

HOW THE N.A.M. CAMPAIGNED

Worked Against Re-election of Congressman Not Favorable

TO THEIR PLANS FOR LEGISLATION

Mulhall Says He has Found About 200 More Letters

Washington, Aug. 7.—How the National Association of Manufacturers prodded congressmen to support legislation the association favored and opposed those who threatened its interests was explained to the House lobby committee by James A. Emery, general counsel of the association yesterday.

He said the association kept track of the records of congressmen and when it was time for the re-election notified the members in individual districts and campaign work was done by local members.

Examination of Martin A. Mulhall, self-styled lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, was postponed yesterday until Monday at the request of Mulhall, who announced that in the last few days he had discovered in his files in Baltimore some 200 additional letters bearing on national politics, and he believed that if given a few days he would be able to discover more.

He said the letters found were important and that some contradicted testimony already given before the committee by Representative Fairchild. Mulhall insisted he needed a rest. "Furthermore, I am celebrating my 61st birthday and have been invited home," he said.

The committee excused him until Friday, granted his request to have counsel during his examination, but withheld decision on his invitation to the committee to send a representative to Baltimore to assist him in going through his files.

WILL SEEK THE AID OF COURTS

Foss Strikers Will Try To Force a Hearing By State Board of Arbitration

Boston, Aug. 7.—Disappointed in the failure of their march on the State House yesterday to force the state board of arbitration to give an immediate public hearing, the strikers at the plants of Governor Foss at Hyde Park last night declared they would invoke aid of the superior court.

According to the leaders, counsel will file petitions asking that the board be ordered to grant a public hearing.

Noted Tenor Drowned

Tegernsee, Bavaria, Aug. 7.—A yacht in which Fritz Sturmfeld and Leo Slezak, two well known operatic tenors were sailing, overturned yesterday and Sturmfeld was drowned.

Danef Not Arrested

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 7.—There is no foundation for the reports published abroad of the arrest of Dr. S. Danef, former Bulgarian premier, at the instance of the Bulgarian government.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

is a deceptive disease—thousands have it and don't know it. If you want good results, you can make no mistake by using Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. At drugists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. Sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble.

Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

ELECTRIC SUPPLIES

YOU WANT A HOT FLAT-IRON

sometimes quickly and perhaps the fire has gone down or is entirely out. You don't have to worry if you have one of our electric irons, which can be warmed up in a few seconds. We have a full line of electric supplies, every one of which is necessary in the home.

Barre Electric Co.,

135 North Main St., Wheelock Block, Telephone 98-W

A Benefit Football Match

will be played on Wednesday, Aug. 6, on the Berlin street grounds between a picked team from Northfield and one from Barre.

Game called at 5.45. Admission 25 cents, ladies free

Loss of Appetite

Is loss of vitality, vigor or tone, and is often a forerunner of prostrating disease. It is serious and especially so to people that must keep up and doing or get behindhand.

The best medicine to take for it is the great constitutional remedy

Good's Sarsaparilla

Which purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the whole system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

KNIGHTS RE-ELECT SUPREME OFFICERS

Spirited Contest for Office of Physician Closed by the Withdrawal of Dr. Harrington of Milwaukee—Four New Directors Chosen.

Boston, Aug. 7.—Practically all of the supreme officers of the Knights of Columbus were re-elected at yesterday's meeting in connection with the annual convention of the order which is being held in this city.

The officers unanimously re-elected were: Supreme knight, James A. Flaherty, Philadelphia.

Deputy supreme knight, Martin H. Carmody, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Supreme secretary, William J. McGinley, New Haven, Conn.

Supreme treasurer, Daniel J. Callahan, Washington.

Supreme advocate, Joseph C. Pelletier, Boston.

The contest for supreme physician resulted in the choice of Dr. E. W. Buckley of St. Paul, Minn. His opponent was Dr. G. L. Harrington of Wisconsin. His name was withdrawn soon after the balloting commenced when it became apparent that Doctor Beckley would receive the larger vote.

Other officers were: Supreme warden, Thomas J. McLaughlin, Newark, N. J.

Supreme chaplain, Rev. P. J. McGivney, Middletown, Conn.

National directors—John H. Reddin, Denver, Col.; Judge Paul Leche, Donaldson, La.; N. A. Dussault, Quebec and William D. Dwyer, St. Paul.

Several committee reports were read at the forenoon business meeting.

