

By Request!

By special request from a number of out-of-town people who could not previously take advantage of Barre's Biggest, Best, Bona-Fire Bargain Giving Event

Lamorey

will continue his greatest of all cut price

Sweeping Out Sales

Until September 1st

Take time by the forelock and secure your share of these genuine bargains now.

Men's Suits

$10.00 Suits - $5.85	$20.00 Suits - $13.85
12.50 Suits - 7.35	25.00 Suits - 17.85
15.00 Suits - 9.65	$30-$35-$40 Suits 23.75

Boys' Suits

$4.00 Suits	$2.87
$5.00 Suits	3.95
$6.50 Suits	4.35
$7.50 Suits	4.65
$10.00 Suits	6.85

Raincoats

$5.00 Raincoats	$2.97
$7.50 Raincoats	5.35
$8.50 Raincoats	5.95
$10.00 Raincoats	6.95
$15.00 Raincoats	9.90
$18 Raincoats or Balmacaans	12.69

Mackinaws

$5.00 Mackinaws	$3.95
$6.50 Mackinaws	5.25
$7.50 Mackinaws	5.87
$8.50 Mackinaws	6.83
$10.00 Mackinaws	7.95
$12.50 Mackinaws	9.65

Sweaters

$5.00 Sweaters	$2.97
$6.50 Sweaters	4.87
$7.50 Sweaters	5.87
$8.50 Sweaters	6.83
$10.00 Sweaters	8.65

Miscellaneous Bargains

10c Canvas Gloves, our price, per pair	5c
$1.50 Holeproof Hosiery, now	$1.23
$1.50 Shirts, $1.19; $1.00 Shirts, now 59c; 50c Shirts now	39c
50c Work Shirts now	42c

Lot of Boys' and Girls' Educator Shoes to close out.
Men's Oxford's at unheard of reductions; $3.00 ones for $2.00; all this season's styles. It will pay you to buy for next season.

Lamorey's

Great Sweeping Out Sale at 158 North Main St.

BROOKFIELD

Mrs. Isiah Verge, who has been confined at the Barre hospital for several months on account of a broken hip, has been moved to her home. She is in very feeble health. Her granddaughter from Massachusetts is taking care of her.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Atkin and daughter of Woodville, N. H., and Miss Edna Sargent of Woodville, N. H., are spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sargent. They had also for a guest Sunday their son, Ernest Sargent, of Woodville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Jones of Enfield, N. H., took a party in their auto Sunday and came to this village on a pleasure trip.

Miss Emma Ditty of Northfield recently visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ditty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Perham visited their daughter, Mrs. Edward Kelly, in Northfield Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Glysson of Barre were over-Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Glysson.

John Raymore was in Woodstock two days last week on business.

Mrs. Barrington of Cabot is spending two weeks with her brother, J. W. Yaw, and wife.

Cassius Annis of Barre has bought T. D. Spooner's farm. Mr. Spooner has bought a house in South Barre and will move there soon.

Rev. William Taylor, Robert S. Hall, A. G. Dutton and Mrs. Helen Wilcox attended the Sunday school convention held at North Tunbridge Thursday.

The Brookfield and East Braintree boys scouts enjoyed a ball game at East

Braintree Tuesday. Brookfield winning 5 to 4 in the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Ami Jones, accompanied by their niece, all of Farmington, Conn., were guests two days recently of Hon. and Mrs. W. S. Allis.

Mr. and Mrs. Odett of Springfield were guests last week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. T. Blair and Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Lapan.

Mr. and Mrs. Zoiva Chase are visiting friends in Woodbury.

Mrs. George E. Mason went to Berlin Sunday to visit her uncle, Lemuel Chandler, who is in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Philadelphia came Friday and stayed till Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. F. L. Fullam, and family.

James Gall and Miss Anna Barclay of Barre were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ralph at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Ralph.

