Taken After His Forces Had Been Defeated

BIG BATTLE NEAR LINARES

Results in Revolutionary War Being Taken—The Soldiers Are Ordered Out to Quell a Disturbance.

Laredo, Tex., Dec. 26.—According to a private telegram received here bearing the signature of General Gerónimo Trevino, the Mexican commander, General Reyes, has been taken prisoner.

HIS DREAM IS OVER.

General Reyes Wires Trevino That Army and People Protest.

Linares, Mex., Dec. 26.—Gen. Bernardino Reyes, Mexico's one-time greatest military leader and recently leader of the revolt against the new government, is in jail here.

He surrendered officially yesterday to General Trevino, his personal enemy for years. He rode alone into Linares and gave himself up to Lieut. Placido Rodríguez, commander of 25 rurales. He made his formal capitulation of Trevino by telegram to Monterey.

He frankly admitted his dream of a successful revolution was over. "I called upon the army, I called on the people," telegraphed the broken general, "and no one responded. This attitude I regard as a protest and I resolved not to continue this war against the government."

TROOPS CALLED OUT.

Are Sent to Durango to Quell Striking Mine Workers.

Monterey, Mexico, Dec. 26.—Troops leave left Torreon for Durango to quell strike troubles. In an encounter reported between the strikers and a small force of soldiers an army captain and several of the strikers were killed.

Gen. Gerónimo Trevino has asked the war department to relieve him of command of this military zone, embracing the states of Nuevo Leon, Coahuila and Tamaulipas. Another revolutionary proclamation bearing the signature of Gen. Bernardo Reyes is being widely circulated in this part of the country. It purports to have been issued at Soledad, state of Tamaulipas, at which place the original proclamation was issued a few weeks ago.

RANDOLPH.

Many Needy People Made Happy On Christmas Day.

Midnight mass was celebrated in the Catholic church on Sunday night, with a good audience present. The choir rendered fine music and was assisted by Miss Ruby Allen for organist, Fred DuMas with the trombone, with Mrs. E. J. O'Brien for soloist. The Federated church had the usual Christmas music on Sunday morning and in the evening gave a concert. This was followed by the presentation of gifts by the several classes as follows: The men's class, eight bags of flour, presented with appropriate remarks, by the president, H. J. Smithers; Dr. Bailey's class gave several pounds of sugar, which were presented by N. N. Morse, who also spoke in behalf of the class which he represented. Mrs. Chesbro's class brought cereals, and a poem was read by her, which was composed by Miss Mildred Fuller, an absent member; Miss Clark's class, who brought fruit, and Miss Vera Jones read an original poem in presenting their gift: a class of boys, taught by Mark Morse, brought a suit of clothes for a poor boy, and various gifts. The primary classes gave pennies and as they marched up onto the platform and dropped their pennies, sang "Dropping, Dropping Pennies." This was followed by the anthem and benediction. The collection at this time amounted to $90.00, which was given into the care of a committee, who on Monday morning directed the distribution of the gifts into the families who were in need. The Sunday school held their Christmas tree on Monday night, when gifts to the children were distributed and refreshments served. Both day and Sunday school held their Christmas exercises in Music hall on Saturday night, when a cantata, "Molly's Christmas," was given before a large audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the work of the children. Following this gifts from the tree were distributed. The music on Sunday morning at this church was of a high order and appropriate to the Christmas season.

The death of Mrs. Frank George occurred at the sanatorium at a late hour Friday afternoon, where she had been taken for treatment only three hours before. Mrs. George had been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lashua since Thanksgiving, but it was not thought that death was so near when she was moved from the home. Her disease was anaemia and her case must have been hopeless from the first. Mrs. Etua (King) George, was born 32 years ago, the daughter of Seth and Katherine (Robinson) King, and, nearly all her life, had lived in town, not far from her parents. Deceased was twice married and the first marriage, she is also survived by her husband, father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. Seth King and four sisters, Mrs. J. W. Curran, Mrs. Joseph Spooner, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Lashua, with whom she had been for the last weeks of her life. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at half past one in the afternoon. Rev. J. W. Chesbro officiating and interment was in the family lot at Southview cemetery. During the services, Mrs. Lettie Bailey Smith sang "Face to Face" in a very impressive manner.

