

A WALK-OVER FOR GOV. FOSS

Easily Defeated Pelletier For Democratic Nomination

WALKER THE REPUBLICAN

While Massachusetts Socialists Nominated Robert D. Sawyer as Candidate for Governor at the Primaries Held Yesterday.

Boston, Sept. 25.—Democrats, Republicans and Socialists are lined up for the state campaign of 1912, having chosen their party leaders at yesterday's primaries. Governor Eugene N. Foss, who won the primary contest over District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier of Boston by a margin of 26,614 votes, will head the Democratic state ticket for the third time; and former Speaker Joseph Walker of Brookline, who defeated Col. Everett C. Benton of Boston by 10,302, will lead the Republicans. Robert D. Sawyer was nominated by the Socialists for governor.

WILSON'S BIG VICTORY IN HIS HOME STATE

Governor's Candidate for United States Senatorial Nomination Easily Defeated James Smith, Jr.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 25.—That Governor Wilson won the victory in the New Jersey primaries yesterday was evident from the returns received today. In his fight to prevent the nomination for United States senator of former Senator James Smith, jr., the governor carried the state by a plurality of about 20,000 votes, winning in every county except Essex county, the stronghold of the Smith forces. Gov. Wilson's candidate for senator was William Hughes.

UNBOSSSED CONVENTION AT SARATOGA SPRINGS

It is Evident That Delegates to Republican State Convention in New York Will Select Their Own Candidates.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The names of temporary and permanent chairmen, the only questions to be determined by the Republican state convention, which met this noon, were settled this morning. The candidates and platform remain to be discussed. It may not be until Friday, when it is expected the nominations will be made, that the ticket will be determined. The leaders made no effort to disguise the situation. Most attention is drawn to it as it is evident the convention will be unbossed and that the delegates themselves will select the nominees.

MONA LISA IN PRIVATE

Rumors Reach London That Articles Have Been Printed in Russian Paper That Stolen Painting Has Been Found.

London, Sept. 25.—Leonardo da Vinci's stolen masterpiece, "Mona Lisa" is hanging on the walls of a private gallery in St. Petersburg, according to a report published in a Russian paper, it has been intimated to the news agency here. The mysterious disappearance of the priceless picture from the Louvre museum in Paris caused a sensation last year.

CUMMINGS NOT GUILTY.

Had Been Charged With Larceny from the Hollister Savings Bank.

Boston, Sept. 25.—Charles S. Cummings, a former State street broker, now serving five to ten years in state prison for uttering forged notes of the town of Ervingham, was found not guilty of the charge of the larceny of $4,205.45 from the Hollister Savings bank in the superior court late yesterday. The jury was ordered by Judge Chase to bring in this verdict.

ROOSEVELT SAYS HE IS WELL REPAID

Candidate for President Arrived at Little Rock, Ark., To-Day Feeling as if He Had Been Through a Crusade.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 25.—"I feel as if I had been in a crusade," said Colonel Roosevelt. With the trip through had been well repaid for the western campaign. The colonel said he had heard good reports from the Progressive party in the south.

MARATHON RACE A FEATURE.

At the Opening of the Brattleboro Fair Yesterday.

Brattleboro, Sept. 25.—The crowds which attended the opening of the 27th annual Valley fair here yesterday cared little for the rain which fell in a drizzle nearly all of the afternoon. The feature of the day was the marathon race from Hinsdale, N. H., to the fair grounds, ending in the seven runners encircling the track five times, a distance of ten miles. With the exception of Raymond Bancroft, a Brattleboro boy, all of the men finished. Other starters were H. J. Havassent of Hinsdale, R. R. Taft of Springfield, Mass., high school, T. H. Lilly and R. F. Piggot of Boston, James Henigan of Malden, Mass., Andrew Sockalexis of Oldtown, Me., and A. K. Sturgis of Boston.

The course was a typical New England road and rain fell during the entire race. The event was a handicap affair and Sturgis was scratch man. Bancroft and Levesque were given four minutes 45 seconds; Taft, two minutes 15 seconds; Lilly, one minute 15 seconds; Piggot, one minute; Henigan, 45 seconds; and Sockalexis, 30 seconds. The corrected time for the winners was: Lilly, 57 minutes 3-5 seconds; Sockalexis, 57 minutes 34 seconds; Henigan, 58 minutes 12 seconds; Sturgis, 58 minutes 32 seconds; Piggot, 58 minutes 37 seconds.