Twenty-one were present to enjoy the picnic dinner and social at the home of R. W. Walbridge Wednesday, it being the anniversary of the birthday of his son, Ray Walbridge, and his granddaughter, Miss Charlotte Walbridge. Both received nice presents. Those present from out of town were Madam Allis, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allis and daughter, Dorothy, of Randolph; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walbridge and three daughters of Randolph Center, Hon. and Mrs. W. S. Allis of Norwich, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Ami Jones of Farmington, Conn.

Prof. A. W. Edson came last week from New York to spend some time with his family at their cottage.

Twenty-nine members of the G. A. R. and Mr. W. R. C. with a few invited guests, met Saturday afternoon at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Fisk to help Mrs. Fisk celebrate her birthday anniversary. She was the recipient of several presents and a postcard shower. Dinner was served and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mrs. H. L. Edson of Enfield, N. H., came last week to spend a few days with her friends and to collect her household furnishings preparatory for an auction sale early in September at her old home.

Mrs. Chapman of New Hampshire recently visited her father, Hiram Coburn, and family.

Ethan White has rented Mrs. Fannie Hayes' place for three years and will move there in October.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Huggard are entertaining their daughter from New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rumney and family and Mrs. R. H. Simmons and two sons attended the circus in Barre Saturday.

Prof. and Mrs. Winthrop Abbott of Greenfield, Mass., are spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Nancy Abbott, and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Abbott.

The members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Frink Saturday afternoon in honor of John Raymore and his daughter, Miss Flora. All friends are invited to join with the post and corps on this occasion.

WEST TOPSHAM

County Road Commissioner Flanders, with his assistants, was in town last week to see about straightening the road down the hill between W. Jackson's and D. Bagley's.

Mrs. Chalmers expects to move to Barre this week.

Miss Ina Tubbs of Barre was here on business two days last week, returning home Saturday.

The Baptist minister, Rev. James Struthers, preaches his farewell sermon next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks of Boston are expected this week. Their children, Albert and Helen, are now here.

It is rumored that Allen Carter has bought the Chalmers' place.

The central telephone office has been moved to Frank Nutt's, at Waits River.

John Hood is drawing lumber to Barre for Hight Bros.

"Get Wise" is an Old Saw

but it cuts clean for those who are not intimately informed about the values and possibilities of life insurance in the solution of their life problems. Our experience and our highly organized business are at your service at all times. National Life Ins. Co. of Vt. (Mutual), S. S. Ballard, general agent, Lawrence building, Montpelier, Vt.

GRANITEVILLE

Meeting of branch No. 12, G. W. I. U. of N. A., will be held in Socialist hall on Wednesday evening, Aug. 26, at 7:30 o'clock. Important business. All members be present. For order secretary.

CHELSEA

Miss Laura Ellis of Montpelier was a recent guest of Miss Leonie Thorne. Mrs. George Skinner of Lowell, Mass., is a guest at the home of Mrs. Sarah Skinner and Miss Mary Willis.

Jasper Taylor of East Ryegate was in town last week visiting friends and was a guest at the home of his father, Noah C. Taylor.

Miss Elizabeth Carson, who has been the guest of Miss Vera M. Beckwith for several weeks, has returned to her home in Barre.

Manuel Rowe of Lakeport, N. H., came last week to remain in town for the rest of the month and is a guest at the home of Holton S. Annis on the west hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellin Hooker of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ward and Adolph B. Lane of Barre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sprague over Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Goss Fish of Canton, Mass., with her three children, is a guest at the home of her mother, Madam Ann E. Goss.

Miss Grace Pierson of Manchester, N. H., was in town last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Bolonnan.

A daughter, the tenth child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Corse on Thursday, August 20.

Charles Rowe has completed a season's work for Holton S. Annis and has returned to his home in Laconia, N. H.

Mrs. Adolph J. Skinner and daughter, Miss Beth Skinner of Barre were in town last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Medcalf.

