

SATURDAY'S FOOTBALL

Harvard Fails to Win Once More

AND PRINCETON TRIUMPHS

But Tigers Get Away with Victory over Dartmouth by Freak Kick—Yale Wins from Brown.

The crimson went under again Saturday to the Carlisle Indians in a game that displayed the brilliancy of the Indians and especially of that wonderful athlete, Thorpe, and the nerve of the Harvard coaches in attempting to get away with such a game with a second rate line-up. The strength of the Indians could not have been underestimated in Cambridge, yet it is hard to make out why Harvard kept its regulars practically idle until too late in the day. Yale showed lots of stuff against Brown and appears to be in the running for the best there is in the land. Yale had scoring chances in abundance and chose to exercise its lucky kicking. Princeton won another lousy game and through the luckiest of all chances, DeWitt's drop kick bumped from the ground and over the post, cheating Dartmouth out of a tie, which it richly earned. Pennsylvania arose to the occasion and smote Lafayette, while Cornell beat back the Wolverines from Ann Arbor. Williams just won out over Wesleyan by a lone point in one of the closest games ever played by these rivals. The results: At Cambridge, Carlisle 18, Harvard 15. At New Haven, Ct., Yale 15, Dartmouth 0. At Princeton, N. J., Princeton 3, Brownmouth 0. At Ithaca, N. Y., Cornell 6, Michigan 0. At Amherst, Amherst 10, Worcester P. I. 8. At Middletown, Ct., Williams 6, Wesleyan 5. At Worcester, Holy Cross 24, Colby 0. At Syracuse, N. Y., Syracuse 16, Vermont 0. At Philadelphia, Pa., Pennsylvania 23, Lafayette 6. At State College, Pa., Penn. State 17, Colgate 9. At Exeter, N. H., Phillips Andover 23, Phillips Exeter 6. At West Point, N. Y., Army 20, Bucknell 2. At Annapolis, Md., Navy 32, West Virginia 0. At Springfield, Training school 20, Tufts 0.

SYRACUSE 16, VERMONT 0.

Salt City Plays, Although Outweighed, Are Triumphant.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Though outweighed by Vermont, Syracuse won Saturday's game, 16 to 0. The visitors, toward the end of the game, were frequently warned and penalized. Fogg's kicking was a feature.

GODDARD DEFEATED BY BELLOWS FALLS

Single Touchdown by Bellows Falls High School's Right End Was Enough to Win Close Game Saturday.

Bellows Falls, Nov. 13.—Bellows Falls high and Goddard seminary of Barre met here Saturday for the state championship and the local team won, 5 to 0. Although outweighed man for man, Bellows Falls swept their opponents off their feet. The game was played before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a football game in this town. Features were the line plunging of the Bellows Falls backs and the defensive work of Stillwell and Hayes. Houghton scored the touchdown in the first period on a forward pass from Putnam; Sherburne and Craig excelled for Goddard. The summary: Bellows Falls, Goddard Sem. Sanford, le. Olsen. Olmstead, rt. TAYLOR DEFEATS TRAVIS.

Veteran Golfer Downed by the Ardsley Player at Lakewood.

New York, Nov. 13.—For the first time in many years Walter J. Travis of Garden City has failed to win a prize in a tournament at the Country club of Lakewood, Benton in the qualifying round by R. P. Mundy of Ardsley for the gross score prize. Travis was vanquished Saturday in the final round of the invitation tournament over these links by Wyatt W. Taylor of Ardsley, 2 up. It was good golf, none the less, on the part of the loser as well as the winner. Taylor's card totaled 74 against 76 for the Garden City man. In the semi-final round earlier in the day Travis disposed of T. P. Endicott of Atlantic City by 4 and 3, while Taylor defeated Mundy. Travis went out in 18 against Endicott, the latter having 43.

HELD FINAL SHOOT.

Barre Auto Gun Club Successful Saturday Afternoon.

