TALK OF THE TOWN

Fifty Austria linen scarfs at 25c, also center pieces. At Vaughan's.

See the line of dressing saques and kimonos Abbott & Co. are showing.

Philip Hollister of North Montpelier arrived in the city to-day for a short visit with friends.

Ray Mann of Hill street left yesterday afternoon for Brattleboro, where he will spend several days with relatives.

Public automobile: A new five-passenger Hudson car for hire, by the day or hour. Telephone 111-M, Papin Brothers.

Auction sale of household furniture at James Reid's, Camp street, above Tremont, Saturday afternoon at 2. See adv.

Miss Gladys Carroll of Keith avenue left this noon for Old Orchard, Me., where she will pass several days with friends.

Miss Lucille Grant of Randolph was a visitor in this city yesterday, passing the day as the guest of Miss Sadie Field of Academy street.

H. G. Bennett returned last night from Burlington and at midnight started for Boston, on a few days' business visit, making the trip by auto.

Bargains in hosiery will be added to C. S. Andrews' special sale Saturday, when you will have the opportunity to purchase hose at a big discount.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hickey, who have been visiting at the home of the latter's brother, L. J. Carroll of North Main street, returned to-day to their home in Jewett City, Conn.

Mrs. William Lawler, who has been spending the past few days in this city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Grady of Central street, left to-day for her home at Claremont, N. H.

James C. Walker of Randolph arrived in this city yesterday and is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Agnes Walker of Grant avenue. Mr. Walker is principal of the Vergennes high school.

The house and land on Camp street formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Reid have been sold to Miss Fannie J. Merrill of this city, instead of Mrs. Mullen, as reported in an item in The Times recently.

Arthur Jordan of Eastern avenue, who has been confined to the City hospital for several weeks, left this afternoon for Richmond, where he will make an extended stay. He was accompanied by Ira Lawrence. Mr. Jordan's condition is considerably improved.

The firm of Reynolds & Son, hardware dealers, has increased its delivery service by adding a heavy Kelly motor truck, which arrived in the city last night. The machine carries 45 horsepower and is one of the largest cars of its kind in the city. It was manufactured in Springfield, O.

Saturday afternoon on the seminary campus will be seen for the first time this season the Jeffersonville A. C. baseball team, when they face the Barre A. C. The Jefferson team is stronger than in former years. In their line-up are several stars of repute in the northern part of the state. Manager Homan is undecided yet as to whom he will put against the Lamoille county lads.

At the Universalist church next Sunday morning, Prof. W. A. Wheaton will play "Traumerei" by Gerardi and "Post-hue in B Flat" by Volckmar. The Orpheus male quartet will sing "O Come Let Us Sing" by Gilbert and "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" by Flotow. Dr. D. C. Jarvis and W. J. Inglis will sing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," by Tasson.

"Brewster's Millions," a dramatization of George Barr McCutcheon's entertaining story, will be the attraction at the Barre opera house Thursday, August 1. Clyde Bates will be seen in the title character of Brewster. The excellent cast is practically the original. Peggy Ford will be seen as "Peggy" Gray and the remaining long list of characters will be played respectively by Louise Sanford, Viola Grant, Gertrude Shanley, Marguerite Slavin, Howard L. Dorsey, and Frank De Vernon and a score of others. The triumph of stagecraft is attained in the wonderful scene on shipboard. The yacht rocking in the gale when "Monty" sounds the signal of distress, thus disposing in less than a second of the $5,000,000 which had been worrying him for weeks. Of course, it is all wildly improbable; so was the book; but there is fun enough in this whimsical story of frenzied finance to make even the blasé playgoer laugh.
