The feature act at the Pavilion for the last three days of this week is Don. Who is Don? Why, he is one of the cutest and most gentle little Shetland ponies you ever saw. In color he is white and dark brown, and has two of the most mischievous dark brown eyes you ever saw. His admirers call him the "cicest pony on earth." From the tip of his velvety nose to the nails in his shoes, he is an aristocrat. He has excellent press notices to his credit for nearly every city in the country. That he loves his master there is no doubt, because he kisses him at every performance. That the audience will love him there is also no doubt, as his gentle ways have won him thousands of admirers in every city that he has visited.

Bananas! Bananas! The season is now commencing for fine bananas. This year we are better equipped than ever to give our customers the lowest possible price on bananas. We have just unloaded a car of the famous Cuban cream bananas as we were fortunate in securing the agency for these bananas, and by buying in carload lots direct from the steamers we are able to sell them at very low prices. Come and see them at Diversis's Fruit store, corner of North Main and Merchant streets. We are the sole agents in Barre.

Robert Smith, the Tufts college pitcher and formerly of Goddard, visited friends in the city yesterday, going to Burlington this morning, where he expects to do the twirling for Tufts today against the university of Vermont. Bob was with the team on its trip to Dartmouth, Middlebury and U. V. M. and was taken sick at White River Junction Tuesday. The manager advised him to go back to Tufts, but he decided to try and stick it out so as to be able to go against Vermont to-day. He stated this morning that he was feeling better and thought he would be able to pitch.
