

HOSIERY WEEK

Offers very unusual buying opportunities for those having hosiery needs, and who hasn't?

We could tell you yards of interesting things about Wayne-Knit Guaranteed Hosiery. About the fine material used; how the wearing points are strongly, yet comfortably, reinforced; about the hygienic and absolutely fast dyes, etc.

But we couldn't impress you nearly as convincingly as an actual examination would.

Wayne Knit Indestructible Hosiery
Guaranteed

Won't you come in to-day—bring your boy or girl and let them see the difference our Hosiery looks than others?

Pony Stockings

We used to think that children should wear stout, thick, heavy weight Hosiery the year 'round. We know now that they need not.

Dressy, shapely, thin, comfortable stockings can be easily gratified. We have these in many different styles—school, romp and dress. Drop in and look them over.

- No. 3, heavy weight, for boys ..... 25c per pair
- No. 40, medium weight, for boys or girls ..... 25c per pair
- No. 65, light weight, in Black and Tan ..... 25c per pair
- No. 392, light weight, Misses' Shaped Hose (Black) ..... 25c per pair
- No. 115, Black Plaited Silk Hose for girls ..... 50c per pair

BUY YOUR CHILDREN'S PONY STOCKINGS OF US

The Homer Fitts Company

Watch To-morrow's Paper for Saturday's Special.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Parasols, all colors, at Knight's. June sale white waists at Vaughan's. To-night, flower festival at Methodist church.

Judge H. W. Scott left this forenoon for Rutland, where he will attend an N. E. O. P. gathering.

Eugene Magnus of Bethel, Conn., arrived in the city last night for an extended visit with friends.

D. H. Rowlands of Redgranite, Wis., arrived in the city last night for a visit in Barre and Barre Town.

Lawrence Gray left last night for Rockland, Me., where he will make an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Blanche McNally, who has been employed at the City hospital, has returned to her home in Northfield.

Mrs. C. C. Hanson and son left this morning for Holyoke, Mass., where they will make an extended visit with relatives.

Mrs. Dora M. Aldrich returned yesterday to her home in Northfield, after spending a few days with friends in the city.

R. H. Graves, the Boston sales agent for the Maxwell cars, is passing a few days in the city as the guest of H. F. Cutler.

Mrs. C. R. Bevins of Holyoke, Mass., arrived in the city last night for a ten days' visit with relatives in Barre and Barre Town.

George Bacon of Roxbury arrived in the city this forenoon for a few days' visit as the guest of Andrew Morrison of Batchelder street.

Chester Williams, who has been spending several days with friends in Goddard seminary, returned last night to his home in Charlotte.

Miss Bina Bracken has returned to her home in Rutland, after spending a few days in Barre as the guest of Miss Nellie Sadler of Church street.

Miss Mildred Cashion, who has been spending a few days as the guest of friends on Summer street, returned today to her home at Putnamville.

One of the best Elclair two-reel features, "The Great Unknown," will be shown to-day and to-morrow at the Bijou, the home of the 101 Bisons.—Adv.

Remember the rummage sale in the vestry of the Universalist church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. All articles thoroughly fumigated by the board of health.

The Thursday evening meetings of the cohorts of St. Monica's Sunday school, suspended during the month of May, will be resumed next Thursday evening at the convent on Summer street.

Joseph Hennessey, who has been visiting in the city for the past few days, left to-day for Brattleboro, where he will make a brief visit before returning to his home at Waterbury, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Melloon of Derby Line arrived in the city yesterday for a few days' visit with their daughter, Miss Ruth Melloon, a student at Goddard seminary. The trip to Barre was made by automobile.

Miss Adele McConachie, a teacher in the Summer street school, went yesterday to Northfield, where she was called by the condition of her aunt, Mrs. Charles A. Plumley, who sustained injuries in an accident on Sunday.

Miss Susie Gomez of River street, who was convicted on an illegal selling charge in city court Monday night, left this afternoon in the company of an officer for Rutland, where she will serve a sentence of not less than two months and not more than six months in the house of correction.