In addressing the convention, Supreme Knight Flaherty, who was elected for the fifth term, declared that the reports of the supreme treasurer and the supreme secretary afforded "delectable reading."

"They present an array of figures," he said, "showing the healthy increase of our membership and the wholesome condition of our finances that must be gratifying to all."

The afternoon program called for another business meeting. For the ladies accompanying the delegates there was an organ recital at the Mission church and a reception at the Hotel Somerset.

65,000,000 POUNDS OF BUTTER STORED

Jobbers, Forced To Pay High Prices, Await a Rise in the Market

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Although Chicago housewives have been paying mid-winter prices for butter and a further advance is expected, there are more than 65,000,000 pounds of the product in cold storage, according to the report yesterday of the Warehousemen's association. This is better than 10,000,000 pounds more than the reserves a year ago.

A half-cent increase Tuesday made the price 24 1/2 cents to jobbers and another advance of 1 cent was predicted for yesterday. Prices to consumers range from 35 to 38 cents, according to location. Jobbers attribute the high prices and enormous cold storage stocks to the warfare between the Chicago and Elgin butter boards. Jobbers have been in the habit of contracting in advance for butter to be delivered during the season of greatest production on a basis of Elgin prices. This year Elgin quotations have been relatively higher than prices at any of the leading markets of the nation.

Jobbers have been paying more for butter than they could sell at and have been forced to place their purchases in storage, awaiting a higher market.

There has been an unusually heavy production of butter and so much of it has gone in storage that jobbers anticipate a drop if there is a mild winter.

CLOUDBURST IN SHOSHONE.

Much Damage To Property, but No Lives Are Lost.

Shoshone, Wyo., Aug. 7.—A cloudburst early yesterday above this city sent a flood of water through the streets and did much damage to property. Two houses were destroyed by lightning, but there was no loss of life. Every cellar in the city was flooded, and at one time two feet of water was running in the main street. Two railroad bridges were carried away.

URID ACID SOLVENT

50 Cent Bottle (32 Doses) FREE

Just because you start the day worried and tired, stiff legs and arms and muscles, an aching head, burning and bearing down pains in the back—worn out before the day begins, do not think you have to stay in that condition.

Be strong, well and vigorous, with no more pains from stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatic suffering, aching back or kidney disease.

For any form of bladder trouble or weakness, its action is really wonderful. Those sufferers who are in and out of bed half a dozen times a night will appreciate the rest, comfort and strength this treatment gives.

To prove The Williams Treatment conquers kidney and bladder diseases, rheumatism and all uric acid troubles, no matter how chronic or stubborn, if you have never used The Williams Treatment, we will give you one bottle (32 doses) free if you will cut out this notice and send it with your name and address, with 10c to help pay distribution expenses, to The Dr. D. A. Williams Company, Dept. No. 122 P. O. Building, East Hampton, Conn. Send at once and you will receive by parcel post a regular 50c bottle, without charge and without incurring any obligations. One bottle only to an address.

RENT MORE THAN SALARY

Justice Gerard Finds a House for $19,000 Rent

HIS PAY IS ONLY $17,500

He Leaves Berlin on His Way Home to See President

Berlin, Aug. 7.—James W. Gerard, American ambassador to Germany, with his wife and her sister, the Countess Anton Sigray, left for Hamburg at noon yesterday, to embark on the Amerika, sailing for the United States to-day.

Mr. Gerard succeeded, aided by the newspaper versions of his house-hunting difficulties, in finding two suitable houses for his residence in Berlin. One of them is in the aristocratic Tiergarten district, and the other near the center of the city. The rental of each is about $19,000 annually, thus exceeding the ambassador's salary by $1,500. Either one of the residences contains ample room for the embassy offices and private quarters as well as for entertaining purposes.

Mr. Gerard will, before deciding on taking a lease of one of the houses, discuss the situation with President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan, when he reaches Washington. George von L. Meyer, former secretary of the navy, who arrived Tuesday evening, and was staying in the same hotel as the Gerards, conveyed his sympathy to Mr. Gerard, telling him he had been subjected to similar experiences while he was ambassador in Rome and in St. Petersburg.

