

NON-UNION MEN RUN TRAINS

Passenger Service on Bangor & Aroostook Resumed To-day

BUT THE SCHEDULES ARE NOT NORMAL

No Disturbance, But Special Deputies Are Being Sworn In

Bangor, Me., Jan. 20.—Passenger service on the Bangor & Aroostook railroad was resumed to-day through the employment of non-union firemen and engineers. Officials of the road, while not asserting that schedules were normal, said they were keeping to the running time as closely as possible.

FIVE MEN WOUNDED, ONE DANGEROUSLY

During Fusillade of Bullets in Boston's North End Yesterday, Quarrel Being Over Money.

Boston, Jan. 20.—A fusillade of pistol shots in a crowded north end street yesterday threw that section into wild excitement and resulted in five Italians being wounded, one dangerously.

LONE BANDIT FLED.

And He Carried Valuable Package, It Is Believed.

Aniston, Ala., Jan. 20.—A lone bandit rifled the mail car of Southern Railway passenger train No. 12, near Riverside, Ala., early yesterday, and escaped with what are said to be valuable registered packages.

WOMAN KILLED HERSELF.

Mrs. Mary F. Plummer of Tilton, N. H., Had Been Ill.

Tilton, N. H., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Mary F. Plummer of Tilton, N. H., committed suicide yesterday afternoon by slashing her throat with a razor. Since the death of her husband she had continued to reside at the old home on the Merrimack interval in Northfield, where she was born March 18, 1824.

NEW YORKERS DECLARE WAR.

It Is War on High Prices of Butter, Called Unwarranted.

New York, Jan. 20.—Jan. 20 on high prices for butter was declared by the Housewives' league yesterday. "It has been determined," says the executive committee in its appeal, "that there is plenty of butter in the market and that new butter is coming in well. The freezer butter was put away at 25 and 27 cents and could be sold at a profit at 30 to 32 cents for the best. We find that butter can be secured at from 30 to 32 cents a pound, but this price is not general.

MONEY LOSSES CAUSED SUICIDE.

Mrs. Eleanor B. Barry, Once Rich, Shot Herself to Death.

New York, Jan. 20.—Mrs. Eleanor B. Barry, once in affluent circumstances but who recently lost her money in a real estate venture, shot herself to death in her uptown apartment yesterday. Reverses following losses incurred through participation in a land investment scheme headed by Edgar R. Jackson, who was convicted last week of defrauding an Ohio woman, are believed to have been responsible for the act.

EULOGIES DELIVERED FOR LATE D. J. FOSTER

Among Speakers Were Representatives Plumley and Greene of Vermont, the Latter Successor to Foster.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—Eulogies were delivered in the House yesterday upon the character of the late Representative D. J. Foster, who had served the first district of Vermont for 12 years previous to his death last summer. The speakers were Representatives Plumley and Greene of Vermont, Nye of Minnesota, Martin of South Dakota, Hawley of Oregon, Weeks of Massachusetts and Kahn of California.

ONE DROWNING FATALITY.

And Nearly Another at Milford, N. H., Yesterday.

Milford, N. H., Jan. 20.—Sunday afternoon one boy was drowned and another rescued with difficulty from sinking to death in Railroad pond. Alfred Villane, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Villane of Johnson street, was skating on the pond behind the Congregational church, when, without warning, the ice broke and he went into fifteen feet of water.

WANTED HIS BRAIN WEIGHED.

And Then Compared With His Grandfather's Brain.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 20.—Twelve hours after the death of his brother, Charles H. Gauss of St. Charles, Mo., from heart disease, Robert W. Gauss, grandson of the renowned German mathematician, Paul F. Gauss of Munich, and for 28 years editorial writer on the Denver Republican, died here yesterday from the same disease. Gauss left a request that his brain be preserved, weighed, analyzed and compared with that of his famous grandfather. The mathematician's brain at the time of his death, weighed 52.7 ounces.

A TELEPHONE PIONEER.

Francis Blake Invented the So-Called Blake Transmitter.

Weston, Mass., June 20.—Francis Blake, one of the pioneers in the telephone business, died here yesterday, aged 62 years. Mr. Blake invented the Blake telephone transmitter. He was a director in the American Bell Telephone company, and the American Telephone & Telegraph company.