State's Attorney J. Ward Carver of Church street, who was visiting yesterday at Mount Mansfield, where he attended the annual June dinner of the Lake Mansfield club. The club's preserves near the summit were formally opened for the season yesterday, and a large number of members were present for the occasion.

Tuesday's arrivals at the Buzzell hotel were as follows: E. G. Clewley, Burlington; Samuel Mellow, Westley; R. L. Charles Lincoln, Red Beach, Me.; D. H. Rowlands, Redgranite, Wis.; K. C. Booth, East Corinth; William Gibson, Northfield; John Knox, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cruz and little daughter left last night for New York, where they will visit relatives for a few days before sailing on the French liner La France for their former home near Madrid, Spain. They expect to be absent from Barre several months, and while in Europe they will visit relatives in northern Portugal.

John Kerr of Montpelier was arraigned before Judge H. W. Scott in city court this forenoon on an intoxication charge, subsequent offense, to which he entered a plea of guilty. Kerr was unable to pay the $15 fine and costs of $3.95, and the court remanded him to the county jail at Montpelier to serve the alternate sentence of 63 days. The man was arrested late last night by Officer George K. Carle.

A. W. Badger & Co. are exhibiting in one of their North Main street display windows a large genre photograph of the Iowa State Agricultural college buildings and grounds at Ames. The picture will be of interest to many Barre people, since it was taken by Fred E. Colburn, a former resident of this city, who is now a professor of photography at the college. Mr. Colburn is a son-in-law of James H. Cook, and it was while in Barre that he established a reputation for outdoor photography. The Iowa state college is one of the largest institutions of its kind in the middle West.

Stone masons, who have been engaged for the past few weeks erecting a retaining wall on the property on the south side of Pearl street recently purchased by A. H. Buzzell, completed the work to-day. The wall commences at a point on Pearl street and extends the full depth of the lot on the dividing property line and then runs at right angles the entire length to Summer street. The wall is granite. Nothing will be done towards building on the property at present, but it is the intent of Mr. Buzzell to place an open-air ice-skating rink at the disposal of the public during the coming winter.

The solemn installation of the recently elected officers of the young ladies' sodality took place last evening at St. Monica's church. The spiritual director of the sodality, Rev. A. C. Griffin, presided and after the collaboration of the officers, the director addressed the members on "The Ideal Child of Mary." The officers are: Prefect, Miss Nellie Saldier, Church street; assistant, Miss Annie McGue, Morse block; secretary, Miss Marguerite Nichols, Richardson street; treasurer, Miss Lizzie White, Newton street. At a sick list, reported as on the gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gordon, who is on the sick list, is reported as on the gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. L. C. Roberson, at Williamstown.

Melburn Lewis and John Hollenback, who are employed at the machine shop in Windsor, are at home on a visit.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the new wash silks at Vaughan's. Buy your Fownes' silk gloves at the Vaughan Store.

Remember the dance after band concert Wednesday in Howland hall, Riley's orchestra.

Ladies, see our line of street dresses, exclusive styles, low prices. Paris Shirt-waist House.

Big line of fine white lawn and voile waists. Your choice, 98c. Paris Shirt-waist House.

William Plastridge of Northfield was among the business visitors in the city yesterday and to-day.

Deputy Sheriff A. M. Morrison and Guy Andrews were among the Barre visitors in Northfield to-day.

Elmer Burnham, who has been visiting relatives in Marshfield for the past week, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Agnes Walker and Mrs. James R. McKenzie left to-day for a few days' visit with friends in South Ryegate.

A daughter, weighing 8 1/2 pounds, was born June 3 to Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Brown, at the home of M. L. Towne on the west hill.

Miss Charlotte Gillis returned this morning to her home in Essex Junction, after spending a week with relatives on Brook street.

Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton returned this morning from Newport, N. H., where he has been attending a session of county court.