A Republican caucus will be held at the town hall Thursday afternoon, Aug. 27, at 2 o'clock to elect two delegates to the state convention to be held at Montpelier, Sept. 9; two delegates to the district convention to be held at White River Junction on September 8; and five delegates to attend the county convention to be held at Chelsea on September 12, and to elect a Republican town committee for the two years next ensuing. Let every Republican in town be present.

Philip L. Sargent has been obliged to take an enforced vacation from his work at John P. Davis' on account of blood poison in his face but at this time he is much improved.

James, son of Eugene H. Kennedy, who has been with his uncle, Herbert R. Kennedy, in Bridgeport during the past four weeks, has returned home and is assisting his father in his business.

Miss Shirley Camp, who has been working for Mrs. George A. Tracy for several months, has completed her services there and returned to her home in Tunbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Goodwin and three sons were in Washington Saturday and Sunday and were guests of Mrs. Goodwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Tillotson.

Merton Laird has returned from Washington, where he spent last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles Taplin.

Mrs. Mary Tracy and son, Joseph A. Tracy, of Hartford, Conn., arrived in town last week for a two weeks' vacation and are stopping at their home on South Main street.

News has been received here of the birth of a daughter on Monday, August 17, to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Akey of Rochester. Mrs. Akey will be remembered here as the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gokey, who resides on the west hill.

Elmer H. Kinney, who has been working during the season for Mrs. Stillman Rich on the west hill, has completed his services there and has gone to East Brookfield, where he has employment with E. G. Harrington.

Mrs. George Andrus of Chelmsford, Mass., who has been the guest of Miss Ellen Andrus for a short time, has returned to her home.

O. Fay Allen and Archie F. Sanborn left Monday morning by automobile for Morrisville, where they will conduct an ice cream and confectionery stand during the fair.

Richard D. Perkins of Gloucester, Mass., was in town several days last week as the guest of his cousin, J. O. Perkins.

John W. Sprague returned last week from Felchville, where he has been working during the past month for Dan G. Stoughton, and left Tuesday for Northfield to attend the summer school for members of the sophomore class at Norwich university for two weeks prior to the opening of the fall term.

Prof. and Mrs. Carl D. Grupe returned last week from their summer vacation and have opened their apartments on Jail street.

John Edwards who recently sold his farm on the west hill to W. H. Ward, mayor of Barre, has purchased of Fred D. Alger the Elijah B. Barnes farm and will take possession of the same in the near future. Mr. Edwards buys this farm for a home and will make some needed repairs on the buildings.

EAST BRAINTREE

Last Sunday was observed at the church as "Shut-In" Sunday. Letters were read from many, and beautiful bouquets were given to many who were unable to attend.

A few from this place went to North Tunbridge last Thursday to attend the Sunday school convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Abel of East Braintree, Mr. and Mrs. John Ford of Randolph and Mrs. Grace Tupper of Barre are touring the state with Mr. Abel's new car.

Mrs. Ella Willis was taken seriously ill with indigestion last Friday night and Dr. Angell was called to treat her.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hannick of Brattleboro are visiting Mrs. Hannick's father, Martin Sargent, at Carl Bowman's, James Hayes, our village blacksmith, has moved his family from Randolph up in Clark Abel's tenement.

Glenn Taylor has finished work for David Abel and now is visiting in Northfield. George Stevens is now driving Abel's team.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bannister and little Myrtle, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bowman and E. E. Bowman were in Montpelier last Tuesday, making the trip in Bannister's new auto.

Mrs. Edna Cassidy of Randolph is visiting her father at Perley Rand's for a few days.

Ed Wheeler is moving onto the so-called Billings farm, lately purchased by him.

That Explained It

Teacher—Come here, Tommy, and sit down.
Tommy—Don't want. I'd rather stand.
Teacher—Why, low is that, Tommy?
Tommy—Pa smashed his finger in the door this morning and I lugged—
Topeka Capital.

