We recognize service as the best essential for our patrons. Give us a trial, Miers' Barber Shop.

John Mitchell of North Main street went to-day to Hardwick to make a few days' business visit.

Miss Ella Owens of Hill street left Sunday night for Newport, R. I., to make a few weeks' visit.

R. G. Wright returned last night to his home at Newport, after a ten days' visit in Barre and Montpelier.

Everybody smokes 7-25s, the best five-cent cigar made. Get them at the local stands, Barre Confectionery Co.

Mrs. Charles Zanoloni and sons, Mario and Joseph, left yesterday for Boston to make a week's visit with relatives.

Edward Tucker returned to-day to his home at Manchester, N. H., after passing a few days in the city as the guest of friends.

There will be a meeting of Barre Council, No. 401, K. of C., at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow night. All members are requested to attend.

Regular meeting of the Labor day committee will be held Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. Let all be present to complete arrangements for Labor day.

Miss Henrietta Hayes of Burlington arrived in the city to-day to pass the coming few days as the guest of Miss Hattie Landers of South Main street.

Thomas Davidson of Pearl street left to-day for Chateaugay, N. Y., where he will pass the coming week. He has been engaged for the Chateaugay baseball team.

Henry Fasola of Berlin street returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Boston, Quincy, Milford, Mass., Claremont, N. H., and Woodstock, N. Y.

George David of Granite street left to-day for Barton, where he will join his father, Michael David, who is conducting a lunch stand at the Orleans county fair which opens to-day.

Miss Clara Milano of Dorchester, Mass., arrived in the city yesterday to make an indefinite visit as the guest of Miss Delina Merlo of Granite street. Before returning to her home Miss Milano will visit at Woodstock and other points in Vermont.

Col. J. B. Meade circle, No. 1, Ladies of the G. A. R., cordially invite the veterans and Sons of Veterans to a social to be held Thursday afternoon, Aug. 20, in G. A. R. hall. A short entertainment will be given and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Thurston, secretary of the Ladies of the G. A. R.

You'll never find the Royal policy changing. No spasmodic starts in our system. No changes of leadership. Royalty is the last word in tailoring efficiency. Under automatic management thousands of tailors work as one man to satisfy your individual demands and not as a headless machine. This means so much to you in service and in quality. Come in to-day and look at the new fall fashions. F. A. Hutchinson, Wood block.

A. G. LaPoint of Elm street was much surprised a few days ago when one of his old comrades, R. C. Whitford of Crown Point, N. Y., paid him a visit. The two old veterans were in Co. D, 14th Vt., and had not seen each other for nearly 50 years. Mr. Whitford having spent the last quarter century in the oil regions of Pennsylvania. Mr. Whitford was the guest of Mr. LaPoint over night and they renewed the old friendship which began when they were boys in the neighboring towns of Addison and Bridport.

Claude Druge, the Barre tailor who threw away his yard stick as soon as the call to arms sounded in France, is still in New York, according to letters received by his friends here. Upon his arrival at the French consulate within two days after receiving a summons to prepare himself for enlistment, Mr. Druge found more than 1,000 of his countrymen vainly seeking an audience with the consul. Three days later their number had swelled to 10,000, and an announcement from the consular authorities informed them that they must remain in New York until transportation facilities can be provided. Some of the ardor which marked the first feverish rush for New York has abated, it is said, and some of the reservists now wish they had remained at their tasks until definite arrangements had been made for carrying them to the scene of conflict.

Carlo Garaboldi pleaded guilty to a breach of peace charge before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this forenoon and paid a $5 fine with costs of $5.48. Garaboldi was arrested last week and after his plea of not guilty the case was set for hearing to-day. The state alleged that Garaboldi struck Mrs. Carlo Colombo and fractured a bone in her nose. The respondent was represented by A. A. Sargent and Grand Juror William Wisbart had charge of the case for the state. Three Woodlark quarrymen, Dominick Morosini, Peter Verturini and Frank Bartoli, who are awaiting a preliminary hearing on separate charges of selling liquor illegally, were unable to get bail yesterday. They spent the night at police headquarters and will be there to-night unless their renewed efforts to get a bondsman are successful. Their hearings will be held to-morrow.

New scenery at the Barre opera house which artisans from the American Scenery Co. of Detroit, Mich., are painting, will be completed to-morrow night if the plans of the aldermanic property committee are carried out. Most of the wings have already been retouched and little remains but to finish the new front curtain. The property committee has chosen a familiar photo of Camel's Hump as the centerpiece for the new curtain. The view was taken near Bolton Falls and it shows a part of the river, with the mountain in the background. People who have inspected the curtain praise the beauty of the landscape effect which the artist had produced. The curtains will be dropped in the ordinary acceptance of the term and will be operated on a drop instead of a roll. The new scenery will be exhibited for the first time when the Sunday South minstrels appear in the opera house next week.

The Last of Our Summer Goods!

We are making prices on what we have left in Dresses, Suits, Coats and Waists, that will appeal to you as a chance to buy garments ready to wear at prices that you could not get the goods alone for. The reason we do this is that we do not want to carry anything over into the next season. We have a few Suits and Coats that we are closing at less than you would pay for the cloth that is in them. We want to close the lot in the next few days. We must have the money to put into our fall stock. We also have a few Wool Skirts in small sizes left in very good values, from $1.50 to $5.00. Our White Skirts are all selling at half price.

<h4>Last Call on Suits</h4> We are putting prices on what we have in Ladies' Tailored Suits to close them out in the next few days to make room for our new fall stock, which is now coming in very fast. At $5.98 is a Gray Suit that is made in a good style and goods are a good, all wool homespun material; is a Suit that sold at $15.00. <h3>TALK OF THE TOWN</h3> J. W. Vaughan of Maple Grove left last night for Boston to pass a few days on business interests. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brand returned yesterday to Burlington, where the latter expects to enter a hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Pierce and son of Carrier street went this morning to Groton pond for a few days' outing. Robert Carpenter of South Main street returned yesterday from Newport, where he has been visiting for the past week. Miss Nellie B. Olsen of Niagara Falls, N. Y., arrived in the city last evening for an extended stay with friends at 22 West street. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Deering, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Houston of Maple avenue, have returned to their home in Northfield. Miss Mrs. Nelson, who is taking a vacation from her duties in the F. W. Woolworth store, left this morning for Sherbrooke, P. Q., to visit relatives. Mrs. Harry Traak and children, who have been visiting at the home of W. H. Gale of Wellington street and with other relatives in Barre, returned to-day to their home in West Boylston, Mass. Miss Edith Jamieson of Providence, R. I., is passing several days in Barre as a guest of Miss Alexina Patterson of Pleasant street. Miss Jamieson formerly lived in this city. John Ariola of Summer street is taking a few weeks' vacation from his duties at the Moore & Owens clothing store. Mr. Ariola will go to Old Orchard, Me., the latter part of the week to pass a few days. William H. Eager of Hooker avenue has resumed his duties in the E. M. Lyon grocery after an absence of two weeks, during which time he visited friends in southern Vermont while attending the state labor convention at Bellows Falls. Miss Pauline Ganning of Burlington arrived in the city to-day to pass a week as the guest of Miss Clair Miles of West street. Miss Kathleen Miles, who has been visiting with relatives in Burlington for the past week, returned to the city to-day. Miss Ethel Badger, a nurse at the City hospital, has returned from Morrisville, where she was called by the serious condition of her sister, Evelyn Badger, who had a narrow escape from bleeding to death when she severed an artery in her foot by stepping on a piece of glass.