Judge Gerard's statement, to the effect that he found it impossible to obtain a suitable embassy residence there at a reasonable price, and that he was drawing a bill for congressional enactment to tax Americans abroad so as to obtain a fund for supporting ambassadors, was intended as a joke. He had talked in a facetious vein on the subject, he said, and was sorry that his remarks had been taken seriously and cabled to American newspapers. He cabled an explanation to Joseph Tumulty, the secretary of the president.

Justice Gerard's nomination for the German mission has been confirmed, and his commission will be awaiting him when he returns to the United States. He will undergo a period of instruction in the state department before departing for his post.

JUDGE BARS POLITICS IN THE DIGGS TRIAL

Won't Allow Questions About "Persons of Importance"—Jury Nearly Complete.

San Francisco, Aug. 7.—When court adjourned last night in the trial of Maury L. Diggs for violation of the white slave act it seemed certain a jury would be empaneled to-day.

Eleven men were in the box but the first venire had been exhausted. A call was sent for a special venire of 20.

Judge Van Fleet's attitude toward the political aspect of the case was indicated when Attorney Ogilhan was examining Talesman Louis Block.

"If you know that certain persons of importance wished the acquittal of these defendants would it bias you?" the lawyer asked.

The judge immediately interrupted, ruled that the question was improper and instructed counsel to "confine themselves to the facts."

All of the men in the box expressed a belief in the efficacy of the white slave law and in favor of its rigid enforcement. Only two of the twelve jurors in the box yesterday morning were unmarried.

Of the eleven men in the jury box, seven are married and have children, one is married but is not a father, and the remaining three are single men, living with their parents. All are subject to peremptory challenge, and at least one, Philip Woolsey, is likely to be relieved from jury service in that manner. When examined, Woolsey expressed a prejudice against "any married man who will abandon his wife and babies and run off on a spree with another woman," for the reason that "such actions as have been reported in this case strike at the very foundation of the home. He said, however, that he was capable of rendering a fair decision. Woolsey is unmarried.

Public interest in the case has been small this far, but as soon as the taking of testimony begins it is expected to increase. Both Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti were in court when yesterday's session opened. Caminetti said it was unlikely that his father would come from Washington for his trial. His mother, however, sat beside him in court yesterday.

Misses Harrington and Norris remained in the United States district attorney's office yesterday waiting to be called to the witness stand.

STONE REPLIES TO SENATOR LIPPITT

"The Time Has Passed When Representatives of the Interests Can Write the Tariff Laws"

Washington, Aug. 7.—Senator Lippitt of Rhode Island aroused the Democratic leaders to spirited replies yesterday when he charged that the cotton schedule discriminated against New England and in favor of the South and was laphazardly prepared.

Senator Stone of Missouri referring to Senator Lippitt as a cotton manufacturer, remarked that the time had passed when representatives of the interests could write the tariff laws.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results. At Boston—Boston 4, St. Louis 1. Batteries—Bedient and Thomas; Baumgartner and McAllister.

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia 7, Cleveland 1. Batteries—Bush and Schang; Gregg, Kahler, Miller and O'Neil.

At New York—Detroit 2, New York 1. Batteries—Dauus and McKee; Ford and Sweeney.

At Washington—Washington 11, Chicago 2. Batteries—Johnson, Gallia and Ainsmith; Smith, O'Brien, Lathrop and Kuhn.

Standing of the Clubs. Won Lost Pct. Philadelphia 70 31 .693 Cleveland 65 40 .619 Washington 57 44 .564 Chicago 54 52 .509 Boston 48 52 .480 Detroit 44 61 .419 St. Louis 46 66 .411 New York 32 65 .330

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Yesterday's Results. At Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh 9, New York 1. Batteries—McQuilian and Gibson; Mathewson, Wiltz and Wilson.

At Chicago—Chicago 4, Brooklyn 3. Batteries—Cheney, Archer and Needham; Walker, Wagner and Miller.

At St. Louis—Philadelphia 7, St. Louis 1. Batteries—Rixey and Killifer; Harmon, Wingo and Hilbrand.

Standing of the Clubs. Won Lost Pct. New York 68 31 .687 Philadelphia 60 35 .632 Chicago 53 48 .525 Pittsburgh 51 47 .520 Brooklyn 43 52 .453 Boston 41 66 .423 Cincinnati 41 62 .398 St. Louis 38 64 .372

LIFE'S STRUGGLE WITH ILLNESS

Mrs. Stewart Tells How She Suffered from 16 to 45 years old—How Finally Cured.

