

TAFT TALKS TO "OLD FOLK"

Meeting in Salt Lake City at Tabernacle

REBUKES LEAGUE'S HEAD

President Is Met by the Governor and Utah Congressmen—A Speech or Two on the Day's Schedule.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 6.—President Taft was greeted enthusiastically yesterday when he arrived, accompanied by Governor Fry, the Utah members of Congress and others who had bid him welcome to the state at Ogden. Escorted by the Fifteenth United States infantry and a detail of National Guard, the president was driven to a hotel, where he rested until 10:30 o'clock, when he addressed the "Old Folk" in the Tabernacle. Mr. Taft planned to lunch at the Alta club and drive at once to Fort Douglas to attend a review of the United States troops.

The president yesterday politely but firmly reproved the president of the Young Men's Republican League of Utah, Fred W. Bryce, when the latter in introducing him to the immense crowd at the state fair, made a bitter partisan speech.

It was as the prospective Republican candidate for the presidency in 1912 that Bryce presented President Taft, predicting he would be "triumphantly elected."

"I'm here," said the president, emphasizing each word significantly, "as president of the United States." There was lusty cheers from the crowd, followed by a laugh when the president humorously said: "My friend is probably a better Republican than he is a prophet."

Last night the president attended the banquet of the Commercial club and shortly before midnight left for Idaho. He passed the day in Salt Lake City.

A FEELING OF SECURITY.

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit-producing drugs.

NEW YORK GETS FIRST GAME

Toss of Coin to Determine the Location is Won by the New York Giants.

New York, Oct. 6.—The national baseball commission yesterday decided to play the first of the world's baseball championship games at the Polo Grounds here Saturday, Oct. 14. The choice was determined by the tossing of a quarter of a dollar. Ben Shibe, president of the Athletics, called heads and the coin settled with tails up.

MANUFACTURERS OF WALLPAPER INDICTED

Charge Is Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade—Five Bills Also Against Four Jobbers.

Cleveland, Oct. 6.—Eight indictments against four wallpaper manufacturers and four wallpaper jobbers, charging conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, were returned by a federal grand jury here yesterday.

Among the indicted manufacturers is Winfield A. Huppuch of the Standard Wallpaper company of Hudson Falls, N. Y. Yesterday's action is a sequel to many months of investigation by the government.

EDDY HEIRS RIGHT.

Not Forced to Acquiesce in Illegal Disposition of Property.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 6.—William E. Chandler, continuing his deposition in the Eddy will litigation yesterday, said that in his judgment circumstances had arisen which fully justified Mary Baker G. Eddy's heirs in questioning her residuary bequest to the mother church of the Christian Science faith. He made no mental reservations in connection with the family settlement of 1908, he said. He understood that under its terms Mrs. Eddy's heirs could question no legal disposition of her property. He did not understand that were forced to acquiesce in an illegal disposition of it.

GIVES $25,000 TO WILLIAMS.

Edward L. Perkins of Philadelphia the Donor.

Williamstown, Mass., Oct. 6.—A gift of $25,000 to Williams college from Edward L. Perkins of Philadelphia, was publicly announced yesterday; the private announcement having been made Wednesday night at the annual meeting of the trustees of the Williams college board of trustees. The trustees, at their meeting, voted that the new dormitory should be called Williams hall.

CLEAR BABY'S SKIN

In selecting a toilet powder for baby's use, do not make the mistake of favoring the prettiest box or the sweetest perfume. Physicians say that highly perfumed talcums should never be used on babies, for they are sure to irritate the skin. Comfort Powder contains only soothing and healing antiseptic ingredients, and it absolutely prevents all chafing and irritation. It also cures rashes and clears the skin beautifully. Only Comfort Powder is good enough for your baby. See that E. S. Sykes' signature is on the box you buy.

THE CHAIRMAN'S RULING

In Stephenson Investigation—Campaign Manager Blamed if Can't Explain—Gave Man $2,300 Without Knowing of Purpose.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 6.—When more testimony was given before the senatorial investigating committee yesterday that no detailed reports were kept of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson's expenditure of $107,793 primary campaign expenses, Senator Heyburn, the chairman, announced a ruling, which, it is expected, will have an important bearing on the conduct of the investigation. E. A. Edmonds, the senator's campaign manager, on the stand reiterated his inability to tell in detail for what certain amounts of money paid to individuals was actually used. "Now," said Senator Heyburn, "if you were the custodian of Senator Stephenson's funds and had charge of their disbursement, it seems you were the person who was responsible under the law for keeping an account. The rule is that where charges are officially made and no record can be given of funds admittedly spent, the presumption is that they were wrongfully used the burden of proof is on the person against whom the charges were preferred."