Attorneys John W. Gordon and E. R. Davis returned last night from Chelsea, where they attended the opening of Orange county court.

Frank Cassava has resumed his duties in the Central Vermont yard, after passing several days at his former home in West Chazy, N. Y.

Mrs. L. S. Corwin returned this morning to her home in Bradford, after spending a few days with relatives in Barre and Montpelier.

John Hedmond, who has been spending several days in the city as the guest of R. E. Murphy, returned this forenoon to his home in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Bass, who have been passing a few days with friends in Barre and Montpelier, returned last night to their home in Randolph.

Harold Stacey of North Main street left this forenoon for Windsor, where he will be employed during the summer by the Windsor Machine Co.

Thursday we put on sale balance of our spring silk waists in all leading colors. Value up to $4.50; one day only, choice for $2.98. Paris Shirtwaist House.

Mrs. Harvey Phelps and little daughter, Helen, of Barret, are passing several days in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Morrison of Hill street.

James Flynn, a former student at Goddard seminary, who has been passing several days with friends in the city, returned yesterday to his home in Moretown.

Miss Marguerite G. Stoughton, a student at the Boston Museum of Arts, arrived in the city this morning to pass the summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. Ellen L. Stoughton of 21 French street.

H. E. Anderson of St. Albans, assistant auditor for the Central Vermont railroad, was in the city to-day completing arrangements for the administrative changes which became effective in the freight offices and yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pease, who have been visiting relatives in the city for the past ten days, went this forenoon to Fall River, Mass., where they will make a more extended stay before returning to their home in Clarencerville, P. Q.

The Hooker hill Guards went down to defeat before the Granite street Bingers at the driving park yesterday afternoon, the team from Granite street winning 12 to 7 victory. Reid and Eager were in the points for the losers, with Donald and Ericson opposing.

Captain Robert Brandt of the local Salvation Army corps has arranged for a series of special evangelistic meetings to be held in the barracks Friday and Saturday evenings. It is expected that officers from out of the city will be present to assist in the services.

A number of Congregationalists from Barre will go to Montpelier this evening to attend the annual meeting of the Central Vermont Congregational association, which is to open in Bethany church at 7 o'clock with a dinner. Several local speakers are on the program, which follows immediately after the banquet.

The pulmotor which the Tenney corporation of Boston recently placed in its Barre offices in the Aldrich building is exhibited in the west window of the office and has thus far attracted the attention of many passersby. Physicians, firemen and others are reminded that the pulmotor is available at all times, for use in emergencies.

Frank E. Adams of Elm street left this forenoon for Plattsburgh, N. Y., where he will represent the Barre Auto Gun club at a tournament held under the auspices of clay pigeon shooters in northern New York. Mr. Adams was joined at Montpelier by Dr. C. H. Burr and G. E. Metcalf, who will also participate in the shoot as members of the Montpelier Gun club.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED

COTTAGE TO RENT—At 14 Vine street. Keys at Baltimore Lunch Room. 687r

FOR SALE—Cabbage plants, five different varieties: Brussels sprouts, Charles Keith, 157 North Seminary street. Phone 72-1. 687b

DREAMLAND THEATRE

THE HOME OF GOOD PICTURES

The Adventure OF THE Counterfeit Bill

A real live story done in real Vitagraph style

OTHER FEATURES

Admission Five Cents

Free McCall Patterns

Remember! This week we give a McCall Pattern of your own selection with every purchase amounting to $1.00 or more.

This means $1.00 worth of best dry goods and a 15c Pattern for $1.00.

It is worth while: 15 per cent. saved on your purchases of Summer Goods.

Let us show you. You will find it pays to trade here.

Henry W. Knight
Successor to Veale & Knight

McCall Pattern Ladies' Dress—No. 5359

GET DRESSED

in proper style! You can do this best by getting your Haberdashery at the Union Clothing Company. You never saw such a variety of Shirts, Vests, Cravats and the rest of the things in fashionable men's furnishings. Every man gets personal, painstaking service here, whether his purchase is "two-for-a-quarter collar," or a ten-dollar bath robe.

