"The New Stenographer." Lifelike comedies and farces are always in great demand among the patrons of the picture shows, and no producing company has a finer reputation for this sort of picture than the Vitagraph Company of America. To see the trade-mark of this company on a film is almost equivalent to a guarantee of superiority in advance. The latest Vitagraph farce is "The New Stenographer," which will be exhibited at the Dreamland to-day and to-morrow. The stenographer was no prize beauty, but in the long run she proved more acceptable to her employers than the giddy but pretty girls who upset the whole office force. The film story has a human side to it that is far above the ordinary humorous motion picture.

"Thou shalt not steal." This commandment is the inspiration out of which "The Thief" was born. For two solid seasons, "The Thief" crowded the Lyceum theatre, New York, to the doors at every performance. Every person in every city in the country should see this great, absorbing play of love and jealousy. At the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, May 9.

When a Man Buys Clothes

He goes to the store in which he has the greatest confidence. He does not judge stores by what they claim to do, but what they do do.

He goes to the store that he has learned always gives all or more than they promise.

While some stores are always claiming to give unheard of values, it is quite often the case that some other store, not claiming so much, is really giving the better values.

While we are firm believers in advertising, we know that most men will judge us mostly by what we do and not by what we say, hence we depend upon real genuine value giving to get us our customers and to keep them.

We want you.

Wunderhose School Days Bring Many Problems

You owe it to your children to see that they are well dressed and comfortable. How can it be done on the least money? Stockings have been the greatest trouble. You know the kind that look well until the first recess. If your boy is the right kind of boy, he plays so fast he forgets all about his stockings. To grow he must play that way. Give him the kind of stockings that take care of themselves—

Wunderhose

Leap-frog, hop-scotch, foot ball, and many other games need have no terrors for the mother who has bought her son Wunderhose. Let him scuffle, slide, jump all over the play ground—no strain, no holes, no ravel. These wonderful stockings are made from Wunderhose yarn, dyed with Wunderhose. Wunderhose yarn is spun from the largest and toughest cotton fibre known. They are twisted and combed until they have the strength of rope, with the "feel" of silk. Only double threads of Wunderhose—no single ones whatever—are used in Wunderhose. The heels, toes and knees are reinforced, and remember the strength of re-inforcing yarn does not depend on the thickness. That is one of the reasons why the heels and toes of Wunderhose are so soft and pliable and yet so strong. In Wunderhose families the mother helps her children with their books when other mothers are slaving with the darned needles.

Solves the School-Day wear problem

These wonderful wearing "Wunderhose" are sold in Barre by