The Barre Auto Gun club held its last shoot of the season at the Shepard range on the Montpelier road Saturday afternoon. The club membership was well represented and an afternoon of keen enjoyment was the result. Considering the lateness of the season, the weather was entirely propitious for shooting, and some excellent scores were made during the afternoon. In the prize shoot, Douglas Barclay led with a record of 47 birds out of a possible 50. Frank Adams followed with a record of 44 out of 50. Mr. Barclay was awarded a hunting knife, while Mr. Adams received a compass for the second award.

The result of the afternoon's shoot showed Barclay, Adams and Moulton finished in the three positions respectively. The former attained the high percentage of 95, Adams following with 90 and Moulton, a third winner, with 84 per cent. The score of the prize shoot follows:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Birds, Hit. Barclay 50 47, Adams 44 89, Burr 50 41, Moulton 50 49, Abbott 50 39, Weiton 50 30.

BALLOONISTS UP A TREE.

Students from Williams Land at Claremont After Trees Are Cut Down.

Claremont, N. H., Nov. 13.—Their balling bumping against the tops of forest trees, where their anchor had caught, three Williams college students were discovered Saturday by farmers and rescued.

After some smaller trees had been cut away, the ascendants were able to slide down the anchor rope. They are H. Percy Shearman, former president of Williams College Aeronautical society, H. R. Corner of Cleveland, O., and J. A. Jones of New York. The ascension was made from Pittsfield, Mass.

Rodgers Has a Fall.

Los Angeles, Nov. 13.—Aviator C. P. Rodgers fell 100 feet into a ploughed field near Compton, half way between Los Angeles and Long Beach, late yesterday afternoon. He was brought here severely bruised, but no bones were broken. His machine was wrecked.

FEDERAL PROBE ON WIRE RATES

Commerce Commission Will Investigate Telephone and Telegraph Charges.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Investigation of telephone and telegraph rates is fore-shadowed by petitions which have been filed with the interstate commerce commission, directing attention "to the apparent purpose of the American Telephone & Telegraph company to monopolize all facilities for wire communication."

The commission was given jurisdiction over telephone and telegraph lines under the last act amendatory of the interstate commerce law. The petitions, identical in form, profess to set forth the desires of individuals in several western states. The commission, it is said, realizes that it is only a matter of a short time before the rates must be reviewed. When the commission issued its order assuming jurisdiction over companies engaged in interstate business as common carriers of messages by wire, expression of views was withheld "with respect to the amenability of these carriers" in the matter of rates.

O'CONNELL SAILS FOR ROME.

Cardinal-Designate's Party Made Up of Five Clergymen.

Boston, Nov. 13.—Cardinal-designate William H. O'Connell left Saturday for Rome to attend the consistory at which he and Cardinals-designate Farley and Falconio will be elevated on the 27th. The cardinal's suite consisted of Rev. Dr. P. J. Supple, Rev. Joseph F. Coppinger, private chaplain, Rt. Rev. Dr. M. J. Spalane, Rt. Rev. Edward J. Moriarty and Rt. Rev. Jeremiah E. Millerick. The party sailed on the steamer Canopic, which is due at Naples two weeks from Saturday. Many friends of Dr. O'Connell were at the dock to bid farewell.

Before sailing the cardinal-designate gave this parting message to the people of his diocese: "I cannot express in words my gratitude for the kindness of all. God will return it. I cannot. I beg the prayers of all for my voyage. An revoir."

PRES. GOMPERS GIVES REPORT

To American Federation of Labor at Atlanta

HE ENDORSED REFERENDUM

Characterized President Taft's Statement Regarding "Mole Rule" Sanctioned as Cant and Also "Mere Drivel."

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 13.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, in his report submitted today to the delegates of the 31st annual convention, predicted great changes in American methods of government, particularly with regard to political parties. He gave to the referendum, initiative and the recall the unqualified endorsement of organized labor and declared that a real representative democracy never had been known in the United States because of the general absence of these provisions.

"This semi-injunction of judges," he said in defense of his endorsement, "is a sanctimonious cant about 'mole rule,' none of which was in President Taft's message vetoing the Arizona statehood bill, is mere drivel."

