BERLIN

Mrs. Fleda White Esmond went Saturday to Providence, R. I., for a visit.

Mrs. Robert Lincoln and her four children went yesterday to their former home at Rt. Beach, Me., after a 14 months' residence here. Mr. Lincoln will work here a few weeks before joining his family.

Mrs. Walter Sheldon and child of Bristol are guests at Pearl Bowen's.

Mrs. Joseph Lorette and son went on Saturday to visit at Livermore Falls, Me.

J. Carroll Carey, who went from here three weeks ago, lately broke a leg in a baseball game at Madison, Me. His wife went Saturday to Cooper's Mills, Me., to see him.

Alfred D. Abbott learned Saturday of the death that morning at her home in Rutland of his mother, Mrs. Frances (Roundy) Abbott, in her 74th year. She was ill only two or three days. Services were held yesterday in Rutland, and interment was made this afternoon in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Stockbridge, beside the body of her husband, Daniel F. Abbott, much of their married life having been spent in that town. The late Harvey J. Roundy of South Royalton was her brother. She is survived besides A. D. Abbott by three children, Edward H. Abbott of Rochester, Lindell E. Abbott and Mrs. Harley Williams of Rutland. The deceased lady had many warm friends in this and adjoining towns.

Ernest E. Hanna and four or five other men had an eight hours' job Saturday putting on a one and a half inch manilla transmission rope at the steam plant of the Gayville Electric Light & Power company here. This takes the place of a one and a fourth inch rope put on last August which did poor service. Such a rope as was put on Saturday ought to last four or five years. The rope is about 2,180 feet long.

Bethel's reorganized and rejuvenated town baseball team had little trouble in its first game of the season Saturday in shutting out Randolph, 5 to 0, on Graham field in more or less of a gale and sandstorm. The visitors complained somewhat of the rough field and other things but their worst grievance was Fred Dutton's pitching, which after 15 years' proof is as good as ever and which allowed the visitors to reach second base a few times, but to go no farther. The excellent infield work of Lawless, Aikens, Noble and Emery and good hitting by the locals in the first and third innings were enough to make the victory emphatic. Beginning with the fourth inning, Baird, Randolph's pitcher, was quite effective, allowing no more hits and striking out nearly half the men who faced him. Even in the first inning he did a pretty stunt when, with one out and the bases full after two had scored, he struck out Rogers and Dutton. Moreover, Baird was about the only Randolph player whom Dutton's pitching did not seriously puzzle. Noble, Bethel's first man up, scored on a base on balls, a steal, Corbett's hit and an error. Corbett scored on a hit, a stolen base and the same error. In the third, Burrell hit safely, took second on a passed ball, third on a single by Lawless and scored on an error. Lawless hit safely and Emery, running for him, took second on an error and scored on Dutton's two-bagger, the long hit of the game, which would have been a home run but for a ground rule. Stewart got his base on an error, took third on Dutton's long hit and scored on a passed ball. There was little work for the local outfielders, Corbett getting Donahue's long fly to center, the outfielders' only chance, Sam Wheeler, as usual, made a good umpire.

The friends of Mrs. F. L. Martin have learned that she sustained a fracture of the large bone of her right wrist last Wednesday by falling down stairs at the home of a sister in Weston, Mass., where she has been visiting about two weeks. The fracture was reduced at the Relief hospital in Boston and she is making good progress toward recovery. Her return home will be delayed somewhat in order to continue the same treatment. Mrs. Martin believes that she narrowly escaped more serious injury.

Elmer Sturk, a high school student and member of the victorious baseball team of the present season, became seriously ill while at work in the highway commissioner's squad Saturday, with some acute disorder of the bowels. Last evening it was expected that he would be taken to-day to the hospital at Hanover, N. H., for treatment.

Rev. W. J. Atkinson of Derry, N. H., spoke at the Lympus church yesterday morning and at the Third church last evening, in the interest of the Methodist board of Sunday schools.

Rev. Robert W. McClure began his pastorate yesterday at the Congregational church, preaching morning and evening to well pleased audiences.

RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thresher of Melrose Highlands have come for a visit in town and are now at the home of Mrs. Thresher's father, Lyman Hutcheson, on Randolph avenue.

Miss Mildred Fuller has returned from Brookfield where she has been teaching for several weeks and is with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Sargent.

Dr. Charles Cushman has arrived from Chicago to visit his mother, Mrs. G. E. Cushman, and will with his sister, Mrs. E. A. Eaton, attend the commencement at Dartmouth college this week.

H. H. Howard, who went to the sanatorium last week for an operation on the stomach, is now in a critical condition there and it is thought will not rally.

Miss Myrtle Rogers returned Saturday after teaching in Pittsfield for the past year and is to pass her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Rogers.

Mrs. Don Moore of Sharon has come for a several days' visit with her father, O. J. Marrott, at the home on School street.