UNION CLOTHING CO.
Phone 343-W

PAVILION THEATRE

Vaudeville To-day
McDonald & Kenny
in a comedy act.
Kashima
the unique juggler, better known as the human billiard table.

SPECIAL MULTIPLE REEL FEATURE
A Frontier Child
A real 101 Bison Indian picture.
MRS. BEN H. TASSIE, Pianist

ADMISSION ..... 10 CENTS

The Flowerland Bazar

To be given under the auspices of Canton Vinton No. 9 P. M., I. O. O. F.

In Music Hall, Miles' Block
Commencing
Monday Evening, June 9
and continuing through the week

Season tickets can be procured from the members,
Six Admissions for Fifty Cents

Guernsey
Brown-White Lined-Enameled

Earthenware
Give your friends a treat—serve a casserole dinner in Guernsey

This is the newest thing in the cooking art. You will be surprised at the attractiveness of Guernsey—how much it adds to the table.

And you will be delighted with the new zest and flavor that food cooked and served in it has.

Guernsey Earthenware is snow white inside—a rich, lustrous brown outside. It is absolutely sanitary, and easily kept clean. Come in and let us show you our large assortment of this ware.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.
81-83 No. Main St. Tel. 439-W Barre, Vt.

Dutchess Trousers!

Our spring and summer line of Dutchess Trousers will command your attention.

The Dutchess warrant stands for quality, style and durability. Price is no more than you pay for other makes and we believe in the best.

Dutchess Trousers,
$1.00 to $4.50.
See our window.

The Frank McWhorter Co.

Easy in Any Position.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New tub silks at Abbott's. June sale white goods at Vaughan's. John Connell returned to Boston to-day, after passing a few days in the city on business.

"The Great Unknown," an Elclair masterpiece in two reels; also other pictures, at the Bijou.—Adv.

Eugene Nerney of Westerville was a visitor in the city to-day, returning from a business visit to Burlington.

Charles Rinn of North Main street left to-day for Waterbury, where he will remain several days on business.

William Austin, who has been spending the past few days in the city, returned to-day to his home at Warren.

A regular meeting of Branch 1 of the Socialist party will be held this evening at 7:30 in headquarters, Scamplin block.

Mrs. John Rogers of 9 Harrington avenue was taken to the City hospital this forenoon in A. W. Badger & Co.'s ambulance.

Mrs. Howard Stanton of Montreal arrived in the city to-day to pass a few weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Watkins of Summer street.

Mrs. F. A. Slayton and daughter, Gertrude, of South Main street returned to-day from Plainfield, where they have been visiting at the home of Nat Page.

Miss Florence Prescott, a student at Syracuse university, was a visitor in the city yesterday on her way to Williamstown to spend the summer. Miss Prescott graduated from Spaulding high school in 1910.

Perry Bros. Automobile company this morning received a consignment of Ford runabouts from the factories at Detroit. The consignment consisted of three cars and was unloaded at the Montpelier & Wells River freight station.

At Graniteville last night the South End A. C. baseball team was overwhelmingly defeated by the Graniteville A. C. The score was 21 to 0. The battery for Graniteville was composed of Williams and McLeay, both former Goddard players. Williams was invincible. In the line-up of the Barre team was Terney, Goddard player, and Brown, a Spaulding lad. The management of the Graniteville club has greatly strengthened its aggregation and intends to play the best independent clubs in the state during the summer.

Kenneth Gale of Wellington street was a participant in a cycle accident on the Williamstown road yesterday. Gale was operating his Indian motorcycle and at a narrow bend in the road he met a man riding a bicycle. The person on the bicycle lost his presence of mind and the two parties met in such a manner that the cycles sideswiped. Both were thrown to the ground. Gale's machine was damaged and Gale was injured and the other participant suffered slight injuries both to his vehicle and to his person.

