TALK OF THE TOWN.

For values, see Kenyon & Co.'s ad. A visit to-day at Vaughan's will pay you.
Read the anniversary sale on the last page to-day.
Procure your waist at the sale at the Vaughan store.

R. A. Hoar went to Richmond yesterday on a short business trip.
U. D. Scantakes of Burlington was a guest of Nicholas Healy recently.

Floyd Russell has returned to this city, after passing a week in Boston.
Frank W. Walker and E. A. Spaulding of Richmond were in the city yesterday on business.

Miss Wilma Reed returned yesterday to her home in New Haven, Conn., after visiting relatives here for a week.

William R. Dewey, who has been passing several months in this city, has gone to Northfield, where he has obtained employment.

Riley's orchestra furnished music for a dance in Northfield last night. The affair was held under the auspices of Nichols' dancing school.

Peter Leish of North Adams, Mass., arrived in the city last night and will spend several days at the home of Alex. Corry of Prospect street.

The Altman's will meet with Mrs. Matheson, 63 Hill street, Tuesday afternoon at the usual hour; lesson, "Salisbury and the London of Pepps and Addison."

Mrs. C. N. Field and daughter, Katherine, of New York, who have been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthen, went to Rutland yesterday for a visit at the home of her father.

A committee meeting of the Philatheta class of the First Baptist Sunday school was held last evening. The usual routine business was followed by a discussion of plans for a musicale to be given by the class some time this winter.

Dante Rossi, who has been passing several months in Quincy, Mass., where he has been employed, is visiting friends in the city for a few days. Mr. Rossi will leave shortly for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will remain during the winter.
Friday arrivals at the hotel Otis were as follows: D. L. Downey, Boston; G. L. Thomas, Burlington; F. W. Walker, Richmond; A. J. Marchetti, Northfield; C. L. Abbott, Plainfield; G. A. Crawford, East St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Averill and Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthen will leave this evening on their way to California, where they will spend the remainder of the winter, making their headquarters at San Diego, in the southern part of the state, where Dr. and Mrs. Worthen's daughter, Miss Grace, is engaged in teaching physical culture in the normal school. They will probably be away from Barre three months.

After the holiday vacation of two weeks, the public schools of the city will reopen Monday morning. There will be one change in the teaching force, Miss Marietta Paul of West Fairlee having resigned her position at the Lincoln school because of ill health. Miss Stella Brooks of this city, a recent graduate of Wellesley college, has been appointed to the place. Miss Charlotte McLean, who was ill for several weeks last term, will resume her place in the Brook street building.

Secretary Charles H. Wisheart of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association will leave this evening on a trip to the central part of the country in the interest of his organization, visiting Chicago, Des Moines, Iowa, Pittsburg, Pa., and other places. At Des Moines he will have charge of the Barre granite exhibit at the convention of the Iowa Granite and Marble Dealers' association the middle of the present month and at Pittsburg also, when the Pennsylvania association of the same sort holds its convention the latter part of the month. The exhibit is the same that was shown at the Rochester, N. Y., convention.
