The old Cutler Corner School association will hold its annual picnic at Dewey park Saturday, July 1, to which every member is most cordially invited. All are urged to make an effort to be present, as the chain that binds the members together grows weaker each year, as here and there a link falls out. Those who are left should put their shoulder to the wheel to make an enjoyable picnic. The committee would like, if convenient, for each one to bring enough plates, knives, forks and spoons to accommodate their own family. Table cloths, tables and chairs will be furnished by the committee.

The Burlington Free Press of to-day has the following to say of a former resident of Barre: "Guy C. Rocheleau, for the past five years a popular clerk in the Park drug store, has purchased the drug store of Evans & Bryan in Waterbury and will take possession in a few days. Mr. Rocheleau is amply qualified to conduct a store of his own and as the store purchased by him is an old stand, he will undoubtedly meet with success. He has had an experience of nearly 15 years in the drug business and is well acquainted with every detail of the prescription department. He is a graduate of the Columbia university college of pharmacy and is now acting secretary of the Vermont State Pharmaceutical association."