LARGE GAIN AT UNIVERSITY

Doors Opened at State Institution For 180 Freshmen

Burlington, Sept. 25.—President Guy Potter Benton of the university of Vermont to-day gave the student body "Some Lessons on Reconstruction" in his address opening the 122nd session of the state university. Because of inadequate accommodations in the college chapel, the exercises were held in the gymnasium.

ARRANGING DETAILS OF WORLD SERIES

National Baseball Commission Assembled in New York To-day to Settle All the Preparations of the New York-Boston Games.

New York, Sept. 25.—Members of the national baseball commission, with representatives of the Boston American and New York National league clubs, gathered here to-day to fix the dates for the world's championship series, to settle the disputed question as to what and by whom the sale of tickets to the games shall be conducted, to fix the price for the seats, to formally announce the eligible players and to dispose of any other business bearing upon the arrangements for the games.

DRAINAGE OF POND SHOWS NO BODY

And Searchers for John M. Keenan, Dead or Alive, Are Puzzled to Know Which Way to Turn.

Bretton Woods, Sept. 25.—Half a dozen expert guides and woodsmen failed yesterday to uncover any traces of John M. Keenan of Charlestown, Mass., who now has been missing six days. The bottom of Milliken's pond on the slopes of Mount Washington was dragged without results, in the belief on the part of several of the searchers that the young man had been drowned there. Tuckerman's ravine was scoured closely, but also to no avail. Young Keenan's whereabouts is as much of a mystery as when he disappeared in a cloud which rested on the mountain top last Wednesday, from a surveying party with which he was a rod man.

WOMAN DIED WITHOUT TELLING OF RELATIVES

Had Been in Rutland but a Short Time, Having Stopped on Way from Montreal to Boston.

CHARGED WITH DOUBLE THEFT

John Starkey Denied Accusations and Demands Trial

Rutland, Sept. 25.—Refusing to tell of her relatives for fear of making them unhappy and telling those about her that she herself was unhappy, a strange woman giving the name of Mrs. Mae Ganey, supposed to have lived in or about Boston, died at the St. James hotel yesterday afternoon of an intestinal trouble. She left the train here while on her way to Boston from Montreal, where she attended the wedding of a brother, and when she registered complained of not feeling well. A physician was at once summoned and she had been confined to her bed until her death at 3:30 yesterday afternoon.

VERMONT BAPTISTS AT ST. JOHNSBURY

Officers Elected by the Various Organizations and Encouraging Reports Received.

St. Johnsbury, Sept. 25.—At the annual meeting of the Vermont State Baptist convention in session here there are 175 delegates and speakers in attendance. Encouraging reports are made by officers of the various organizations. The sessions will close today. Officers were elected as follows by the different bodies:

YOUNG BANK CLERK STOLE ROLL OF $55,000

Later He Confessed for Fear That the Officers Would Suspect His Brother, He Returned the Money.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 25.—William H. Bell, a 20-year-old bank clerk, last night confessed that he robbed the First National bank Wednesday of a package containing $55,000 of the Louisville & Nashville payroll and substituted a worthless package in its place. Fear that the officers would suspect his brother caused Bell to confess. The young clerk had been in the employ of the bank for two years.

LOYAL WAR GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE TO-DAY

Important Gathering Held at Altoona, Pa., With President Taft in Attendance, Together with Gov. Tenor.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 25.—This was president and governor's day at the Altoona celebration in anniversary of the Loyal War Governors' conference held here fifty years ago to consider the Civil War situation. President Taft and Governor Tenor were guests of honor, while United States Senator Penrose, members of Congress and descendants of several Civil War governors, who participated in the famous conference, helped in the celebration. Former Governor William Sprague of Rhode Island participated in the famous conference, helped in the celebration. Former Governor William Sprague of Rhode Island is the sole survivor of the meeting, but was too feeble to attend the celebration.

WAS FOUND DEAD.

Justin H. Blaisdell, Aged 82, Passed Away This Morning.

CHARGED WITH DOUBLE THEFT

Mrs. Luigia Colombo of George Street Claims Loss of $50, and Joseph Bianchi of Railroad Street Declares He Lost Watch, Two Rings and Watch Fob.

