The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure. It is the medical fraternity. Catarrh, a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is an internal acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

John La Fountain of Montgomery, who was being taken to St. Albans hospital Monday evening for an operation grew so rapidly worse after leaving home that he was taken from the train at Enosbury Falls and died in the station.

Mrs. Hattie Shipman of Hardwick has been elected president of the state W. R. C., succeeding the late Mrs. Ida E. Goodenough of Brattleboro. Etta K. Martin of Burlington was elected senior vice-president and Mrs. Emily A. Marsden of Bennington, junior vice president.

Dana Stafford of Brattleboro shot two young deer Monday morning that were destroying his fruit orchard, Warden M. J. Howard of South Londonderry was on his way to the place at the time to adjust previous damages done by deer. He found 88 young trees damaged or destroyed and the state will have to pay $97.20.

When John Dody of Middlebury attempted to eject a gang of sixteen gypsies, whom he found encamped upon his land, they showed fight and some of the men came at him with clubs. Mr. Dody beat them off with the butt-end of his whip and telephoned for officers, who drove them off the premises after compelling them to pay damages and the costs of the officers.

The annual orchard meeting of the Vermont State Horticultural society will be held at Shelburne Farms, Shelburne, on August 21. On this magnificent estate of 3,500 acres, where orchards, greenhouses and landscapes abound and where large areas of farming and dairying have a place, an unparalleled opportunity is open. Shelburne is on the Rutland railroad, seven miles from Burlington. Superintendent Gebhardt will provide transportation from the depot to the farms. Take the early forenoon train. The program will include a review of horticultural interests in forenoon, lunch at noon near superintendent's house, followed by addresses; inspection of barns and dairy on return trip to depot. In case of rain the 21st, the meet will be held the next fair day.

STATE OF VERMONT. The Honorable District of Washington, ss. Probate Court for the District aforesaid: To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of Alexander S. Bird, late of the City of Barre in said District, deceased, Greeting:
Whereas application has been made to the court in writing by the Administrator, with the will annexed, praying for license and authority to sell all of the real estate of said deceased situated in the City of Barre in said District to wit: the home place at No. 81 Merchant Street and all real estate owned by said Bird of which the said deceased died seized and possessed, representing to said Court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.
And bringing into Court the consent and approbation in writing, of all the heirs to said estate residing in this State, and setting forth the situation of the real estate.
Whereupon, the said Court appointed and assigned the 23 day of August, 1912, at the Probate Office in said District, to receive and order upon said application and petition, and orders a public hearing to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the said District, and to all persons interested in said estate, all of which publications shall be previous to the day assigned for hearing.
Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court, at the time and place assigned, to show cause, if any, why you should object to the granting of such license, if you see cause.
You may under my hand at Montpelier in said District, this 10th day of July, 1912.
MARY J. CUTLER, Register.

Indian Killed on Track.
Near Rochelle, Ill., an Indian went to sleep on a railroad track and was killed by the fast express. He paid for his carelessness with his life. Often it is that way when people neglect coughs and colds. Don't risk your life when prompt use of Dr. King's New Discovery will cure them and so prevent a dangerous throat or lung trouble. "It completely cured me, in a short time, of a terrible cough that followed a severe attack of grip," writes J. R. Waite, Floyd, Tex. "It is a bath room, and I had lost. Quick, safe, reliable, and guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

AT SHERIFF'S SALE
STATE OF VERMONT, WASHINGTON COUNTY.
Notice is hereby given that I hold an execution against S. D. Sibley, in favor of J. S. Fray, issued upon judgment rendered by the Washington county court at Montpelier, within and for the county of Washington, at the March term, 1912, thereof, for the sum of $128.72, and that execution has been extended upon the following described property:
Being a spring described as follows: Being the same spring of water and aqueduct decreed to S. D. Sibley by A. F. Soutwell of Cambridge, Mass., and Azro Morse of city of Barre, September 12, 1909, located on land which said Soutwell and Morse deeded to Frank K. Bailey September 1, A. D. 1909, and is the same spring of water which heretofore supplied water to the farm and buildings on the old Royal Gae farm, so called, and is also the same spring and aqueduct reserved by S. D. Sibley in his assignment made to Frank K. Bailey and recorded in volume 15, page 391, of the land records of the city of Barre, together with the rights to enter upon the land conveyed to Frank K. Bailey as aforesaid, to maintain and repair said aqueduct and spring.
Also a piece of land bounded as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of the land owned by B. W. Hooker on the westerly side of Fair View street; thence in an easterly direction on the northerly line of said Hooker's land to land now owned by the Barre Granite & Quarry company, and thence in a northerly direction on the westerly line of the said Barre Granite & Quarry company's land to land owned by E. J. Dunbar, to the northwest corner of the said Dunbar property, and the land belonging to the estate of Ida Beckley. Thence in a westerly direction on a line made by extending the northerly line of the said Dunbar land in a westerly direction to a point where the easterly line of land belonging to S. D. Sibley, extending in a southerly direction, would cut the last-mentioned bound. Thence in a straight line to the southeast corner of land belonging to the said S. D. Sibley, thence in a westerly direction to Fair View street; thence in a southerly direction and in a straight line to the place of beginning.
Being the premises that J. B. Campbell conveyed to Silas D. Sibley January 7, 1907, and recorded in book 14, page 379, and the land records of the city of Barre, and it is the same premises that the said Silas D. Sibley conveyed to Albert A. Sargent by deed of June 18, 1908, and recorded in book 9, page 322, of said land records. And it is the same premises that the said Albert A. Sargent conveyed to Minnie K. Sibley by deed dated June 18, 1908, and recorded in book 9, page 323, of the land records of the said city of Barre.

Also a piece of land containing about fifteen acres, lying and being on the southerly side of the right of way of the Central Vermont Railroad company, that was conveyed to Byron B. Jackson by H. O. Worthen by his administrator's deed, dated November 19, 1895, and recorded in book 3, page 212, of the land records of the city of Barre, and Frances L. Jackson conveyed to said Byron B. Jackson by her deed of quit claim dated November 19, 1895, and recorded in book 3, page 28, of the land records of the city of Barre, and that the said Byron B. Jackson conveyed to Silas D. Sibley the 9th day of January, A. D. 1908.
Notice is hereby further given that by virtue of said execution and by the direction of S. Hollister Jackson, attorney for the creditors in said cause, unless said amount of execution, costs and interest, together with my fees and legal charges thereon, is in the meantime satisfied, I shall sell the above described properties, with the appurtenances thereto, and with the said debtor's right to redeem the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of said execution, interest and costs thereon, at public auction to the highest bidder for the same, at the office of S. Hollister Jackson in the city of Barre, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, to satisfy in whole or in part of said amount of said execution, costs and interest, together with my fees and legal charges thereon, as directed in said execution.
Dated at city of Barre in the county of Washington this 15th day of June, A. D. 1912.
GEO. L. MORRIS,
Deputy Sheriff.
