AMUSEMENT NOTES.

London Gaiety Girls Co. Make Initial Appearance in Barre Saturday.

There will be a carnival of fun at the opera house on Saturday, May 23, when the London Gaiety Girls Big Burlesque company makes their initial appearance in this city. The bill they present is one which goes to amusement seekers with an irresistible appeal. It consists of comedy, music and vaudeville features, and it is presented by one of the cleverest aggregations of fun creators, singers, dancers and pretty show girls now on the road. Two musical farces are given, entitled "Looking for a Wife," and "Safe Berger." Dave Meyer, the funny little Yiddish dialect comedian, appears in the stellar roles, and associated with him in a remarkable successful conspiracy for the elimination of "the blues" and related maladies are Tom Mack, Marie Russell, Dolly Delmar, Ida Stanley and the ponies and broilers who constitute one of the most attractive features of the show.

Jack Lynn Co. Next Week.

The return engagement of the Jack Lynn Stock company, which is at the opera house next week will be pleasing to the large clientele that they have made during their numerous engagements to Barre. Still it is no wonder that the return of "Jack" is welcomed by the local theatre goers. For there is a secret of his popularity and success and here it is: He does just as he advertises; in other words, he "delivers the goods," and has always done so, thus keeping his word with the amusement public, and insuring a happy welcome wherever he plays a return date. They are presenting for their opening play next Monday night an unusually strong drama entitled, "For Her Sake." Monday will also be ladies' night, a limited number of ladies' complimentary tickets went on sale at Drown's this morning. Balance of the house 10, 20 and 30 cents.—Adv.

RECORD PRODUCTION IN 1913

Of Bauxite and Aluminum in the United States, Says Geological Survey.

The year 1913 was the most prosperous in the history of the bauxite and aluminum industries in the United States, according to W. C. Phalen, of the United States Geological Survey, in a report on the production of bauxite and aluminum in 1913, from "Mineral Resources." The production of bauxite in 1913 was 210,241 long tons, valued at $768,932, against 159,865 long tons, valued at $768,932, in 1912. Bauxite is used chiefly as raw material in the production of metallic aluminum, in the manufacture of aluminum salts, in the manufacture of bauxite bricks, and in the manufacture of aluminum for use as an abrasive.

The amount of aluminum consumed in the United States in 1913 was 72,379,000 pounds, against 65,607,000 pounds in 1912. The marvelous growth of the aluminum industry is shown by a comparison of the 1913 output with the total consumption of aluminum during the last 20 years, 377,000,000 pounds. More than 329,000,000 pounds have been consumed in the last 10 years. The total production in 1884 was only 150 pounds. Aside from its use in the manufacture of cooking utensils, aluminum is now being employed on a larger scale in the construction of welded tanks, cooking vats and vessels used by brewers, preserve manufacturers, and fat recoverers, and in industries where a metal is required that will conduct heat, will not corrode, and is not poisonous. It has been found by experiments that the only substances which dissolve any of the metal are oranges, lemons, Brussels sprouts, and tomatoes, and that in every test the quantity dissolved was so small as to be harmless.

The use of aluminum wire as a conductor in long distance power transmission schemes is increasing. A recently developed branch of the aluminum industry is the manufacture of the powdered metal known as aluminum bronze powder, which is used extensively as a paint pigment, in explosives, in lithography, and in printing. Aluminum foil has partly displaced tinfoil for wrapping articles such as cheese, chocolate candies, and tobacco. One of the newest and perhaps oddest uses for aluminum is its employment in making the soles of shoes to be used by workmen employed in wet and damp places. The aluminum soled shoe lasts much longer than an ordinary shoe and is said to be impervious to dampness.

TO ADJURN JULY 20

This Is the Latest Date Set for Congress

NO ALL-SUMMER SESSION INTENDED

President Prepares for the Opening of Panama Canal

Washington, D. C., May 22.—Senator Kern conferred again yesterday with President Wilson concerning the legislative program. The senator still insists that Congress adjourn in July and gave assurances that there was no intention on the part of administration leaders to remain in Washington throughout the summer. The senator fixed July 20 as the probable date of adjournment.

PREPARE TO OPEN CANAL. Commission Headed by Colonel Goethals to Be in Charge.

President Wilson yesterday signed an executive order placing the Panama Canal commission in charge of the ceremonies for the opening of the canal January 1, 1915. The committee is to be headed by Colonel George Goethals, governor of the canal zone, with Richard L. Metcalf as vice chairman. The other members of the committee are Colonel Sibert, Gorgas, Rousseau and Hodges. The headquarters of the committee will be located in Washington, with Mr. Metcalf in active charge.

NO FREE TOLLS. DECLARES ROOT

In Senate Speech He Says All Ships Should Pass Through the Canal on Equal Terms.