John Starkey of Railroad street was arrested last night by Officer John W. Dineen on a warrant issued by State's Attorney J. Ward Carver, charging him with grand larceny. After Starkey had been formally charged with taking a purse containing $50 from the home of Mrs. Luigia Colombo of George street, he was brought to police headquarters and searched. The sum of $23 in bills and a gold watch were found on his person. About that time Joe Bianchi, who says he lives on Railroad street, was complaining to the authorities that a thief had entered his house and pilfered a watch, two valuable rings, opal and sapphire, and a watch fob.

NOT READY TO PURCHASE

City Wants to Learn More About Title to "Common"

In their weekly get-together last evening the city fathers got so close that it looked for a time as if an iron bar would be necessary to pry them apart. It was all over the question of acquiring the Gospel Village "common" so that the school commissioners would feel justified in going ahead with a project to beautify the land in front of the Lincoln school. The discussion was the most earnest the council members have indulged in for several months, but while earnest, it was also conducted in friendly fashion by two sides.

WAS ARRESTED LAST NIGHT

John Starkey Denied Accusations and Demands Trial

John Starkey of Railroad street was arrested last night by Officer John W. Dineen on a warrant issued by State's Attorney J. Ward Carver, charging him with grand larceny. After Starkey had been formally charged with taking a purse containing $50 from the home of Mrs. Luigia Colombo of George street, he was brought to police headquarters and searched. The sum of $23 in bills and a gold watch were found on his person. About that time Joe Bianchi, who says he lives on Railroad street, was complaining to the authorities that a thief had entered his house and pilfered a watch, two valuable rings, opal and sapphire, and a watch fob.

RAILROAD TRAFFIC SUSPENDED.

By Strike of Spanish Colony of Catalonia To-day.

Perpignan, France, Sept. 25.—Railroad traffic was completely suspended in the Spanish province of Catalonia to-day, and there was considerable destruction of property at various stations by strikers who left work at midnight. Despatches from Barcelona say the military is now in control.

ONE POLICEMAN KILLED.

And a Number Others Were Seriously Shocked.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—One policeman was instantly killed, another was severely and rendered unconscious, and a number of others were less seriously shocked while attempting to report from call boxes in West Philadelphia yesterday when the police telephone wire became heavily charged with electricity from a feed wire.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Probably rain to-night and Thursday; east winds.

NOT READY TO PURCHASE

City Wants to Learn More About Title to "Common"

IT WAS DECIDED LAST NIGHT

Council, Sitting as a Committee of the Whole, Engaged in a Long and Earnest Discussion of the Gospel Village Property.

In their weekly get-together last evening the city fathers got so close that it looked for a time as if an iron bar would be necessary to pry them apart. It was all over the question of acquiring the Gospel Village "common" so that the school commissioners would feel justified in going ahead with a project to beautify the land in front of the Lincoln school. The discussion was the most earnest the council members have indulged in for several months, but while earnest, it was also conducted in friendly fashion by two sides.

$5,000 ALIENATION SUIT.

Everett A. Morse Sues Otis R. Lawrence—Both Putnamville Parties.

When Washington county court convened yesterday morning it was found that the first case to come up by special assignment, that of Manual Cabral against George E. May, had been settled and the case was discontinued.

BARRE YOUNG WOMAN BRIDE OF BOSTON

Newspaper Editor.

A pretty autumn wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Howard of 16 South Main street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Florence E. Howard, was married to Raymond G. Fuller of Boston, Rev. J. K. Fuller of Johnson, father of the groom, performing the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Esther Fitts of this city and John H. Fuller of Brandon, a brother-in-law, acted as best man.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS HERE.

Central Vermont Surveyors to Do Work in and About Barre.

A squad of fifteen civil engineers in charge of Assistant Engineer G. M. Thompson of the Central Vermont railway have arrived in the city to complete the final survey of the Barre Granite Railroad Co.'s proposed road to the quarries. The men will be quartered at the City hotel, and it is expected that the work will occupy six weeks. A man connected with Central Vermont affairs in this city stated to-day that the engineers were to take the final grades over the line marked out in the preliminary survey last winter.

ONE POLICEMAN KILLED.

And a Number Others Were Seriously Shocked.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—One policeman was instantly killed, another was severely and rendered unconscious, and a number of others were less seriously shocked while attempting to report from call boxes in West Philadelphia yesterday when the police telephone wire became heavily charged with electricity from a feed wire.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Probably rain to-night and Thursday; east winds.

