The watering fountain recently presented to the city by the National Humane alliance, refused to give forth its wonted abundance of aqua pura this morning, and examination by Superintendent Reynolds of the water department disclosed a stoppage in the pipes, caused by the water freezing. Quantities of hot water siphoned through the outlets soon thawed the ice.

Since the recent fall of snow, pedestrians have been annoyed by indiscriminate snowballing on the part of small boys. The wrath of one man was justly aroused this forenoon when one of the icy missiles struck him over the right ear. Punitive threats seem to be of little avail, and unless the careless practice is stopped it is probable that the police will take a hand in the matter by making an example of someone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dashner of Washington were in the city to-day, leaving this noon for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Boston and Hartford, Conn.

A special meeting of Green Mountain lodge, Manchester Unit, No. 75466, is called for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late brother, John Cruickshank. Please meet at the hall Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp. Per order N. G.