Senator Heyburn's statement came in response to an inquiry from Charles E. Littlefield, counsel for Senator Stephenson, as to whether a campaign manager could be held guilty if he were unable to say in detail what was done with money given to others for campaign purposes. Senator Sutherland of Utah then cited an item of $2,300, which Edmonds gave to D. E. Riordan, a former state senator, who was to work for the Stephenson nomination at the primaries in 1908.

"Do you mean to say that you gave Riordan $2,300 without requiring of him any statement as to what he did with the money and that you did it knowingly when the state law required an explanation of any amount over $5?" asked Senator Sutherland.

"Well, I got no explanation from Riordan."

"You might just as well, then, have given out the entire $107,793 fund without any detailed report as required by law."

Referring to previous investigation by the Wisconsin legislature into charges of bribery in the election of Mr. Stephenson, Mr. Edmonds said they were conducted for political effect.

"But," said Senator Sutherland, "one report of the legislative committee was not unfriendly to Senator Stephenson and it shows $330,000 was spent for cigars and beer. Do you know that $30,000 actually was spent for cigars and beer?"

"I don't know."

Mr. Littlefield cross examined Edmonds to show that the expense of Stephenson's campaign was not excessive because of keen rivalry between candidates.

TIMES BOOK TELLS OF THE DICKENS CHILDREN

Latest Dictionary Is a Treasury of Literary Knowledge—A Help at Every Turn.

Just now the centenary of Charles Dickens, the great English novelist, is being celebrated in various ways. Stamps are being sold for the benefit of his children's children, and the children born of his wonderful imagination and knowledge of human nature are being discussed more than ever before. In this instance The Times dictionary will be found a timely aid. If you hear or read of a Pecksniff, a Pickwick, or a Pinch, and do not understand the reference, look the name up in the treasury of facts at the back of the New Webster's Illustrated Dictionary and you will be enlightened by the clear and concise statements found there. The Times is passing out hundreds of volumes of this valuable work from the dictionary department hourly in exchange for six consecutive coupons clipped from issues of The Times and a small expense bonus. You can choose your binding from all silk cloth to the fine limp leather book that looks like a Bible.

You Can Understand What You Are Reading.

If you have The Times dictionary at your elbow, where it belongs, you can readily understand the references in your daily reading which have puzzled you heretofore. You will find that either in the dictionary proper or in the treasury of facts, your want will be supplied. The most used book in the century dictionary and encyclopedia, a work of many volumes, has been the dictionary of proper names. The Times now offers you a dictionary in one convenient sized volume which contains in two of its chapters a condensed work of similar character which will serve your everyday needs. Characters from Shakespeare and all the best known people of fiction are crowded into this Blue Book of the Book World. There is also a catalogue of familiar allusions and phrases which will light many a dark corner in your day's reading. Do you ever knot your brow over a legal phrase or the meaning of one or two Latin words used in connection? Stop it. Frowns will wrinkle the fairest forehead. Don't procrastinate. Get that dictionary and stop puzzling. Six clippings and a small bonus expense.

WEBSTER PRACTISES INSANITY.

Mental Derangement Probably Will Be Defence of Doctor.

Oregon, Ill., Oct. 6.—Dr. Henry E. Webster, confessed slayer of his third wife, yesterday practised antics that convinced State's Attorney Emerson that the prisoner's defense will be insanity. He alternately moaned and covered his head in bed, then talked and shouted hysterically to persons who visited him in jail.

Dr. Webster was indicted by a grand jury for murder late Wednesday. He was arraigned immediately afterward and given until 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon to plead. If the usual motion to quash is denied, the prisoner will plead not guilty. The court will then set a date for trial, after which the attorneys for the defense will ask for a change of venue to Lake county.

SEEK AUSTIN'S DEAD.

Relief Workers Concentrate Efforts Upon Search for Senator's Mother.

Austin, Pa., Oct. 6.—With nearly a hundred more men that came Wednesday.

TO PILE VICTIMS:

Treat the Inward Cause if You Want a Cure.

Is piles a skin disease? No, it is a stagnation of blood circulation—a swelling of blood vessels.

Why expect a cure from applications outside? The treatment should attack the cause.

Dr. Leonard's HEM-ROID (sugar-coated tablets) is taken inwardly; it restores circulation, rids you of piles for good.

Sold by Burt H. Wells, Barre, Vt., and all druggists. $1 for 24 days' supply, satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. Leonard Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y.

day night into what is left of Austin, the search for bodies and disentangling the debris was spread over a greater area yesterday, and it is expected that before long a number of bodies will be recovered. The failure to find the body of Senator F. E. Baldwin's mother has caused much distress to the officials, as well as the citizens, and the gangs from the state highway department were sent into what was once Turner street, on which was the Baldwin home, with a view of sparing no effort to recover the body.