BRADFORD

Harry Currier of South Ryegate was an over-Sunday visitor at the home of his cousin, Chauncey Currier.

Miss Ruth Johnson spent part of last week at Lake Morey.

John Soulier of Burlington visited his brother, Joseph, and family last week.

Warren Carleton has a new Maxwell automobile.

Miss Maude Wilson has had a week's vacation from the variety store and has been a visitor in McIndoes and Montpelier.

A picnic was held last week Tuesday on the banks of Waits river for the playground children, with Miss Stranahan in charge. The playground closed on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Billings are visiting in Burlington.

F. V. Johnson was a business visitor in New York the last of the week.

Frank McDuffee of Troy, N. Y., arrived on Sunday to visit his father, H. E. McDuffee.

A very interesting and helpful sermon was preached by Rev. F. A. Woodworth at the M. E. church on Sunday morning. The subject of his discourse was "A Banner to Be Displayed."

Ralph Cunningham has finished work for H. E. McDuffee and is visiting his mother in Boston.

The third of the five-game series between the White Sox and All-Stars was played at Riverside park Saturday afternoon, the game resulting in a score of 19 to 15 in favor of the All-Stars. The previous games were won by the White Sox.

A number from here were in Woodville Monday to attend the circus.

NORTH CALAIS

Mrs. H. F. Ryder and daughter, Lucia, returned to their home in Somerville, Mass., on Monday, after a stay of six weeks at L. S. Tabors'.

I. W. Lawson is in Morrisville this week attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dailey's little son, Gardner, was operated upon for adenoids at Montpelier last week Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cate visited in Chelsea a few days recently.

Mrs. Annette Answorth of Morrisville is staying a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. S. K. Cameron.

Mrs. Carl Sibley and children of Bethlehem, N. H., are with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cameron, for a time.

Rev. Mr. Laite of Montpelier spoke at the Davis church last Sunday.

Earle Martin and family returned to their home in Springfield, Mass., Monday.

Mrs. George Hawkins wishes to extend thanks to all who so kindly assisted in doing their haying.

Mr. and Mrs. Deen Holt are visiting relatives in Morrisville.

Co. I reunion was well attended last Wednesday and a fine program was enjoyed by those present.

WATERBURY

Rev. W. L. Boicourt, who is at Silver Bay, took part in the pageant depicting the history of Lake George. Mr. Boicourt was one of the early settlers welcoming the new-comers.

The ladies' union is holding its annual picnic to-day at the home of Mrs. Julia Seabury.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Barr of New York City are guests of Mrs. Schotfield at Linden farms.

Miss Marion Keefe and Arthur Keefe of Boston are guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Stowell are the parents of a daughter, born Saturday.

E. F. Palmer, Miss Annie Dorothy Palmer and E. Huntley Palmer returned Monday from two days on Camels hump. Over five hundred have visited the mountain this year from many different states.

E. W. Huntley was in Montpelier yesterday attending the meeting of the Washington county Republican committee. The county convention for the nomination of county officers will be held in Montpelier September 12, at 10 o'clock a. m. Carl R. Davis was selected as temporary chairman.

A party from here, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Al Morse, spent the day at Lake Mansfield, Sunday.

Daniel Irish is not so well.

MARSHFIELD

William Seelye and Miss Gladys Sulham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sulham, were united in marriage Monday afternoon. They left immediately for a brief wedding trip.

All the schools in town are to open for the fall term next Monday, Aug. 31.

RELIANCE LINE Blower Ensilage Cutter

Complete with 6 H. P.
Gasoline Engine
(and a good one)

for $250
(price without wheels) and 25-foot belt thrown in for good measure. High wheels for Cutter $10.

Write For Our Blower Catalog DC
HEADQUARTERS FOR HAY PRESSES, THRESHING MACHINES, SILOS AND SILO-FILLING MACHINERY
WATER SYSTEMS FOR COUNTRY HOMES

Don't forget we can light your country place by electricity at no more cost than kerosene.

