

Ladies' and Misses' Coats

Going at $5 each

Great Coat Sale for Saturday

Ladies' here is a chance to buy a good coat for little money. Our odd lots of Ladies' and Misses' Coats made in pongee and taffeta silk, also a few in linens. Some of these Coats are this spring styles, others are last season's models, but all are made of the best materials and well tailored. We are determined to clean up this lot of Coats and at this price they will not last long.

These were formerly priced up to $22.50, for Saturday at the very low price of

$5.00 each

These come in plain tailored and prettily trimmed. Do not delay, come here Saturday for a great Coat value.

Notice our window display of these Coats

All of our white muslin, lawn and allover embroidery dresses reduced 1-3.

All of our white serges, including suits, skirts, coats and dresses reduced 1-3.

The balance of our suit stock reduced 1-2.

The Homer Fitts Company, Barre, Vt.

Silk Sale all this week—good values.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1912.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Coat sale Saturday at Fitts'.

Table girl wanted at hotel Otis.

The right kind of gloves and hosiery at Vaughan's.

Clean-up sale of ladies' ready-to-wear garments at Vaughan's.

There will be a meeting of the truck men in painters' hall Thursday evening at 7:30.

F. G. Faour of New York is visiting in this city as the guest of Hilder Habbe of Prospect street.

T. A. Jenkins of Haverhill, Mass., arrived in the city last evening for a visit with friends on Wellington street.

Henry Westcott of Orange street is taking a two weeks' vacation from his duties at the Boston Bargain Store.

The condition of Mrs. Blanche Davis of Washington street, who has been seriously ill, continues to slowly improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hoofman returned last night to their home in Moretown, after a short visit in the city.

J. A. McLeod left yesterday afternoon for Sherbrooke, P. Q., where he will make a several days' visit with relatives.

Miss Blanche Russell of Eastern avenue left to-day for Plainfield, where she will pass the remainder of the week with friends.

Roscoe Melver of Graniteville was a visitor in this city yesterday, returning from a few days' outing at Highgate Springs.

Henry Camp returned yesterday to his home in East Randolph, after spending a few days with relatives in Barre and Plainfield.

Auction sale at 4 p. m. Saturday of household goods on the platform at our old auction rooms, Pearl street. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

W. A. Whitcomb of Washington street, who has been spending the past few days at Boston on business, returned to this city this morning.

Mrs. Grover Hall of Beacon avenue, who has been visiting at Unity, N. H., for the past few weeks, returned yesterday to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lampier returned this morning to their home in Wells River, after spending a few days with friends in South Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hall and the former's father, T. B. Hall, of Groton were visitors in the city yesterday, making the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goodfellow of Spaulding street left this morning for South Ryegate, where they will visit for a few days with relatives.

Mrs. George Hogg of Graniteville was in the city yesterday on her way to Sherbrooke, P. Q., where she will make an extended visit with relatives.

W. L. Wilcox of Moretown, the Moretown agent for the Perry Real Estate Co., returned to his home last night, after a short visit in the city.

John McLean, who is employed by the Sullivan Machinery company of Claremont, N. H., arrived in this city yesterday for a few days' visit with relatives.

Officer Harry Gamble of Division street is taking a week's vacation from his duties on the police force and left last night for Portland, Me., where he will visit relatives.

Only two more days in which you can pay your taxes and save the extra costs. City treasurer's office open every day from 8 a. m. to noon; 1:30 to 5 p. m. and 6:30 to 8 p. m.

Thomas Riley, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grogan of Maple avenue for several days, will return to-night to his home in Westfield, Mass. Mrs. Riley will remain in Barre for another week.

Mrs. Charlotte A. Bosworth of Merchant street, was taken quite suddenly ill while visiting friends in Berlin a few days ago and yesterday B. W. Hooker & Co.'s ambulance was summoned to bring her home. To-day she was resting comfortably and physicians said that her condition was not serious. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Mary Borworth.

The Italian Athletic club seconds met their second defeat of the week at East Barre last night. The East Barre team nosed out with a narrow margin of one run, the score being 5 to 4. There were many sensational plays made in which Calagani and Ruffe starred. Ruffe, the left fielder of the Barre team, also gained the lion's share of the batting honors. E. Bourke was on the mound for the East Barre team, striking out 13 men. W. Tierney of the local club fanned 11. The Rourke brothers were in the points for the winners. Ricardelli did the backstopping for the Barre team.

