TALK OF THE TOWN

Read Russell's 1c sale ad. Muslin underwear sale at Abbott's. See "A Farmer's Life," by the Ragtime Four at the Pavilion to-night.

The pupils of the pianoforte department of Goddard are taking considerable interest in the concert to be given at the school Thursday evening, March 5, at 8 p. m. They cordially invite the people of the city to visit the school at this time. At the right hand entrance, members of the department will be glad to welcome all comers and direct them to the hall. Admission, free.

Midwinter doings at "the school on the hill" are interestingly pictured and a number of well conceived short stories are told in a diverting way in the February issue of the Goddard Record, which was distributed to students, alumni and friends of the seminary yesterday. Unusual attention is paid to athletics and well may athletics receive mention for the winter at Goddard has been one of much activity in sports. The editorials refer again to the spirit of generosity which prompted Ira C. Calf's gift of $5,000 toward the cost of the new alumni hall. Mention is made of the part which the commercial class is taking in school life and an appeal is made for larger literary contributions to "The Record." "Bobby's Valentine," by A. L. "Two Studious Girls," "The Two-faced Clock" by M. L. C. and "Beth of the Lumber Camp" by M. B. are some of the notable fictional features of the issue. 'Tis a pity that each contribution of this kind is not credited to the author by name instead of his or her initials. There are three new story pages and a half-column devoted to exchanges. The local department shows that the lack of funny contributions deplored in one of the opening editorials is not the most noticeable deficiency in the magazine.

The Merlo Bros. bowling alleys last evening was the scene of one of the merriest candle pin bowling contests that has been staged in Barre this winter. The Ozarks club defeated the Gooselaws three straight games on the eve of the disbandment of the latter organization. The Ozarks were not in the best of form and only secured 1380 for a total pitfall. Bruni of the Gooselaws was high single string roller with a score of 122, while Hamilton Douglass topped off the best three string total with 301. Manager Bertrand was the best all-round bowler on the losing organization.

Arrangements are being completed for the resumption of the cribbage and billiard tournaments between the Barre and the Montpelier councils of the Knights of Columbus, which were suspended several weeks ago. The series was but in its infancy when the fire which destroyed the Union building and the Knights of Columbus club rooms at Montpelier halted its progress. The Montpelier council has secured new quarters in the Lawrence building at Montpelier and it is quite likely that arrangements will be made to resume the series of matches either the first or the latter part of next week.
