Saturday this Week

will be a big day for us and a good day for you to make a few purchases. Mr. Morse is in New York after Sample Coats and Suits and this means something new in that line for Saturday. Our new Phoenix Mufflers comprise styles that are different from last season's showing—very neatly made and have character of style that is very attractive. Saturday we put on sale 150 single Blankets that are slightly soiled, as follows:

Saturday, November 11 Blanket Day

This sale of Blankets on Saturday should interest all housekeepers who use a blanket that is a little better than the smaller cheap kinds.

Blankets at 69c

These Blankets come in single Blankets, finished both ends (not pairs). They come in both White and Gray, with Blue and Red Borders. They are eleven-quarter Blankets that we sell in stock by the pair at $2.00. That would make a single Blanket $1.25. These are from the mill, an odd lot that are slightly soiled or not fully brushed out, and the price Saturday will be only 69c for one Blanket.

Blankets at 3.75, 4.50, 5.00, 7.50,

In this sale are several pairs of our better Blankets that have become soiled here in our store. They will be sold as follows: Four pairs of $3.98 Beacon Blankets now at $2.75—less than cost; eleven quarter Wool Blankets, $4.75, at $3.75; $8.50 at $7.00; twelve-quarter, $5.75, at $4.50; $6.50 at $5.00.

To make this a banner sale we will make a liberal allowance on all of our Blanket stock for this one day.

The above are kinds of goods that you can buy Saturday and be getting special values for your money. Don't forget that there will be in our garment department some new, very desirable kinds. There always is after one of these special New York trips.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sweater special for Saturday at Fitts'. You can get 54-inch repellent at Abbott's for 90c.

Five hundred yards linen finish crash, 6c yard, at Perry's on Saturday.

The program for the Clan Gordon fair on Friday night will be a minstrel show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Searles returned home yesterday afternoon from a short trip to Essex Junction and vicinity.

Mrs. Finette Cutler, Mrs. H. C. Cutler and Mrs. Clara Page went to Plainfield yesterday for a short visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Williams and three sons, Orville, Sherwood and Percy, left this morning for Alberton, Ga., where they will make their home.

Superintendent C. E. Soule and J. W. Hanley, general passenger agent of the Central Vermont railroad, were among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

P. R. Gordon of Glens Falls, N. Y., district manager for the Eastern Estate Tea Co., is passing a few days in the city on business connected with the company's local branch.

Mrs. Roland J. Allen and son, Frank, left this morning for Alberton, Ga., where they will join Mr. Allen, who has been passing several months in the Georgia town. They will reside in Alberton.

Mrs. A. D. Morse, who has been confined to the City hospital for some time past, was removed to her home last evening in A. W. Hadger & Co.'s ambulance. Mrs. Morse's condition is considerably improved.

During the past few days, workmen have been engaged in equipping the rear wall of the Quinlan block with fire escapes. This precaution is made necessary by the recent addition of another story to the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Conner and son, Eugene, who have been passing two weeks at the home of Mr. Conner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Conner of Merchant street, left this morning for their home in Lexington, Mass.

Donato Saludillo was taken this morning to Burlington, where he will enter Mary Fletcher hospital to be treated for typhoid pneumonia. He was accompanied by his brother, L. Saludillo, O. Chardi and C. Baldino. B. W. Hooker & Co.'s ambulance carried the man to the 8 o'clock train.

One of the heavy plate glass windows in C. W. Averill & Co.'s hardware store, which was badly cracked several weeks ago, was replaced by new glass yesterday. Heavy winds had caused the broken plate to sway considerably and the danger to passing pedestrians had increased for this reason.

Plans are under way for a Thanksgiving concert and dance, to be held in the city hall at Montpelier Wednesday evening, November 29, under the joint auspices of Barre and Montpelier Woodmen. Riley's orchestra of this city and the Montpelier Military band orchestra will combine to furnish music. James Riley will direct the dance music, and the concert will be in charge of T. R. Merrill.

Clan Gordon, No. 12, and the Ladies' auxiliary maintained their reputation for record attendances at the fair last evening, and the program was fully up to the average of the preceding nights. A violin solo by James Courtis was followed by a piano duet by Miss Florence and Ethel Inglis. A piano and mandolin duet was given by Martha Reid and Bertha Dale, and a vocal solo by James B. Call brought the numbers to a pleasing finish. Riley's orchestra furnished another popular order of dances. The fair this evening will consist of a short musical program and a dance. To-morrow night the minstrel show, which made such a distinct hit last Tuesday evening, will be repeated.

TALK OF THE TOWN

L. B. Frada of St. Johns, P. Q., is passing a few days in the city on business.

Our stage settings are said to be the best ever, and all made locally. K. P. minstrels.

Judge H. W. Scott left this forenoon for Bellows Falls, where he will attend a district encampment meeting, I. O. O. F. Before returning home Saturday morning, he will attend the meeting of another district, to be held in White River Junction.

David F. Sherwood of Springfield, Mass., supreme warden of the New England Order of Protection, will attend a special meeting of Granite City Lodge, No. 333, to be held Saturday evening. He will be a guest of Stannard lodge in Montpelier to-morrow night.

A boy, whose description tallies somewhat with that of Richard Tarbell, the missing Waterbury youth, who left home October 28, applied to Paul Scampini for a ride from Montpelier to Barre last night. Mr. Scampini did not know the circumstances surrounding the disappearance of the Waterbury lad at the time. The boy accompanied him to this city, and to-day local officers will try to ascertain his whereabouts and identity.

Sturdy Beauty for the Dining Room

The experience of years teaches us and you that strength is a prime requisite in dining room furniture. Also does that same experience inspire the desire for grace and beauty in the furnishings of the one room in the house that must serve the family thrice a day, year in and out. Primarily we strove for durability in our dining room examples and secondly for artistic effect. Yet withal it is

Furniture Priced on Merits Alone

We measure its worth by the satisfaction it yields. It is new. The designs embody the highest ideals of master craftsmen. And above all it is certain of yielding a lifetime of service to you and yours.

SCHRAFFT'S CHOCOLATES

When everybody says "YES"

"Candy?"
"Oh, I don't know. What kind?"
"Schrafft's."
"YES, if you please."
"SCHRAFFT'S" is a word which arouses enthusiasm among candy-lovers, and we are a candy-loving nation.

The kind of candy that cuddles up close to the palate, nestles next to the sweet tooth and satisfies every caprice of the appetite.
