DEATH OF MARION LELIA NOYES.

Native of Brattleboro Was Instructor
In Philadelphia Institute for Deaf.

Brattleboro, Nov. 25.—Marion Lelia Noyes, 36, a former resident of Brattleboro, died Wednesday morning in Philadelphia, after an illness of five weeks with typhoid fever. Her death came as a great surprise to her relatives and many friends in Brattleboro, on account of the encouraging reports which had been sent concerning her condition. She was born in Brattleboro February 19, 1880, the daughter of Charles D. and Lelia Fletcher Noyes. She had taught in the Pennsylvania institute for deaf in Philadelphia, where she had developed a remarkable ability for the work and was considered the most proficient teacher in the school. Most of her summers have been spent in Brattleboro. The funeral will be held at the home of her sister, Rev. Roy M. Houghton, pastor of the Center Congregational church, will officiate, and burial will be in Prospect Hill cemetery.

MAKES $5,000 SEIZURE.

Goods Sent to Vermont by Syrians Supposed to Be Part of Boston Swindle.

Burlington, Nov. 25.—Sheriff James H. Allen made a big haul in Winooski Wednesday morning, when he seized goods valued at $5,000, alleged to be a part of a large consignment sent to Vermont by Syrians engaged in a colossal swindle in Boston.

The goods seized by the sheriff Wednesday were in a store belonging to Patrick McGreevy, which had been rented by two Syrians supposed to be the same men now in custody in St. Albans.

The goods consist of 14 large packing-cases, fitted with every conceivable kind of dry goods.

The Syrians had paid their rent in advance and said they intended to open for business Saturday. The goods came in three consignments from St. Albans, Philip Jacobs, a Boston attorney, appeared to take charge of the case and ordered the goods shipped to the receivers in Boston. He also secured information in town regarding other Syrians who are said to be connected with the deal.

BOYS TRY TO WRECK TRAIN.

Quick Justice Dealt Out to Fred Lashua, Eddie and Albert Miller.

Burlington, Nov. 25.—Quick justice was administered to Fred Lashua, 24, Eddie Miller, 21, and Albert Miller, 24 years old, who were brought here on Wednesday by railroad policeman Thompson of St. Albans from Williston, where he arrested them yesterday morning on the charge of attempting to wreck a train.

The trio pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Mower in city court and the two Millers were sentenced to serve from three to three and a half years in the house of correction at Rutland. Lashua got from two to two and a half years at the same institution.

A heap of ties, fish plates, barrels of glass insulators and cross arms were heaped on the rails near French Hill in Williston, some time between midnight and 2 o'clock Monday morning. One train crashed into the obstruction and was badly shaken, but not derailed. The crew removed the debris and proceeded, but the next train had the same experience, as the stuff had been replaced after the first unsuccessful attempt.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Willard S. Benton of Ferrisburg Files In Bankruptcy.

Rutland, Nov. 25.—Willard S. Benton of Ferrisburg has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. He has liabilities of $627 and assets of $646.50, of which $524 is exempt.

BEEN WEDDED FOUR TIMES

Declare Police of St. Johnsbury Man

IN BOSTON TO FACE CHARGE

Of Polygamy—Charles E. McLeod Was Brought Back from Colorado Springs by Boston Police Inspectors.

Boston, Nov. 25.—Arrested on a polygamy charge as he was on his way to the Pacific coast, Charles E. McLeod was brought back to Boston from Colorado Springs Wednesday by inspectors Patterson and Pierce. His bride deserted him when she learned of her husband's indictment and went to relatives in Montana.

McLeod is the son of a wealthy miller in St. Johnsbury, Vt., and was held in $1,500 in the superior court.

According to the police, McLeod has been married four times. His first wife died. The second wife, it is alleged, was a Miss Jennie Brickett of West Danville, Vt., who was married at Portland, Me., Aug. 7, 1902.

On Sept. 28, 1910, he is alleged to have married Bessie T. McKinnon in St. Joseph's church, in the West End, the bride then selling her lodging house at 42 West Cedar street and starting West with McLeod.

Information received at headquarters Wednesday led the police to assert charges will be entered concerning a marriage with another woman, whose name would not be given out, and also a charge of the larceny of $65 from another woman.

CENSUS FIGURES TOO SMALL.

Vergennes Board of Trade Takes a New Count and Registers Kick.

Vergennes, Nov. 25.—The Vergennes board of trade, feeling that the figures given by the census taken of the population of this city were incorrect, have just finished taking a census and find 1,521 inhabitants as against 1,485 reported by the official canvass, a difference of about 10 per cent. In a number of cases it was found that in the official canvass, people living in the rear part of houses, had been overlooked. This later enumeration was taken very carefully and is believed to be absolutely correct.

The enumeration, together with all the facts in the case, have been forwarded to the census director at Washington with a request that a gross error be corrected.

