CAUGHT UNDER AUTO AS IT OVERTURNED

John Burton of White River Junction Seriously Injured Near Brattleboro Yesterday and Taken to Hospital.

Brattleboro, Sept. 25.—John Burton, 47 years old and married, proprietor of a horse and automobile livery at White River Junction, was brought to the Memorial hospital here yesterday afternoon on the 2 o'clock train suffering from injuries that may prove fatal. The car in which he was driving a party of four to the Valley fair turned turtle a little over a mile north of Putney at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, while he was trying to pass another car, and all the party were injured. Mr. Burton, who was driving, was the only one hurt seriously. Dr. Harry H. Lawrence of Putney was summoned hastily and Dr. George R. Anderson of Brattleboro also answered the call. They found that several ribs on Mr. Burton's left side were crushed and that he was very seriously injured internally. Arrangements were made immediately for his removal to the hospital here.

Willing to Find One. Mother—"Don't you think that a boy of your size could take the tacks out of this carpet if he wanted to?" Small Boy—"I guess so. Shall I go out and see if I can find a boy who wants to?"—Judge.

"YOURS FOR REAL BARGAINS"

"CASCARETS" FOR COSTIVE BOWELS

No Constipation, Biliousness, Headache, Sick, Sour Stomach, Indigestion or Foul Breath.

Get a 10-cent box now. Furred tongue, bad taste, indigestion, sallow skin and miserable headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.—Advt.

Trial of An Old Case Started but was Not Finished.

An important trial was held at the South Royalton hotel yesterday before Hon. Hale K. Darling of Chelsea, as referee, appointed by Windsor county court in the trover case of George H. Tupper, Carl D. Cushing and the A. A. Brooks estate vs. Myron G. Safford, now of Sutton, Que. The case involves the alleged conversion by the defendant of a large quantity of leather held by him as superintendent of the tannery in this village more than 15 years ago. The plaintiffs signed two notes of $5,000 each to insure the continuance of business, and were heavy losers in consequence. During a visit to this village a year or more ago, the papers in the case were served upon the defendant and he was admitted to bail furnished by his attorney, W. B. C. Stickney. At yesterday's proceedings, the plaintiffs called as witnesses M. Washburn, R. J. Elmt, C. D. Cushing and G. H. Tupper, and rested their case. On motion of Mr. Stickney, an adjournment till Saturday afternoon at the National White River bank was made, when the defendant will put in his case. The referee will report to the December term of court.

Mrs. Philamene Mahoney returned yesterday after a two months' visit in Potsdam, Norway and Malone, N. Y.

A Dainty Toilet Article.

Every lady who desires to keep up her attractive appearance, while at theatre, attending receptions, when shopping, should carry in her purse a booklet of Gouraud's Oriental Beauty Leaves. This is a dainty little booklet of exquisitely perfumed powdered leaves which are easily removed and applied to the skin. It is invaluable when the face becomes moist and flushed and is far superior to a powder puff as it does not spill and soil the clothes. It removes dirt, soot and grease from the face, imparting a cool delicate bloom to the complexion. Put up in White and Pink and sent anywhere on receipt of ten cents in stamp or coin. F. T. Hopkins, 37 Great Jones street, New York.

Death of Dr. A. L. Cooper Yesterday at Age of 39 Years.

