Excursion to Boston. See adv. on page 6.
H. N. Bacon of Chelsea was a business visitor in the city yesterday.
Paul Bianchi of Woodstock is visiting friends in the city for a few days.
A. P. Brigham, who suffered a slight shock Saturday, is reported to be improving.
Miss Jennie Marr, stenographer in the office of J. W. Gordon, is taking a two weeks' vacation.
Special meeting of Over the Teacups club will be held with Mrs. W. F. Bradford Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.
The officers of Ruth chapter, O. E. S., are requested to meet in Masonic hall Wednesday evening, October 5, at 7:30 o'clock.
Mrs. S. Vasoli and children leave tonight for New York, where they will take passage for Italy to spend the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McCaskill of Seattle, Wash., who have been visiting friends in the city, left this morning for Bury, P. Q.
A meeting of Owls will be held in Foresters' hall Wednesday evening, the 5th, at 7:30 o'clock. Hoo! hoo! A. M. Smith, secretary.

The United Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold its annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members come prepared to pay dues, if possible.
The ladies' union will meet in the vestry of the Universalist church tomorrow afternoon. Will the ladies come as soon after 1 o'clock as possible and be prepared to sew, as there are more puffs to tie? Very important business is to be considered at this time, and a large attendance is desired.
The football game, scheduled to be played Wednesday between Goddard and the All-Italian team, has been postponed by the latter team claiming that their team is not in shape to play. So Goddard's first game of the season will be played Saturday on the local campus with the Norwich seconds. The game will be called at 3:45.
Will S. and Nat Page went last night to Brockton, Mass., where the former will tomorrow drive Al Dillard in the hardest race the youngster has been up against. It is the 2:19 stake for a purse of $1,000, and one of the contestants is Dill, which made a mark of 2:06 3/4 on a mile track recently. Page Bros. have received three offers already for Al Dillard, two from grand circuit men, and the speedy horse may not be brought back to Barre after the Brockton races.

Joseph Thibau was arraigned in city court yesterday afternoon on the charge of furnishing liquor to Napoleon Paquin, who made a disclosure in city court yesterday morning on a "one-eyed" man. The officers suspected Thibau and a warrant was made out for his arrest, and office George Carle apprehended him in the afternoon. Paquin was brought into court and identified Thibau as the man who bought two pints of liquor for him Sunday. Thibau, however, pleaded not guilty to the charge against him and his case was set for a hearing on Wednesday morning. The case of Joseph Rogers, charged with intoxication, which was set for a hearing this morning, was put over until Thursday.

There was a large and enthusiastic lot of people in Hiawatha lodge rooms last evening, getting ready for the big musical comedy, "A Day at the Ranch," which the lodge is to present in the opera house, October 20 and 21, and they were pleased at the prospects of the show as explained to them by Mr. and Mrs. Reubenbaugh. The committee proposes to make this the biggest success in the amateur line ever produced here, and it will have the assistance of the very best singing, dancing and comedy talent in the city. The directors say that in all their years of experience, they have never had an entertainment anywhere near equalling this in specialties, comedy or catchy music. The comedy is a special feature this year and the very funniest men in Barre are to take the parts. All talent so far selected, as well as chaperones and committee, are requested to be present this evening.

Limits of Arbitration.
The supreme court of the United States has won another victory. Its decisions will not be reviewable as such by the international prize-court. Our government has signed the convention establishing the latter tribunal with a protocol reservation asserting the immunity of our judiciary from international review. Two principles appear to have been saved, the independence of the national judiciary and the establishment of the international tribunal. The latter cannot review an unsatisfactory decision, but it may hear proceedings de novo, and may give a judgment that shall be merely an award of damages, if damages are found to have been sustained. To the lay mind this may appear to be a distinction without a very great difference, but nevertheless it prevents what some observers have thought would be a menace endangering the whole fabric of international arbitration. It keeps the jurisdiction of an international court outside the jurisdiction of one purely national. The constitution of the United States left our government no choice but to refuse to allow appeals from our federal courts, but judging from the readiness with which fourteen other nations have concurred in approving our protocol, they too have a suspicion of constitutional difficulties of their own. Apprehension of the international principle being pushed so far as to threaten the independence of their judiciary, may also have influenced their acquiescence in the position of the United States. It seems passing strange that the famous publicists at The Hague should not have foreseen the probability of constitutional objections to schemes of unquestionably benevolent intention to which they gave their assent.

