

WEST TOPSHAM.

Charles Butler of Windsor is in town. W. E. Dixby was in town Sunday on business. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wilds were in Barre Saturday. Moses Hood is moving back on his farm for a while. Mrs. Olie Jeffords is visiting in Washington for two weeks. E. C. Poole was in Orange and Barre several days recently on business. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Sanborn of Barre Town were in town one day last week. Mrs. C. M. Tubbs and Lou Herbert were in Woodbury Friday and Saturday. A. T. Smith has sold his dwelling house in this village to parties in Brockton, Mass. There will be a dance in village hall Friday evening, February 17. Admission 50c per couple. Ladies please bring boxes, not to be sold. Charles Gilley died at the home of his son, Nathan Gilley, Wednesday morning. His health failed him two years ago and he sold his farm and moved down with his son. He leaves four sons and one daughter, B. F., Dan, Nathan and Raymond, all of this town, and Mrs. Edward Bacon of East Barre. The funeral was held at the house Friday, Rev. Mr. Harris officiating. The bearers were his four sons. Interment was at West Topsham in the family lot.

Life Saved at Death's Door. "I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive to-day is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years. Quick, safe, sure, it's the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, croup and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

Another Fire. No thought now of RATES. It's Quality, then quantity, that's important. You May be Next. Do your thinking NOW. Get GOOD Insurance and plenty of it. Look Over Your Inventory then call up BALLARD. Phone 102-M, Barre. Nelson B. Ballard BARRE, VT.

"Honey B" Anise. Is a Cough Cure for the Baby. It is perfectly harmless and cures the cough. "Honey B" Anise contains no morphine, opiates or alcohol. It is pleasant to take. We also have all the other kinds of Cough Remedies for children and grown people—but for the baby call for "Honey B" Anise," price 25 cents.

D. F. DAVIS "The Druggist" 262 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

Our Creamery is Headquarters FOR Fancy Creamery Butter Fresh Eggs. Vanilla Ice Cream. Lemon Sherbet. Dutch Cheese. You know the quality. L. B. Dodge 800 N. Main St., Barre, Vt. Tel. 233-3

We have in stock: One Doctor's Top Sleigh One Spring Sleigh One Cutter One Two-seated Sleigh One Grocer's Sleigh You Can Buy Them Cheap! COLTON, Vehicles and Harness. 84 State Street, Montpelier, Vt. Orange County and N. E. Telephone

Stone Cutters Try our Imported White Lenses they are the best; furnished at the same price as the ordinary green lenses, by W. H. Goodfellow & Co., 211 North Main St.

SCOTT'S EMULSION IS THE ONLY EMULSION IMITATED If there was any other Emulsion as good as SCOTT'S, SCOTT'S would not be the only one imitated. For thirty-five years it has been the standard remedy for Coughs, Colds, Loss of Flesh, Anemia, Bronchitis AND CONSUMPTION Be sure to get SCOTT'S; every bottle of it is guaranteed and backed by a world-wide reputation. ALL DRUGGISTS

PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Merrill Aiken is reported ill. Byron Goodwin is confined to the house by illness. Mrs. E. J. Colby was quite ill the first of the week. Orville Baker was in Rutland last week on business. Homer Young has moved his family to Montpelier. Mrs. Guernsey of Montpelier recently visited Miss Gove. Mrs. Hans Fredericksen was in Barre one day last week. Cyprano Shoy is at work in Arthur Giffeth's barber shop. Mrs. Flora Whipple spent Friday with friends in East Montpelier. Mrs. Edson Hill of Barre is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hill. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Mansfield Monday, February 6. Mrs. Nellie Thurlow of Maine is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. P. Gale. Miss Emma Packer of Marshfield was in town Thursday, calling on friends. See "The American Girl" at the opera house Friday and Saturday evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Battles spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Mattles. Rev. Alvin M. Smith of Brownfield, Me., was in town Friday and Saturday. Miss Iona Pitts went to her home in Bradford Saturday for the spring vacation. V. S. Quimby of White River Junction was a business visitor in town Friday. Miss Jennie Fredrickson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dudley of Montpelier. Mrs. Harry Dudley of Montpelier spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Hans Fredrickson. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Knapp and child of Cabot recently visited Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Knapp. Carl Foss of Medford, Mass., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Foss. William Kinney of Plainfield, N. J., spent Monday and Tuesday with his father, Henry Kinney. Miss Nora Batchelder was in Barre Saturday to attend the funeral of her grandfather, Orvis Batchelder. Mrs. Elsie Cutting Wood of St. Johnsbury is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cutting. At the Congregational church Sunday morning, Rev. Perrin B. Fisk gave a very interesting address on Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. E. E. Cree returned from North Ryegate Saturday, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wright. Malcolm McLeod has moved his family into the tenement in the Fred Perry house, recently vacated by Mrs. Young. Mrs. Clarence Reames of Montpelier and Miss Josie Kent of Barre were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Martin Saturday. Mrs. Merton Whitcomb recently returned from Hardwick, where she has been spending a few weeks in the home of Clayton Whitcomb. The pupils of the high school gave a promenade Saturday evening at Bartlett's hall. A good number were present and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Miss Ethel Colby, teacher in the intermediate room of the village school, entertained about twenty of her pupils at her home Friday night. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. A lunch of apples and pop corn was served.