Washington, D. C., May 22.—In a strong address, Senator Elihu Root of New York urged the Senate yesterday to pass the bill for the repeal of free tolls for American coastwise ships through the Panama canal. Senator Root declared no question of control of the canal was raised, that the rights of this country were absolute and complete, but at the same time that this country was bound by treaty to charge the same tolls to the vessels of other nations that it charged its own. The New York senator was given careful attention by a large body of senators. The galleries also held a good audience.

RESINOL WILL HEAL YOUR SKIN

Before Senator Root spoke, Senator Kern, Democratic leader, gave notice that he intended at the close of Senator Root's remarks to ask again for an agreement to vote May 27, and that he intended to compel constant discussion of the repeal bill, with night sessions, if necessary to force a vote.

"One question, and one question only, is raised," said Senator Root. "It is not a question of exemption from tolls. The question is whether we are to take our own treatment of American ships as the measure of the treatment to be accorded to the ships of other nations." He pointed out that if no tolls were charged American vessels, then by treaty we are required to grant the same treatment to other nations.

"Senator Root told of the men who had been concerned on the part of this government in making the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, Joseph Choate, Henry White, John Hay, and Theodore Roosevelt, who was then president. He praised their high qualifications, and especially referred to John Hay in striking terms, as 'the pride of our generation in American diplomacy.' He spoke of Theodore Roosevelt, 'with his swift, incisive mind and his high courage.' 'All of these,' he said, 'understood that they were making a treaty with the largest equality.' 'No nation,' he added, 'could ever maintain a practice of charging for a canal connecting two oceans a different rate of tolls as against German or Italian or British or French vessels. It has never been done anywhere in the world.'"

COST OF ARMY IS $4,573,136

This Is Brought Out by Further Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Bill for $6,000,000.

Washington, May 22.—The "further urgent deficiency" appropriation bill, making provision for more than $6,000,000 for the present fiscal year, largely on account of the Mexican crisis, was before the House yesterday for action. An interesting statement had been prepared by the war department to show exactly the approximate amount of the deficiencies in appropriations of the quartermaster's department of the army, due to the Mexican situation, to June 30, next. This made a total of $4,573,136. It

A STOMACH TONIC

There is a form of indigestion called "atonic" dyspepsia. Atonic means "lack of tone." It is probably the most common form of indigestion but not much is heard about it because people are inclined to group all forms of dyspepsia as "stomach trouble" and the doctors let it go at that.

Lack of tone in the digestive organs means that the stomach is no longer able to do its work as nature intended. The nerves that control it are weak, the glands that supply the digestive fluids are not working properly. Gas on the stomach, sour risings in the throat and constipation result. The cause of the trouble is thin blood. Stomach, nerves and glands are all dependent on the blood and when it gets thin and watery they are at once weakened. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and the first response from the stomach is a better appetite, freedom from distress after eating and an increase in ambition and energy generally. Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a stomach tonic and see how your general health improves.

A diet book, "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Every druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

includes $1,100,149 for subsistence, $2,439,070 for transportation of the army, both along the border and to Mexico, and numerous other items relating to pay on account of increased strength of the army by reason of the Mexican trouble. Of the total amount in the deficiency estimates on account of Mexico covered in the bill the government already is obligated for $1,624,852.

The figures presented showed that fitting up chartered ships for troops and animals cost $110,000. For horseshoes and nails alone the bill carries $25,000. The chartering of the steamers Saltilla and San Marcos to June 30 cost $31,500, and for chartering of additional steamers to June 30, $379,900 was asked. Altering the transport McClellan for cold storage cost $40,000.

The movement of troops to the Mexican border during April cost $155,509. Among other things the bill meets a war department estimate of $43,300 for movement of troops on account of the Colorado strike and $14,715 for the squadron of the 12th cavalry from Fort Meade to Fort Wingate.

It was set out that the expenses of the House mines committee that investigated the Colorado and Michigan strikes aggregated $6,000 and $4,000 respectively. An appropriation of $15,000 was authorized for these inquiries and the two committees are expected to use all of it before completing their work.

Different Perspective.

He was enraptured with the scenery, relates Lippincott's. His fair companion at the country resort sat upon the stone wall beside him. "Behold that exquisite sunset!" he exclaimed. "Note the delicate flesh-tints, the cream shades, the long dashes of vermilion and the almost living fire that leaps up from the sinking sun as from a fountain. Behold the framework of darkening skies and of deep green. Isn't it wonderful?" His fair companion sighed heavily. "You just bet it is!" she exclaimed. "It looks just like a great big lobster salad!"

PINKLETS

A Dainty Laxative That Gently Assists Nature.

The day of harsh purgatives, of big cathartic pills is over—gone forever. No need any longer to swallow a nauseating dose to give nature the gentle assistance required. Pinklets, the new laxative, are tiny, pink granules, sugar coated, easy to take and smooth as velvet in their operation.

Pinklets positively will not gripe. They produce not a single distressing symptom, yet their action is certain and thorough. Pinklets are just the laxative you need to arouse the lazy, sluggish bowels and torpid liver. Don't keep on using harsh, strong purgatives for they always upset the stomach and leave the bowels irritated and in a worse condition than before. Rely on Pinklets to gently assist the bowels and be free from constipation.