Gasoline Engines

For All Purposes
Write us for Catalog D or see C. E. Seelye, our general agent at Barre, or J. L. Arley, Barre.

Brackett Shaw & Lunt Co.

Somersworth, N. H. Boston, Mass.

MONTPELIER

Kershaw-Richardson Wedding at Bride's Home.

Miss Flora Richardson of this city and William E. Kershaw of Providence, R. I., were married Monday afternoon by Rev. Frank Roberts of Williamstown at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Isabel Richardson, in this city. After a wedding trip, which will include Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw will reside in Providence.

A public meeting was held in the memorial room of the city hall last evening to discuss plans for lighting the business district of the city. Main and State streets. One system which was advocated at the meeting would consist of 40 iron poles with brackets on either side, with a light on each bracket, 20 of them to be placed on Main and the other 20 on State street. The cost of purchasing and installing such a system would be $3,000. No action was taken at the meeting.

Dante Sala of this city, who, with a party of about 800 Italians, set out a month ago for a visit to Italy, returned home Monday, being unable to get farther than Liverpool. It was when they were three days out that passengers on the St. Lawrence learned of the war and, being unable to secure passage to Italy from Liverpool, most of them returned upon the same ship.

Mrs. Chester Doten died last evening at her home on Elm street after a six weeks' illness. Mrs. Doten was born in East Montpelier 62 years ago and had spent her whole life in this vicinity. Eighteen years ago she married Mr. Doten. She is survived by her husband, a brother, Ira Gray of North Montpelier, and a sister, Mrs. Charles Gallison of East Montpelier. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon.

Two Barre Boys, Joseph Casarico and Frank Calevero, aged 11 and 12, respectively, were in juvenile court yesterday on a charge of stealing and selling chickens. They were sentenced to the industrial school at Vergennes for the remainder of their minority.

Judge L. P. Slao of St. Johnsbury has issued a decree in the case of Howard Bros. and Cave against the Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co. and the Green Mountain Electric Co., from which the defendants have taken an appeal to the supreme court.

RANDOLPH

John Conolly of New England, N. D., has arrived home for a short vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conolly, who have also for a guest, Miss Mary Conolly, their daughter, from Washington, D. C.

Mrs. J. Conant of St. Johns, who has been with her sister, who is ill at the home of Mrs. Rose Lucia for a week, left here on Tuesday afternoon for her home, leaving her sister much improved.

News has been received here of the birth of a second son, to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conolly of New England, N. D.

Mrs. Sarah Rogers, who has been in Greensboro for the summer, taking care of the Wheeler cottage, while Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Wheeler of Boston were there, returned home Tuesday, and the house is closed for the season.

Miss Evelyn Manney went to Morrisville Tuesday to visit relatives, and attended the fair now in session there.

Mrs. Johnson Sargent left Tuesday for Plainfield to visit her sister, Mrs. Nellie Morse.

Deano Wedgewood, who came from Mexico three months ago to pass a few months with his mother, Mrs. W. F. Wedgewood, left on Tuesday night on his return to that place to engage in business.

Miss Maud Johnston and her sister, Mrs. W. F. Edson, left on Tuesday for Lebanon, N. H., to attend a family reunion.

Mrs. Nellie Smith of Northfield arrived here Monday and is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Buck.

Mrs. Frank Gilmore of West Brookfield, Mass., and her sister, Mrs. Mabel Carroll of Warren, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Whitcomb over Monday night and on Tuesday started for West Brookfield.

At a meeting of the Silver Cross Circle of Kings Daughters, held at the home of the leader on Tuesday afternoon, it was decided to hold a sale on Friday afternoon, September 4, at the Parish house, when useful and fancy articles, food and candy will be on sale. Delegates were elected to attend the state convention to be held at White River Junction October 6, 7 and 8, who were Miss Carrie Eaton, Miss Emma Moses, and Abbie F. Clarke.

