SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapiesin" and in Five Minutes You'll Wonder What Became of Misery in Stomach

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just eat has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only 50 cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on an on with your disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

U. S. ALARMED OVER CRISIS IN MEXICO

Officers of Army and Navy on Leave Quietly Ordered Back to Posts at Vera Cruz.

New York, Nov. 2.—That officers of the army and navy now on leave in the United States are being quietly ordered to Vera Cruz or the Mexican border is asserted by the Army and Navy Journal. Mexican conditions, the journal states, have reached such an acute stage that intervention of some sort by the United States may be forced.

Certain-teed

Quality Roofing Durability Guaranteed

It is recognized all over the world as the modern, scientific method of covering all types of buildings—houses, barns, churches, apartment houses, farm buildings, factories, warehouses, skyscrapers, school and university buildings.

Four Reasons for Certain-teed

I. Highest quality possible to make. II. Greatest durability in any weather. III. Guaranteed in writing, 1-ply 5 years, 2-ply 10 years, 3-ply 15 years. IV. Most reasonable in price.

AMERICA'S OPPORTUNITY. There are altogether too many pessimists in this country who are kicking about the effect of the European war on business. Coming as it did immediately after a period of depression it kindled anew in the minds of some people the feeling that prosperity would not return for a long time. As a matter of fact the war's big cost will fall on Europe and as soon as the final treaties of peace are signed the commercial and financial ascendancy of the United States is bound to begin—then we will have to get busy and figure out ways and means to fill orders helping to rebuild Europe and we will have no time to lament over anything.

As a result of the war there has been a more or less disarrangement of business and finance, but it is now well in hand and will entirely stop as soon as peace is in sight—and that should be soon.

This war has given the United States a greater opportunity to increase its foreign trade than any other country has ever had. German foreign commerce is practically stopped and the commerce of other European nations at war is very severely affected. A large part of this trade will surely come to us if we are properly equipped to take it over.

The opportunity is there. It requires a first-class merchant marine which this country has not had since the Civil War. With the re-establishment of a merchant marine the commerce of the United States will be transported to all parts of the world in American bottoms and we will become the greatest commercial power in the world. We believe some of the reasons for the business are not far ahead for the entire United States of America. Let us supply America's needs. This new will make business prosper greatly.

EAST TRIMS THE WEST

And Harvard Got Just One Touchdown Saturday

WILLIAMS TIES THE TIGERS

Aggies Bother Tufts—Vermont Crowds Brown—Dartmouth Wins Easily

The East met the West Saturday in a head-on collision at Cambridge. The East got just one touchdown. The West made a brave attempt to score twice, but was frustrated. The son of Gov. Danne of Illinois played with the westerners. Yale got sweet revenge on Colgate. But the real surprise of the day was Williams' feat in holding Princeton to a 7 to 7 score. The Indians stumbled once more. Tufts was just one point better than the Aggies, but Dartmouth was 32 points better than Amherst. Holy Cross scored its first points of the season when it got a field goal at Ithaca. Springfield plastered Middlebury with ease. The results:

- At Cambridge, Mass.—Harvard 7, Princeton 7. At Princeton, N. J.—Williams 7, Princeton 7. At New Haven, Conn.—Yale 49, Colgate 7. At Middlebury—Springfield 27, Middlebury 7. At Hanover, N. GODDARD PULLED TOGETHER AND WON Defeated Heavy Randolph Aggie Team at Randolph Saturday by Score of 21 to 7—Laird Made Long Run, as Did Kinsman of the Aggies.

Although Goddard showed poor form in football at Randolph Center in the first part of the game Saturday, they rallied at the latter part and won the game, 21 to 7. The Randolph Aggie team presented a heavy lineup and held the seminary lads in many cases.

In the first two periods neither side scored. Goddard had the ball at one time on the 10-yard line but were held for downs. Then the ball was worked back and forth but did not get near the goal again in the first period. In the second period Laird threw a well-directed forward pass to Willey which brought the ball to the five-yard line. Here time was called and the first half ended, neither side having scored.

On the kickoff in the first period of the second half, Laird, of the seminary, received. With good interference, he made an 80-yard run for a touchdown. Bartlett kicked the goal. But to even up after a few rushes, the Aggies intercepted a forward pass and on a 60-yard run made a touchdown. The goal was kicked. Neither scored again in this period.