President Gompers' report, which covers 60 closely printed pages and would make more than 30 columns in a newspaper, says it leaves many subjects untouched or inadequately presented.

In the main, the report declares for, and says organized labor demands: 1. The referendum, the initiative and the recall. 2. Passage of the so-called anti-injunction bills at the next session of Congress. 3. Restriction of immigration. 4. Further restriction of convict labor. 5. Legislation to relieve civil service employees from the executive orders prohibiting them to petition Congress.

Uniform laws for the protection of life and health in factory buildings. A department of labor in the federal government. Employers' liability and workmen's compensation acts throughout the states. Severe arraignment is made of so-called scientific management or efficiency systems.

With its membership now more than 1,750,000, the greatest in its history and its financial condition excellent, the organization often called the greatest altruistic institution of the times enters the thirty-first year of its work.

"Despite all opposition of the most relentless kind the American labor movement grows and thrives; its beneficent influence for the common uplift of labor and of all our people extends to all fields of useful activity and is becoming more generally recognized. The power which labor holds within its grasp is understood by our opponents perhaps better than many of the toilers. The fact is that labor's opponents like the Tories of the past, many of whom are still with us, are afraid to trust the people.

"With power in the hands of labor and of the people generally comes a quickening sense of responsibility. And though errors are liable to occur, they bring experience and an avoidance of recurrence. The errors or encroachments of the few or of an autocrat teach them no lessons and are rectified only by the people's revolt. How perfectly safe freedom is, is a truth not yet fully understood," said the report.

"Labor's contentions of many years have become merged, or have rather coordinated with those of the progressive of all parties. The people as a whole, irrespective of class, conditions, calling or partisan alignment, have declared for freedom in fact, and not merely in name. They are taking affairs political into their own hands. They will no longer tolerate the sale of legislation to the highest bidder or the granting of franchises to the richest bribe giver. Under the coming regime, assuredly there are to be no more court decrees entered as prepared in advance and ordered by the attorney for the stronger party—stronger politically and financially.

"In the political boss and his machine, the shabby of leadership of intelligence, pleading for public justice with adherence proportioned in number to the strength of the arguments. The stuffed ballotbox, the false count, and the perjured election returns will likewise disappear. With these opportunities, with these stimulating inducements to free thought and action, the cause of public justice will be advanced in all directions. Labor, acting from the point of enlightened self-interest, and yet with a full sense of responsibility respecting the just rights of all others in society will manfully and patriotically meet its enlarged responsibilities.

"Under the prevailing system of cut and dried platforms and slated nominations, preceded by fake primaries, the ballot in our hands has not been, in any adequate sense, either a protecting shield against wrong or a means of redress. We may not for some time be entirely rid of the rule of parties. If they be an evil, they are such as an incident to all governments based on popular suffrage. I deem it unwise, or rather impolitic, to waste our energies now in efforts to abolish political parties. Perhaps they are institutional in all free governments. But if we cannot now destroy them, we may, by more assiduous and regular exercise of our privileges and rights of citizenship do much in the way of controlling them.

"Under existing conditions, we must obtain various measures of legislation at the hands of dominant parties in legislative bodies, and if party affairs are to remain in the hands of corporate agents and corrupt bosses as heretofore, then our interests will be imperiled and the desired relief retarded, no matter which party has the majority."

Mr. Gompers refers very briefly to the contempt of court proceedings against Vice-President John Mitchell, Secretary Morrison and himself, which are still pending before the courts in the District of Columbia.

The McNamara case, however, is taken up at some length and fully reviewed. President Gompers expressed his faith in the innocence of the men now on trial at Los Angeles for alleged dynamiting outrages and denounces in unmeasured terms their removal from Indiana to Chicago.

