Pitched Barre Athletics to a 9 to 1 Victory over White River Junction

ALLOWED 3 HITS TO THE VISITORS

Junction Came Minus Their Regular Pitcher, Renahan

The redoubtable Barre Athletics continued to demonstrate their strength in Vermont independent baseball on Saturday, when they defeated the White Rivers at Inter-city park by the score of 9 to 1.

Notes of the B. A. C. Game. The White River aggregation were obliged to make their trip Saturday without the services of the regular twirler, Renahan, the former Hartford high school lad.

Tinkham, the former Goddard lad, made a fine showing on first base for the visitors. He accepted all his chances with ease and perfection.

Nute, the Barre shortstop, has decided not to leave Barre. He will remain with the Barre team and continue his duties as captain of the team.

Williams will be seen in a Barre uniform during the remainder of the season. Williams is a worthy successor to Tommy Davidson.

"Bob" Wright is expected to be back in the game in two weeks. His services are sorely missed.

John Brown, the former Havana Red Sox player, occupied first base during the absence of "Bob" Wright. His ludicrous antics around the initial pillow and when on bases proved a source of enjoyment to the spectators.

Lowest Gross Score, 75. Made by John Reid on Barre Golf Club Links Last Week.

The lowest gross score in golf last week at the Barre G. C. links was a 75, by John Reid, who also captured the lowest net. There were tied for second in lowest gross, and Craig and A. Freeland were second and third, respectively in lowest net. The scores:

3 BATHHOUSES ARE DESTROYED.

Fires Believed To Be Work of a Grief-Crazed Parent.

Lawrence, Mass., Aug. 11.—A fire believed to be of incendiary origin, last night destroyed the three municipal bathhouses on the Merrimack river, at one of which 11 boys were drowned a month ago by the collapse of a runway. It is thought some foreign born parent, crazed by grief, set fire to the structures, as all burst into flames at the same time. The loss is $1,500.

RANGERS TIGHTEN "SOCCER" LEAD

Defeated the Bonaccords, 3 to 0, for the State Football Championship on Saturday Afternoon.

The Rangers tightened their hold on the Vermont soccer championship in the state league at the Berlin street grounds Saturday evening by defeating the Bonaccords, 3 to 0, in a closely contested struggle. Football fans who swarmed the field soon after the baseball game was finished were privileged to witness one of the toughest arguments that the season has uncovered thus far.

After the teams had vainly shoved the pigskin up and down the field for thirty minutes in the first half, Duguid made a skillful detour and shoved the ball through the posts for the first counter. Seldom has any game this season waxed so fierce as Saturday's contest, especially in the last third of the first half.

Wilson and Johnson contributed much of the brilliant individual work for the winners, with Mitchell a close contender for honors on the Bonaccord eleven. On the whole, however, there were few opportunities for individual work, as the two teams played together at nearly every stage. The line-up:

Vermont "Soccer" League Notes.

Duguid's first goal on Saturday was a good one.

Jim Forbes (Bonaccords) and Frank Wilson (Rangers) are two of the best backs in the league.

The boys from the hill went to Hardwick Saturday and trimmed the town team, one goal to nothing.

George Laing was one of the best forwards in Saturday's game; his dribbling and crosses were very fine.

Anderson played one of his best games on Saturday, backing up his partner in fine shape.

Palmer, Bonaccord outside right, is another good forward, doing some good work in Saturday's game, but getting very little support.

The next game is Green Mountains vs. Hardwick, when a good game should be seen at Berlin street grounds.

Roso, the Bonaccord goal tender, was rather slow, but a little more confidence will make him all right.

Jim Dunson is keeping up his record; only one goal has been scored against him this season.

Bonaccord played a hard game, but could not score. More passing and less strong kicking, boys, and the goals are bound to come.

BASEBALL MAY SAVE LIFE OF YOUNG "FAN"

Sent By Pitcher Who Won Game With It, Together With Autograph Letter.

Washington, Aug. 11.—A baseball and an autograph letter from Walter Johnson, Washington's premier pitcher, did more, it is believed, than medicine could do to bring about the rapid convalescence of Warren A. Sise, a youthful admirer of the big ball tosser.

Johnson, whose numerous admirers include scores of youthful "fans," heard of the serious illness of the lad and wrote to him, sending a baseball he had used in pitching the Washington team to victory.

The boy's recovery since receiving the letter has progressed rapidly.

SHOOTING CLAY PIGEONS.

Alex. Milne Was Day's Winner With His Handicap.

On a handicap, Alex. Milne won the day's cup at the regular shoot of the Montpelier Gun club Saturday afternoon. Mr. Milne's trophy was one of several which the club offers in its series of shoots during the summer months.

Frank Adams of this city and H. B. Moulton of Montpelier had a pretty argument over first honor in the day's events, the outcome being a tie, as each marksman winged 96 out of a possible 100.

