New York is Going Wild

The demand is so great for Ladies' Double-faced Cloth Coats that it is almost impossible to get deliveries at all on them. Never has there been a season when the people seemed to make one grand rush for any particular cloth as they have this season. While in New York this week we were able to pick up some values in these popular Cloth Coats that we know you will agree with us are the best values we have seen. We have got some Two-toned Cloth Coats in the tan and brown, the blue and gray, the gray and green and two shades of gray that are beauties, both in styles and qualities.

Ladies' Heavy Coats

The Reversible Coat is a very popular Coat with the best trade to-day. This gives you a Coat you can wear either side out, and the quality of goods is a very fine soft wool material.

In our new values just in, you will find some double-faced Reversible Coats that will surely appeal to you as being extra good. This is a line of Coats that we picked up this week, only one Coat of a kind or style. These are Coats we were able to pick up at different places, only two or three in a place, but each one was the best value in the lot. These are all the heavy double-faced Cloth Coats, are the season's best style and are extra values at the prices asked.

We have some Black Coats in this lot that are made in the odd sizes, such as 37, 39, to 45-inch bust, that are Coats which are made especially for large ladies. Are full over the hips and a little shorter waisted than the regular sizes.

Ladies' Long Coats

While many ladies want the heavy double-faced Cloth Coats, there are a great many who prefer the lighter weight materials. For these we have a lot of odd Coats where there are only one or two left in the line. These we are putting on sale to-day at a quite a little under price to close. These are odd Coats we do not want or cannot duplicate and in order to close out the whole lot are making the following low cut prices.

At $8.00 are a few odd Coats in medium sizes that sold at $10.00. These are good styled Coats and are all right.

At $10.00 are a few odd Coats in grays and browns. Some of these have the Presto collar, others the wider collar. These are the regular $12.50 Coats. Only one or two left.

We also have a few odd Coats in the better grades that we are making a special price to close.

Earn Your Share of the Prize Money

$1,000.00 in Prizes

Through the generosity of the Chicago Kenosha Hosiery Co., we have made arrangements to have our customers participate in a big attractive prize contest with money prizes ranging from $200, $100, $50, $25, $10 and $5—98 prizes altogether.

The winners will get their money at our store. The contest consists of finding a secret ad, the different parts of which are hidden in different parts of the Black Cat booklet.

Contest Starts Now

and ends December 1, in time for Christmas. Come and get the instructions and free contest entrance ticket to-day.

Black Cat Hosiery is the famous advertised Hosiery which has the "Comital" style for women, the beautiful and strong socks with the extended heel for the men, women and children.

Do not forget the fact that Furs and Fur Coats will be just as good this season as ever. This line we are showing is the best we have ever had. Slip in and see our odd sized Fur Coats.

TALK OF THE TOWN

William Littlejohn was a business visitor in Northfield Saturday.

Monsoni Aroldi arrived in the city this morning from Genoa, Italy.

Augustus Turner went this morning to Bethel, where he has secured employment.

Ernest Sutherland returned home Saturday, after passing a few days with friends in St. Albans.

Miss Edie Reegan returned this morning to South Ryegate, after passing the week-end at her home in Graniteville.

Auction sale to-morrow at George T. Colby's, Williamstown, Vt. Nice fresh cows and heifers. See ad., page 7. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

Edward Kerwin, operator at the Western Union office, resumed his duties this morning, after passing a few days at his home in Newport, R. I.

William Bailey, who has charge of the Lamorey Clothing store in Windsor, visited friends in the city yesterday. Mr. Bailey is a former resident of Barre.

A number of electricians in charge of Carl Perkins went this morning to Montpelier, where they began the work of re-wiring the main building and dormitories at Montpelier seminary.

A parish supper will be served in the vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 6:15 o'clock. Each member may bring a guest. A freewill offering will be taken.

Theodore Foster, who has been employed as a stone mason on the new federal building for several months, finished work Saturday and left last night for his home in Amsterdam, N. Y.

Francis Craddock, who has been employed in a Woodsville, N. H., pharmacy for a few months, is passing a few days with relatives in the city. Later he will go to Plymouth, N. H., where he has secured a similar position.