GRANITEVILLE. There will be a meeting of Graniteville socialists Friday night, Feb. 17, in Tuomas' hall. All voters are invited to attend. The woman's guild, Episcopal church, will meet with Mrs. McLean on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are invited to attend the meeting. At a meeting of the quarry workers Wednesday night, Feb. 8, the union endorsed the mer that were endorsed at the socialist meeting, which was held Monday evening, Feb. 6, to be candidates at the caucus of the town of Barre, which will be held in East Barre Saturday evening, Feb. 18. It is hoped that the workmen of the town will go to the caucus Saturday night and give their earnest support to their fellow workmen.

MONTPELIER.

Engagement Announced of Miss Clara Demeritt and Claude C. Fisher. At a dinner given last evening by Mrs. H. Edward Slayton, the announcement was made of the engagement of her sister, Miss Clara A. Demeritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Demeritt of East Montpelier, to Claude C. Fisher. Twelve girl friends of Miss Demeritt were present. The decorations were very tasteful and in keeping with the Valentine season, and the announcement of the engagement very unique. It was written upon the backs of small red hearts arranged about the chandelier, to which were attached red and white ribbons fastened to white arrows which lay by the plate of each guest. As the arrows were picked up, the hearts fell. Miss Demeritt is very popular among the young people and Mr. Fisher is well known through his position in the MeCuen store, where he has been for the last ten years, when he came here from Vergennes. He is now manager of the suit department. The new commissioner of weights and measures is to have an office soon in the State House and it has been decided to partition off part of the cloak room for that purpose. Fred V. Tuller of Tushnet, commander of the Vermont division, Sons of Veterans, is in the city to organize a local camp. There are a number of men eligible for the purpose. Even St. Valentine's day made the clerks at the post office step more lively, and many were the post cards that passed in and out of the office. Monday evening, mostly between the hours of 7 and 8, 1,400 one-cent stamps were sold and most of them went out to Valentine post cards. Timothy Cook Davis, a native of East Montpelier, died Friday at his home in Hudson, Mass., after a short illness. He was born July 4, 1855, and when a young man went to Boston. For several years he was a salesman for a grocery concern and later purchased a grocery business in Hudson, which he conducted up to the time of his death. He was a father, and a member of the I. O. O. F. and K. of P. He is survived by a wife, and three brothers, of whom George R. and Walter E. reside in East Montpelier.

WATERBURY.

Miss Ruth Parker of this place has secured the scholarship offered by the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs at the Castleton normal school. Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Eaton and S. W. Livingston attended the birthday party of Herbert Smith in Waitsfield last week. Through the Franklin Institute of Rochester, N. Y., Millard Stranahan, jr., is studying for examinations in civil service for the railway postal service. Officers elected at the C. E. meeting Sunday evening for the next six months are as follows: President, Arthur Miller; vice president, Miss Welthy Becker; secretary, Miss Etta Graves; treasurer, Miss Marjorie Duffas. An orchestra has been started with the following personnel: Conductor, E. T. Houston; pianist, Mrs. J. F. Somerville; violin, E. F. Houston, Harold Atkins and Dr. Wasson; violoncello, W. E. Cooley, D. S. Fallerton; cornets, F. C. Lamb, W. B. Clark; clarinet, Dr. E. A. Stanley; cello, A. D. Lyon.

MORETOWN.

M. H. McAllister was in Montpelier on business Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Keyes were in East Moretown Wednesday. Miss Ethel Child and Miss Viva Atkins were in Waitsfield Thursday. Mrs. Mary Lee and Miss Sadie Lee were in Waterbury Wednesday. Mrs. G. F. Crawford is spending the week with friends in Burlington. F. C. Atkins has gone to Groveton, N. H., where he has employment. Miss Irene Child and Arthur Barnard were in Waterbury Center Sunday. Miss Ruth Bruce was home from Montpelier seminary over Sunday. Miss Nora Griffin was the guest of friends in South Fayston over Sunday. Rev. G. F. Crawford went to Richford Monday to attend the preachers' meeting. Miss Millie Waite of Waterbury was a guest of Miss Rissia Darling several days recently. Carroll Pierce and lady of Montpelier were guests of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Pierce, over Sunday. Miss Ada Johnson and Charibel Morse visited Mrs. Ida Kelly in Duxbury several days last week. Mrs. L. J. Russell visited relatives in Waitsfield several days last week, returning home Saturday. Miss Lucy Hurdle spent the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Florence Carpenter, in Putnamsville. Karl Sawyer of Barre visited his grandmother, Mrs. R. Sawyer, Monday and Tuesday last week. Several from here attended the birthday party of Herbert Smith at the I. O. O. F. hall at Waitsfield Friday evening. O. A. Howes and son, Fred, were in Montpelier on business Thursday, as were also T. J. Ferris and Mrs. Addie Sawyer. Between sixty and seventy attended the promenade at the town hall Friday evening. Music was furnished by Stanley and Raymond Buzzell. The school on the common closed Friday, February 10. There were no tardy marks during the term. Albert Wade had no marks. Those absent one day only were Perley and Chester Wade, Annie Sullivan, Catherine, Ethel, Marion and Andrew Farnham. Among those from here who attended the "gentlemen's night" at the M. E. church at Waitsfield Tuesday evening were Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Crawford, C. H. Ward, G. G. Sleeper, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Ward and Miss Edie Eekes. All reported a very enjoyable evening. The entertainment given Monday evening by the Onegoalio Snowshoe club was a grand success, and much credit is due those having it in charge. The snowshoe drill by fourteen ladies was one of the principal features of the evening. The entertainment was followed by a food sale. The club realized between $14 and $15. The ladies' aid has extensive plans under way for a Washington entertainment and social to be held at town hall on Wednesday, February 22. As many as can are requested to come dressed according to the fashion of 1775, and everyone is invited to come prepared to have a good time. Music, readings and a supper will each have an important place on the program. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