The Italian Independent club baseball team will play to-morrow afternoon at Williamstown against the Athletic club of that place. Tomasi and Lavini will be the battery used by the Barre team.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robins and son, John W., left this morning for Tenant's Harbor, Me., where they will visit for two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robins' parents. The trip was made by automobile.

Mrs. Agnes Walker and two children, Isabell and George, of Grant avenue left to-day for Woodbury, where they will enjoy a short outing at Woodbury pond. The trip was made in H. A. Richardson's automobile.

Mrs. Elecia Abbiati of Berlin street, who has been confined to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington for the past few weeks recuperating from an operation for appendicitis, returned to this city yesterday.

Mrs. John Smith of East street, who is spending the summer at Groton pond, has arrived in this city for a short visit. She was accompanied by Miss Rita Beckley, who has been spending the past few days in camp at Groton.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate Co. has sold for Thomas Malmquist a building lot located within the city limits to Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ericson, who contemplate the erection of a dwelling house on their newly acquired property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham, who have been visiting in this city for the past few weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMillan of Academy street, left yesterday afternoon for their home at Fort Worth, Tex. They were accompanied by Guy George of South Main street, who will make his residence in Texas.

The Pearl street Tigers journeyed to East Montpelier yesterday. Where they played a team composed of players from that vicinity. The trip going was made by carriage and the return on foot. The Barre team won by a score of 13 to 3. The features of the game was the hitting and fielding of Vanetti. The battery for the Barre team was Daniels and Roach.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Note our sale for Saturday at The Vaughan Store.

Mr. and Mrs. George May of Marshfield were among the visitors in the city yesterday.

J. W. Cavanagh of Rouses Point, N. Y., was among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

The latest books can be had from the circulating library at Dodge's, No. 200 North Main street.

C. Gual, who has been employed in Morrisville for several months, returned to Barre last night.

Dr. Robert Benfrew of Burlington arrived in this city to-day for a short visit with friends.

Carl B. Miller of Buffalo, N. Y., was among the business visitors in the city yesterday and to-day.

Everett Swasey returned to his home in Waterbury yesterday, after spending week with friends in the city.

Henry Skerritts of Portland, Me., is visiting in this city as the guest of William Skerritts of Farwell street.

Miss Mabel Mears returned yesterday to her home in Marshfield, after spending several days with friends in the city.

Miss Laura Donahue of Elm street left to-day for Fairlee, where she will spend a few days in camp at lake Morey.

Miss Georgiana Wishart of Camp street left yesterday afternoon for St. Albans, where she will visit for a few days.

Mrs. F. M. Morrison returned this morning to her home in St. Albans, after passing several days with friends in the city.

Mrs. Edna Foyell returned yesterday to her home in Orange, Mass., after a month's visit with relatives in Barre and Montpelier.

E. A. Bulfo of Railroad street left yesterday afternoon for Waterbury, where he will make a several days' visit with relatives.

Miss Marion Humphrey, who has been spending a few days with relatives in Barre, returned this morning to her home in Milton.

Auction sale at 4 p. m. Saturday of household goods on the platform at our old auction rooms, Pearl street. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

Peter Giani left last night for New York, where he will sail on the French liner Rochambeau, to-morrow for his former home in Italy.

Arthur Bartlett, the M. & W. station agent at Marshfield, returned home last night, after spending a few days with friends in the city.

Miss Rosina and Eva Cadorette of Lawrence, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Onesime Merin at Westerville and other friends in Graniteville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckwith of Syracuse, N. Y., who are touring Vermont and New Hampshire by automobile, were visitors in the city yesterday.

Miss Hazel Williams, who has been spending the past few days in this city as the guests of friends on Maple avenue returned this afternoon to Burlington.

Wednesday's arrivals at the hotel Otis were as follows: G. W. Pike, Lisbon, N. H.; A. L. Carpenter, Manchester, N. H.; Charles Henfield, Lewiston, Me.

S. Balzarini of Smith street leaves to-morrow for New York, whence he will sail to-morrow on the French line steamship Rochambeau for his former home near Milan, Italy.

