Don't Be Penny Wise and Pound Foolish, Particularly When You Buy a Rug

It is a temptation to save a few dollars, and nearly all rugs look well when new. But usually the saving is made at the expense of quality and leads to bitter disappointment.

Nothing wears to look shabby so quickly as a cheap rug.

has an unapproachable reputation for honesty of material and workmanship, beauty of fabric, design and color. At any stage of its service, a Whittall Rug is satisfactory. It gives more wear than any other domestic rug and retains its good appearance to the end.

When you invest your money, buy a standard article. Whittall Rugs bear their distinguished mark (the name Whittall's, woven into the back) just as standard silver bears the "Sterling" mark and gold bears the karat stamp.

Look for it when you buy

Nearly 40 couples attended the annual concert and dance given by Barre council, No. 401, Knights of Columbus, in Howland hall last evening. Since Oct. 12 was designated as a "legitimate" day in Vermont, the local council has observed the evening of each Columbus day by holding a dance. In 1911 the hall furnished an appropriate climax for a large public celebration held in the afternoon. Last night the affair lost nothing by comparison with the dances of other years. Riley's orchestra furnished music during the concert from 7 to 9 o'clock and continued to play for a pleasing variety of dance numbers until midnight. During the evening a number of young women served punch and water in one corner of the hall. A committee from the council consisting of the executive officers had charge of the dance.

Everything Is In Our Favor

While the nations of the Old World are in the midst of the greatest struggle that the world has ever known, we of the American people are enjoying one of the most plentiful harvest seasons that we have ever known. The enormous fruit and grain crops which this country has had this season means a reduction in the high cost of living and a year of plenty throughout the country.

The tendency for the strong advance of Dry Goods and Ready-Made Goods, which was strong a few weeks ago, is now adjusting itself, and many cloths of our own and imported makes are already back to the original prices.

We were never able to show so large a line of general Dry Goods and Ready-Made Merchandise as at the present time. The prices are right and the qualities are the best.

Carpenters employed by Contractor A. H. Lane are completing in addition to the cell equipment at police headquarters. The new detention quarters are to be reserved for women and are added because the aldermanic police committee thought that women detained at the station should be given better accommodations than they have been accustomed to have in the past. The new cell is directly under the corridor leading to the city court room and will be finished in a few days.

S. Hollister Jackson and A. A. Lamorey returned this morning on the Green Mountain express from Boston, where they have been spending a few days on business. Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Jackson and Lamorey made connections with the Fenway and were among the 25,000 fans who saw the Braves take a 12-inning game from Philadelphia in the world's series. To Barre fans they brought the first direct news of the big feat this morning. Both admit that the game was played with thrilling. According to their best recollection of what happened amid the din of the 12th at the Fenway, many people were in the most imminent danger of heart failure in the exciting game. The sentence which marked Gowdy's walk to the field for a double, they say, triggers all descriptions.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The Barre Woman's club will meet in Howland hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. Barre Hebrews in common with the faithful throughout the world celebrated the Feast of the Tabernacles yesterday and to-day. At sundown to-night the festival ends and the Jews resume their workday occupations. The Feast of Tabernacles follows immediately the Jewish celebration of New Year's and the more solemn observance of Yom Kippur, which came to an end last week.

The condition of David Bolles, an elderly man residing on the Hill street extension, who sustained severe injuries when he fell from a veranda on North Seminary street yesterday afternoon, was reported to be fairly comfortable to-day. Mr. Bolles is at the City hospital, where an effort is being made by the physician attending to ascertain whether the patient suffered any fractured ribs.

Younger Italian musicians of the city, assisted by a half-dozen older hand players, paid homage to Christopher Columbus by giving an excellent open-air concert on the park last evening. The weather was none too warm for outdoor music, but a chilly feeling in the air did not serve to keep the crowd away from the park. Under the leadership of P. Gropelli, the Christopher Columbus band, so-called, played a varied program of patriotic and classical airs. The program began with "America" and ended with "The star Spangled Banner." Among the other numbers was a selection from Verdi and a march of Mr. Gropelli's own composition, "Honor to Christopher Columbus." Both were roundly applauded.