Another case of diphtheria has developed on School street, in the house of Charles Burridge, which is now occupied by Frank Sargent who is employed in the foundry of the Sargent, Osgood & Roundy firm, this case being the oldest in about 15 years of age. While the case is not considered serious, it is a well developed case of the disease, and the house is in quarantine.

Miss Hazel Hodgkins, who has been in Rochester for the last eight weeks with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Curtis, has returned home, and her grandmother, Mrs. Nichols, also came from there on Saturday for a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Hodgkins, of this place.

The district meeting of the Montpelier branch of the Methodist association will be held here on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 30 and July 1, at the Methodist church.

Rev. Fraser Metzger went to Middlebury on Sunday night to speak before the Christian Association of Middlebury college and from there will journey to Freehold, N. Y., to join Mrs. Metzger and the boys, to remain the balance of the month.

MONTPELIER

The annual memorial address before the Knights of Pythias was delivered yesterday afternoon in Castle hall by ex-Mayor James B. Estee, and the memorial service of the Odd Fellows was held in their hall, with an address by Rev. Albert H. Spence, jr.

Three carloads of road oil have already been put upon the streets here and a fourth car has been ordered to complete the work, which proves most satisfactory.

John Carlson of Graniteville and Mark Burke of Woodbury were in city court yesterday on charges of intoxication. Carlson was fined $5 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail, having been released from there only last Thursday. Burke was fined $5 and costs, which he could not pay, and therefore was sentenced to serve the alternative of 20 days in jail.

Melancholy Women

Women should understand that melancholy, commonly called the "blues," is in nine times out of ten a pure symptom of some organic derangement which should have attention. For nearly forty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for such conditions, as proved by many testimonials which we are constantly publishing from women who have been restored to health by its use.—Advt.

MARSHFIELD

Rev. W. E. Newton, a former pastor of the Methodist church, was a visitor in town Friday.

S. R. Kelly of Woodstock representative of the Vermont and New Hampshire Independent Telephone Association, was in town Thursday and Friday soliciting advertisements for a new telephone directory.

Schools in town closed Friday. In the intermediate department, taught by Miss Jean Fellows, the pupils having no absent marks were Edward Bliss and Flora Sulham. Frederick Carpenter, Albert Rosebrook and George Davis missed but one half day each. Edward Bliss, Dorothy Ormsbee and Forest Hayes received the most rewards of merit during the year.

Mrs. M. E. Beckley of Groton, who has recently undergone an operation in the Hanover hospital, is stopping at Abel Beckley's for a few days.

The commencement exercises of the Marshfield high school took place Thursday evening in Pythian hall. The hall was tastefully decorated in the class colors and the following program was rendered in a very creditable manner: Music, orchestra invocation, Rev. C. H. Chapin; essay illustrated by lantern slides; "Insect Enemies of Vermont's Fruit and Shade Trees," H. Kingston Chapin; cornet solo, "The Rosary," Archie R. Saxby; reading, "The Editor's Guests" (Carlton), Edna St. John; instrumental solo, "Secret of the Flowers," Mabel Henderson, junior recitation, selected, John F. Fawes; vocal solo, "The Mighty Deep," H. Kingston Chapin; reading, "Home" (Carlton), Mabel L. Henderson; instrumental solo, "Lily of the Valley," Pearl V. Wells; essay, "Some of Vermont's Common Birds," Archie R. Saxby; reading, "Farewell," Edna St. John; presentation of diplomas, Supt. J. M. Tobbecks.

A class of eleven young people graduated from the grammar school Friday evening with a program as follows: "Invocation," Rev. C. H. Chapin; "The Rising," of 1776, Harold E. Saxby; "The Bridge Keeper's Story," Zenith M. Bemis; "Behind Time," Stanley H. Lyndes; "The Day is Done," Leola M. Tate; "A Husband's Experience in Cooking," Myrtle B. Buxton; "Kentucky Belle," Marjorie L. Lambertson; "Nathan's Flat," Joyce S. Pitkin; "The Psalm of Life," Laura A. Bliss; "The Engineer's Story," Charles D. Brown; "The Light on Dead Man's Bar," Gladys Newton; "The Remorseful Cakes," Harlie C. Folsom. The program was liberally interspersed with music and the class did credit to themselves, their parents and their teacher.

The alumni banquet at the close of the exercises Thursday evening was a very pleasant feature and successfully carried out. The principal, Mrs. Saxby, members of the graduating class and all but two of last year's class were present.

The Pythian Dramatic club presented "The Flowing Bowl" at Danville Friday evening, and report a full house and a fine time.

RING STOLEN FROM HER TOE.
Oklahoma Woman Relieved of it While in Sleeping Car.

St. Louis, June 22.—Dr. Eugene W. Dixon of Oklahoma City, who is en route to Boston with his wife, reported to the police Saturday that Mrs. Dixon had lost a diamond ring in a sleeping car berth occupied by them on a Frisco train.