About eight o'clock in the evening Saturday, Charles Holman's horse was discovered by Mrs. C. Brewster coming up the street, near the White church and there was no one found to be in the sleigh. Mrs. Brewster told Justice Holman and he thought something must have happened to his brother. So taking a lantern, he went immediately back with the team on the Braintree road, beyond the Clarence Webster place, when he found his brother, Charles Holman, beside the road dead. It seemed that he had started from his sister's, Mrs. Stewart's, where he was making his home, and went down to call on his two sisters, who live on Weston street, and from there had started to go to Braintree Hill on business. It is thought he fell out of the sleigh and fell dead, he had been suffering for a long time from a heart difficulty, although able to be about most of the time and do business. The health officer was immediately notified and after his arrival, the remains were taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Stewart, to await burial. Mr. Holman was an active business man, in his line, which was largely confined to the buying and selling of horses, and had been west to purchase a carload many times in the last few years. The death of Dr. Stewart, some time ago, he was made administrator of the estate, and had the charge of the business affairs of his sister, Mr. Holman was a genial man and many in the business circles will miss him, as he was a familiar figure about the streets.

Boy, Thrusting Stick Through Keyhole, Pushed Sister's Eye from Socket.

Eather, the four-year-old daughter of Israel Swartz, narrowly missed losing the sight of one eye, as she was playing with her brother, Louis. The boy pushed a stick through the keyhole and it happened to strike his little sister in the eye, pushing it from the socket and lacerating the lid. The eye was restored to the socket and several stitches taken in the lid, the physician deciding that the chances were in favor of the sight being uninjured, as the stick did not pierce the pupil of the eye.

Last Saturday night a team containing Mrs. Gabree, Mrs. Farnsworth and two children of Napoleon Berry was struck by an electric car in front of the Pavilion and the wagon was smashed, while the occupants were thrown to the ground and stunned. The team was standing at the curb and as the car passed by, the horse jumped in front of it. Mrs. Henry Galais was struck by a team at the corner of Main and State streets the same evening. She was badly bruised but the driver of the team, who is unknown, did not stop to see how much she was injured.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Individual manifestation is often unfortunate. It leads the reporter who is describing a local deposit of black marble to declare it to be the only one outside of the Belgian quarries, or the lonoator of a ledge of lithographic limestone to hail it as the sole occurrence of this grade of stone outside of the famous ledges of Bavarian lithographic stone at Solnhofen. As a matter of fact, the experienced stone man is fully aware that black marble and lithographic limestone are of frequent occurrence in many countries. A very limited demand is the only factor that has made possible the success of the choicest variety of these two stones. If the markets were active the secondary grades might make their way to success.

Two unfortunate examples of reckless statement have come to me during the past month. One of the Denver newspapers, in attempting to boom the Colorado granite deposits at Salida, says: "It is conceded by the biggest granite operators of the East, notably those of Barre, Vt., that the Salida granite exceeds in every point of merit that of any other known granite deposits of the United States, not excepting the famous Milford, Mass., granite."

"I am perfectly familiar with the Salida stone, and it is a granite of average excellence, thoroughly worthy of development. But to say that it exceeds in every point of excellence all the other granite of the country, or even to compare it with the Barre, Quincy or Westerly granites is nothing short of ridiculous. The Salida stone is a dark gray, and why any attempt is made to justify it, a comparison with Milford pink is very puzzling. Doubtless the writer had not the slightest idea as to what Milford granite is, but merely thought this was a standard granite and liked the sound of the name.

"Another statement that defeats its purpose because it needlessly attempts to claim too much is made by a Milwaukee newspaper. This says: 'By a recent comparative test, it was demonstrated that Montello granite is the hardest stone yet discovered in the world and that it possesses the greatest crushing strength—44,000 pounds to the square inch.'