Rev. Dr. Alanson L. Cooper quietly passed from this world to his eternal rest at 1:15 on Wednesday morning, after an illness of about ten days from an attack of pneumonia. It was at first thought he was doing well, but later his strength gradually failed, and he sank till death came. Up to his recent illness, he had been able to walk down town, and his many friends will miss his presence and kindly greeting for it was a pleasure to meet him in any place. Dr. Cooper had a remarkable life and one of great usefulness, and his life was a proof of the religion which he taught. Rev. A. L. Cooper was born in Rochester March 14, 1824. His first ancestor in America, John Cooper, came over on the ship "Arcturion" in 1636 and settled in Cambridge, Mass. The sixth in ancestral line was Silas, who came with his father, Barnabas, to Rochester, in March, 1807, and there married Rosalinda Hubbard. They were the parents of Dr. Cooper. Mr. Cooper united with the Methodist church in the fall of 1841. His early educational advantages were limited to the public schools of that town and a short course of study at Newbury seminary. Before entering the ministry, he taught several terms, a part of which were in western New York. He entered the ministry and was licensed to preach in May, 1846, and joined the Vermont conference in June of the same year, his first appointment being Warren and West Roxbury. After ten years of service, he was obliged to retire on account of ill health and during this time he took a course of study at the Biblical institute at Evanston, Ill., graduating in June, 1859. While at this place, he was supply pastor and did much missionary work. He was readmitted to the Vermont conference in 1859 and was sent to Woodstock for his first pastorate, after which he was at Northfield for three years, and one year at Burlington following this. He was then made presiding elder of the Montpelier district, where he served for four years. At the expiration of this time, he was sent to St. Albans, and at the end of three years went to St. Johnsbury for one year and from there returned to the St. Albans district for the next four years. Following this, he was at Waterbury for three years, after which he was sent to Springfield and afterwards made presiding elder of that district for three years. Island Pond was his next home for three years, after which he went to Springfield for five years. In Plainfield he remained three years and during that time he bought the place here in which he has lived and where he died. Since coming here to reside, he has held the position of conference evangelist five years, besides doing much missionary work. In August, 1907, when the resident pastor of the Methodist church resigned to take charge of a school in the South, Mr. Cooper came to the work and took charge of the church here for six months, preaching every Sunday, besides other work. During his lifetime he has been pastor 38 years, 12 years presiding elder, 55 years conference evangelist, making 55 years of regular work in the Vermont conference, besides the work done at Evanston, Ill. Dr. Cooper received the degree of bachelor of divinity in 1880 from the Garrett Biblical institute, and in 1880 that of doctor of divinity. He was elected to the general conference in Chicago in 1888 and twice elected reserve delegate. He was chaplain of the House of Representatives in 1863-1864, at Montpelier during his pastorate there. He has been president of the Bible society for years, and held many other offices in the church. May 17, 1853, he married Miss Lucinda Atkins of Cabot and their married life extended over 50 years. Mrs. Cooper's death occurred May 17, 1903. Mr. Cooper is survived by three daughters, Miss Rosa, who has been with him since the death of his wife, ministering to him during his declining strength; Mrs. C. M. Ward of Iowa, whose husband is a member of the Des Moines Methodist conference; and Mrs. C. L. Adams, whose husband is also a member of the Detroit conference, now located at Calumet, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gorham of Hartford, Conn., arrived here on Wednesday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Gorham's sister, Mrs. S. I. Parish.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Spear are in Brownsville this week, visiting Mr. Spear's mother.

Frank Hatch of Barre arrived here Wednesday for a short stay with his parents.

Frank Jeffords is visiting relatives in Dorchester, Mass.

Mrs. Walter M. Williams is at the home of her parents in Gaysville for a visit, and Miss Florence Williams of Randolph is helping her brother in the store, while Mrs. Williams is away.

Rev. J. H. Wills of Waterville, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. B. E. Marble, the past week, has returned to his home.

The Rural Good Luck club will meet with Mrs. Lilla Briggs Saturday, Sept. 27, subject of the lesson, Booker T. Washington.

George T. Colby will sell all the stock, hay and grain on the farm on South Hill lately owned by Benjamin F. Bailey, on Saturday, the 27th inst, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

George L. Keith of Brocton, Mass., is visiting relatives in town.

Burt W. Clogston has bought a farm of about 125 acres one mile from the village of Bradford, and is to take possession October 1.

