Packers' Attack on Act is Defeated.

MEN MUST STAND TRIAL

Important Decision by Federal Court—Likely to Affect All the Trust Litigation in the Country.

Chicago, May 13.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the "beef trust" case were overruled yesterday by Judge Carpenter in the United States district court.

Chicago, May 13.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the "beef trust" case were overruled yesterday by Judge Carpenter in the United States district court.

The statute has been the subject of discussion for twenty years. The supreme court of the United States many times has sustained decrees which restrained violations of it.

The court says: "I am of the opinion that the facts stated in the indictments show clearly a plan or scheme organized and put in operation by the defendants, the ultimate purpose of which was to control the production, sale and distribution of fresh meat throughout a large section of this country; and, as incidental to that control, to lower prices to the consumer of the finished product."

Judge Carpenter, overruling the demurrers, said he did not think the trial could be held before fall. May 17, the packers will appear and plead to the charges or file a petition for a bill of particulars.

BUYING MORE MARBLE.

Vermont Marble Company Said to Have Acquired It.

Rutland, May 13.—That the Vermont Marble company has secured control of the Rutland Florence Marble company's plant, having principal offices at Fowler, either by lease or by purchase seems to be a fact, although the matter could not be verified by the heads of either concern.

The Rutland-Florence Marble company has at its main plant one of the largest marble finishing mills in the world. Its quarries are located principally in Fowler and in Whipple Hollow, a few miles north of West Rutland village, where it controls the True Blue Marble company plant.

KILBANE OUTPOINTED.

McFarland Has Best of His Opponent at End of 10 Rounds.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 13.—Packer McFarland of Chicago outpointed and out-fought Tommy Kilbane of Cleveland in a 10-round bout before the Buffalo Athletic association here last night.

Kilbane proved to be a good two-fist boxer, capable of taking a lot of punishment, but his swings always found McFarland either inside or out of reach, the latter dancing in and out with rights and lefts to face in a way that bewildered the Cleveland boy.

McFarland set a warm pace in the first round, continually edging Kilbane to the ropes. There was much vicious fighting in the first and second rounds in which the Cleveland man held his own.

In the third and fourth rounds, McFarland kept forcing his man around the ring, but Kilbane fought back gamely, occasionally landing a good left punch on McFarland's face. It was in the latter part of the fourth round that Packey began to display some of his real speed.

At the opening of the fifth round, Kilbane began to show signs of distress and McFarland twice sent him through the ropes. Packey hooked repeatedly with right and left to face and tried with straight lefts for a knockout.

Kilbane was still fighting hard in the three succeeding rounds but McFarland blocked his leads and continually put across right and lefts to the face without a return.

At the opening of the seventh, Kilbane began to show signs of distress and McFarland twice sent him through the ropes. Packey hooked repeatedly with right and left to face and tried with straight lefts for a knockout.

STIMSON NEW WAR SECRETARY

Dickinson Has Resigned His Position.

PRIVATE AFFAIRS CAUSE

Secretary in Letter Says Their Pressure Demands His Retirement—Successor Was Republican Candidate in New York.

Washington, May 13.—Secretary of War Jacob McGavock Dickinson of Tennessee, the Democratic member of President Taft's cabinet, has resigned.

Henry Stimson of New York, defeated Republican candidate for governor of that state last fall has been given the war portfolio. This announcement was made at the White House last night and occasioned great surprise.

In the letters exchanged between the president and Mr. Dickinson no reason other than that of pressing private affairs is given for the secretary's retirement.

The president will confer with Mr. Stimson in New York to-day, but the new secretary of war will not be sworn in until the return of the president to the capital on Monday.

Mr. Dickinson will go to his Tennessee home immediately upon the appointment of his successor. He expects to devote his attention to business and will not return to the practice of law which he was engaged in when President Taft appointed him secretary of war in March, 1909.

He was the second member of Mr. Taft's cabinet to retire to private life. Secretary of the Interior Ballinger resigned only a few months ago.

Coincident with the announcement of Mr. Dickinson's retirement came that of the appointment of C. S. Millington of Herkimer, N. Y., to be assistant secretary of the United States in New York.

Mr. Stimson was the Roosevelt candidate for governor while Mr. Millington was a former member of the House from the 27th New York district, and is a close friend of Vice President Sherman and other leaders of the old guard in the state, having succeeded Mr. Sherman in the House when the latter became vice president.

In the two appointments official Washington found food for speculation and many politicians thought they saw the first steps of the administration to straighten out the tangled skein of New York politics.

The president not only has the highest personal regard for Mr. Stimson but he is also well aware that the appointment will be acceptable to a large faction of the Republican party in New York.

Mr. Dickinson is a Democrat. His presence in the cabinet of a Republican president has not been looked upon with favor by some of Mr. Taft's political advisers and naturally Mr. Dickinson also found in the discussion of the cabinet of party measures some personal embarrassment.

Woonsocket, R. I., May 13.—Simultaneously with the announcement yesterday that the Woonsocket Institution for savings had absorbed the People's Savings bank of Woonsocket, the statement was made by the authority of Bank Commissioner William P. Goodwin and the trustees of the People's bank that Hermann Besette, teller of the People's bank for the past ten years, had admitted that he was responsible for a net shortage of approximately $25,000.

