

IN REGARD TO HOSIERY

Tuff Hose Special Features—Ravel Stop Hose

- 1st—A tear is confined to the welt of the stocking.
 - 2nd—The narrow spliced heel prevents wear and is not unsightly.
 - 3rd—The double garter top.
 - 4th—The linen spliced heel and toe.
- The extra light reinforced toe.
- These Hoses are absolutely fast and stainless. We want you to try this Tuff Hose at 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c, 50c pair.

PERRY & CAMP,

Telephone 258-W. 75 Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

Large Size Rug Sale

Commences To-day and Continues Through this Week

Greatest retail show in Vermont of large size rugs of American production and at prices that should interest anyone in need of a carpet size rug. And this sale following notices by the manufacturers of an advance in price for the fall should prove all the more interesting, as later you will pay more money for your rugs.

It has been the policy of this house not to carry large rugs over from one season to another if price will move them.

As the season is pretty well advanced and we having a larger stock than usual at this time of year must reduce.

Note the following sizes and prices:

$37.50 Royal Wilton, 8.3x10.6	$31.50
47.50 Kimler Axminster, very heavy, 9x12	39.00
37.50 Trewan Royal Wilton, two patterns, 9x12	31.50
30.00 Seamless Wilton, 9x12	24.50
14.00 Scotch Brussels, 3 patterns, 9x12	10.00
18.00 Seamless Roxbury Brussels, 9x12	15.00
28.00 Heavy Axminster, 6 patterns, 9x12	21.50
15.00 Roxbury Brussels, 2 patterns, 8.3x10.6	12.50
30.00 Five Frame Body Brussels, 3 patterns, 9x12	24.50
14.00 Velvets, 3 patterns, 9x12	11.50
28.00 Best Axminster, Oriental pattern, 9x12	20.00
30.00 American Oriental, 9x12	16.50
15.00 Seamless Tapestries, 9x12	12.00
27.50 Best Body Brussels, 8.3x10.6	22.00
21.50 Axminster, floral patterns, 9x12	17.50
28.00 Roxbury Axminster, 9x12	21.00

These are only a few—Fifty Rugs in all—large carpet size Rugs to be sold out this week.

B. W. Hooker & Co.

Vermont's Largest House Furnishers

TALK OF THE TOWN

Auction sale to-night. Try out Choc-O-Nut college ice. Barre Drug Co.

Fifty-cent silks this week at 20c per yard at Vaughan's.

See black satin de chene, 40 inches wide, for $1.25, at Abbott's.

F. D. Ladd left last night on a few days' business trip to Boston.

When buying lace for that graduation dress, remember Perry's store can suit you.

George G. Comstock of Fall River, Mass., was a visitor in the city over the week-end.

Thomas Forbes left Saturday night for Saginaw, Mich., where he has secured employment.

Third semi-annual mid-season sale at Mrs. Nelson-Church's, of nearly 100 trimmed hats at cost.

The Altruists will meet with Mrs. Shores, 22 Hall street, Tuesday afternoon, May 14, at 2:30.

Charles Howes of Merchant street went Saturday night to his home in Northfield for a short visit.

Mrs. Herman A. Douglass of Orange street left this morning for a short visit with relatives in Waterbury.

O. G. Burnell returned to Barre today, after spending the week-end with relatives in Essex Junction.

Mrs. J. M. Stearns left this morning for Springfield, Mass., where she will spend several days with her sister.

Miss C. M. Durkee returned to Barre this morning, after spending several weeks with relatives in Brattleboro.

Miss Bessie Pratt of 28 Spaulding street left Saturday afternoon for Burlington, where she will spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Marguerite Brown and Miss Laura Donohue returned home last night, after spending the week-end with friends in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Nicol of Cottage street left this morning for Canton, O., where they will make an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Ethel Cooney and her sister, Miss Edith Cooney, left this morning for St. Albans, where they will spend a few days with relatives.

Bert Phillips and Albert Milne left Saturday night for Des Moines, Ia., where they will be employed by the Des Moines Monumental Co.