PHYSICIAN ENTIRELY CURED OF ECZEMA

By the Use of Cuticura Remedies. Proscribes Them and Says They have Cured when Other Formulas Failed. They Always Bring Results.

"My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and must say I find your Remedies A No. 1. I still find the Cuticura Remedies as good as ever. They always bring results. G. M. Fisher, M.D., Big Pool, Md., Dec. 4, 1909."

DOCTOR RECOMMENDED THE CUTICURA REMEDIES.

"When I was ten or twelve years old I had a scalp disease, something like scald-head, though it wasn't that. I suffered for several months and most of my hair came out. Finally they had a doctor to see me and he recommended the Cuticura Remedies. They cured me in a few weeks. I have used the Cuticura Remedies, also, for a breaking out on my hands and was benefited a great deal. I haven't had any more trouble with the scalp disease. Miss Jennie F. Buchanan, R. F. D. 3, Hamilton, Ga., Jan. 7, 1909."

CUTICURA SOAP (25c), CUTICURA OINTMENT (50c), CUTICURA RESOLVENT (50c) and CUTICURA PILLS (25c) are sold throughout the world. Putter Drug & Chem. Corp. Sole Mfrs., 135 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. 2¢ Mail free. 25¢ each Cuticura Box on Treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The speaking was fine. Alden Owen of Montpelier seminary, one of our former high school students, gave a recitation in his usual excellent way, for which he was loudly applauded. Little Miss Olive Smith also recited a long selection of poetry in a pleasing manner. Rev. D. L. Hilliard gave a fascinating, enthusiastic address on the temperance question, which was followed by Mr. Butterfield of North Montpelier. The duet and solo were well rendered and highly appreciated. A shade of sadness was mingled with the pleasure of this occasion, as each one saw their charter draped in black, in honor of one of their brother members, Clyde Hill, who died Thursday night. Prin. Gilmore read a resolution of sympathy from the lodge. The exercises closed with the singing of America.

CABOT.

Death of William Keniston, Civil War Veteran. William Keniston died very suddenly last week Tuesday. He had not been well for some time but went out to the mailbox and got his paper, lay down on the bed to read the news and fell asleep never to waken. Some of the family going to his room a short time after he lay down found him dead. He was an aged man and a well-to-do farmer, honest in his dealings with people and a veteran of the Civil war. He leaves a wife and several children, all grown up. Funeral services were held at his home Thursday, Rev. F. E. Currier officiating. He was laid to rest in the village cemetery. Miss Margaret Cunningham is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Emery Clark of Barre were guests of L. Myers over Sunday. Miss Ethel Woodard has been stopping with friends in Waterbury the past week. George Wallbridge visited his aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Farr, in Hardwick last week. Mrs. S. Davis and daughter, Pauline, were guests of friends in Corinth over Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Crowley of Hardwick spent a few days recently with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Nelson. Mrs. Orvis Fitts is slowly failing. She has been confined to her bed for several months with a broken hip. Mrs. Frank Marsh and Mrs. Lamb of Calais were in town Thursday last, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lyndon McAllister. Mrs. G. F. Harvey is seriously ill, threatened with pneumonia. A telegram was sent immediately to Mr. Harvey in Philadelphia. Miss Maidene Walbridge and Alden Owen have the congratulations of their many friends for their success in the prize speaking contest at Montpelier seminary. The services that were to be held at the M. E. church last Sunday in memory of Abraham Lincoln, were postponed until next Sunday, in consequence of so many attending the funeral of Clyde Hill at East Cabot. Aubrey Nelson is confined at home by illness. He is recovering from a broken collar bone, caused by a tub of butter falling on him when he was loading up to go to the depot. He now has a lung trouble in addition. A Washington and Lincoln social will be held at G. A. R. hall next Friday evening, Feb. 17. There will be a short literary program. Everybody cordially invited. Refreshments of doughnuts and sugar will be served at 10c per plate. The Good Templars' union held here last Saturday was very interesting, the programme being carried out afternoon and evening. On account of so much sickness everywhere, there was not as large an attendance from neighboring lodges as usual, yet several were well represented. The evening exercises were open to the public and several availed themselves of the opportunity to hear something good. The