Miss Marie Wells of 47 Merchant street left this morning for South Woodbury, where she will visit for the remainder of the week as the guest of Frank Bateholder.

Only two more days in which you can pay your taxes and save the extra costs. City treasurer's office open every day from 8 a. m. to noon; 1:30 to 5 p. m. and 6:30 to 8 p. m.

The dance held in the Howland hall last night immediately after the band concert was attended by sixty couples. Riley's orchestra of five pieces furnished music for the dance.

All Cobble Hill grangers going to Woodbury pond August 15 be at N. M. Nelson's at 7:30 in the morning. Ladies carry lunches. If weather is bad, the trip will be made the week following.

The Italian Independent club baseball team will play to-morrow afternoon at Williamstown against the Athletic club of that place. Tomasi and Lavini will be the battery used by the Barre team.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robins and son, John W., left this morning for Tenant's Harbor, Me., where they will visit for two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robins' parents. The trip was made by automobile.

Mrs. Agnes Walker and two children, Isabell and George, of Grant avenue left to-day for Woodbury, where they will enjoy a short outing at Woodbury pond. The trip was made in H. A. Richardson's automobile.

Mrs. Elecia Abbiati of Berlin street, who has been confined to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington for the past few weeks recuperating from an operation for appendicitis, returned to this city yesterday.

Mrs. John Smith of East street, who is spending the summer at Groton pond, has arrived in this city for a short visit. She was accompanied by Miss Rita Beckley, who has been spending the past few days in camp at Groton.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate Co. has sold for Thomas Malmquist a building lot located within the city limits to Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ericson, who contemplate the erection of a dwelling house on their newly acquired property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham, who have been visiting in this city for the past few weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMillan of Academy street, left yesterday afternoon for their home at Fort Worth, Tex. They were accompanied by Guy George of South Main street, who will make his residence in Texas.

The Pearl street Tigers journeyed to East Montpelier yesterday. Where they played a team composed of players from that vicinity. The trip going was made by carriage and the return on foot. The Barre team won by a score of 13 to 3. The features of the game was the hitting and fielding of Vanetti. The battery for the Barre team was Daniels and Roach.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

Clearance Sale of Ladies' and Children's SWEATERS

Ladies' Fancy Knit at one-half price, colors cardinal, navy, green and brown.

Children's Plain Knit and Worsted Sweaters, sizes 22 to 34, in plain gray, plain cardinal and gray and cardinal combinations, sale price, each

98c $1.00 $1.35

You'll Find That It Pays To Trade Here.

Henry W. Knight BARRE, Vermont. Successor to Veale & Knight.

PAVILION THEATRE

MATINEE 2:30-3:30

Three Shows Daily

EVENING 7:15-9

Veribes Auderville

Popular Photoplays

Program To-day

Dick and Alice McAvoy

presenting their rapid-fire comedy sketch, "Herakl Square Jim," the east side guy and his "steady." Dick McAvoy's impersonation of a comedy tough character is conceded to be the best on the vaudeville stage. A big city act that is a hit from start to finish.

Nafle Normandy

the girl with the golden voice, one of Don Ramsay's best singing acts. A refined singing act that will please all.

Photoplays

THE CONVICT'S PAROLE. A fine dramatic picture from the Edison studios, full of deep heart-to-heart interest and showing the system of paroling convicts which is in successful operation in Oregon.

THE STRONGER MIND.

A detective story deep in plot construction and powerful and thrilling in action. It's a picture that will please all.

You Will Have Time to See the Entire Show After the Band Concert—It's a Swell Program—Don't Miss It.

MISS IONE GHIO, Pianist.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS. CHILDREN, 5 CENTS.

We Are Breaking All Records with Our DOLLAR SAVING SALE

That is Now in Full Swing

The summer season is not over by a big jump, we know, but we've simply got to clear decks for winter clothes.

This week has been a busy one for us, and we anticipate another big rush Saturday for those "Peek Suits." Be one of the lucky ones. There's some great surprises here for you.

We've pared the figures down pretty well, you must admit, for good clothes. See us Saturday, anyway, if you can find a few minutes—look.