Plans made by a good architect help to beautify our street and make the housewife happy. Think it over, C. L. Bugbee, room 18, Howland building.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Waterman of Currier street were in Williamstown yesterday, having been called there by the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Williams.

Auction sale to-morrow. Big livery stock at Bradford, Vt.; 20 horses and all other livery equipment, for W. S. Williams at Hotel Low stable, C. F. Smith, auctioneer.

B. A. Eastman and F. H. Rogers left last night on the Green Mountain express for Lowelltown, Me., where they will proceed into the Maine woods for an extended fishing trip.

A. J. Guthrie, who has been spending a few days with friends in Barre since completing work in Montpelier, left this morning for Pittsfield, Mass., where he has secured a position.

Rev. Dr. W. A. Davison of Burlington, secretary of the Vermont state Baptist convention, returned home this morning after visiting the Baptist churches in this city and East Barre.

To-day and Monday, C. S. Andrews will sell shoe polishes that were in the basement at the time of the flood at one-half price: 25-cent polish at 12 1/2 cents; 10-cent polish for 5 cents.

Thomas H. Browne of Rutland, one of the candidates for state committeeman at the Democratic convention to be held in Baltimore, Md., was among the business visitors in the city Saturday.

William Bradbury, formerly a student at Goldard seminary and well known to many Barre people, arrived in the city Saturday night for a few days' visit with relatives here and in Washington.

Rev. Duncan Salmon, pastor of the Presbyterian church, left this afternoon for Louisville, Ky., where he will attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church. He will be away from Barre during the next two weeks.

L. S. Gates of Summer street left Saturday for Brandon, where he will pass a few days with his brother, John R. Gates, a missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church, who recently returned to Vermont from South Africa.

The funeral of Lillian Gasperini, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gasperini of Second street, whose death occurred last Thursday afternoon, was held at the home on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The burial took place in Hope cemetery.

Our stock is continually increasing, taking on new lines every day. Our sales have been larger the past week than any week interest, inasmuch as at least two Barre pastors have participated in the services mentioned: "A series of revival meetings" are being held in the Congregational church, Orange, Vt. This church is in the open country, on the top of a hill, with no village near, and has but a small supporting population. It presents all of the rural district problems. As a help toward the solution of these, nearby Congregational pastors are bringing to the congregation a message of hope and courage.

The death of Elton Pickard, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Theron G. Williams of the Williamstown road, occurred yesterday noon after a long illness of bronchitis. The child was sixteen months old and leaves only its father and mother. The funeral will be held at the house to-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. J. Q. Angell of Williamstown officiating. The burial will take place in the Williamstown cemetery.

The following item taken from "The Churchman Afield," the religious department of the Saturday Boston Transcript, will be of local interest, inasmuch as at least two Barre pastors have participated in the services mentioned: "A series of revival meetings" are being held in the Congregational church, Orange, Vt. This church is in the open country, on the top of a hill, with no village near, and has but a small supporting population. It presents all of the rural district problems. As a help toward the solution of these, nearby Congregational pastors are bringing to the congregation a message of hope and courage.

Tool sharpeners, notice! Regular meeting of tool sharpeners' union, No. 2, G. C. L. A., will be held in Nichols' block Wednesday evening, May 15, at 7 o'clock. James Mutch, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Thomas street returned Saturday night from a ten days' visit in Boston, Quincy and Gloucester. While in Quincy, they visited Mrs. William Donald, formerly of this city.

A large lot of new goods at City Auction Rooms, No. 118 Main street, which will attract cash buyers. Call and see the new pedestal tables, kitchen tables, center tables, and get prices. It will pay you to examine.

John Scott, a student at Burlington Business college, who is passing a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. James P. Kenefick, of Washington street, left last night for Graniteville, where he will spend a few days as the guest of Roswell Miles.

Willard E. Walker of Abbott avenue left last night for South Royalton, where he will remain for several days on business, attending the hearing of the public service commission Tuesday in the interests of the village of Royalton on the building of an underpass near the depot at that place.

The rainy weather kept down the attendance at the churches in Barre yesterday, but in spite of that drawback there was a very successful observance of "Mothers' day" in several of the churches, special sermons being preached by the pastors and in some cases special music being rendered.