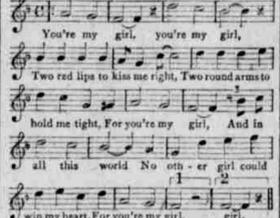

EAST BARRE

A pleasant surprise was given Mrs. John Lindsay on Tuesday afternoon, the event being a farewell visit before she leaves for her former home in Edinburgh, Scotland. Miss Maggie Fraser presented her a purse of money in behalf of neighbors and friends in East Barre and Westerville, and afterwards tea, cake, sweets and fruit were served. Songs were then sung by Mrs. John Salter, Mrs. George Lawson, Mrs. Alex. Bissette, Mrs. Alex. Moir, Mrs. Alfred Lawson and Misses McCallum. The party gathered before a camera to the pleasure of Miss Fraser and then departed, leaving with Mrs. Lindsay all good wishes for a safe journey over the ocean.

PRETTY SONG OF GIRLISH LOVE

Quite a pretty song is now the vogue in New York. It is a very plain, home-like affair in which the love-lorn laddie finds his ideal in a girl who is good, rather than pretty. The idea seems to take with the fair sex, for they eagerly pay their little dime for copies of the music. Here is a portion of the chorus:

YOU'RE MY GIRL

The song has only been out a few days, but already thousands of copies have been sold. Several advance sheets of the song reached Barre yesterday.—Advt.

Economy was Urged at City Council Meeting.

Considerable business was transacted at last night's meeting of the city council, but it was all of a routine nature. As the city's funds are getting low, the finance committee urged that economy be practiced from now till the end of the year. New walks were ordered laid, several sewers ordered put in shape for winter, bills ordered paid and permits granted. It was voted to have Water Superintendent Gilney order 25,000 spruce seedlings and 25,000 pine for delivery next year, to be set out around Berlin pond. There was a difference of opinion in regard to disposing of some of the horses owned by the street department. Alderman Atherton thought with the new truck the maintenance of so many horses was unnecessary, and explained that three horses and carts should be sold. Alderman Donette differed from him in that winter is coming, when the horses will be needed to clean the walks and streets from snow. The matter was finally left to the street committee.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Prof. Edward E. Thompson of Winchester, Mass., and Miss Mabel Hendrix of Gilbertsville, N. Y., the marriage to occur in the latter place. Prof. Thompson was principal of the high school here for four years and is now an instructor in the Winchester schools.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Dr. Stanley Blanchard of Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Blanchard of this city, and Miss Katherine Barry of Boston. They are now taking an automobile trip, which will include Montpelier.

Charles N. Barber of Barre Town yesterday settled his account as administrator of the estate of William Lafayette, late of Barre Town. Albert H. Cutler also settled his account as administrator of the estate of Charles G. Hill, late of Calais.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

"Seven Hours in New York" Comes Friday Night.

The management of "Seven Hours in New York" take pride in the beauty, talent and general appearance of the feminine members of their large company. The principal artists, Misses Irma Croft, Edith Edwards, Dottie Leighton, Rosette Poole and Betty Arnold, are actresses as Fred Bailey, Louis Lytton, Fred Wright, William Healy, W. E. Taylor, Frank Woods, Dan Bowen, and others, will appear here on Friday, Sept. 26.—Advt.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby" is a Laugh-Maker.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby," the bright comedy founded on the famous cartoons of George McManus, by Aaron Hoffman and Paul West, with music and lyrics by Seymour Brown and Nat D. Ayer, the prettiest laugh-creating and catchiest musical attraction on tour, is the pleasing announcement for the opera house on Tuesday, Sept. 30. This jolly melange has gained its reputation principally for the quality of its music and legitimate comedy. The music hits in the play are many and are whistled the country over. There is a certain of ferreousness, snappy and go to the piece, and a consistent and pleasing story running through "The Newlyweds" that is seldom found in this class of entertainments. The company is large and exceptionally brilliant in personnel, comedians and vocalists of national reputation and vocalists of national reputation are singing and dancing and dancing organizations on the road.—Advt.

Proof. "My hand," said Polly, holding out that exquisite member, "is a good deal smaller than yours."

"Yes," said Mabel. "I can see that at a glance. That ring Reginald gave you was always too tight for me."—Judge.