Yesterday the People's bank suspended the payment of money to depositors. It is expected that in about ten days when the terms of the merger become effective depositors of the People's bank who desire their money will be paid by the Woonsocket Institution for savings.

Besette, whose service at the People's bank covers a period of 21 years, had received a salary of $1,500 a year as teller. He lives with his wife and 10 children at Slatersville, a suburb. He admitted, according to Bank Commissioner Goodwin that his discrepancies were caused by unfortunate investments. The trustees of the bank said that partial restitution had been made by Besette and his friends. No action has been taken against him criminally.

TO BROIL SENATE. House Members Plan to Force Action on Legislation.

Washington, May 13.—An exodus from Washington of members of the House began yesterday and will continue throughout the week. It is doubtful if the House can muster a quorum at the end of the week. The plan is to broil the Senate into action on pending legislation.

Political Washington is interested in the new scheme. The Senate is jealous of its rights and prerogatives and may show its resentment of the announced effort to discipline it. The Senate leaders are more hopeful of day of an early adjournment. July 15 is the date now generally fixed, and it is said that the adjournment will be until December.

LINING UP FOR THE BIG TRIAL

Plans of the Los Angeles Defense and the Prosecution

FORMER TO TRY ALIBIS

Latter Has Other Evidence Than McManigal's—Will Have to Show That Dynamite Caused the Explosion.

Los Angeles, May 13.—In arguments on minor legal technicalities before Judge Bordenfett the lines of battle planned by the defense and prosecution in the dynamite cases were revealed.

Testimony of victims and of expert witnesses to establish that the Los Angeles Times building was destroyed by an explosion of dynamite. Testimony of relatives to establish the number of victims.

Corroborating evidence and the confession of Ortie McManigal. This will be followed by the identification by seven witness who will swear that they knew J. B. McNamara as J. B. Bryce here and in San Francisco during September and October of last year.

An endeavor will be made to trace the prisoner almost to the building at First street and Broadway, where the October 1 explosion occurred. The case against J. McNamara will be centered upon correspondence furnished by McManigal, the books found at McNamara's office and the clocks and wire found in Indianapolis.

The defense will attack the allegation that the building was destroyed by dynamite, will assert that the explosion was caused by gas and will call experts. In attacking the McManigal confession, the defense will call witnesses to establish an alibi for J. B. McNamara and J. J. McNamara. In every instance where the two brothers are identified by McManigal at a certain time and place, the defense is expected to call witnesses to show that the men were in other localities.

Experts on handwriting will be called to prove that letters alleged by McManigal to have been written by J. J. McNamara were not written by him, but were written by some person who attempted to simulate the writing of the union leader. A handwriting expert gave it as his opinion that McManigal registered at the hotel Rosslyn under the name of T. F. McKee, Dec. 19 last year.

McManigal has admitted that he registered at the hotel Rosslyn under the name of McKee. It required a minute and expert comparison between the hotel register signature and McManigal's known handwriting to determine from an independent source that McManigal spoke the truth. Under the law a confession is not admissible as evidence unless corroborating facts can be established.

Hankins went to Gary about a year and a half ago from Leavenworth, Kan., where he had been "buried" for several years after the loss of the last vestige of his once immense fortune.

DISPATCHES TO DUN. They Indicate Slightly Larger Volume of Retail Trade.

New York, May 13.—Despatches to Dun's Review indicate that retail trade expands under the stimulus of more seasonable weather, reports from some sections being notably better. Favorable weather has materially benefited retail distribution of spring and summer merchandise at Boston and some improvement also is noted in jobbing lines.

LET ARMS INTO JUAREZ. Cabinet Instructs to Permit All Shipments to Go Through.

Washington, May 13.—After the cabinet meeting yesterday, Colonel Steever, at El Paso, was instructed by the secretary of war to permit all regular shipments passing through the customs house to enter Juarez. This means that the military will not interfere with any supplies cleared by the customs house, whether they be arms, ammunition or food.

"A LION OF ACCUSATION."

That's What Abbatemaggio, the Camorra Informer, Thinks He Is.

Viterbo, Italy, May 13.—The great crowd that pressed into the court of the Assizes yesterday morning in anticipation of a violent scene between Gennaro Abbatemaggio, the informer, and Enrico Alfano, whom the former has denounced as the guiding spirit in the Camorra, was disappointed.

Alfano denied every charge. He said that Abbatemaggio had blackmailed Giovanni Rapi, the alleged treasurer of the Camorra, and had denounced him to the authorities only when Rapi had been gone four days from Italy and so could no longer be the victim of extortion.

Alfano said: "The truth is that you are the real murderer. We are your victims, but we will reply as lions." To this Abbatemaggio responded grandiosely: "I will be the lion of accusation." At this point adjournment was taken for luncheon.

HIDE AND SEEK.

House and Senate Seem to be Playing That Game.

Washington, May 13.—The Senate and House apparently are engaged in a game of hide and seek. The Senate was in session Thursday and the House was not. The House was in session yesterday and the Senate was not.

To-day neither are in session. The Senate will meet again on Monday, but the House will not. The House will meet Tuesday, but the Senate will not.

In the House yesterday the most important business promised was a report from the committee on territories recommending statehood for Arizona and New Mexico, after the people of each territory shall have voted on proposed amendments.