George W. Shannon, an employe in the Woodbury Granite Co.'s office in Hardwick, passed Sunday in this city, returning to his duties this morning. Mrs. Shannon and son will join Mr. Shannon in Hardwick to-night for a two weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Benedict of Bethel passed Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Althea Coleman, who resides in the Morse block. The trip to Barre and return home was made by automobile. F. Benedict is a prominent G. A. R. man, having served in Co. C, 8th Vermont Volunteers, during the stormy days of '61. Mr. Benedict is 66 years old and one of the few veterans who can boast of having a living parent. His mother, Mrs. Coleman, is 83 years old, and Mr. Benedict stated yesterday that she appeared to be in better health now than at any other time during the past year. The Bethel veteran at Cedar Creek, but is a Rebel bullet at Cedar Creek, but is still hale and hearty.

Sid H. Nealy, supervising architect on Barre's new federal building, contributes a full-page article to the Boston Sunday Globe of yesterday under the caption, "American Style of Building Disliked by Chinese." Mr. Nealy went to Peking about ten years ago to design and build United States legation buildings and encountered many delays in teaching the native brick, stone and cement workers to build as the builders in this country build. Accompanied by a number of illustrations, Mr. Nealy's article includes a vivid description of conditions in China to-day, as well as the experiences which were his while representing the government in Peking. In the head lines of the article is reprinted a handsome compliment which was paid Mr. Nealy for his efficient services by the former U. S. minister to China, Edwin H. Conger, in a letter to the late John Hay, secretary of state.

AN ENGAGEMENT PARTY

Was a Delightful Affair for Many Last Saturday Evening.

A charming reception was given by Valduz Benson at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Erickson, 29 Nichols street, Saturday evening, when the engagement of Mr. Benson to Miss Jenny Anderson of Montpelier was announced. The guests numbered twenty and arrived at the home at 6 o'clock, when an elaborate turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Carl Erickson. The company was ushered into the dining room by Otto B. Mellin. The tables were tastefully decorated with greens and large bouquets of carnations, while individual nosegays were placed at each plate, beside some dainty cards bearing the names of Mr. Benson and Miss Anderson.

During the dinner, Mr. Erickson acted as master of exercises, calling upon every member of the party for an expression of congratulations. Various testimonies of the general esteem, in which both the bride-to-be and the prospective groom are held were given during the evening.

After dinner a social hour was enjoyed, during which a number of pleasing recitations were given by Clara and Hilda Johnson. Martha Reid, Bertha Dale and Roger Erickson also contributed some delightful musical numbers on the piano.

violin and mandolin. Before the hour for departure arrived, the guests were served with refreshments of candy and fruit, the merrymaking ending at midnight, when coffee was served in true Swedish style.

Why You Should Buy All Your Home Furnishings at the "Store that Serves"

¶ We are the largest distributors of good home furnishings in this vicinity. We are in a position to buy in great quantities and consequently secure bed rock prices.

¶ Years of experience has taught us how to avoid buying cheaply constructed furniture, and you benefit by that experience.

¶ Our extremely large floor space permits us to easily display furniture, carpets, rugs, draperies and curtains to be the best advantage, thereby making your selection easy.

¶ We "make good" every claim or refund money cheerfully.

This is the Season When Floors Need Attention

And Get It!

¶ You ladies have no doubt planned for new carpets in the parlor, library or dining room—or matting upstairs or in the hall—or linoleum in the kitchen or bath room. And rugs everywhere.

¶ Think about your floors now—early—even if the old carpet or rugs or matting or linoleum will do a few months longer it will pay you to make a selection and have it laid aside now.

¶ You have already arranged no doubt to see the remarkable collection of low priced nice things in our department.

¶ At least, to do yourself justice, look at our display before the choicest patterns are picked.

Pennant Flour

There are several reasons why you should use it.

Bread made from Pennant Flour will keep moist one third longer than bread that is made from most other flours; it makes white bread as light as down, it makes more loaves to the barrel and is the LOWEST PRICED HIGH-GRADE FLOUR sold in Barre.

We positively guarantee every barrel to give satisfaction, or if the cook is not in any way satisfied with this Flour, to have our team call and return the flour to our store and return your money.
