Porch Furniture!

June's warm and inviting days with the lingering twilight suggests the probable need of one or more pieces of porch furniture. Our stock of Summer Furniture recently received shows many new designs in tables, chairs, rockers and settees made in reed and rattan.

PORCH SCREENS

You can sit on the veranda in comfort on the hottest afternoon and baffle the efforts of Old Sol to drive you indoors, if the porch is protected with a screen. These screens come in 6 and 8 feet widths, made of bamboo, and when not in use are easily rolled up.

Prices, $1.25 and $1.75

"Give Me Liberty

or give me death." Our colonial patriot, Patrick Henry, voiced this sentiment in a time of great injustice and oppression. Womankind, bound under the burden of kitchen drudgery, cries out for help. "Give me a Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet, or I perish." What man can turn a deaf ear to such an entreaty? The cost of a postage stamp every meal for one year will turn drudgery into delight.

Jackson, A. H. Burke, John Averill and W. D. Smith. Pike fishing at Missisquoi bay is said to be unusually good this year.
C. C. Bennett, the aviator, who is to make a biplane ascent at the driving park Memorial day, arrived in the city last evening, accompanied by his engine operator and machinist. A large tent will be pitched at the park and the air men will spend the next few days in assembling the various parts of the flying machine.
Boy scouts from every one of the four troops in the city and a good-sized sprinkling of parents were present at the Congregational church last evening to hear Byron N. Clark's lecture on camp life. Mr. Clark, whose home is in Burlington, is the boy scout commissioner for the state of Vermont and probably can boast of a wider acquaintance of boys up and down the state than any other man. For several years past, he has been connected in various capacities with the boys' camp at North Hero, "Camp Abnaki." At the lecture last evening, Mr. Clark accompanied his description of life at the camp with excellent stereopticon views taken at North Hero while one of these yearly gatherings was in progress. A hundred or more slides illustrated the many different aspects of life at the camp in such a vivid manner that any active boy with a liking for the woods and water must have instantly cherished a longing to spend a week or ten days at "Camp Abnaki" during the coming summer.
Arrangements are practically completed for the annual field day of the Troy Police Beneficial and Protective association to be held at Besselsner park, Troy, Decoration day.
The program to be offered will consist of most every kind of outdoor sport and includes motor cycle races, trotting and running horse races, a general athletic meet and in the evening there will be a stupendous display of fireworks.
In connection with the numerous trophies and prizes to be offered contestants in the different events, the committee in charge will distribute the sum of $2,500 to non-contestants. Every one attending the field day will have a chance to compete.
