cigar and walking up and down his narrow quarters, the cashier answered in the most matter-of-fact way the questions put to him by the newspaper men. When asked the direct question if he had made money in his cotton speculation, he answered: "That is one fool report."

He then became a little excited and spoke with a German accent, which is not noticeable in his quiet moments, and continued: "How could I make money? There has been a bear market since January in cotton and I, like a fool, was buying the market. The books of the brokers will show this to be true. I wish I had made money."

One questioner asked him if it was not true that he had "salted away $200,000 or $300,000 of the money he got from the bank, for the reason that the books of the brokers did not balance with the amount he is charged with taking from the bank.

"That is not true," replied Wider. "I wish now that I had. Do you think I would be here if I had 'salted' that amount? I would have had good lawyers and fought the case all the way through. If I had kept one-half of the money I could have compromised with the bank and I would not be here. But what's the use of talking about it? Wall street got it all. Neither I nor my family have any, and I am here behind the bars, and that is the best evidence that I am telling the truth."

Wider was taken back to the Tombs.

FORTUNE ISLAND.

The Story of the Buried Treasure of an English Buccaneer.

An English buccaner, having looted and fired a rich prize, found himself pursued in turn by a Spanish pirate, and in order to save his treasure sought some isolated shore on which to bury it until the time came to divide the spoils with his followers. So he ran into the Bahama group and, landing on a low lying strip of sand and palm trees, cached his plunder and, naming the place Fortune Island, sailed away. He left a number of negro slaves behind to guard the buried treasure, and the present inhabitants are said to be descended from these slaves. The Fortune Islanders believe the old sea rover never returned for his chest and that it is still hidden somewhere near the tide level. It is so uncommon sight for tourists on the rare occasions when a steamer stops there to see some half naked black men digging in the sand, probably in obedience to a dream or other sign.

The natives are half civilized, exceedingly superstitious and very poor and live mostly on fish and fruit. They do not attempt to plant vegetables, preferring to rely on the bounty of nature, as the fierce hurricanes that sweep the Bahamas soon uproot and destroy gardens. The little colony is huddled together in a collection of squalid huts that are blown clear away in nearly every storm and have to be built anew. The island is nine miles long and a mile wide at the broadest part and lies 110 miles northeast of Cuba.—New York Herald.

Politics at The Present Time

The New Party Movement

THE talk of a new party will not do. It is in the air. Either that or those behind it are in the air, which is not exactly the same thing. A few weeks ago it was proposed by the chairman at a Pinchot-Garfield banquet. Somewhat more recently Senator Cummins' paper in Iowa spoke for it. The Des Moines News is credited with being Cummins' personal organ, and it advocates definitely a call of progressives of all parties to meet in Kansas City on Sept. 1 to form a new party. It suggests as a platform "the Roosevelt principle of a square deal," and among the names it mentions as leaders of the new organization are Theodore Roosevelt, William J. Bryan, Senators Cummins, Dooliver, La Follette, Beveridge, Gore, Owen, Bristow and Montoye of Mississippi, Congressman Murdock of Kansas, Hubbard of Iowa, James of Kentucky, Suizer of New York and Poindexter of Washington. Among the private citizens mentioned as eligible are Gifford Pinchot, James R. Garfield, Tom Johnson and Joseph W. Folk.

One of the conspicuous things about all of these new party plans is that they include the name of Roosevelt. He is as much in demand as a new social lion at pink teas. Still another new party movement is that in Pennsylvania, where both the independent Republicans and independent Democrats are in rebellion. There is also the possibility of a split-off in New York, where William Suizer is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, and it is broadly intimated by his friends that if he is not named he will run anyway and will have the backing of W. R. Hearst on a third ticket.

There is also plenty of political dynamite lying around loose in Wisconsin, where the stalwarts are making a supreme effort to overthrow Senator La Follette. For that purpose they recently held a state convention at which Vice President Sherman spoke with a "Sunny Jim" luster. La Follette has never declared for a third party, since he has not found it necessary. In the Badger State the shoe is on the other foot. La Follette there is the Republican party, and his opponents are the ones outside the breakwaters. If a national new party were formed, however, the Wisconsin senator could not keep out.

Not so with Senator Joseph L. Bristow of Kansas. He gives it out cold that he will fight the battle out in the G. O. P. With true Kansas optimism he believes not only that he will win, but that he will have the whole world with him. One can fairly see the plenty of them, but they are not such that a definite opinion can be based upon them. Such as they are they are worth mention. Perhaps the most significant fact is that both of the old parties are already divided—the Democracy into radicals, formerly known as Bryan men, and conservatives; the Republicans into insurgents and stand patters. The force which overturned the Democratic party in 1896 and which made possible the Roosevelt policies and the progressive movement in the Republican party is still present. That it will compel a political realignment of some sort is probable, as it has already partially done so. Whether or not this realignment will take the form of a new party perhaps depends on the attitude of the parties now in existence.

