An effort is being made by Spaulding high school to get up a football eleven this fall, and the movement is meeting with encouragement. Yesterday afternoon there were 15 candidates for the team out for practice on the Lincoln school grounds, and the prospects for a light but fast team look good. Among the candidates are Maiden for quarterback, Tynor for fullback, Smith and Grady for halfbacks, Tomazzi, Ajime and McDonald, ends, Carroll, Ayers and Langley, tackles, Gorino, Tromp, Outlier, Spear and Jackson for guards. If the team materializes and games are scheduled, the games will be played on the Rangers field.

A divorce was granted Monday in Washington county court by Judge Hall to Emma Wood of Barre, from her husband, Carl L. Wood, whom the petitioner married at the age of 17 years. She is now 21 and has seen and heard nothing from him for the past three years. The grounds on which she sought a divorce were intolerable severity and desertion, and the petition was granted after a fifteen minutes' hearing. She was permitted to resume her maiden name, Emma George.