ACCEPT 7 PER CENT RAISE.

New Haven Mechanics and Shopmen Will Resume Work.

Boston, Jan. 20.—A proposition for a seven per cent. increase in pay affecting 5,000 mechanics and shopmen on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad was accepted yesterday by the federated council of shop and mechanical trades unions of the system. The union asked a 15 per cent. wage advance and betterment in working hours. Yesterday's agreement was reached after a week's conference between union and company officials.

WAS A DISCORDANT NOTE.

When Grand Opera Chorus Struck in Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—A scheduled performance of "I Pagliacci" by the Chicago Grand Opera company here last night was abandoned 15 minutes before the curtain was to have gone up because of a walk-out of the chorus. The chorus demanded $2.50 the performance instead of $2, and being refused left the building in a body. A concert by the leading artists was substituted for the opera.

AN ULTIMATUM PRESENTED?

Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro Reported to Have Acted.

London, Jan. 20.—Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro to-day presented an ultimatum to Turkey, giving the Ottoman government fourteen days in which to make a favorable reply to their demands, according to a news agency despatch from Constantinople.

Weather Forecast.

Rain or snow and warmer to-night. Tuesday rain or snow and colder in Vermont; moderate to brisk south and westward winds.

OPPOSITION IS BITTER

Toward Project To Build Lincoln Memorial Monument

PROPOSED COST BEING $2,000,000

Opponents Want a Memorial Road from Washington to Gettysburg

Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—Bitter opposition to the bill providing for the erection of a $2,000,000 Lincoln memorial in Washington is threatening the measure. The bill already has passed the Senate and provides for the erection of a statue and Greek temple on the mall near the Washington monument. Opponents are trying to substitute a plan to construct a memorial highway from Washington to Gettysburg.

DIED DURING THE NIGHT.

Mrs. Augusta Spaulding of Morrisville Had Been Ill.

Morrisville, Jan. 20.—Mrs. Augusta Spaulding was found dead in her bed at four o'clock Saturday morning following an illness of a week with a complication of weak heart and asthma, accompanied by a stroke. Mrs. Spaulding was first taken ill a week ago last night and on Friday had seemed to be improving. Friday night before her death she was more comfortable than she had been except for some trouble in breathing. It is thought her death was due to heart failure.

LOCATED AT JEROME.

The Local Paper Has Pleasant Words About M. M. Gordon.

The Jerome, Arizona, News of January 11 has the following pleasant words about M. M. Gordon, who recently left Barre to locate in Jerome: "Judge M. M. Gordon of Vermont arrived in the city this week and has entered into partnership with Hon. C. H. Rutherford. Judge Gordon is a former classmate of Mr. Rutherford and is an attorney of wide experience, having been in active practice for the past fourteen years. He has held the office of prosecuting attorney and master in chancery, and is a graduate of the university of his state and the College of Law, Syracuse university.

EXPECT HEARING THIS WEEK.

In Case of State vs. Mrs. Julius Wells at St. Albans.

St. Albans, Jan. 20.—It is expected that the hearing in the case of State vs. Mrs. Julius Wells, charged with poisoning two of her children, will be held some day this week as the report of the analysis of the stomachs of the two children, which has been in progress at the state laboratory of hygiene, is expected within a few days. Rosamond, the seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Wells, who has been spending several days with her mother at the Franklin county jail, was taken to her home in Swanton Saturday by her father. States Attorney Gaylord Ladd, who has been ill with the grip at his home in Richmond, has recovered, and is at work on the case.

WAS ILL 15 WEEKS.

Mrs. W. H. Lyon of St. Albans Died Yesterday Afternoon.

St. Albans, Jan. 20.—Mrs. Julia Elizabeth St. John, wife of W. H. Lyon, died yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock after an illness of 15 weeks caused by a stroke paralysis. She was born in West Berkshire, in May, 1847. September 2, 1878, she was married to Mr. Lyon. They had always lived in the house on Brown avenue in which she died. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, Miss Anna Lyon of Burlington and Mrs. Margaret Randall, wife of Walter Randall of Barre, a brother, Anthony St. John of West Berkshire, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Fay of Johnson and Mrs. Gemma Gosselin of this city. The funeral will be held Wednesday at St. Mary's church, but the hours has not yet been determined.

