ALL INDIGESTION GOES
IN ABOUT FIVE MINUTES

Distress from Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia and Other Stomach Misery Vanishes After Taking a Little Diapiesin.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you have gas and eructate sour, indigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full course of Diapiesin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach and leave sufficient about the house in case someone in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent capsules, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomach or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless, and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite, but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranks about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

Washington, D. C., March 11.—At the rate the mobilization of troops in the department of Texas is proceeding, according to estimates of the general staff, all the soldiers from other departments ordered to Texas, should be at their destinations to-morrow or Monday at the latest. While the entire force under Major General Carter will number almost 20,000 men, it is said that the full strength will be only 10,000 men.
 This excludes the coast artillery troops and many other detached commands, which are still in Texas, but not technically a part of the division ordered to be mobilized.

BOOM NORWICH UNIVERSITY.
 Boston Alumni Meet at Hotel Westminster and Listen to Reports.

Boston, March 13.—Boston alumni of Norwich university, in Vermont, to the number of about 40, who gathered at hotel Westminister Saturday evening for their annual meeting and banquet, heard some pleasant things, said about their school, its alumni and its students.

President Charles H. Spooner, Col. Josiah H. Benton, a trustee of the school, and Capt. Frank Tompkins, U. S. A., military instructor, were the speakers.

President Spooner praised the character of the graduates and said that the showing which you are making in your professional and business life Norwich is becoming recognized and appreciated.

Col. Benton spoke of the vicissitudes through which the university has passed, how it had been moved from place to place, and how its attendance had dropped as low as 14. Then he praised the military drill performed by the students, saying:

"I certainly do not believe that anywhere, even at West Point, a battalion drill is conducted with more accuracy or vigor or precision than by these same Norwich university students."

He urged the students to come to Boston, promising a pleasant reception for them on their visit, and added: "And I believe that after our troops are seen you will feel that you are making it do better than they do now."

Capt. Frank Tompkins, U. S. A., commandant of cadets, said: "In my opinion, Norwich university, outside of West Point and Annapolis, is the best military college in the United States. In the six months I have been at Norwich, I have found that I have been serving with soldiers. The spirit is very much like that at an army post."

The military instructor told of what is being done at the school in breeding Morgan horses for use as cavalry mounts and of his hopes of having the United States war department establish a station for raising and training cavalry horses. If that is done, he expects that the government will establish a riding school there for the use of the student.

The other speakers included Capt. H.
 C. Keene, U. S. A., retired, Charles H.
 Bradley and Nelson H. Sheldon, the boardmaster, who was Saturday evening re-elected president of the association.

E. W. Gaynor was elected secretary, treasurer and C. H. Cheney, F. H. Clark and J. A. Holmes members of the executive committee.

 sion of justice court held Saturday, El-

About the State

A Bellows Falls girl, Miss Florence Linton, joined the "Red Mill" company at Rochester, Mass., to-day, having signed a ten weeks' contract.

J. W. Rivers, of the firm of Smith & Rivers in Morrisville, has a narrow escape at their factory recently and has since been confined to the house by injuries, which included several fractured ribs. He was under the mill, when his overcoat caught in a set screw and he was drawn partly over a pulley shaft.

A meeting of the Vermont state board of pharmacy will be held at the State House, Montpelier, on Tuesday, April 11, for the examination of candidates to transact any other business which may be brought before it. Examinations will begin at 10 a. m. Applications for examinations should be made to the secretary, D. F. Davis, Barre.

W. W. Warren brought into Jamaica recently the largest fox trap that has been seen about there in a long time.
 It measured three feet in length, 20 inches in height, and weighed 27 pounds.
 Mr. Warren found it caught with each fore paw in a trap that he had set at a place where it was thought bobcats had killed a deer several days before.

Archie Beebe, a passenger brakeman on the Boston & Maine railroad, was injured in Bellows Falls last week by being caught between a car and a high platform. He was taken to the Brattle-borough Memorial hospital, where, in spite of the quarantine, it was deemed best to admit him. Two ribs were broken and he was injured about his head and internally.

Fighting unconsciousness and injury near Brattleboro street railroad track has resulted in a year's jail sentence for Harry DeVries on conviction of larceny. DeVries is the man who fell backward while apparently attempting to board a street car and was carried to the Memorial hospital. He was identified in the hospital by Mrs. Isabella B. Shepard of North Adams as the one who engaged a room of her and disappeared just before she missed $125.
 He was arrested and taken to North Adams. When arraigned in court, De-Vries admitted that he received $75 in Gardner and $20 in Greenfield for alleged injuries received on the street railroad, and the officers believe he intended to claim that he was hurt in Brattleboro and to present a bill to the street railroad company for injuries.

Highest Ski Climbing on Mt. Washington.