In the fourth period Goddard was working well and carried the ball down with speed. Conners made an excellent run and brought the ball to the Aggies' two-yard line. Here Bartlett was given the ball and made a touchdown by a skin tackle play. After a few rushes Goddard held the Aggies for downs and the ball well towards the goal. Then Laird, on an end run, carried it over for the second time. This ended the scoring, but when the whistle sounded for time Goddard again had the ball on the 10-yard line.

Kinsman starred for the Aggies, getting many men and upsetting many of Goddard's plays. Conners and Bartlett footed for Goddard, making many long runs. The lineup:

SPAULDING HIGH HELD FRESHMEN

Crossed Line Several Times at Burlington but Were Called Back Each Time—Game Ended a Zero Tie.

At Burlington Saturday, Spaulding, with her fullback, John Gordon, and her linebacker, J. Carroll, noisily put up a stiff fight against the heavy University of Vermont freshmen. The freshmen could not seem to interpose Spaulding's forward passes, for the high school successfully worked free, while the college men only worked two. Although the ball was brought over the freshmen's line three times none was counted, either because of off sides or other reasons. Spaulding received the kick off and

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Bilious, Stomach Sour, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

was downed on the 60-yard line. After two rushes, Tomasi carried the ball over but was called back to the 30-yard line for going outside. Then Spaulding was held for downs and the ball given to the freshmen. On the second rush Sutherland fumbled and Smith of Spaulding recovered. Time was called with Spaulding in possession of the ball on Vermont's 25-yard line.

At the beginning of the second period Spaulding had the ball but were held for downs. On the first rush Spaulding was penalized five yards for not having seven men on the line. Then Vermont fumbled. It was at this stage of the game that two clean forward passes were worked. The first was from Sector to J. Tomasi, making a good gain. Again Spaulding was held for downs and again the freshmen fumbled. Then Sector threw his second forward pass, this time to Parker, who carried it over the line, but again Spaulding was off sides and the ball was brought back. On the next rush Smith made first downs and on the next play a forward pass from T. Tomasi to Sector brought the ball to the freshmen's 10-yard line. Two more rushes brought the ball to the three-yard line, where the first half ended.

The second half opened with Spaulding kicking to the freshmen. On the first rush Spaulding recovered the ball on a fumble. Then T. Tomasi made a forward pass to J. Tomasi. On an end run Smith brought the ball to the 20-yard line. Here Sector tried a drop kick from a difficult angle and missed by a narrow margin. Now with the freshmen having the ball a long forward pass was completed. After two rushes they brought the ball well up the field and then tried another pass which Smith intercepted and made an excellent run and brought the ball to the 40-yard line. This ended the third period.

The ball worked back and forth for most of the last period but by an excellent forward pass from Tomasi to Sector and some good rushes, the ball was brought to the danger zone. Here the college team again got the ball and made a gain. Again Spaulding brought the ball toward the goal and on an end run T. Tomasi went over the line but was called back for going out of bounds. On two more rushes Spaulding brought the ball to the eight-yard line and the game ended with neither side scoring.

The only accident of the game was in the first period, when Woodward, the freshman quarterback, broke his collarbone. He was removed to the Mary Fletcher hospital.

GREAT TRIO PASSES.

Waivers Asked by Mack for Bender, Plank and Combs.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, announced Saturday that he has asked waivers on Pitches Bender, Plank and Combs. Mack's announcement was in confirmation of a statement made by Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit team at Atlantic City. The Philadelphia manager said he had no intention of retaining any one of the three pitchers for the season of 1915. Asked if he did not feel that Bender and Plank were good enough to pitch for the Athletics next year, Mack said he wanted it understood that he did not think their usefulness as pitchers was over.

One of the three pitchers, Mack said, had approached him with the statement that he was doing business with the Federal league and that he received an offer for a large salary. He did not think the Philadelphia management would meet it. Mack said he suggested to this pitcher, whose name he would not give, that possibly there was an American league club that would meet the Federal's figures. "I am for the American league in victory or defeat," said Mack, "and I am going to keep those players for our league if possible. I would not have asked for waivers at this time, but for the fact that one of them told me he had been dickering with the Federal league." Plank, who is at his home at Gettysburg, Pa., admitted over the telephone that it was he who had been made an offer by the Federal league. He said he was surprised to learn that Mack had asked for waivers on him.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect is the most pleasant and instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets. These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the bowels like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes puts a havoc with the gums. Be so strong laxative. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Mack's recommendation, "Edwards' Olive Tablets" really comes from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." It shows how they "cleanse" the liver and how they "strengthen" the stomach. At 25c and 50c per box. All druggists. Keep Track of Your Underwear Supply! Hallowe'en is past and you can look for consistently cold weather very soon—which ought to suggest winter-weight underwear first of all, since your underwear is about our most effective "keep warm" garment. Most men buy their underwear more or less at random. This year we want to show you a better way by selling you underwear that is so good that you will want to call for it by name hereafter. We have several good kinds here in abundance—either union suits or two-piece. A full price range, too. Moore & Owens, Barre's Leading Clothiers 122 North Main Street