MARRIED ON JOINT BIRTHDAY.

Miss Jessie M. Green and Wilder Thomas the Participants.

Waterbury, Jan. 20.—The wedding of Miss Jessie Margaret Green, daughter of Mrs. Dewitt Green, and Wilder Thomas of Duxbury was solemnized Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of the bride's mother in Colbyville, the day being the birthday of both bride and groom. They are 35 years of age. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jehad Thomas of Duxbury, and has a fine farm on Scrabble hill. The Rev. George W. Taber of Morrisville performed the ceremony. Because of the critical illness of the groom's father, the bride and groom went immediately to his home. Saturday evening the bride was given a surprise shower and miscellaneous shower at her home. Refreshments were served.

SUICIDE ATTEMPT SUCCESSFUL.

Loren T. Greene Died in St. Albans on Saturday.

St. Albans, Jan. 20.—Loren T. Greene, who cut his throat with a razor Friday, January 10, died at the hospital Saturday morning from the wounds. Mr. Greene was 22 years old and had always resided in this city and worked at the trade of plumbing. He is survived by his wife but no children. The funeral was held at the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. F. W. Lewis officiating.

PUT UNDER QUARANTINE.

House Near Harlow Bridge, Northfield, Where There's Smallpox.

Northfield, Jan. 20.—A mild case of smallpox has broken out in the family of Charles Abbott, who resides in the Alta Cook house near the Harlow bridge. The house has been placed under quarantine.

CHURCH IS DEBT FREE.

Methodists of Bellows Falls Have Time of Rejoicing.

Bellows Falls, Jan. 20.—Yesterday was a great day for the Methodists of this village. Bishop John W. Hamilton of Boston preached two masterly sermons and dedicated their enlarged and improved church. This building was erected 76 years ago and was enlarged and extensively remodeled 32 years ago at which time it was reopened by Bishop Foster.

DEATH CAUSES ACCUSATION

Joseph Harris Killed by Bullet in Haverhill Strike Trouble

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 20.—Joseph Harris died today from bullet wounds received in a strike disturbance Thursday, and Charles A. Eaton is under arrest, charged with manslaughter. It is alleged that Eaton, who had refused to join the shoe workers' strike, fired at a crowd that was following and the bullet entered Harris' abdomen.

Eaton, Refusing to Strike, Said To Have Fired into Crowd Following Him

After Harris' removal to the hospital peritonitis set in and he had been dying since then. Meantime Eaton was out on $3,000 bail which was furnished by his employer, George W. Robbins. Yesterday, the representatives of the Shoe Manufacturers' association called on City Marshal John J. Mack for a continuance of police protection. Marshal Mack agreed to have his squad on hand to locate in the largest and best law libraries in the state.

NEAR DEATH ON TRACK.

George Colombe, Barre Railroad Brakeman, Slipped Before Train.

While attempting to detach a frozen brake from a car wheel on a Barre road freight train near the Willow Brook bridge early Sunday forenoon, George Colombe of Pearl street, 25 years of age, sustained a fracture of the skull which will confine him to the City hospital for a week at least and incidentally had an opportunity to exhibit presence of mind that probably saved his life.

WOMAN DEAD BUT MAN LIVES

Mrs. A. B. Griffin of Jericho Tried To Kill Her Husband

Jericho, Jan. 20.—As the result of a quarrel over the servant question, Mrs. A. B. Griffin, about 60 years old, Saturday evening tried unsuccessfully to kill her husband, a G. A. R. veteran, and then inflicted fatal injury to herself with an old revolver. She died Sunday morning at 9:50 o'clock at the Fanny Allen hospital from a bullet wound in the head. The husband, who was shot through the neck, will survive. He is at the home of a neighbor in this village.

THEY HAD QUARRELED OVER HIRING WOMAN

Mr. Griffin Now Says That His Wife Had Acted Queerly

While Mr. Griffin, age 75, was warming his hands over the kitchen stove, his wife, with a revolver in one hand, crept silently up behind him. She aimed the weapon at his head and fired. The aged veteran clasped one hand to his neck and felt warm blood. Then he ran to the backyard and around to the highway, crying loudly for aid. Mrs. Griffin pursued him for a short distance, firing twice as she ran. The shots went wild.