Another significant fact is that so many people are talking of a new party. One can hear it at almost every crossroads and street corner. The dreams that nations dream come true.

Here is the present situation in a nutshell: In New York the Republicans are divided into Hughes and anti-Hughes camps and the Democrats face the threat of a Hearst-Sulzer combination on an independent ticket. In Pennsylvania an independent movement has now been launched. In New Jersey the "New Ideal" is still a factor and Representative Fowler is fighting the state machine. In Ohio James R. Garfield has declared himself an insurgent and is developing a following. In Indiana Beveridge is fighting the Payne-Aldrich tariff and the regulars are near the verge of revolt. In Wisconsin stalwarts and La Follette men are at swords' points, and the same is true of the progressives and stand patters in Iowa, and so it goes from state to state. Amid such unstable conditions almost any sort of a new combination is possible.

J. A. EDGERTON, TRUSTEY. Angry Father (to son)—You never saw me getting into a scrape like that when I was a boy. Filippant Son—No, dad, I never did.—Exchange.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. R. T. Felix Gouard's Oriental Cream or Magial Beautifier.

Remove Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth, Patches, Rash, and Sore Throat, and every kind of skin blemish, and give your skin the soft, smooth, and healthy appearance that every woman desires to possess. It is the best of its kind, and has been used for over 20 years, and is so famous for its beauty-giving properties that it is known in every part of the world. Apply the Oriental Cream to the face, neck, and hands, and you will see the difference. As you see it, you will use it.

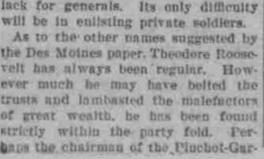

As Bristow was one of the men suggested by the Des Moines paper it is plain the new party will be minus at least one of its proposed leaders. However, it should have no trouble in finding others. If it resembles other independent movements it will not lack for generals. Its only difficulty will be in enlisting private soldiers.

As to the other names suggested by the Des Moines paper, Theodore Roosevelt has always been regular. However much he may have belted the trusts and lambasted the malefactors of great wealth, he has been found strictly within the party fold. Perhaps the chairman of the Pinchot-Garfield dinner and the editor of the Cummins paper have inside information that the colonel is contemplating a breakaway, but if so they know more than the average political wisecracker who has made himself cross eyed and kink necked trying to find out just what Roosevelt is going to do.

After all, perhaps these questions as to what particular individuals will do, even though they be as important individuals as Roosevelt and Bryan, are not of as much moment as some people think. When a large section of the American people get ready to move they will move despite what leaders may or may not do. What are the voters themselves thinking? Without these all the leaders in the country could not form a new party. With them a new party could be launched without the assistance of a single man now nationally prominent. When the hour arrives the people will choose their own captain, and it is futile to attempt to force a new movement before the time is ripe. The question is a psychological one, but it relates to that of a few individuals in the mass. Have we any keys by which we can read the mind of the nation? That there is unrest is apparent. But mere unrest will not break up the political deeps and form new parties. Nothing less than a positive revolution in the popular mind will bring about that result. Have we any indications of such a revolution?

To this question there is as yet no conclusive answer. Signs are present,

SENATOR LA FOLLETTE.

W. R. HEARST—WILLIAM SULZER.

plenty of them, but they are not such that a definite opinion can be based upon them. Such as they are they are worth mention. Perhaps the most significant fact is that both of the old parties are already divided—the Democracy into radicals, formerly known as Bryan men, and conservatives; the Republicans into insurgents and stand patters. The force which overturned the Democratic party in 1896 and which made possible the Roosevelt policies and the progressive movement in the Republican party is still present. That it will compel a political realignment of some sort is probable, as it has already partially done so. Whether or not this realignment will take the form of a new party perhaps depends on the attitude of the parties now in existence.

Another significant fact is that so many people are talking of a new party. One can hear it at almost every crossroads and street corner. The dreams that nations dream come true.