Mrs. Dixon told detectives reluctantly that she had worn the ring on one of her toes to guard against robbery. She did not know when it was removed or dropped from the toe. She missed it in the morning.

Search of the berth and questioning of the crew of the car failed to reveal the ring. The diamond in it weighed one and one-sixteenth carats, Dr. Dixon said. The detectives reported that in their belief the ring was stolen some time in the night.

STRIKES GOLD IN "LAST PAN."
Prospector Was About to Abandon the Claim When He Finds a Pocket.

Baker, Ore., June 22.—Charles Burgess, an aged pioneer prospector of Baker county, has come in from the hills near Pine Creek with a pocketful of beautiful nuggets which he took from a claim which he has worked for two years.

Burgess has at odd times taken considerable gold from the claim, but had decided to quit. When he arrived here on Saturday, he told his story.

"One more panful!" he said late one day last week. In the pan was one nugget worth $15 and two more worth $5 each. He had struck a pocket. The claim is now being worked by himself and two assistants.

RHEUMA STOPS ALL PAIN
The most obstinate cases of rheumatism quickly give way to Rheuma, which is sold by the Red Cross Pharmacy for 50 cents. It drives out the excess of uric acid, purifies the blood, and restores the kidneys, liver and bowels to natural working order. One dose daily acts on the painful muscles and joints more readily than any other known remedy. Try it and be convinced.—Advt.

The Finest Rose Garden in America.

In the July Woman's Home Companion Frank A. Waugh, the well known horticulturist, writes an article entitled "The Queen of the Garden," in which he tells how to grow roses. In the course of his article appears the following passage telling about the finest rose garden in all America:

"In Hartford, Conn., there is a magnificent public rose garden. It is probably the finest rose garden in America, and almost certainly the best one outside the Pacific coast states, where roses really grow. Here the most expert care is available, and here the expense, which would be too much for the private family, is negligible when distributed to all the taxpayers of the big city. And so the rose garden in Elizabeth park is one of the glories of Hartford, and the citizens go out by thousands and thousands every day in June and July to enjoy their roses, and visitors come from hundreds of miles around from all neighboring cities and states to see this splendid display.

"Chicago has a very beautiful public rose garden in Humboldt park; Minneapolis has a newer and wholly successful municipal rose garden in Lyndale park, and there are several others of only less renown."

The "Squaw Man."

The "Squaw Man," Edwin Royle's potent dramatic success with Dustin Farnum in the role of the "Squaw Man" in motion pictures, is announced as the attraction at the pavilion soon.

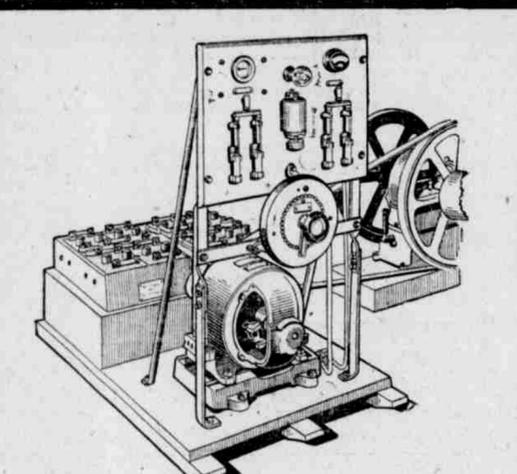

If this play was successful as a drama one can imagine without a great strain on their intelligence just how thrilling it should be with all the advantages the motion picture camera offers. The original play was in four acts and four scenes, while the motion picture drama is in two hundred and sixty-four scenes and required a cast of one hundred and twenty-seven people.

The "Squaw Man" was produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company of New York and staged by Cecil B. DeMille the brilliant playwright, who, with David Belasco, was responsible for several of the stage's greatest successes.

The first two reels of the picture were made at Sheddham, England, just outside of London. The third and fourth reels were taken in lower California at the Lasky studios, while the two final reels were made with the entire company, number six score of artists on route from Lasal, Utah to Green River, Wyoming, the company traveling hundreds of miles, and traveling deep ravines, giant mountain ranges and fording numerous streams.

This traveling for local color was necessary, owing to the contract between Mr. Lasky and the author of the "Squaw Man" who, when he agreed to allow Mr. Lasky to produce his play in film, stipulated in the contract that the film must be made in the exact locale of the play and Mr. Lasky, in order to carry out this portion of the agreement, sent the company into the Middle West, where they remained for eleven weeks while the production was being made.

Many magnificent scenic spectacles occur in the "Squaw Man." The cast was made up of men and women drawn from the native population of the mining camps throughout Colorado, Utah and Wyoming, and are exact types of the characters Mr. Royle had in mind when writing the play.—Advt.