Mr. and Mrs. Ceardo Giuseppini, who were married in Quincy, Mass., May 24, arrived in the city yesterday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kino J. Maggiani of Shurtleff place. Mr. Giuseppini is a former resident of Barre and his wife, who was formerly Mrs. Teresina Chapetti of Quincy, is also quite well known in this city. After a week's visit here they will return to Quincy to make their home at 15 Brook street.

General Manager H. T. Sande, William Macomber and H. Wood of the Boston offices of the C. H. Tenney corporation returned to Boston last night, after passing a few days in Barre as the guests of Manager C. F. Miller of the Consolidated Lighting Co.

SOUTH BARRE.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Vassar of Waterbury spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Harry Blanchard.

Mrs. Bancroft left Saturday for a few days' visit with friends in Williamstown.

Mrs. Charles Gordon, who is on the sick list, is reported as on the gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. L. C. Roberson, at Williamstown.

Melburn Lewis and John Hollenback, who are employed at the machine shop in Windsor, are at home on a visit.

EAST BARRE.

Regular meeting of Wuchosen tribe, No. 19, on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock; work, adoption and chief's degrees.

Green Mountain chapter, O. E. S., No. 35, held their regular meeting Friday evening and installed their officers for the year, by D. D. G. M. Mrs. Jennie Fay of Williston. Mrs. George Pray of North Montpelier was marshal. The officers are: W. M., Mrs. Genevieve McCrillis; W. P., E. J. Rogers; A. M., Mrs. Kate Gould; conductress, Mrs. Gertrude Osgood; assistant conductress, Mrs. Jessie Drew; secretary, Mrs. May Burbank; treasurer, Mrs. Isadore Fisher; Adah, Mrs. Annie McAllister; Ruth, Mrs. Louise Lane; Esther, Mrs. Jennie Rogers; Martha, Mrs. Myrtle Ford; Electa, Mrs. Etta Walbridge; chaplain, Mrs. Fanny Waldo; marshal, Miss Cora Lane; organist, Mrs. Linnie Walbridge; warder, Mrs. Louella Freeman; sentinel, George Dow. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served.

Miss Eula Putnam is home from Milford, N. H., for a few weeks.

The educational picture show Saturday evening drew a full house and was very instructive and profitable, as well as amusing.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Read of St. Johnsbury were guests at Hiram Russell's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Adams of Orleans were at her father's, Hiram Russell, recently.

Mrs. Mary Worthen of Plainfield was a guest at her sister's, Mrs. B. G. Rogers, recently.

Benjamin Barrett is home from Belows Falls, where he has been working.

Mrs. A. C. Ainsworth spent two days with friends in Montpelier last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wales and daughter, Louise, of St. Johnsbury, were at Fred Wales' Friday.

S. B. Blodgett visited his son, Rev. Fred Blodgett, in Lyndon last week.

Mrs. Flora Clark of Barre is assisting at Asa Mack's during his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbrother are spending a couple of weeks with friends in Orleans.

Mrs. A. P. Burnham of Montpelier spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Etta Haines, recently.

Charles Preston of Northfield Falls was a guest at George Hoyt's Monday.

R. F. Barnett was in Barre recently and purchased a 28-horsepower Buick auto.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Billideau and daughter of Hardwick were in town, Friday.

J. F. Dutton of Montpelier was in town on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Kate Eastman is visiting old friends in Hardwick for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross of Montpelier visited her mother, Mrs. Richard Doying, Sunday.

Rev. C. B. Atwood accompanied his brother to St. Johnsbury, Saturday. He was on his way from Haverhill, Mass., to Canada.

Mrs. Hiram Russell and daughter, Mrs. Kate Lyford, were in St. Johnsbury last week as guests of Mrs. Glenn Read.

E. F. Farrington of Barre spent Sunday with his father, J. A. Farrington.

Children's day at the M. E. church has been postponed until June 15.