Here is the present situation in a nutshell: In New York the Republicans are divided into Hughes and anti-Hughes camps and the Democrats face the threat of a Hearst-Sulzer combination on an independent ticket. In Pennsylvania an independent movement has now been launched. In New Jersey the "New Ideal" is still a factor and Representative Fowler is fighting the state machine. In Ohio James R. Garfield has declared himself an insurgent and is developing a following. In Indiana Beveridge is fighting the Payne-Aldrich tariff and the regulars are near the verge of revolt. In Wisconsin stalwarts and La Follette men are at swords' points, and the same is true of the progressives and stand patters in Iowa, and so it goes from state to state. Amid such unstable conditions almost any sort of a new combination is possible.

J. A. EDGERTON, TRUSTEY. Angry Father (to son)—You never saw me getting into a scrape like that when I was a boy. Filippant Son—No, dad, I never did.—Exchange.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. R. T. Felix Gouard's Oriental Cream or Magial Beautifier.

Remove Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth, Patches, Rash, and Sore Throat, and every kind of skin blemish, and give your skin the soft, smooth, and healthy appearance that every woman desires to possess. It is the best of its kind, and has been used for over 20 years, and is so famous for its beauty-giving properties that it is known in every part of the world. Apply the Oriental Cream to the face, neck, and hands, and you will see the difference. As you see it, you will use it.

As Bristow was one of the men suggested by the Des Moines paper it is plain the new party will be minus at least one of its proposed leaders. However, it should have no trouble in finding others. If it resembles other independent movements it will not lack for generals. Its only difficulty will be in enlisting private soldiers.

As to the other names suggested by the Des Moines paper, Theodore Roosevelt has always been regular. However much he may have belted the trusts and lambasted the malefactors of great wealth, he has been found strictly within the party fold. Perhaps the chairman of the Pinchot-Garfield dinner and the editor of the Cummins paper have inside information that the colonel is contemplating a breakaway, but if so they know more than the average political wisecracker who has made himself cross eyed and kink necked trying to find out just what Roosevelt is going to do.

After all, perhaps these questions as to what particular individuals will do, even though they be as important individuals as Roosevelt and Bryan, are not of as much moment as some people think. When a large section of the American people get ready to move they will move despite what leaders may or may not do. What are the voters themselves thinking? Without these all the leaders in the country could not form a new party. With them a new party could be launched without the assistance of a single man now nationally prominent. When the hour arrives the people will choose their own captain, and it is futile to attempt to force a new movement before the time is ripe. The question is a psychological one, but it relates to that of a few individuals in the mass. Have we any keys by which we can read the mind of the nation? That there is unrest is apparent. But mere unrest will not break up the political deeps and form new parties. Nothing less than a positive revolution in the popular mind will bring about that result. Have we any indications of such a revolution?

To this question there is as yet no conclusive answer. Signs are present, plenty of them, but they are not such that a definite opinion can be based upon them. Such as they are they are worth mention. Perhaps the most significant fact is that both of the old parties are already divided—the Democracy into radicals, formerly known as Bryan men, and conservatives; the Republicans into insurgents and stand patters. The force which overturned the Democratic party in 1896 and which made possible the Roosevelt policies and the progressive movement in the Republican party is still present. That it will compel a political realignment of some sort is probable, as it has already partially done so. Whether or not this realignment will take the form of a new party perhaps depends on the attitude of the parties now in existence.

Another significant fact is that so many people are talking of a new party. One can hear it at almost every crossroads and street corner. The dreams that nations dream come true.

Here is the present situation in a nutshell: In New York the Republicans are divided into Hughes and anti-Hughes camps and the Democrats face the threat of a Hearst-Sulzer combination on an independent ticket. In Pennsylvania an independent movement has now been launched. In New Jersey the "New Ideal" is still a factor and Representative Fowler is fighting the state machine. In Ohio James R. Garfield has declared himself an insurgent and is developing a following. In Indiana Beveridge is fighting the Payne-Aldrich tariff and the regulars are near the verge of revolt. In Wisconsin stalwarts and La Follette men are at swords' points, and the same is true of the progressives and stand patters in Iowa, and so it goes from state to state. Amid such unstable conditions almost any sort of a new combination is possible.

J. A. EDGERTON, TRUSTEY. Angry Father (to son)—You never saw me getting into a scrape like that when I was a boy. Filippant Son—No, dad, I never did.—Exchange.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. R. T. Felix Gouard's Oriental Cream or Magial Beautifier.

Remove Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth, Patches, Rash, and Sore Throat, and every kind of skin blemish, and give your skin the soft, smooth, and healthy appearance that every woman desires to possess. It is the best of its kind, and has been used for over 20 years, and is so famous for its beauty-giving properties that it is known in every part of the world. Apply the Oriental Cream to the face, neck, and hands, and you will see the difference. As you see it, you will use it.

