SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1914. Entered as the Postoffice at Barre as Second-Class Mail Matter. Published Every Week-Afternoon. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year $3.00, Six months $1.80, Three months $1.00, Single copy 1 cent.

Great Britain might find a more satisfactory representative in Mexico than Sir Lionel Carden.

Not a little importance now attaches to what the Vermont Democrats will do about a state ticket.

Without doubt, Charles H. Thompson feels as if a political steamroller had passed over him and then back again.

It ought not to be necessary for Italy to enter the war, notwithstanding the strong pressure being brought to bear on the government.

Ernest P. Jose must have the representative election in Johnson sewed up tight, judging by his statement before the Progressive state convention.

Since the sinking of the Empress of Ireland with a large number of people apparently little change for the better has been made in shipping in the St. Lawrence river, as regards transportation in times of fog.

Of course, there will be an investigation of that affair in East Berkshire in which an automobilist ran down a number of people during the night and seriously injured two of them.

When General Funston and his troops leave Vera Cruz permanently, the sum of $1,000,000 will be turned over to the Mexican government, having been collected in customs.

Among the industries boomed by the state fair at White River Junction is the hotel keepers' business in towns adjoining White River Junction and even as far away as a score or more miles.

The world is still wondering what those troops were that passed down from Scotland through England and embarked for the continent—troops described by returning American refugees as being Russians.

More Grandstand Needed at State Fair. The need of additional grandstand accommodations at the Vermont state fair-ground was demonstrated quite clearly on the second day of the fair this week.

NEW STYLES for FALL. The suits to be close fitting, coats shorter, trousers straight, vests medium.

Collars—double band, wide opening. Socks—plain, in colors to match the suit.

Overcoats—double-breasted, tight fitting, and short or single-breasted, loose balmacaanish style.

Neckwear—large shapes and strong colors. Evidently the rainbow expert was consulted, but the conservative man can also be suited here.

W. Clean, Press and Repair Clothing. F. H. Rogers & Co.

MABEL SYRUP'S COLYUM. "To have a lively and not a stolid countenance." Truth of Intercourse.

Enter oyster! Exit war and rumors of war! During a lull in the call for suits, fresh fish and shoe findings a Barre advertiser enunciates the following bit of good advice.

Forty-seven days to Gunpowder day. "Please to remember, etc." Such is Fame, Will!

Watch for the harvest moon. About now keep your eye open for the effeminate young man with an ascot tie, tortoise shell glasses and a wrist watch.

Enter Young Man singing tra-la-la, scans heading and says: "Sherman was a deucedly elevah duck, wah IS hell."

Begin to look for fringed gentians. Dear Miss Syrup: Who will put the squeal in the Democratic pork barrel?

It was a good many years ago when someone wrote: "Measureless spread is the table dreed for the grim wald play of the iron die." Pretty good stage setting for the present passage-at-arms over yonder.

Truth has been sacrificed to literary brilliancy in so many sporadic ebullitions of regret in the state press that the following expression of a sentiment that pretty much all Republicans in Vermont are feeling to-day is refreshing indeed.

Favorite Fiction. "I'll go, George, but I haven't a thing to wear." Give the henhouse a coat of white-wash.

"Sir Edward Grey, whom I have known for a long while, and always considered a superior diplomatist, but a gentleman."—German defense by Bernhardt Denburg.

That a superior diplomatist can yet be a gentleman in isolated instances is a tacit confession that there is something radically wrong with the sub rosa diplomacy which President Wilson has so vigorously condemned.

"Congress has returned from his vacation spent in Cornish, N. H."—Boston Transcript. Prune coupons now and get your coal and wood for the winter.

Dear Mabel: How shall I remove the rusty appearance from my last summer's black suede pumps? "1911." Rub with equal quantities of olive oil and black ink.

Time for putting up pickles. Between shaves, baby's razor can be used to good advantage in paring warts on the little numbers.

Old cider and molasses steeped with a pod of red pepper, will remove every vestige of a cold. Extreme care should be used in taking the molasses or red pepper internally.