Euphemia, Ohio.—"Because of total ignorance of how to care for myself when verging into womanhood, and from taking cold when going to school, I suffered from a displacement, and each month I had severe pains and nausea which always meant a lay-off from work for two to four days from the time I was 16 years old.

"I went to Kansas to live with my sister and while there a doctor told me of the Pinkham remedies but I did not use them then as my faith in patent medicines was limited. After my sister died I came home to Ohio to live and that has been my home for the last 18 years.

"The Change of Life came when I was 47 years old and about this time I saw my physical condition plainly described in one of your advertisements. Then I began using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot tell you or any one the relief it gave me in the first three months. It put me right where I need not lay off every month and during the last 18 years I have not paid out two dollars to a doctor, and have been blest with excellent health for a woman of my age and I can thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it.

"Since the Change of Life is over I have been a maternity nurse and being wholly self-supporting, I cannot over estimate the value of good health. I have now earned a comfortable little home just by sewing and nursing since I was 52 years old. I have recommended the Compound to many with good results, as it is excellent to take before and after childbirth."—Miss EVELYN ADELIA STEWART, Euphemia, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MURPHY AND SULZER BOTH MAY BE SUMMONED BEFORE COMMITTEE.

New York, Aug. 7.—William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, contributed $500 to Governor Sulzer's campaign fund last fall.

Governor Sulzer did not include it in his sworn statement of campaign contributions, according to testimony adduced yesterday before the joint legislative investigating committee.

At a recent hearing the committee brought out the fact that Abram Elkus had contributed $500 and Jacob H. Schiff $2,500 to the fund and that neither contribution had appeared in the sworn statement.

It was not made clear whether Mr. McCombs' check was an individual contribution or one made in his capacity as national chairman.

At the time this contribution was received as well as Mr. Schiff's $2,500 and Mr. Elkus' $500, Governor Sulzer was in New York, according to his published itinerary, and copies of New York newspapers placed in evidence by the committee's counsel, Eugene L. Richards.

Governor Sulzer was quoted recently as saying that he did not know of Schiff's and Elkus' contributions because he was out of town and this statement also was read into the record.

Interest was aroused yesterday in the sessions by the possibility that both Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, and Governor Sulzer may appear as witnesses, while the committee is sitting here.

Another prospective witness was Rev. O. R. Miller, who has published statements alleging improper conduct on the part of certain senators in connection with a legislative bill in which certain mercantile agencies were interested.

LACK OF FUNDS. Will Cripple Chinese Exhibit at San Francisco Fair.

Peking, Aug. 7.—The Chinese government will be unable, owing to its financial difficulties, to furnish the funds necessary to support the Chinese exhibit at the Panama Pacific exposition at San Francisco in the manner originally planned.

The finance minister, however, hopes to obtain an appropriation of $500,000, although many members of the Chinese parliament oppose it.

Several chambers of commerce also are reluctant in the matter, owing to a panic among merchants brought about by the Chinese revolution and the recent rebellion.

Overcome By Fumes. New York, Aug. 7.—Stupefying fumes of an explosive containing glycerine, overcame 16 men, killed one and caused a panic among 400 others yesterday in the Catskill aqueduct, 700 feet under the streets of New York City.

MUST SERVE TERM. Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 7.—According to authoritative report here yesterday of decisions reached by the department of justice at Washington, Julian Hawthorne and Dr. William J. Morton of Boston, convicted of using the mails to defraud, must serve their terms in the federal prison here.

Keep Your Hands Soft and White

Chalmers, the Philly pitcher, is out of the game with a sore arm. The arm has been bothering him for a couple of weeks. It will keep him out of the running for another couple of weeks.

Joe Jackson, the star outfielder of the Cleveland Naps, is an exceptionally fast man on the bases, which is not generally known. Jackson was chiefly through his ability to clout the pill with powerful strength. Many people say that Cobb will come along later and pass the Nap, but Cobb cannot forever lead the world in batting. This is Jack's third full season in the big leagues. He came to Cleveland in the fall of 1910, playing 20 games and leading the American league in batting with a percentage of .387. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911, 1912, he was runner-up for batting honors. Previous to entering the big leagues he played with Savannah and New Orleans in the Southern league and Greenville in the South Carolina league. His first appearance in organized baseball was with Greenfield in 1908. That year he batted for 348, leading the league. In 1909 he batted for 348, leading the league. The following seasons, 1911,