EASTERN METAL PRODUCTION.

Total Output of Gold, Silver, Copper, Lead and Zinc Shows Increase in Value of $1,500,000.

The total value of the mine output of gold, silver, copper, lead, and zinc in the eastern or Appalachian states in 1912, according to H. D. McCaskey, of the United States geological survey, was $13,470,276, against $11,787,942 in 1911 and $10,127,304 in 1910. The figures for 1912 represent the production of 93 mines, of which 50 were gold placer mines, many of them small.

The total gold output from all mines was 10,763.24 fine ounces, valued at $222,490, an increase over the production of 1911 of 3,063.72 ounces in quantity and of $63,126 in value. The silver output, recovered entirely as a by-product in refining the gold, copper, and lead produced, was 96,223 fine ounces, valued at $59,361, a decrease of 11,582 ounces in quantity but an increase of $2,905 in value. Of the gold output in 1912 the placers yielded 77,843 ounces, against 1,447.28 ounces in 1911, and the quartz or deep mines produced 9,302.96 ounces, against 5,899.64 ounces in 1911. The copper mines produced 662,600 ounces in 1911 and 443,500 ounces in 1912, and the lead mines produced 241,920 ounces in 1912. Of the 50 producing gold placers in 1912, there were 23 in Georgia, 22 in North Carolina, and 5 in South Carolina. There were 33,813 short tons of siliceous ores sold or treated from Appalachian gold mines in 1912, of which 14,358 tons were mined in North Carolina, and 12,358 tons in South Carolina, chiefly from the well known Jola and Hiale mines, which are the two largest gold mines east of the Blue hills. The average recovery of gold (including nominal recovery of silver) per ton of siliceous ores treated in the eastern states in 1912 was $57.3. The average for North Carolina was $10.62 and for South Carolina the remarkably low figure of $1.34.

The copper production in 1912 was 19,265,945 pounds, valued at $3,178,882, a decrease of 329,441 pounds in quantity but an increase of $728,208 in value. Of the total output 18,483,173 pounds came from the Ducktown district of eastern Tennessee, from 603,220 short tons of pyritic copper ore treated. The remainder was chiefly from Pennsylvania, where, at the Cornwall iron mines, magnetic separation of large tonnages of magnetic ores results in the recovery of copper bearing pyrite. Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina also contributed to the copper output.

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Congressman Frank L. Greene was one of the congressional delegation to attend the funeral of Congressman Forrest Goodwin at Skowhegan, Me., Saturday.

Joseph Rice, who enlisted in the army and gave Rutland as his birthplace, has deserted at Fort Adams, R. I., and a reward of $60 has been offered for his capture.

Inmates at the house of correction at Rutland "struck" Saturday at the post of indoor work that afternoon, and 20 of them were locked up and deprived of certain privileges.

Joseph M. Bushey of Rutland has been with the Howe Scale company 49 years, being the oldest man in point of continuous service with the concern. He has lost but little time on account of illness or vacations.

The five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Maloney of Richmond broke his leg Sunday while trying to climb on a wagon. He slipped and fell between the spokes breaking both bones and injuring the other leg badly.

While repairing a chimney on the house at Brattleboro, occupied by Edgar D. Sanders, Daniel Cavanaugh, fell from the staging giving way under him, and was badly hurt. The house is two and a half stories high.

It is now believed that Tony Spontone, the section hand buried under a mass of timber and earth at Poulton Thursday, has a chance for recovery, although he received a fractured skull, broken arm, many bruises and internal injuries.

Norwich university is on the list of those colleges and universities whose honor graduate will be appointed to a second lieutenantcy in the United States army without examination other than physical. Secretary of War Garrison has but recently signed the order.

Charles R. Jamason is again to assume the publication and management of White River Junction's weekly, The Landmark. Last September Mr. Jamason leased the paper to R. F. Wells of Hatfield, Mass., who since then has published and controlled it. The lease is now dissolved by mutual consent.

Sheriff C. E. Mann of Windham county arrived at Rutland the other day over a month ahead of the release time of Earl Putnam from the house of correction, where he is serving sentence for illegal liquor selling. Putnam is wanted for breaking into the Winhall railroad station and stealing mileage books.

Riley R. Hatch, a graduate of Middlebury college in the class of 1857, died at his home at Peterboro, N. H., Saturday morning. He was born at Williams-town in 1832. He was a member of the House of Representatives for four years beginning in 1868. For 10 years he was treasurer of the Peterboro Savings bank.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bullard of West Derby were arraigned in municipal court at Newport Friday, and Bullard, on a charge of cruelty to a child, pleaded not guilty and was bound over to county court. Mrs. Bullard was convicted of a breach of the peace and sentenced to not less than two nor more than 11 months in the county jail.

Raymond, the 11-year-old son of Joseph Stockwell, was badly injured at the schoolhouse grounds in Bennington last week. The boys got hold of what was probably a dynamite cap and it exploded, blowing off parts of two fingers and the thumb of the Stockwell boy's left hand. He was taken to the hospital in North Adams, Mass.

Ray Goodale's automobile ran backward across the sidewalk on Main street 5/11 at Brattleboro Saturday and into a machine shop. Mancini, the proprietor, saw the automobile and started to get out of the way. His ankle was caught between the doorway and machine but not seriously injured. The brake on the automobile failed to hold when chains were being adjusted.

At a meeting of the student body of Vermont academy, Saxtons River, May 28, Robert D. Gibson, '13, of New York was voted the Barrett medal. This medal, given by the Hon. John Barrett, director of the Pan-American union, Washington, D. C., is awarded each year to the member of the graduating class, who has distinguished himself during the course in athletics, scholarship, deportment and popularity.

John T. Robson completed 50 years of continuous service for the St. Albans Foundry & Implement company, Monday. It is said that Mr. Robson's record of continuous service as a machinist in the qualified in this state unless it is in the Fairbanks Scale company of St. Johnsbury, and it is also said that no one holds such a record in the state of New Hampshire. Mr. Robson has lost only a few days during the past 10 years and his tool chest has not been moved from its original resting place since he began work, except when it was necessary to clean the floors. This faithful employee is 78 years old and works from seven o'clock in the morning until six in the evening. He learned his trade with the Champlain foundry company in Champlain and began work in St. Albans, June 1, 1863.

The Vermont society, Sons of American Revolution, will dedicate a bronze marker on Block House Point on North Hero island, on Friday, July 4. The point was the site of an English outpost during the latter part of the Revolution. The blockhouse was erected in July, 1781, by Capt. Justus Sherwood of the Queen's Loyal Rangers, and the point was abandoned in the summer of 1780. The program will include an historical address by Henry Harmon Noble of Essex, N. Y., and an address by Lieut.-Col. A. P. Sherwood of Ottawa, chief of the Dominion police, who is the great-grandson of the builder of the blockhouse. The marker will be unveiled by Colonel Sherwood's daughter, Governor Fletcher will speak. Bishop Weeks will offer prayer, and F. S. Pease, president of the Vermont society, will preside. John C. Farrar of Burlington has written a poem, "The Shadows," for the occasion.

Our Granvilleville store under the management of S. N. Prescott will be possessed of all the advantages our Barre store has, as will also our Montpelier agents. Read what one of the greatest financiers of any age, James J. Hill, said in a speech before the St. Paul Association of Credit Men Feb. 11-13. He said: "The invention of money was a long step towards civilization, but the invention of credit was a greater. The world deals ever more largely with credit. Credit is the motive power of current enterprise." We respectfully agree with Mr. Hill and conduct ourselves accordingly.