FUNERAL OF LEMARR YOUTH.

Was Held from St. Monica's Church Yesterday.

Funeral services for Leo Lemarr, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Lemarr, whose death occurred at his home on Beckley hill Friday afternoon, after a short illness of pneumonia, were held at St. Monica's church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, the acting pastor, Rev. A. C. Griffin, officiating. The bearers were as follows: William Gearin, Napoleon LeClair, Charles Furey and James Furey. The burial took place in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

WILL SELL MORTGAGE EQUITIES.

Petition of Receiver of Empire Granite Co. Granted, Though Opposed.

A hearing was held in the county court house in Montpelier Saturday, before Chancellor E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro on the petition of Receiver Thomas Cave of Barre for permission to sell the equities in certain mortgages on property owned by the Empire Granite company of Barre. This application was granted and the date of the auction sale will be fixed later.

DEATH AT HARDWICK.

Frank B. Mason Died of Dilation of the Heart.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—Frank B. Mason, aged 47 years, 11 months, died Friday of dilation of the heart. He is survived by his wife, one son, Harry Mason, three daughters, Mrs. C. C. Dwinell, Mrs. George Smith and Miss Eleanor Mason; also one brother, Duroon Mason, and one sister, Mrs. Lewis R. Carr, all of this place. He was a member of Evergreen lodge, New England Order of Protection, and of the Lumber and Drillers' union.

HARDWICK STANDS PAT.

Refuses to Rescind Votes Concerning Electric Power.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—At the special village meeting, held last Friday evening, it was voted not to rescind the vote to build a power station at the Jackson bridge. The majority against rescinding was large. The meeting also voted not to rescind a previous meeting's vote to lease the village power station to the Woodbury Granite company.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

In Fire at Elizabeth, N. J., Yesterday—It Is Believed to Have Been Set.

Elizabeth, N. J., Jan. 20.—In a fire, believed to be of incendiary origin in a wooden tenement here yesterday, a woman and her two children were trapped on the third floor and burned to death. Two men were injured, one probably mortally, by jumping from a third story window.

DEATH CAUSES ACCUSATION

Joseph Harris Killed by Bullet in Haverhill Strike Trouble

C. A. EATON ACCUSED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Eaton, Refusing to Strike, Said To Have Fired into Crowd Following Him

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 20.—Joseph Harris died today from bullet wounds received in a strike disturbance Thursday, and Charles A. Eaton is under arrest, charged with manslaughter. It is alleged that Eaton, who had refused to join the shoe workers' strike, fired at a crowd that was following and the bullet entered Harris' abdomen.

NEAR DEATH ON TRACK.

George Colombe, Barre Railroad Brakeman, Slipped Before Train.

While attempting to detach a frozen brake from a car wheel on a Barre road freight train near the Willow Brook bridge early Sunday forenoon, George Colombe of Pearl street, 25 years of age, sustained a fracture of the skull which will confine him to the City hospital for a week at least and incidentally had an opportunity to exhibit presence of mind that probably saved his life.

WOMAN DEAD BUT MAN LIVES

Mrs. A. B. Griffin of Jericho Tried To Kill Her Husband

Jericho, Jan. 20.—As the result of a quarrel over the servant question, Mrs. A. B. Griffin, about 60 years old, Saturday evening tried unsuccessfully to kill her husband, a G. A. R. veteran, and then inflicted fatal injury to herself with an old revolver. She died Sunday morning at 9:50 o'clock at the Fanny Allen hospital from a bullet wound in the head. The husband, who was shot through the neck, will survive. He is at the home of a neighbor in this village.

THEY HAD QUARRELED OVER HIRING WOMAN

Mr. Griffin Now Says That His Wife Had Acted Queerly

While Mr. Griffin, age 75, was warming his hands over the kitchen stove, his wife, with a revolver in one hand, crept silently up behind him. She aimed the weapon at his head and fired. The aged veteran clasped one hand to his neck and felt warm blood. Then he ran to the backyard and around to the highway, crying loudly for aid. Mrs. Griffin pursued him for a short distance, firing twice as she ran. The shots went wild.

FUNERAL OF LEMARR YOUTH.