Dear Mabel: When shall I do my Christmas shopping? "Avenue." Ski! Ski! Shop early, Aven.

and yet it has never been my privilege to see its splendid fire department in action. John D. Rink. Anyone contemplating a fire is asked to communicate with this office. Patience, John. M. S.

Give the gold fish plenty of fresh water. Armageddon News. "A Progressive caucus was advertised to be held in the opera house Saturday afternoon, but it went by default as there were only three persons present.—Up-state item.

Rob Fisher, the former Brooklyn shortstop, who has been playing with Toronto in the International league, has been drafted by the Cubs. He is already appearing in the regular line-up. President Ebbetts of the Dodgers has signed Pitcher Weiser Dell, who was given a tryout of the Northwestern league and his work was of such high order as to land the club in second place. Ebbetts is expecting great things from the youngster. Amos Rusie tipped Ebbetts off to Dell. He also tipped him to Schmutz and Tommy Sheehan.

Graniteville Presbyterian Church—Fred McNeill, pastor. The pastor will preach Sunday morning, and in the evening there will be a popular meeting. There was a large attendance at both services and at Sunday school last Sunday. There will be a meeting at Foxville Sunday afternoon at 3. The people of that place have voted to repair the chapel and work will begin at once.

Hedding Methodist Episcopal Church—E. F. Newell, pastor. Morning worship at 10:30; sermon on "The Spiritual Possibilities of the Business Man"; short sermon to young people on "Water-Logged Christians." Sunday school lesson on "The Judgment of the Nations—The Final Separation"; let all who can, try to be present at the Sunday school to make careful preparation for Rally day. Epworth league at 6 o'clock; leadership, Miss Elizabeth Skinner. Brotherhood evening at 7 o'clock; 75 stereopticon slides representing general scenes, the business, the social and religious life of the people of China. Professor Boyce, who spent four years in that country as a teacher, will give the lecture. Everyone cordially invited.

Universalist Church—John B. Reardon, minister. Preaching service at 10:30; subject, "The Certainty of Just Retribution for Sin." Bible study at 11:45; subject, "The Judgment of the Nations." Devotional meeting of the Young People's Christian union in the vestry at 7; subject, "The World and Its Affairs." At the morning service, Prof. W. A. Wheaton will play "Pilgrim's Chorus" (Wagner) and "Postlude" from the oratorio "Naaman" (Costa). The Orpheus male quartet will sing "Come, My Soul, Thou Must Be Waking" (Dudley Buck), and "Lead, Kindly Light" (Sullivan). George Mackay will sing an offertory solo, "The Hills of God" (Nevin).

How Canada Got Its Name. The origin of the name Canada is strange enough. The Spaniards visited that country previous to the French and made particular search for gold and silver, and finding none, they often said among themselves, "Aca nada," meaning "There is nothing here." The Indians, who watched closely, learned this sentence and its meaning. Later on the French arrived, and the Indians, who wanted none of their company and supposed they had come on the same errand as the Spanish, were desirous to inform them in the Spanish sentence "Aca nada." The French, who knew as little of the Spanish language as they supposed that the incessantly recurring sound was the name of the country and ultimately christened it Canada, which it has borne ever since.

Faithful Suggestion. "You ought to typewrite your poetry," said the harsh editor. "Great Scott!" replied Mr. Penwizgle. "If I were expert enough to do that kind of typewriting do you think I'd be putting in my time on poetry?"—Chicago News.

When You Have Pineapple. The knife used in peeling a pineapple should not be used in slicing it, as the peel contains an acid that will cause a sore, swollen mouth. Salt is an antidote for this acid.

Its Seasoning. "My wife is apt to serve up a course of tongue with the dinner." "So does mine, and with tartar sauce."—Baltimore American.

Much lies in laughter. It is the cipher key wherewith we decipher the whole man.

Walk-Over The Shoe for You. The Popular English Styles are still in great favor with dressy men—we don't know of anything more refined than our "Carlton" model. It has the wanted bench-made effect—the stitched sole swinging out wide and clear around the heel, helps that; the toe recedes sharply; the eye-lets, as fashion decrees, are invisible. Comes in Tan Russia Calf and Gun Metal. Rogers' Walk-Over Boot Shop 170 No. Main Street