All W. S. Peck & Co.'s $22.00 Suits	17.50
All W. S. Peck & Co.'s $20.00 Suits	16.00
All W. S. Peck & Co.'s $18.00 Suits	14.50
All W. S. Peck & Co.'s $16.50 Suits	13.50
All W. S. Peck & Co.'s $15.00 Suits	12.00
All our $13.50 Suits	10.50
All our $12.00 Suits	9.50
All our $10.00 Suits	7.50
All our $8.50 Suits	6.50
All our $7.50 Suits	5.50
All our $6.00 Suits	4.50
All our $5.50 Suits	4.00

Everything else in the store with exception of Overalls is marked down to the point that means a quick disposal. Come here for your goods. Just as well have brand-new goods at cut prices. Why not?

F. E. Cutts & Company

TALK OF THE TOWN

Buy your white dresses at Fitts'.

See the large size of bed spreads at Vaughan's.

John James Walker is visiting in Washington.

All dress goods and silks at closing-out prices. Henry W. Knight.

Graer Walker is spending a two weeks' vacation at the Corrigan farm.

Bargains on second floor in summer underwear and coats, at Vaughan's.

The ladies of the Plainfield club will meet with Mrs. Clara Page at 99 Elm street at 2 o'clock Friday. As it is election of officers, a full attendance is desired.

Only two more days in which you can pay your taxes and save the extra costs. City treasurer's office open every day from 8 a. m. to noon; 1:30 to 5 p. m. and 6:30 to 8 p. m.

Thomas Riley, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grogan of Maple avenue for several days, will return to-night to his home in Westfield, Mass. Mrs. Riley will remain in Barre for another week.

Mrs. Charlotte A. Bosworth of Merchant street, was taken quite suddenly ill while visiting friends in Berlin a few days ago and yesterday B. W. Hooker & Co.'s ambulance was summoned to bring her home. To-day she was resting comfortably and physicians said that her condition was not serious. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Miss Mary Borworth.

The Italian Athletic club seconds met their second defeat of the week at East Barre last night. The East Barre team nosed out with a narrow margin of one run, the score being 5 to 4. There were many sensational plays made in which Calagani and Ruffe starred. Ruffe, the left fielder of the Barre team, also gained the lion's share of the batting honors. E. Bourke was on the mound for the East Barre team, striking out 13 men. W. Tierney of the local club fanned 11. The Rourke brothers were in the points for the winners. Ricardelli did the backstopping for the Barre team.

The Italian Independent club baseball team will play to-morrow afternoon at Williamstown against the Athletic club of that place. Tomasi and Lavini will be the battery used by the Barre team.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robins and son, John W., left this morning for Tenant's Harbor, Me., where they will visit for two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robins' parents. The trip was made by automobile.

Mrs. Agnes Walker and two children, Isabell and George, of Grant avenue left to-day for Woodbury, where they will enjoy a short outing at Woodbury pond. The trip was made in H. A. Richardson's automobile.

Mrs. Elecia Abbiati of Berlin street, who has been confined to the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington for the past few weeks recuperating from an operation for appendicitis, returned to this city yesterday.

Mrs. John Smith of East street, who is spending the summer at Groton pond, has arrived in this city for a short visit. She was accompanied by Miss Rita Beckley, who has been spending the past few days in camp at Groton.

The D. A. Perry Real Estate Co. has sold for Thomas Malmquist a building lot located within the city limits to Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Ericson, who contemplate the erection of a dwelling house on their newly acquired property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham, who have been visiting in this city for the past few weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMillan of Academy street, left yesterday afternoon for their home at Fort Worth, Tex. They were accompanied by Guy George of South Main street, who will make his residence in Texas.

The Pearl street Tigers journeyed to East Montpelier yesterday. Where they played a team composed of players from that vicinity. The trip going was made by carriage and the return on foot. The Barre team won by a score of 13 to 3. The features of the game was the hitting and fielding of Vanetti. The battery for the Barre team was Daniels and Roach.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

A young boy mounted on a bicycle nearly met with a serious accident this morning on North Main street at a point near Keith avenue. He was riding on the street when the front wheel of the cycle caught in the track and threw him to the ground. He fell against the wheel of a passing carriage. The occupant of the team brought his team to a sharp halt, thus preventing the youngster from being crushed under the wheels.

Drown's Drug Store : Barre, Vt.

WE can't please everybody, but we are going to keep on trying just the same.