Saved from death by a small bush on the steep sides of Mt. Washington, the experience of Fred H. Harris of Brattle-borough, captain of the Dartmouth college outdoor club, who returned to Hanover after a ski and snowshoe trip up the mountain with several members of the club. Harris on ski had gone ahead and reached a point within a mile of the summit. Then, with his fingers and toes partly frozen and so thirsty he had to eat snow, he began the downward trip.
 He had gone only a short distance when he slipped and fell. Gaining momentum every second, he was speeding to the edge of a rock precipice, which meant instant death, when he sighted the small bush near the brink and was able to turn his course sufficiently to get into line with the obstruction. Grasping this in his whirlwind flight, he checked himself just in time to escape being hurled on the rocks below. Harris' mark is the highest one in ski climbing ever made at Mt. Washington, and he believes he could have made the summit except for freezing his fingers and toes. The others of the party, who started on snowshoes, were unable to go within two miles of Harris' distance.

FRED A. ALLISON DEAD.
 St. Johnsbury Man Succumbs After a Week's Illness.

St. Johnsbury, March 13.—Fred A.
 Allison of the firm of Allison & Roy died Saturday following a week's illness of erysipelas. The brain was finally affected and he passed away at six o'clock.

All of his life, with the exception of about a year, has been spent in St.
 Johnsbury, where he was born Sept.
 6, 1866, to William Freeman and Sarah Allison. Before he was 21 years old he he went into the restaurant business, in which he was very successful, and during the years he followed that business he formed a very wide acquaintance. About two years ago he sold his restaurant and went for a year to Rockville, Conn., but last September he returned to St. Johnsbury and in December in company with Ayr Roy opened a second-hand furniture store in Pythian building.

On June 20, 1888, he married Miss Helen Davis of St. Johnsbury, who survives him with two sons, Arthur and Robert. He was a member of the Green Mountain lodge, N. E. O. P. The funeral was held at the house this afternoon and Rev. Peter Black of Grace Methodist church will officiate.

UPLIFT WORK PROMISED.
 Frank Dyer of Chicago to Open Meetings at Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, March 13.—This town is promised a unique feature in the way of uplift by Frank Dyer of Chicago, national secretary of the Congregational brotherhood. Mr. Dyer has offered to come to Brattleboro and carry out the work which he has evolved.

It is his plan to inaugurate a "Better Brattleboro" campaign, and a committee of 150 composed of many subscribers will inaugurate the campaign, which is to be in the form of a series of meetings extending throughout a week. The meetings will be held in the auditorium.

The proposition of a monster popular priced banquet has been discussed, but there are not large enough quarters available. It is the plan of the managers of the campaign to make it of the strenuous kind and there will be meetings held daily from April 2 to 9.
 The auditorium has been hired for those dates.

Mr. Dyer, who was recently a guest of the Congregational brotherhood of Brattleboro, and who was the guest of honor at a banquet tendered the brotherhood by George W. Dunham, is a speaker with a magnetic personality.

NEW KIND OF TRADE UNION.
 Women Ushers in Paris Who Have Formed a Pirate Band.

They have a new trade union in Paris composed of the ouvreuses, or openers of boxes in the theatres and ushers to seats. The ouvreuse is generally verging on the fifties, very plain, dressed in a dowdy black gown, her badge of office being a faded red or blue ribbon stuck in her hair, generally over the left ear. These women tell you in what row the stalls your seat is and are supposed to add to your comfort in every possible way.

"These, I say, are supposed to be their functions," writes a Paris correspondent, "but they seem to have an altogether different conception of their duties. Nine times out of ten the ouvreuse makes a mistake, and conducts you to the wrong seat, whence after a while you are ousted by the rightful owner. You have only just recovered from the peregrination when all of a sudden something hard is knocked against one of your ankles.

"You cast down a frightened glance and perceive an ouvreuse who has brought you a petit banc, a footstool, a medieval instrument of torture. You kick it away with an indignant exclamations, but no matter, your tormentor will not let you go until you have paid her a friendly visit, and holding out her hand will remain in that posture until you have rewarded her for the great services she thinks she has rendered you."

"You assume a severe air and you shake your head as a proof that you do not desire to hold further communication with her. It is useless to attempt it, for that hand will remain with the red index of your nose until you have satisfied her demands. There is no way out of it, and you have not even the comfort of knowing that you have now done with the ouvreuse.

"You will find her again in the cloakroom, when she will help you on with a jacket belonging to someone else, and having mislaid your hat, at last after a long search will discover it behind a cupboard where it was accidentally dropped. She will help you off the door, knock the hat a bit straight, hand it to you with a smile and once more hold out her hand for a reward."

"You may well imagine that under these conditions box keepers are not very popular among Parisians, who begin to find out that an evening at a theatre is becoming a rather expensive entertainment. Having, so to say, the playground public against them, the box keepers have come to the conclusion that they can only look to each other for support and have now formed a corporation, a union, with a medical man and a lawyer attached to assist those members in need of medical or legal aid.