These little pills are a corrective for bad breath, will clear the complexion and are recommended for torpid liver, biliousness, headaches and constipation. Any druggist can supply you with Pinklets, 25 cents per bottle.

Write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a PINKLET book which tells all about the right way to treat constipation.

FINAL PLEAS IN BECKER CASE

Case Will Go to Jury Following Judge's Charge To-day

WHITMAN CLOSED FOR THE STATE

Unruly Crowd Overruns Attendants in Scramble for Seats

New York, May 22.—Martin T. Manton, counsel for Charles Becker, began his summation of the defence's case at 2:04 o'clock yesterday afternoon, three minutes after Justice Seabury reconvened the trial in the criminal branch of the supreme court.

District Attorney Whitman and his staff engaged in the prosecution occupied seats behind the jury box in order to allow their opponents every advantage before the twelve final judges in the last desperate effort to save Becker's life.

Mr. Manton is allowed three hours for his address. Mr. Whitman closing for the state, began at 8 o'clock last night. By far the largest and one of the most unruly crowds that has attended the trial assembled on the main floor of the criminal courts building two hours before the doors of the court room were scheduled to open yesterday afternoon. Fully 300 persons formed a line that twisted about the corridor outside the tribunal. These were gradually augmented in numbers until the reserves of the Elizabeth street station had to use vigorous methods to keep the crowd in order.

When the doors were finally thrown open the crush to get in almost became a riot. The police and court attendants were swamped. Within five minutes every seat in the court room was filled and hundreds of disappointed persons were fighting vainly for admittance.

Old habits of the criminal courts building said that in their memory there had never been such a crowd at any trial, not even excepting the two Thaw trials for Becker's former one.

On the eve of the verdict both sides appear to be red with optimism and confidence regarding the outcome. "I am sure that I will be acquitted," declared Becker with seeming sincerity. "I think the case against me is weaker this time than it was at the first trial."

Mrs. Becker would make no comment, but shared her husband's sentiments and looked forward to a complete vindication of her "boy."

District Attorney Whitman refused absolutely to say one word about the trial, explaining that any remarks from counsel on either side before the verdict is reached might be adjudged in contempt of court. But it is understood that the prosecutor is more than satisfied with the people's case and confidently expects a conviction. He is said to be willing to let the jury have the case as it stands now without summing up.

The inability of the defence to get important witnesses for Becker into the jurisdiction of the New York courts shortened the submission of evidence yesterday. Instead of the several witnesses promised for the last day of evidence taking the defence at the opening of court expected to close with the testimony of Mr. Marshall, associate counsel.

These witnesses, James P. Thompson, Arthur Yorke and James Keller, the defence announced, are together at a farm near Red Bank, N. J. Though appealed to Wednesday night to return to the help of Becker, the men were obstinate and refused to cross the New Jersey line to New York. Yorke and Keller were wanted to support Thompson's testimony to the effect that he was with Bridgie Webber in a restaurant on Forty-second street on the morning after the murder at the time Webber asserts he, Becker and Rose were in front of the Murray Hill Baths arranging for the payment of the gunmen. Yorke and Keller were also said to be able to show that Rose could not have been at the meeting, because he was seen by them leaving Bridgie Webber's in a taxicab at the time of the alleged meeting. After the request had been made by Mr. Manton to read from the grand jury record into the evidence the testimony of the three missing witnesses there was a parley between lawyers for both sides, after which Justice Seabury announced that the request had been withdrawn by Mr. Manton with the consent of the district attorney.

EMPLOYS 735,000 PEOPLE. Lumber Industry in United States Reaches Enormous Size.

Striking facts regarding our forest resources, their value and their waste, are condensed in an eight-page illustrated circular of the American forestry association just issued. The lumber industry is said to employ 735,000 people, to whom are paid annually $367,000,000 in wages, the worth of products being $1,290,000. The forests of the country cover 550,000,000 acres.

An average of 70 human lives are sacrificed annually in forest fires, says the circular, and a loss occurs of $25,000,000. Damage from insects and tree diseases, which follow fire, costs each year $50,000,000. The cost of destruction resulting from floods is not estimated, but is given as "countless millions."

But the circular expresses hope more than pessimism. As well as the colored pictures showing the forest fire, the effects of the fire and the damage caused by floods, it shows also forests planted and grown under intensive management, and the national forest ranger scouting for fires on the mountain lookout station. The effective patrol here referred to has reduced "forest fire losses to as low as one-tenth of one cent an acre." It is pointed out that by planting forests an annual income could be derived in the country of $65,000,000; and by preservative treatment upon timber each year $100,000,000 could be saved.

White Mountain Purchase. Washington, May 22.—Through efforts of Senator Gallinger the forestry commission yesterday ordered the purchase of 21,000 acres of White Mountain land.
