The Biograph at Dreamland to-day shows a novel plan to cure the awful habit of intemperance. The parson and his friends find Pete, a worthless inebriate of the village, in a drunken sleep by the roadside. His cure has been tried often, but in vain. The parson's friend suggests a novel scheme, that of taking him home, waking him there and making him believe he is in paradise, then feeding him wine until he is asleep again, placing him back in the same place in the road. This photo play is at Dreamland to-day and remember, it is a Biograph.