The Wilson bill, now pending in Congress, a so-called anti-injunction measure, which has the support of labor, is warmly endorsed and President Gompers calls upon all organized labor to work for its early passage. Mr. Gompers expresses the belief that by united action the Wilson bill may be passed at the next session, and he expresses the opinion that even should it be vetoed by President Taft, a great victory would be partly won. He declared labor could expect little voluntary help from the president on the anti-injunction legislation.

ever to assume that labor's cause will win. In a number of important strikes during the year, we have had gains, and there has been a tendency to continue the shortening of the workday, to do away with child labor, and to animate the unorganized masses with a desire to take part in the great labor movement.

"Our movement has no schism within. All opposition to its policies, its procedures, its forms of organization and its tactics comes from without. All who would divert it from its established principles are enemies, working for the promotion of institutions foreign to its character. Those who would change it aim at its disintegration.

"This is true whether the antagonist in view is the college president who believes in the right of the non-unionist to work below the union scale alongside of the unionist; or the philanthropist who believes unions should be more benevolent societies; or the editor who believes that the unionist should be always in his party and a supporter of his interests; or the politician who demands that the unionist must always vote his ticket.

"But, it can safely be said, our trade unionism is to witness no integral change in structure, or principle, for those who are all adaptable to circumstances as they arise—to conditions as they develop."

Charge Burns' Men with Kidnaping Witness Alleged to Have Uncovered a Dynamite Cache, Cincinnati Man Is Said to Be Speeding to Los Angeles. Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—Mystery was added Saturday to the disappearance of Frank Eckhoff, twenty-four, a cormaker, of No. 4162 Hamilton avenue, this city, when his wife received a special delivery letter from him, dated at Pittsburgh, Pa., in which he said he was "having a good time." Late Friday, Eckhoff's wife and her mother appealed to Chief of the Police Jackson for information as to the missing man, and were told, they declared Saturday, that Eckhoff was on his way to Los Angeles, Cal. "My husband has been kidnaped," the wife declared.

The police say that Eckhoff, who was a boyhood companion of James and John McNamara, was taken away as a witness of the alleged Beaver Falls, Pa., dynamiting operations of the McNamaras by operatives of the Burns detective agency, who made the investigation that led to the arrest of the McNamaras on a charge of dynamiting the Los Angeles Times building.

The receipt by Mrs. Eckhoff of the special delivery letter from Pittsburgh indicates, the police say, that Eckhoff was at Beaver, Pa., last week, where he is said to have located a cache of dynamite hidden by structural ironworkers in dynamite plots.

Contradictory to this belief, however, was a statement made at police headquarters Friday night by Detective Tracy in the presence of the two women. Tracy told the women that Eckhoff was on his way to the coast and that the reason he had not notified the man's relatives was because he could not leave the train. Tracy said, according to the police, that Eckhoff had been given to Mrs. Eckhoff to support herself while her husband was gone and that she also had been invited to go to Los Angeles.

MAYOR BY A LUCKY GUESS. Democrat Beats Socialist in Guessing Match After a Tie Vote. Canton, Ohio, Nov. 13.—Mayor Arthur Turnbull, Democrat, and Harry Schilling, Socialist, Saturday night chose to make an odd and even guess on the number of grains of corn contained in a cup scooped from a bag and held by a member of the Stark county board of elections to decide a tie vote in the Canton mayoralty election. Turnbull guessed an even number and won, for there were 110 kernels in the cup.

When Turnbull and Schilling were notified that both had received 3,414 votes by official count, they met at the board of elections office to agree on a way to decide the tie. The guessing contest was suggested. Both agreed to it. Ohio election laws provide that tie votes shall be decided by lot.

The Lorimer Investigation. Chicago, Nov. 2.—How the bells of a church at Rockford, Ill., were made to toll 46 times to indicate the number of votes cast in favor of Senator William Lorimer's retaining his seat in the United States Senate, and how badges of black were distributed to those present and the meeting was referred to as the "Lorimer Funerals" was related before the senatorial investigating committee at Chicago Saturday by Fred E. Sterling, editor of a newspaper at Rockford. Senator Cullom, the witness said, was also criticized because of his support of Lorimer.