Miss Jessie Morgan and Mrs. S. C. Gabrielle, who have been here for three weeks at Mrs. Gabrielle's home, left for Rochester Tuesday, going by automobile.

Miss M. E. Linfield, who was in Claremont, N. H., over Sunday, has returned to her work at the H. P. Sanford home.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The Republican voters of the town of Barre are hereby notified that a caucus will be held Thursday, August 27, 1914, at 7:30 p. m., at the East Barre Opera house, in said town of Barre, for the transaction of the following business:

Article 1. To elect two delegates and two alternates to the Republican state convention, to be held at Montpelier September 9, 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for

United States senator,
Governor,
Lieutenant-governor,
Secretary of state,
State treasurer,
Auditor of accounts,
Attorney-general.

And for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

Article 2. To elect two delegates and two alternates to attend the Republican district convention, to be held at White River Junction September 8, 1914, at 1 p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of Congress for the second congressional district of Vermont, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

Article 3. Also to elect six delegates and six alternates to the county convention to be held in Montpelier Sept. 12, 1914, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the various county offices.

Article 4. To transact any other business which may properly come before said caucus.

Dated at Barre, Vermont, this 22d day of August, 1914.

Per order
REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE.
—Advt. 1264

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

The Republican voters of the City of Barre are hereby notified that a caucus will be held Thursday, August 27, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. at City Hall (opera house), in said City of Barre for the transaction of the following business:

Article 1. To elect four delegates and four alternates to the Republican State Convention to be held at Montpelier, September 9, 1914, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of nominating candidates for

United States Senator
Governor
Lieutenant-Governor
State Treasurer
Secretary of State
Auditor of Accounts
Attorney General

and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

Article II. To elect four delegates and four alternates to attend the Republican District Convention to be held at White River Junction September 8, 1914, at 1 p. m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of Congress for the Second Congressional district of Vermont, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

Article III. To elect ten delegates and ten alternates to attend the Republican county convention to be held at Montpelier Saturday, September 12, at 10 a. m., for the nomination of candidates for county offices in Washington county, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said convention.

Article IV. To elect a city committee for the ensuing two years.

Article V. To transact any other business which may properly come before said caucus.

Dated at Barre, Vermont, this 20th day of August, 1914.

Republican City Committee,
By N. B. Ballard.
—Advt.

FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Lower Prices on Ford Cars
Effective August 1, 1914, to August 1, 1915, and guaranteed against any reductions during that time. All cars fully equipped f. o. b. Detroit

Runabout	$440
Touring Car	490
Town Car	690

(In the United States of America only)

Buyers to Share in Profits

All retail buyers of new Ford cars from August 1, 1914, to August 1, 1915, will share in the profits of the company to the extent of $40 to $60 per car, on each car they buy. PROVIDED: we sell and deliver 300,000 new Ford cars during that period. Ask us for particulars.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY
PERRY AUTOMOBILE CO., Agents
Barre, Vermont

With an Electric Fan

beside her while ironing the week's wash with an electric iron, what woman would find fault? It makes the work easier and the room comfortable. The real joy of it is best appreciated, however, after a trial. If your house isn't wired—see us. We'll wire it for you and then supply you with any of the modern electrical appliances that make your household a pleasure.

THE BARRE ELECTRIC CO.

Men's $1.00 Caps for 69c

Men's $1.00 Dress Up Shirts, 79c. Men's 50c Dress Shirts, 39c. Special lot of Shop Worn Shirts, 50c seller, 29c Men's job lot, 50c and 25c Suspenders, 10c a pair.

AMERICAN CLOTHING CO.

255 North Main Street

PERRY & NOONAN Unexcelled Funeral Furnishings HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE

Special Orders for Furniture

INDERTAKERS AND LICENSED EMBALMERS DEPOT SQ. BARRE

Telephone Connections

Store, 423-3 Mr. Perry, 424-3 Mr. Noonan, 421-3