As Bristow was one of the men suggested by the Des Moines paper it is plain the new party will be minus at least one of its proposed leaders. However, it should have no trouble in finding others. If it resembles other independent movements it will not lack for generals. Its only difficulty will be in enlisting private soldiers.

As to the other names suggested by the Des Moines paper, Theodore Roosevelt has always been regular. However much he may have belted the trusts and lambasted the malefactors of great wealth, he has been found strictly within the party fold. Perhaps the chairman of the Pinchot-Garfield dinner and the editor of the Cummins paper have inside information that the colonel is contemplating a breakaway, but if so they know more than the average political wisecracker who has made himself cross eyed and kink necked trying to find out just what Roosevelt is going to do.

Protect Yourself! AT SODA FOUNTAINS OR ELSEWHERE. Original and Genuine HORLICK'S Malted Milk. The Food Drink for All Ages. Not in any Milk Trust. Insist on "HORLICK'S". Take a package home.

INDIANS AND BULLETS.

A Sample of the Strangest Life In Kentucky In 1777. In 1777, while Harrodsburg, Ky., was so beset with Indians that the inhabitants were in straits for daily bread, a young man, only sixteen years old, made himself extremely useful by venturing out of the fort before daybreak and returning with a load of game after nightfall. This intrepid youth was James Ray, afterward General Ray.

One day in the year just mentioned Ray and another young man were shooting at a mark near the fort, when the second man was suddenly shot down by the Indians. Ray looked in the direction whence the shot had come, saw the enemy and was on the point of raising his rifle when he was set upon by another band who had crept near him unseen.

He took to his heels and, being a quick runner, reached the fort amid a shower of bullets, but the gates were shut, and the men inside were so frightened that they dared not open them. Finding himself shut out, Ray threw himself flat on the ground in the rear of a stump, and here, perhaps seven steps from the fort and within sight of his mother, he lay for four hours, while the bullets of the Indians tore up the ground on either side of him.

At last he grew impatient and called out to the garrison: "For heaven's sake, dig a hole under the cabin wall and take me in!"

The men inside set to work immediately, and the brave young hunter was speedily safe inside the fort.

The Sense of Humor.

A man has a sense of humor or he has not. If he has not he cannot acquire it; if he has it by birthright he cannot lose it with the passing of years. The only change as life goes on in one who has this inborn sense is that different things appeal to it from those that excited amusement in youth, but in this it is like other mental faculties. As judgment mellow and ripens, so the power of discerning those things that excite smiles becomes more discriminating. Humor is not a physical attribute to fade as the body loses its youthful elasticity, but purely mental. Men who possess it in goodly measure have been known to smile on their death beds over the very comedy of life.—Indianapolis Star.

FOR THE THINKING FARMER.

Examine the crowns and roots of peach trees for borers. A mass of gum is an indication of the insects. They can be dug out with a knife and destroyed. A fine wire will also get them out.

When planting large, fat seeds set them in the ground edge-wise. Germination is more certain.

Two experiment stations—Kansas and Nebraska—have had satisfactory results from seeding a mixture of alfalfa and broom grass for permanent pastures. The presence of the broom grass so reduces the danger from blight that the value of alfalfa pastures becomes available.

A good seed, good culture, good crops and good farmers go together. Don't bank on luck.

New land will always raise a crop, but it takes care and labor to keep old fields productive.

The man who plows with a purpose will always beat the man who spurs without planning.

Every farmer should do all he can to make farm life attractive for his children so they will not desire to leave the farm.

Some farmers are too busy in their cornfields to stop and read the papers and miss the item telling how to double the crop. A better way is to rest and read an hour at noon. Such time is never lost.

Just a Reminder that for pimples, blackheads and other blemishes of the complexion. Glenn's Sulphur Soap is the best remedy. It clears the complexion and cures skin diseases. All druggists. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, black or brown, 50c.

WHY should you burn a hod of coal and make the whole house uncomfortable warm just to heat a flat iron? Try the ELECTRIC METHOD. "Nothing hot but the iron". Simple, safe, sure, economical, clean, always ready. Heat turns on and off like an incandescent lamp. CUSHMAN & WARD 1 Pearl Street.

Remove Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth, Patches, Rash, and Sore Throat, and every kind of skin blemish, and give your skin the soft, smooth, and healthy appearance that every woman desires to possess. It is the best of its kind, and has been used for over 20 years, and is so famous for its beauty-giving properties that it is known in every part of the world. Apply the Oriental Cream to the face, neck, and hands, and you will see the difference. As you see it, you will use it.