With a percentage of 89 each, C. H. Burg and G. B. Walton were the runners-up. Except for a passing shower, the day was ideal for wing shooting. The day's summary follows:

ELROD NO PUZZLE AFTER THE THIRD

Weaferi Took It Easy, with the Game Well in Hand

By defeating the St. Albans Independents, 10 to 4, at the Berlin street grounds Saturday afternoon, the Italian Athletic club increased its mortgage on the state championship and also demonstrated to a small handful of fans that it is still able to outpoint most of its opponents in aggressiveness.

From the outset, Joe Weaferi had things well in hand for the locals, although he seemed content to ease up somewhat, after the game had been settled in the sixth. The score:

Two-base hits—Comelli, Calagni, Tomasi, Elrod. Bases on balls—By Elrod 6, by Weaferi 10. Left on bases, Italian 10.

C. F. St. Albans 5. Sacrifices hits—Hyde 2, Calagni. Stolen bases—Davidi, Clari, Comelli, Bottigli, Ricciarelli. Wild pitch—Elrod. Passed ball—Lucia. Umpire—Clark. Time—1:58.

Random Shots.

St. Albans has the making of a snappy team if some of the figure heads could be weeded out. The players of lesser competence seemed to be the stronger umpire baiters.

Reagan captured the hitting honors for the visitors with three safe bingles.

Although little more than an effigy in the garden, Hyde laid down a couple of clever sacrifices during the game.

Jack Davidi was not up to his usual form Saturday, as he fell down on the only two chances that came his way.

It would take some team to down the Berlin street braves at the rate they are now traveling.

Neiburg, usually a heavy clouter, did not shine at the bat. Time was when the St. Albans outfielder thought nothing of slamming out a brace of safe ones.

The game developed few plays of a startling character. Perhaps the most brilliant work of the day was pulled off by Calagni, who stabled all kinds of wild throws at first.

Ricciarelli and Tomasi each figured in plays of passing fair merit in the outfield.

Three innings of the game, at least, were worth the price of anybody's admission.

ANTI-ALIEN ACT A LAW.

Hereafter Japanese Cannot Acquire Land in California.

San Francisco, Calif., Aug. 10.—The anti-alien land act passed by the state legislature became a law yesterday. Japanese individuals now holding land in this state may continue to do so during their lives, but cannot devise it to Japanese heirs.

Corporations with Japanese members, formed before the law goes into effect, may hold land for fifty years. Some corporations of this character have been organized recently.

"No object of the law has been defeated by these corporations," says Attorney-General Webb, who revised the bill into its present form.

"The law was not intended to force Japanese now owning land to part with it at once or within any fixed period. They were to be permitted to hold it during their lives. By forming corporations they merely extended their time of ownership."

"But after August 10 the object of the law, which is to prevent an increase in the amount of alien holdings and gradually to break up the colonies now existing, will be attained."

CLASH WITH THE POLICE

Suffragettes in Fierce Fight and Get Rough Handling

3D ATTEMPT TO STORM ASQUITH'S HOUSE

Miss Pankhurst and Five Others Arrested Rushed to Police Station

London, Aug. 11.—The third attempt of the suffragettes under Sylvia Pankhurst to take Premier Asquith's house in Downing street by storm failed yesterday.

A mass meeting of the free speech defense committee demanding the release of George Lansbury, former Socialist member of the House of Commons, from imprisonment for an inflammatory speech had been held at Trafalgar square.

Miss Pankhurst refused to speak as she had been informed she would not be permitted to urge her hearers to march on Downing street.

Immediately after the mass meeting she mounted the plinth of the Trafalgar statue and invited the crowd to follow her to Asquith's house.

Squads of police in the square fell in behind the procession. The suffragettes saw the strategy when they met a battle line of heavy policemen thrown across Whitehall at the Horse Guards.

They were caught between two forces and a fierce fight began. The police drew their clubs, angered apparently at their continued extra work on Sunday at such riots.

Sylvia Pankhurst and five other women were seized and rushed in taxicabs to a police station. Mounted officers rode down some women and children, clearing the street with unusual roughness.

The morning service at Westminster Abbey was disturbed by a repetition of the scene enacted at St. Paul's when the suffragettes chanted the Pankhurst hymn.

The disturbers were ejected with slight disorder.

ROBBERS GET $9,000 IN GEMS.

Diamonds Stolen from Summer Homes of Mrs. Forrest.

Kennebunkport, Me., Aug. 11.—Daring jewelry robbery occurred at Cross Nest, the summer home of Mrs. M. H. Forrest, a wealthy Philadelphia widow here yesterday. Diamonds valued at $9,000 were obtained by the thieves who left no clues. The robbery is believed to have occurred about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, entrance being effected by forcing a cellar bulkhead. A servant was awakened at that hour by steps but as the house was filled with guests he thought nothing of the matter. Coming so close to the Narragansett Pier robbery the police believe a gang of experts are doing the summer resorts.

