

THE TEST OF MERIT

Barre People Are Given Convincing Proof.

No better test of any article can be made than the test of time, and this is particularly true of a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood this test and stood it well. What better proof of the merits of this remedy could you demand, than the statement of a Barre resident who has been cured and has stayed cured!

Read the following: Mrs. Annie Gibb, 31 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "I am just as strong in my praise of Doan's Kidney Pills today as when I publicly recommended them several years ago. They cured me at that time and I am glad to say there has been no return of my old trouble. For over a year I had more or less back ache, it being the result of disordered kidneys. If I brought any strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains seized me, and I also suffered at times from headaches and dizzy spells. When I overworked or caught cold, my suffering was always more intense. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to try them, procured a box of E. A. Doan's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, the pains in my back were relieved and I felt better in every way. I have the best reasons for speaking in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and I am perfectly willing to recommend them in this way."

PUTS AN END TO ALL STOMACH TROUBLE

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Goes and You Feel Fine Five Minutes After Taking a Little Diapiesin.

If you had some Diapiesin handy and would take a little now, your stomach distress or indigestion would vanish in five minutes and you would feel fine. This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, out-of-order stomach before you realize it.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapiesin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Diapiesin is certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disturbance.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

This is the month in which Rev. D. H. Strong takes his annual vacation.

Station agent L. O. Morgan's brother, Glenn, is doing farm work for D. J. Briggs.

George Beckett is better and is able to leave his room and go onto a piazza of his house.

A second daughter, and the third child, was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Jule Alexander of our south hill.

There has been, and is, an epidemic here of colds, or influenza, that proves anything but agreeable to the victims of it.

The principal interests of our place this week will probably center around the grange fair and things in connection with it.

Miss Myrtle Seaver is one of several ladies who are canvassing in Worcester, Mass., for some literary work. We judge she is doing finely.

The mother and a sister of Mrs. Dr. Hurley, Mrs. Hoffacker and Miss Hoffacker of Baltimore, Md., are here as guests of Mrs. Hurley.

The Misses Edson recently had a delightful call from Mrs. Martha Edson Crafts and husband of Whately, Mass., the birthplace of the late Lucius Edson.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Village Improvement society will be held next Monday evening, October 3, when officers for the coming year will be elected.

Rev. D. H. Strong and Deacon Edwin C. Smith were appointed by the Congregational church delegates to the coming meeting of the W. B. F. M. at St. Albans.

At the third annual grange fair this week, there will be served a supper of baked beans the first evening, and a hash supper the second. There are to be two entertainments, one each evening.

One of the prettiest bits of roadside view just north of this village is made up of elms, some of them rather small, over which the common woodbine has been allowed to climb in years past. Together, the elms and woodbine, with its glorious autumnal hues, make a scene of great beauty, and easily duplicated, it would seem.

It is pleasant now to tell the Methodist minister of Plainfield, who preached here for the first time last Sunday, in exchange with Rev. Mr. Roberts, that one of his hearers tells us that the great pleasure and profit she received in listening to his morning sermon. She did not hear him in the evening.

Our citizens, some of them, were given a pleasure surprise the last of last week, by the arrival here of three daughters of the late Rev. P. F. Barnard, for years the highly respected minister to our Congregational church. Those daughters were Mrs. Nellie B. Hart of Greenfield, N. H.; Mrs. Hattie Pierce (and husband) of Kansas City, Mo.; and Mrs. Julia Lyman, who ministered to her parents in Westminister, Vt., in their last feeble years. Mr. Barnard's only son, Will, a chemist, lives in Manistec, Mich. The persons that came here Friday remained till Monday morning and left for Montreal and Quebec.

We asked a friend to prepare the following notice of the late Mrs. Newell B. Farnham, who was buried last week: Mrs. Ella Braman, wife of Nowel B. Farnham, died at her home here Sunday morning, Sept. 18, aged 85 years and three months. She had been an invalid for three years, but had been confined to her bed only since last July. She had been a great sufferer, but was brave and patient through all her illness. Until prevented by sickness, she was a great helper in the Universalist society. She was a member of both the Eastern Star chapter and Woman's Relief corps, where she was greatly missed. Mrs. Farnham left a husband and one son, Herbert, of this place; an aged mother, Mrs. L. A. Braman, and two brothers, Will W. and Fred O. Braman, all of Chelsea; also two sisters, Mrs. Arthur Lefferson of South Barre and Mrs. F. S. Blossom of Bethel. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at her home, Rev. D. H. Strong officiating and C. M. Edson conducting. The burial was in our village cemetery. The many beautiful floral tributes showed how highly she was esteemed by all her friends and neighbors.

We have lately been reminded of an experience years ago in the West. In the section in which we were doing business, there was a large element of well-to-do farmers, whose religious sentiments were strongly opposed to musical instruments in the home and church, although there was a progressive element among them that regarded a feeling as superstitious and were putting it aside. We had occasion at one time to visit a settlement largely of Pennsylvania Germans, to see what could be done there in the way of organs. It was evident that if the ministers (there were two of them—farmers—who preached without salary) favored it, sales of instruments could be made there. We first called on one, who was not opposed to the use of musical instruments, though he said his parish could hardly tolerate it in him that he gave a certain young man who had an accordion, a home in his family over Sundays. But he advised us to see his co-laborer in the pulpit, and we went to his home. He was tending his sweet potato patch at the time. We asked him his opinion of organs. Presently he drew himself from the ground to the height of his hoe handle and answered: "Well, sir, I don't think an organ is an apostle institution." And we made a hasty exit from that neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Houghton were in Peacham Monday.

S. F. Miles and O. C. Kittredge are both on the sick list.

Gilbert Hill had the misfortune to sprain his wrist one day last week.

Mrs. Charles Patterson and son, Roy, of Walden visited at Herbert Houghton's Sunday.

Mrs. R. A. Halverson of Peacham and Mrs. Charles Lane of St. Johnsbury visited at Harry Young's Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hooker and Orman Hooker of St. Johnsbury visited at R. S. Barr's one day last week.