Regular meeting of Barre aerie, No. 1573, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Foresters' hall.

"Resolve to Perform What You ought; perform without fail what you resolve." (Franklin). This applies to taking insurance for family protection. The National Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual.) S. S. Ballard, general agent, Lawrence building, Montpelier, Vt.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

WASH GOODS

In a way, Wash Goods are staple Dry Goods and in another way they are not at all times. The spring season brings out styles and qualities not to be had at other times of the year; colors that once sold would not appear again until next spring. We want you to see what we are showing in the way of new ideas in wash goods to-day.

Goods for Wash Skirts

New weaves in White Piques are some of our best. These come at 18c, 25c and 50c.

New Reps or Poplins—these in white and colors. These being mercerized have the appearance of Silk Poplins. They launder well and hang well in a skirt or suit. The price is 25c per yard.

One of the most popular cloths is our Economy Linen. This comes 33 inches wide in natural linen, Copenhagen blue and white, at 15c per yard. These are far better than Indian Head Cotton that costs 15c.

For light weight Wash Skirts, ask to see Lykeinen at 25c per yard.

All Pure Linen for skirts in the natural at 25c. White Linen, a special value at 29c. At 50c, a finer, lighter weight than usually sold at 60c.

We have a Blue and White and a Tan and White Pique that is fast color at 25c per yard. One of the best values in our stock.

Goods for Wash Suits and Dresses

Bordered Muslins are good—yes, very good, and hard to find. These we have at 12 1-2c per yard.

Ginghams in new spring designs, also a good line of new Percales on our sale tables at 10c per yard.

New lot of Mercerized Plisse at 18c per yard. These are especially good in best patterns.

Embroidered White Crepe is the latest for summer dresses—sells for 30c per yard and is going fast.

White Ratine is a new cloth, very extensively advertised. This in white, 27 inches wide, at 35c per yard.

Voiles are good. These we have in silk stripes of lavender, light blue, pink and tan. These are some of our best sellers at the price, 25c per yard.

Colored Flaxons are some of our best cloths for summer dresses. They wash well and hold their color. Look like new after being laundered.

Ladies' Muslin Waists

We have just received and are putting on sale to-day one lot of Ladies' Fine Muslin Waists, finished both in lace and muslin edges and insertions.

This lot of Waists is new in design and finish, and the full line of six styles all goes in at one price, 87c each.

In this lot of 87c Waists are two styles that are made high neck and short sleeve. Are embroidered front and tucked back.

In the same lot at 87c each are four styles of fine Muslin Waists that are made low neck and short sleeve. Are finished with a fine val, lace and insertion.

These are an extremely good value at only 87c each for any style.

We have a lot of Colored Waists in a good quality madras with soft cuffs and collars. Can be worn with any collar. Price is $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 each.

Ladies' Separate Skirts

We have just received some new values in Ladies' Wash Skirts. These are Skirts that are made by practical Skirt people, who make nothing but Skirts.

At $1.25 is a nice Tailored Skirt, is made in the linen colored linen.

At $1.50 are three styles in Reps and Indian Head Cotton, are a very good styled Skirt.

At $2.00 we will give you an extra good quality Rep Skirt. Is made in one of the latest styles.

At $2.50 are some heavy Cotton Skirts in the season's best style, and an extra good quality.

At $3.00 are a number of different styles in the wide wale Bedford Cord goods. Is one of our best styles.

At $3.50 we can give you a number of extra good values in Linens and the wide wale Bedford Cords.

At from $3.75 to $5.50 are some of the best values in Wash Skirts we have ever shown.

Another lot of those forty inch Black Satin De Chene. This is a $1.75 Silk that we bought very cheap, and we now sell it at $1.25 per yard. Also one lot of nineteen-inch Real Japanese Wash Silk in pink, blue and plain white stripes. This is a 50c all pure silk, at 25c per yard.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Board of Trade day Thursday. Ask for samples of the new poplins at Vaughan's.

We serve four different college ices. Barre Drug Co.