The difficulty in the matter of finding jurisdiction for the prize court not in count with the rights of individual nations is a reminder that the limits of arbitration are not hard to find. Questions of "national honor" are specifically reserved from arbitration, and "policies" as well, by implication. The United States did not leave this matter to implication. It, with all the emphasis language can express, distinctly and in set terms notified the world at the first peace conference that the Monroe doctrine would never be submitted to an international tribunal for interpretation or for any action whatever.—Boston Transcript.

JUST BACK FROM NEW YORK

While in New York last week we were able to get a better idea of the garment situation as it now stands, and while we cannot depend on special orders, we are in close enough touch with some of the leading houses so we can get our regular garments on time, and with the extra good facilities we have for making alterations we can put the garment in shape if we cannot get specials made. Do not ask us much about specials unless it is for large sizes, then we will get a regular size and fit it over. Next week Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and Cleveland are to have the same trouble and have got to figure with their men the same as New York has. We have got our full line and can give you most anything.

Misses' Junior Suits

Here is a line of garments that have become very popular with the young ladies, and they make a very stylish outfit.

At $8.75 is a Serge Suit in a three-piece style and comes in sizes from 8 to 14 years. Skirt is made in plain style, with sleeveless blouse, and a good-length medium-fitted skirt.

At $10.00 is a line of Junior Suits that come in sizes from 13 to 17 years, Suits that are all right for small ladies. Suit is made of a good quality all-wool broadcloth and finished with silk and soutache braid.

At $12.50 is a line of Suits, made of a good quality serge. Coat is made in one of the new partial fitted styles; has a good plaited skirt.

At $15.00 is a line of Junior Suits, made of a good quality all-wool fancy broadcloth. Coat is made in one of the best partial fitted styles and has a guaranteed lining. Has the new hobbie effect skirt.

At $16.50 is a Suit made of the fancy broadcloth. The coat is made military style and has the new flounce effect skirt. Only $16.50.

If you want a good Fall and Winter Coat that is all right in style and quality you should see our new Gray and Tan Mixtures.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

Ladies' Tailored Suits are as popular as ever, and our line is full of the season's best models.

We are putting out for $15.00 one of the best Suit values we have ever shown, and when you consider the advance that has been made on all tailor-made goods you can readily see we cannot duplicate these values after this season.

At $18.00 are some new Serge Suits that are made by the best tailors and have all the style and finish of the better Suits.

At $25.00 we can give you a large range of different models, all made in the popular styles, but each one different than the other. These we can duplicate, but do not like to take special orders from.

At $30.00 are some very fine models, made of fine serge, chiffon broadcloth, chevots and diagonals. These are the season's best values, and we are sure the value is as good as any we ever put out.

At $35.00 are a few new models, made of serge and German broadcloth. These are only sample Suits.

Ladies' and Misses' Long Coats

Any garment house that tries to carry a good line of Coats through the season is sure to be left at the last of the season with a few good numbers to carry over into next season.

We carried from last season about sixteen ladies' and twenty misses' Coats, which we are going to put on sale Saturday at just one-half price, to close out the lot.

In the Misses' Coats are Coats that sold at from $6.50 to $12.00 each; are good styles and of a fine all-wool material. There are no two alike.

This means you can get a good Coat, size 8, 10, 12 or 14 years, at a little price.

The Coat that sold at $6.50 is now $3.25; the one that sold at $8.75 will be now $4.38; the $12.00 Coat now at $6.00. The styles are all right, only we carried them from last season.

In the Ladies' Coats, sizes from 14 to 20 years, or from 32 to 38, are Coats that sold at from $10.00 to $18.00, now to close at one-half price. If your size is here and you want a good, everyday Coat, you should look these values over before they are all sold.

Fine Residence for Sale

The subscribers offer for sale the residence of the late William S. Littlejohn. This property is pleasantly located on a large corner lot on Orange and Patterson streets. The lot has a frontage on Orange street of 141 1/2 feet and 100 feet on Patterson street. The house contains twelve rooms, finished in hard wood, heated with hot air and hot water, and fitted throughout with electric lights. There is also a large range in the kitchen. There is an exceptionally good granite cellar under the whole building, with cement floor, and contains a wash room fitted with set tub and gas heater. There is a small barn in connection with the property and the lot is large enough so that another house could be erected if desired. The house was built by the late owner for a home, all the work being done by the day under his own personal supervision, and only the best of materials were used in its construction. Anyone looking for a desirable home should make it a point to see this property.