Was Held from St. Monica's Church Yesterday.

Funeral services for Leo Lemarr, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Lemarr, whose death occurred at his home on Beckley hill Friday afternoon, after a short illness of pneumonia, were held at St. Monica's church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, the acting pastor, Rev. A. C. Griffin, officiating. The bearers were as follows: William Gearin, Napoleon LeClair, Charles Furey and James Furey. The burial took place in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

WILL SELL MORTGAGE EQUITIES.

Petition of Receiver of Empire Granite Co. Granted, Though Opposed.

A hearing was held in the county court house in Montpelier Saturday, before Chancellor E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro on the petition of Receiver Thomas Cave of Barre for permission to sell the equities in certain mortgages on property owned by the Empire Granite company of Barre. This application was granted and the date of the auction sale will be fixed later.

DEATH AT HARDWICK.

Frank B. Mason Died of Dilation of the Heart.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—Frank B. Mason, aged 47 years, 11 months, died Friday of dilation of the heart. He is survived by his wife, one son, Harry Mason, three daughters, Mrs. C. C. Dwinell, Mrs. George Smith and Miss Eleanor Mason; also one brother, Duroon Mason, and one sister, Mrs. Lewis R. Carr, all of this place. He was a member of Evergreen lodge, New England Order of Protection, and of the Lumber and Drillers' union.

HARDWICK STANDS PAT.

Refuses to Rescind Votes Concerning Electric Power.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—At the special village meeting, held last Friday evening, it was voted not to rescind the vote to build a power station at the Jackson bridge. The majority against rescinding was large. The meeting also voted not to rescind a previous meeting's vote to lease the village power station to the Woodbury Granite company.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

In Fire at Elizabeth, N. J., Yesterday—It Is Believed to Have Been Set.

Elizabeth, N. J., Jan. 20.—In a fire, believed to be of incendiary origin in a wooden tenement here yesterday, a woman and her two children were trapped on the third floor and burned to death. Two men were injured, one probably mortally, by jumping from a third story window.

CHURCH IS DEBT FREE.

Methodists of Bellows Falls Have Time of Rejoicing.

Bellows Falls, Jan. 20.—Yesterday was a great day for the Methodists of this village. Bishop John W. Hamilton of Boston preached two masterly sermons and dedicated their enlarged and improved church. This building was erected 76 years ago and was enlarged and extensively remodeled 32 years ago at which time it was reopened by Bishop Foster.

DEATH CAUSES ACCUSATION

Joseph Harris Killed by Bullet in Haverhill Strike Trouble

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 20.—Joseph Harris died today from bullet wounds received in a strike disturbance Thursday, and Charles A. Eaton is under arrest, charged with manslaughter. It is alleged that Eaton, who had refused to join the shoe workers' strike, fired at a crowd that was following and the bullet entered Harris' abdomen.

Eaton, Refusing to Strike, Said To Have Fired into Crowd Following Him

After Harris' removal to the hospital peritonitis set in and he had been dying since then. Meantime Eaton was out on $3,000 bail which was furnished by his employer, George W. Robbins. Yesterday, the representatives of the Shoe Manufacturers' association called on City Marshal John J. Mack for a continuance of police protection. Marshal Mack agreed to have his squad on hand to locate in the largest and best law libraries in the state.

NEAR DEATH ON TRACK.

George Colombe, Barre Railroad Brakeman, Slipped Before Train.

While attempting to detach a frozen brake from a car wheel on a Barre road freight train near the Willow Brook bridge early Sunday forenoon, George Colombe of Pearl street, 25 years of age, sustained a fracture of the skull which will confine him to the City hospital for a week at least and incidentally had an opportunity to exhibit presence of mind that probably saved his life.

WOMAN DEAD BUT MAN LIVES

Mrs. A. B. Griffin of Jericho Tried To Kill Her Husband

Jericho, Jan. 20.—As the result of a quarrel over the servant question, Mrs. A. B. Griffin, about 60 years old, Saturday evening tried unsuccessfully to kill her husband, a G. A. R. veteran, and then inflicted fatal injury to herself with an old revolver. She died Sunday morning at 9:50 o'clock at the Fanny Allen hospital from a bullet wound in the head. The husband, who was shot through the neck, will survive. He is at the home of a neighbor in this village.