Auction sale this evening. City Auction Rooms, O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

E. L. Taylor left this morning for Worcester, where he will visit relatives a few days.

James Mackie of Summer street commenced work Saturday for the Barre Drug company.

Leonard Tierney returned to Waterbury this morning, after passing the week-end with friends in this city.

A nine-pound daughter was born this morning at the City hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baldwin of Nelson street.

William Bradbury of Boston, who is spending a few weeks at his home in Washington, was a visitor in this city Saturday.

Miss Beatrice Callaghan of North Main street left Saturday noon for Boston, where she will visit with relatives for a week.

John Carleson of Church street left Saturday night for Boston, where he will remain for a week as the guest of his brother.

Spaulding high school's next scheduled game of baseball will be played Tuesday afternoon at Intercity park against Montpelier seminary.

Charles Fiske returned to his home at St. Johnsbury last night, after passing a few days as the guest of friends on Merchant street.

Special meeting of the Athena club at the home of Mrs. Edwin Keast, Prospect avenue, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Important. Let every member be present.

The members of the Dartmouth gun club, who participated in the three-cornered shoot at the Montpelier Gun club traps Saturday, returned to Hanover, N. H., yesterday.

Floyd Russell and Louis Quimby of Merchant street returned to this city this morning from Caremont, N. H., where they spent the week-end at their former home.

Eighty-one couples attended the weekly dance held under the auspices of the Woodmen Saturday night in the Howland hall. Riley's orchestra of five pieces furnished music for the dance.

Tool sharpeners, notice! Regular meeting of tool sharpeners' union, No. 2, G. C. L. A., will be held in Nichols' block Wednesday evening, May 15, at 7 o'clock. James Mutch, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of Thomas street returned Saturday night from a ten days' visit in Boston, Quincy and Gloucester. While in Quincy, they visited Mrs. William Donald, formerly of this city.

A large lot of new goods at City Auction Rooms, No. 118 Main street, which will attract cash buyers. Call and see the new pedestal tables, kitchen tables, center tables, and get prices. It will pay you to examine.

John Scott, a student at Burlington Business college, who is passing a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. James P. Kenefick, of Washington street, left last night for Graniteville, where he will spend a few days as the guest of Roswell Miles.

Willard E. Walker of Abbott avenue left last night for South Royalton, where he will remain for several days on business, attending the hearing of the public service commission Tuesday in the interests of the village of Royalton on the building of an underpass near the depot at that place.

The rainy weather kept down the attendance at the churches in Barre yesterday, but in spite of that drawback there was a very successful observance of "Mothers' day" in several of the churches, special sermons being preached by the pastors and in some cases special music being rendered.

Regular meeting of Barre aerie, No. 1573, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Foresters' hall.

"Resolve to Perform What You ought; perform without fail what you resolve." (Franklin). This applies to taking insurance for family protection. The National Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual.) S. S. Ballard, general agent, Lawrence building, Montpelier, Vt.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Good place to buy your garments at Vaughan's.

Nineteen-inch all pure silk in stripes for 25c at Abbott's, was 50c.

F. A. Walker of Abbott avenue left this morning on a short business trip to Glover.

The City Auction Rooms is the place to buy new iron beds, springs and mattresses for cash. You can save money in looking at our stock. Continually changing all the time.

Miss Mary Gates and Miss Faith Delano of Morrisville were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Walker of East street over Sunday, making the trip to Barre by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Whitcomb of East Barre, Wallace J. Jones of Washington street and A. E. Campbell left this morning in the latter's automobile for Hyde Park, where they were called to attend the funeral of Mrs. Irving Willey.

Charles E. Bixby, who has been employed in the Palace and other garages in Barre for some time, has been engaged to operate the automobile stage, running from Stowe to Morrisville. The route is owned by Leo Gates of Morrisville. Mr. Bixby began his new duties last week.

At the auction sale Saturday for William Nicol, corner of Orange and Patterson streets, a good crowd was in attendance and the real estate was purchased by the auctioneer, C. F. Smith, for $2,140. The house is new and modern in every way, with a nice large corner lot and only one minute walk from the electric car line and in one of the best residential sections of the city. Furniture sold at fair prices.