LABOR CONDITIONS NEXT ON PROGRAM

For Consideration by Congress, When Report by Federal Commission Will Be Presented.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The 63d Congress will be prepared to take another step toward regulation of the relations of employers and employes, when it convenes in December, as it will have before it for consideration a lengthy report from the commission on industrial relations created last year to investigate the subject and recommend legislation. The report will be merely a statement of what the commission has done; of the evidence presented to it and of the research work it has conducted in many fields covering the period from Oct. 22, 1913, when the appropriation became available, until Oct. 22, 1914. Further hearings will be held this winter in New York, Washington, Chicago, and Atlanta, and in its final report next year the commission will present the bills which it hopes will result in extensive reform of industrial relations.

WILSON INDORSED WRONG MAN.

Mistake Causes President to Lend Support to Illinois Progressive.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Intending to indorse M. D. O'Leary, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Illinois district, now represented by Republican Leader Mann, someone made a mistake and President Wilson wrote a letter indorsing J. C. Vaughan, the Progressive candidate. The error was discovered Saturday, and a telegram was sent from Washington to Mr. Vaughan informing him that the president was for Mr. O'Leary and asking him not to make any use of the indorsement.

Every effort was made by the commission to complete its preliminary report in time for presentation to the last session of Congress. The force at field headquarters in Chicago was kept busy night and day, but it was found impossible to complete the task. Over 500 witnesses have been heard by the commission's representatives in Washington, New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Paterson, N. J., Lead, S. D., Butte, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. In addition to this exhaustive investigation, much has been conducted independently by the field force under the direction of Dr. Charles McCarthy, of the legislative library of Wisconsin. The subjects considered were unemployment, vocational training, violence in labor disputes, interstate employment and agricultural labor. Among those who aided in this task were Professor George E. Barnett, Johns Hopkins university, who devoted himself to a study of economic conditions; Miss Marie L. Obenoufer, of the bureau of labor statistics, investigating woman and child labor; Robert F. Hoxie, professor of political economy, University of Chicago; William Leiserson, formerly superintendent of employment agencies, Wisconsin; John L. Parkinson, an expert special agent of the census bureau; Thomas L. Parkinson, chief of the legislative drafting division, Columbia university; B. S. Warren, surgeon of the public health service, and W. J. Lauck of Washington, D. C., formerly superintendent of industrial investigation, U. S. immigration bureau. Public hearings were held under the direction of B. M. Manly, Washington, D. C., and Commissioner Walsh also paid particular attention to planning these hearings so that every phase of the subject might be given due attention. Among the witnesses heard have been federal, state and municipal officials, la-

FAIR PLAY My opponents have circulated at the last moment, when I cannot answer it, a statement as to the treatment of the employes of the Bradford Electric Light Co., which I control. The inference is that I preach one thing and practice another. The facts are not as stated. I employ in the operation of that station not two men, but three. The station men are unskilled laborers, and work not seven, but six days per week. They are given a vacation of two weeks each year with pay. They are paid another two weeks if sick. Their wages automatically increase 25c per week for each year of their service. Of the three men, one has been there five years and another four and one-half. When the boy who held the $10 job left recently to enter a business school, there were six or eight applications for the place, all from residents of Bradford who knew the duties and the compensation. Eight years ago, I employed for the summer at Newport a gang of unskilled laborers ranging from fifteen to forty. After the first week I put those men onto a nine-hour schedule, although a ten-hour day was universally in force for such labor in that vicinity. I paid those men $2 per day, although $1.75 was then the going price, and I did this against the remonstrance of other employers of labor as to both the hours and the price. I honestly sympathize with these toiling masses. I believe that the fundamental problem of the age is how to better their condition. I would rather fail of an election as United States senator than that my fellow Vermonters should believe the insinuation of this cruel lie. I ask the voters of Vermont to say whether methods of this sort shall prevail. Newport, Vt., October 31, 1914 C. A. PROUTY