THEY HAD QUARRELED OVER HIRING WOMAN

Mr. Griffin Now Says That His Wife Had Acted Queerly

While Mr. Griffin, age 75, was warming his hands over the kitchen stove, his wife, with a revolver in one hand, crept silently up behind him. She aimed the weapon at his head and fired. The aged veteran clasped one hand to his neck and felt warm blood. Then he ran to the backyard and around to the highway, crying loudly for aid. Mrs. Griffin pursued him for a short distance, firing twice as she ran. The shots went wild.

FUNERAL OF LEMARR YOUTH.

Was Held from St. Monica's Church Yesterday.

Funeral services for Leo Lemarr, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Lemarr, whose death occurred at his home on Beckley hill Friday afternoon, after a short illness of pneumonia, were held at St. Monica's church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, the acting pastor, Rev. A. C. Griffin, officiating. The bearers were as follows: William Gearin, Napoleon LeClair, Charles Furey and James Furey. The burial took place in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

WILL SELL MORTGAGE EQUITIES.

Petition of Receiver of Empire Granite Co. Granted, Though Opposed.

A hearing was held in the county court house in Montpelier Saturday, before Chancellor E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro on the petition of Receiver Thomas Cave of Barre for permission to sell the equities in certain mortgages on property owned by the Empire Granite company of Barre. This application was granted and the date of the auction sale will be fixed later.

DEATH AT HARDWICK.

Frank B. Mason Died of Dilation of the Heart.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—Frank B. Mason, aged 47 years, 11 months, died Friday of dilation of the heart. He is survived by his wife, one son, Harry Mason, three daughters, Mrs. C. C. Dwinell, Mrs. George Smith and Miss Eleanor Mason; also one brother, Duroon Mason, and one sister, Mrs. Lewis R. Carr, all of this place. He was a member of Evergreen lodge, New England Order of Protection, and of the Lumber and Drillers' union.

HARDWICK STANDS PAT.

Refuses to Rescind Votes Concerning Electric Power.

Hardwick, Jan. 20.—At the special village meeting, held last Friday evening, it was voted not to rescind the vote to build a power station at the Jackson bridge. The majority against rescinding was large. The meeting also voted not to rescind a previous meeting's vote to lease the village power station to the Woodbury Granite company.

THREE BURNED TO DEATH.

In Fire at Elizabeth, N. J., Yesterday—It Is Believed to Have Been Set.

Elizabeth, N. J., Jan. 20.—In a fire, believed to be of incendiary origin in a wooden tenement here yesterday, a woman and her two children were trapped on the third floor and burned to death. Two men were injured, one probably mortally, by jumping from a third story window.

WOMAN DEAD BUT MAN LIVES

Mrs. A. B. Griffin of Jericho Tried To Kill Her Husband

THEY HAD QUARRELED OVER HIRING WOMAN

Mr. Griffin Now Says That His Wife Had Acted Queerly

While Mr. Griffin, age 75, was warming his hands over the kitchen stove, his wife, with a revolver in one hand, crept silently up behind him. She aimed the weapon at his head and fired. The aged veteran clasped one hand to his neck and felt warm blood. Then he ran to the backyard and around to the highway, crying loudly for aid. Mrs. Griffin pursued him for a short distance, firing twice as she ran. The shots went wild.

FUNERAL OF LEMARR YOUTH.

Was Held from St. Monica's Church Yesterday.

Funeral services for Leo Lemarr, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Lemarr, whose death occurred at his home on Beckley hill Friday afternoon, after a short illness of pneumonia, were held at St. Monica's church Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, the acting pastor, Rev. A. C. Griffin, officiating. The bearers were as follows: William Gearin, Napoleon LeClair, Charles Furey and James Furey. The burial took place in the Catholic cemetery on Beckley street.

WILL SELL MORTGAGE EQUITIES.

Petition of Receiver of Empire Granite Co. Granted, Though Opposed.

A hearing was held in the county court house in Montpelier Saturday, before Chancellor E. L. Waterman of Brattleboro on the petition of Receiver Thomas Cave of Barre for permission to sell the equities in certain mortgages on property owned by the Empire Granite company of Barre. This application