WAITSFIELD.

Local High School Defeated Northfield High School, 12 to 11.

In an interesting, though many-errored game Saturday, Waitsfield high school defeated Northfield high school on the Waitsfield campus by the score of 12 to 11. The game was practically won in the sixth inning, when Waitsfield made six runs. Hits, Northfield 7, Waitsfield 7; struck out, by Cross of N. H. S. 4, by Maynard of N. H. S. 5, by Ford of W. H. S. 9; errors, Northfield 9, Waitsfield 7.

Marshfield People Married in Barre.

Miss Rose E. Newton and Bemis G. Wilson, both of Marshfield, were united in marriage Saturday at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. W. Barnett. Mr. Wilson is an electrician.

NATIVE ASPARAGUS

We have contracted for fresh cut Native Asparagus to be delivered at our store fresh every morning. Try it, it's 20c for large full size bunches.

Boston Asparagus, per bunch, 15c.

SMITH & CUMINGS
GOOD THINGS TO EAT

JAPALAC

Now is the time to dress up your porch furniture in summer clothes. A can of RED or GREEN will work wonders. A quart will be ample.

JAP-A-LAC also comes in 16 other colors, and there are a hundred uses for each color.

OAK, DARK OAK, WALNUT, MAHOGANY, CHERRY, MALACHITE GREEN, OX-BLOOD RED, ENAMEL GREEN, ENAMEL RED, BRILLIANT BLACK, DEAD BLACK, NATURAL GLOSS WHITE, FLAT WHITE, GROUND, BLUE, GOLD AND ALUMINUM. ALL SIZES FROM 20c TO $3.00. AT OUR PAINT DEPARTMENT.

REYNOLDS & SON

Hardware, Quarry and Mill Supplies Barre, Vermont

GOOD VALUES

- Pearl Pickled Onions, in bottles, each, - - - 10c
 - Boston Picallilli, large bottles, each, - - - 10c
 - Pure Catsup, in convenient size for home and picnic, each, - - - 10
 - Red Lily Cocktail Catsup, to close the brand, - - - 17c
 - Monadnock Catsup, this lot, - - - 17c
 - Robertson's Black Currant Jam, 25c package in stone jars, made in Paisley, Scotland, our price, - - - 20c
 - Robertson's Orange Marmalade, in stone jars, - - - 20c
 - Robertson's Orange, Lemon, Damson and Red Currant pure Jelly in glass tumblers, each, 12 1-2c
 - 3 cans fancy Maine Corn for - - - 25c
 - Red Letter Pears, large can, - - - 15c
 - Compass Brand Pears, per can, - - - 10c
 - Armour's Baked Pork and Beans, labels slightly soiled, contents guaranteed, to close up the lot, 10c size for 5c; 15c size for - - - 10c
 - Evaporated Cranberries, quickly and easily prepared, with all the natural flavor retained, per package, 9c; 3 packages for - - - 25c
 - Potatoes, dry and mealy, per peck, - - - 35c
 - Strictly fresh Eggs, per dozen, - - - 23c
 - Fresh picked juicy Rhubarb, per pound, - - - 06c
 - Ralston's Wheat Breakfast Food in a new and convenient package, each, - - - 10c
- Remember these prices are subject to a 5 per cent special discount if goods are paid for and taken from our store.
- All rebate checks on purchases that you pay the delivery check for, are marked and ready for you at the store. Ask for them.

F. D. LADD COMPANY

NEW DINNER WARE

We have recently stocked a new pattern in Porcelain Dinner Ware. This is a stock pattern, which enables you to buy in separate pieces. This has a pure white body with a bold band, with a fine black border line. The style and shapes of the dishes are the best we have ever shown, and this is sure to be a seller.

In stocking up your china closets after housecleaning, start in on this new Dinner Ware. You will be more than pleased at the selection, and better still with the price.

See This Displayed.

Our Easy Buying Plan Will Start You Right.

C. N. KENYON & CO.'S

CASH BARGAIN STORE,

185-187 North Main Street. Tel. (346-M) Barre, Vt.