STRIKERS BURN FOSS REPLY; SPURN OFFER

Ashes of Governor's Letter Sealed in Envelope To Be Mailed To Him As 1,000 Shop Workers Cheer.

Boston, Aug. 11.—When Governor Foss opened his morning mail at the State House today he probably found what is probably the most remarkable communication ever addressed to the chief executive of this commonwealth.

Standing in the center of the stage of French's opera house, Hyde Park, Saturday, while more than 1,000 of his fellow-strikers were causing the building to tremble on its foundations with their enthusiasm, Chairman Harold M. Stanley of the strike committee, touched a match to the governor's proposition that the strikers surrender, rejected unanimously a few minutes previous by the strikers.

The yells and cheers redoubled as the flame reduced the paper to ashes. Then, when the fire had completed its work the ashes were carefully gathered and enclosed in an envelope, and, without even a note of explanation, the envelope was sealed and addressed to the governor.

SPECULATION AS TO S. N. E. BOATS.

Originally, It Was Intended to Operate the Boats from Providence, R. I.

New York, Aug. 11.—The destinies of two steamers in the course of construction at the Harlan & Hollingsworth yards at Wilmington, Del., for the Central Vermont transportation company, as subsidiary company of the Central Vermont railway, is causing considerable speculation. Originally, it was intended to operate the boats from Providence, R. I., as terminal of the branch line of the Southern New England railway, which is in turn a subsidiary company of the Grand Trunk. The two boats have already been named the Narragansett and Manhattan, and when completed will cost $750,000 each.

PRESIDENT MAY HAVE BUST.

Senate Votes in Favor of Lady Paget's William Pitt Offer.

Washington, Aug. 11.—The Senate adopted Saturday a resolution authorizing President Wilson to accept from Lady Paget of England a bust of Lord Chatham.

The bust is to be placed in the White House and its presentation may be one of the features of the Anglo-American peace centenary.

Before marriage to Lieut. Gen. Sir Arthur H. Paget, Lady Paget was Miss Mary Stevens, daughter of Paron Stevens and Marietta Stevens of New York City.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH A CLAIMANT.

Diocese of N. H. Holds Title To 8,000 Acres in Franconia.

Concord, N. H., Aug. 11.—The Protestant Episcopal church of the diocese of New Hampshire appeared in the United States district court Saturday as a claimant of lands for whose condemnation as a part of the White Mountain forest reserve the national government has filed petitions. The church claims 8,000 acres in the town of Franconia.

This appearance, it was stated, was not in opposition to the reserve, but for the purpose of clearing up titles.

WILSON HOLDS CONFERENCE

Confides His Plans for Mexico in the Committee

Nearly a Week of Continuous Heat Burns Crops and Dries Up Wells—Cattle Are Suffering.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 11.—Reports of suffering from heat and drought in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma reached here in greater numbers Saturday than at any time since the period of intense heat set in nearly a week ago. Cities and towns over the three states, and especially in Kansas, are suffering from want of water. Several towns are shipping water by freight. In others low wells have caused disease.

Reports of burned crops come from all sections, and in some of the districts hardest hit the impossibility of laying by a winter's feed for live stock promises to prolong the distress.

Indications Saturday were that a sixth consecutive day of extreme heat was under way with the likelihood that Friday's maximum temperature, ranging from 98 to 110, would be equaled before nightfall.

GROWING TOPLESS POTATOES IN KANSAS

Many of Them Are Eyeless, but Have Knobs—Not the Result of Cultivation.

Seneca, Kan., Aug. 11.—Potatoes without tops are being grown by J. C. Monney, a farmer near Oueda. Two years ago Monney had trouble in getting seed potatoes. Finally a dealer offered him some which he said, however, he considered poor, as they had few eyes. Monney bought some of them and picked up those which appeared to have the best eyes. He planted two rows.

Apparently the potatoes were down to the dealer's low estimate. Very few sprouts appeared. Monney allowed the rows to run to weeds, but when he ploughed the ground in the fall he was surprised to find that the share threw out big potatoes, where he had expected to find only a few. Most of the potatoes appeared to have no eyes, but there were several small knobs on each tuber.

Struck with this peculiarity, Monney discarded all the potatoes which had eyes and a year ago last spring planted forth information about farm credits. But it was Saturday, and the Senate rarely expects to make any real progress on that legislative day. Principally all other legislative agencies in Washington were suspended. Only two or three committees of Congress met, one of them the foreign relations committee to consider Mexico.

Conservations here are taking up the gauge of battle with Attorney-General Tuttle of New Hampshire, regarding exploitation of water-powers within the Appalachian reserve. Word comes that the Central New Hampshire water