NOT READY TO PURCHASE

City Wants to Learn More About Title to "Common"

IT WAS DECIDED LAST NIGHT

Council, Sitting as a Committee of the Whole, Engaged in a Long and Earnest Discussion of the Gospel Village Property.

In their weekly get-together last evening the city fathers got so close that it looked for a time as if an iron bar would be necessary to pry them apart. It was all over the question of acquiring the Gospel Village "common" so that the school commissioners would feel justified in going ahead with a project to beautify the land in front of the Lincoln school. The discussion was the most earnest the council members have indulged in for several months, but while earnest, it was also conducted in friendly fashion by two sides.

$5,000 ALIENATION SUIT.

Everett A. Morse Sues Otis R. Lawrence—Both Putnamville Parties.

When Washington county court convened yesterday morning it was found that the first case to come up by special assignment, that of Manual Cabral against George E. May, had been settled and the case was discontinued.

BARRE YOUNG WOMAN BRIDE OF BOSTON

Newspaper Editor.

A pretty autumn wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Howard of 16 South Main street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Florence E. Howard, was married to Raymond G. Fuller of Boston, Rev. J. K. Fuller of Johnson, father of the groom, performing the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Esther Fitts of this city and John H. Fuller of Brandon, a brother-in-law, acted as best man.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS HERE.

Central Vermont Surveyors to Do Work in and About Barre.

A squad of fifteen civil engineers in charge of Assistant Engineer G. M. Thompson of the Central Vermont railway have arrived in the city to complete the final survey of the Barre Granite Railroad Co.'s proposed road to the quarries. The men will be quartered at the City hotel, and it is expected that the work will occupy six weeks. A man connected with Central Vermont affairs in this city stated to-day that the engineers were to take the final grades over the line marked out in the preliminary survey last winter.

ONE POLICEMAN KILLED.

And a Number Others Were Seriously Shocked.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—One policeman was instantly killed, another was severely and rendered unconscious, and a number of others were less seriously shocked while attempting to report from call boxes in West Philadelphia yesterday when the police telephone wire became heavily charged with electricity from a feed wire.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Probably rain to-night and Thursday; east winds.

NOT READY TO PURCHASE

City Wants to Learn More About Title to "Common"

IT WAS DECIDED LAST NIGHT

Council, Sitting as a Committee of the Whole, Engaged in a Long and Earnest Discussion of the Gospel Village Property.

In their weekly get-together last evening the city fathers got so close that it looked for a time as if an iron bar would be necessary to pry them apart. It was all over the question of acquiring the Gospel Village "common" so that the school commissioners would feel justified in going ahead with a project to beautify the land in front of the Lincoln school. The discussion was the most earnest the council members have indulged in for several months, but while earnest, it was also conducted in friendly fashion by two sides.

$5,000 ALIENATION SUIT.

Everett A. Morse Sues Otis R. Lawrence—Both Putnamville Parties.

When Washington county court convened yesterday morning it was found that the first case to come up by special assignment, that of Manual Cabral against George E. May, had been settled and the case was discontinued.

BARRE YOUNG WOMAN BRIDE OF BOSTON

Newspaper Editor.

A pretty autumn wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Howard of 16 South Main street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when their daughter, Florence E. Howard, was married to Raymond G. Fuller of Boston, Rev. J. K. Fuller of Johnson, father of the groom, performing the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Esther Fitts of this city and John H. Fuller of Brandon, a brother-in-law, acted as best man.

RAILROAD ENGINEERS HERE.

Central Vermont Surveyors to Do Work in and About Barre.

A squad of fifteen civil engineers in charge of Assistant Engineer G. M. Thompson of the Central Vermont railway have arrived in the city to complete the final survey of the Barre Granite Railroad Co.'s proposed road to the quarries. The men will be quartered at the City hotel, and it is expected that the work will occupy six weeks. A man connected with Central Vermont affairs in this city stated to-day that the engineers were to take the final grades over the line marked out in the preliminary survey last winter.

ONE POLICEMAN KILLED.

And a Number Others Were Seriously Shocked.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—One policeman was instantly killed, another was severely and rendered unconscious, and a number of others were less seriously shocked while attempting to report from call boxes in West Philadelphia yesterday when the police telephone wire became heavily charged with electricity from a feed wire.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Probably rain to-night and Thursday; east winds.