MILLER CASE UP AGAIN.

Motion to Set Aside Verdict in Famous Divorce Proceedings.

Rutland, Nov. 25.—A motion to set aside the verdict in the case of Mrs. Jennie E. Miller of Brandon, wife of Capt. E. N. Miller, formerly of the Vermont National Guard, vs. Miss Emma O. Pierce of Brandon, alienation of affections, was made Wednesday in Rutland county court on the ground that the damages of $5,000 awarded by jury were excessive under the evidence. Ex-Gov. E. J. Ormsbee of Brandon and ex-Gov. W. W. Stickney of Ludlow argued in behalf of the motion and T. W. Moloney of Rutland appeared for Mrs. Miller.

The case was tried here the first week in November and it attracted a lot of attention because of the prominence of the parties concerned. Judge E. L. Waterman reserved his decision.

ALL INDIGESTION GOES IN ABOUT FIVE MINUTES

Distress from Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and Other Stomach Misery Vanishes After Taking a Little Diapepsin.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Paper's Diapepsin costs only 60 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation. This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION.

State University to Get In Closer Touch With People.

Burlington, Nov. 25.—The following statement has been issued in regard to the university extension work of the university of Vermont and state agricultural college.

"University extension work is a further development of the large idea of Hon. Justin S. Morrill, expressed in the following words of the act of Congress which bears his name: 'In order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions of life.' Add to this the purpose to promote the fullest intellectual life of all citizens and we have the keynote to the university extension. 'The aim of the work is to broaden the horizon of a college education and to afford an opportunity for those who have attended college to keep in touch with academic thought along their favorite lines, or to gain some information about subjects which they have not studied in college.'

"Until very recently universities throughout the country required the people to come to them for the benefits they offered, but more and more the universities are going to the people. The university of Vermont desires to do its part, as the head of the school system of the state, in advancing the interests of its schools and in furthering the intellectual growth of its people. To that end, and in response to the widespread demand for the advantages of higher education outside of the colleges, the following general lectures are offered." Then follows an outline of courses by twenty-three professors.

THANKSGIVING IN WASHINGTON.

Pan-American Representatives Attend a Church Service.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Representatives of the Pan-American governments gathered at St. Patrick's Catholic church here in a common Thanksgiving service yesterday. President Taft, Secretary Knox, Secretary MacVeagh, Secretary Dickinson, Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary Nagel represented the United States. Mrs. Taft also accompanied the president. From the Latin-American countries, the ambassadors and ministers in Washington were present.

The mass was celebrated in the presence of Cardinal Gibbons and the apostolic delegate to the United States, Archbishop Diomedea Falconio. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Charles Warren Currier. He called upon the world to take note the service demonstrated that the nations of the western hemisphere honored God.

Jeremiah O'Brien Was One of Burlington's Oldest Residents.

Burlington, Nov. 25.—Jeremiah O'Brien died early yesterday morning of old age at his home, 133 Park street. Mr. O'Brien was 99 years of age and one of the oldest residents of Burlington. He is survived by five children, three daughters and two sons, all of Burlington.

Will Address Chicagoans.

Putland, Nov. 25.—The Rev. W. H. Spence, pastor of the Congregational church in this city, has accepted an invitation to deliver the principal address at the meeting of the New England society at Chicago on December 29, Forefather's day. The society is the largest association of New Englanders resident outside of New England and its annual meeting is a big event. It meets this year at Chicago's newest hotel, The Blackstone. The speaker is always called from New England, last year it being ex-Gov. Curtis Guild of Massachusetts.

The Difficulty.

"Life ain't nothin' but disappointment," groaned the Chronic Grumbler. "Cheer up!" urged the Cheerful Idiot. "Didn't yer get $10 for puttin' yer picture in the paper as havin' bin cured o' all yer ills by Hun's Pills?" "Yes, I did. An' now all my relatives are askin' me why I don't go to work, now th't I'm cured!"—Tit-Bits.

Never Too Late

Did you have your new suit for Thanksgiving? If you did not, you can be thankful that there is still opportunity to get it now.

Good clothes such as we sell give you something to be thankful for; its one of the blessings of life which you enjoy, that you have in this town a store like this, selling such clothes as we sell, at such prices as we ask for them. They're specially made for us and for you by and it's a matter to congratulate you on that you can conveniently step into a store like this, and be fitted to good clothes in a few minutes, that you can be sure of getting all-wool quality, the most perfect tailoring, the latest and most correct style, and a fit that you'll be satisfied with.

Good clothes are an important thing with most men; the fact that most of us wear our clothes after the first few days without giving any thought to them, is all the more reason for being particular about them when buying. You don't have to be a dandy to be particular about clothes. The more sedate and dignified a man is, the more critical he ought to be in buying clothes. You'll come to us sooner or later if you're bound to have the best.
