The death of Doris Marie Gannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. Gannon of Richmond, formerly of Barre and Burlington, occurred Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Nora Foley, 31 Monroe street, Richmond, after a week's illness with bronchial pneumonia, aged 13 months. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Mary's cathedral, Burlington.

At the regular meeting of Barre aeris, 1,573, held last evening, Deputy Gr. W. President G. L. Gregoire, assisted by Deputy Gr. W. Herald John Rowley, installed for the ensuing year the following officers: W. president, R. J. Attridge; W. vice president, D. McDonald; W. chaplain, G. Oltolini; I. M. P. president, O. G. L. Calogini; W. Cond., I. W. Warnes; trustee for three years, John Rowley; janitor, James Rhind. One candidate was initiated and six applications were taken in.

Barre boys were on the losing side in the fastest basketball game that Northfield has seen this winter, when the Bethel Combination team and F company came together at the armory in that village Wednesday night, and the militiamen won a victory by the score of 24 to 18. Bill Stuart and Carroll of this city did their share of the honors for the Bethel outfit and with their teammates they put up a plucky struggle for the decision. The teams lined up as follows: Bethel, Putnam rf, Stuart lf, Carroll c, Blossom rg, Tenny lg; Company F, Provost lg, Clark rg, Plastringe c, Aiken lf, Jeffries rf. Baskets were looped as follows: Putnam 5, Stuart 1, Blossom 1, Tenny 1, Jeffries 3, Aiken 3, Plastringe 3, Clark 2, Provost 1; fouls, Carroll 2, Plastringe and Jeffries excelled for the home team. The Northfield guardsmen have lost only two games since their season opened, although they are facing some of the hardest contests of their schedule. Among the teams to be played in the near future are Fort Ethan Allen Reserves and Newport.

Late this afternoon an animated crowd of basketball fans will accompany the Shamrock A. C.'s basketball quintet to St. Johnsbury for its initial joust of the season with the French C. A. The Celtic invasion of the "over-home" territory is reckoned as one of the red hot events of the basketball year in Vermont and as it will be an entirely rejuvenated S. A. C. which dons its basketball togs in the Lily White town tonight, something pretty regular in the way of exciting skirmishes is sure to follow. Manager Mackie will take along Grady, Ogston, Carroll and Stuart for his first battle line and another handful of recruits as an emergency. That the F. C. A. is not unmindful of what a Shamrock raid on St. Johnsbury means is evidenced by the following bit of comment in this week's St. Johnsbury Republican: "In Grady, Ogston and Carroll Barre has three dangerous men at all times and the locals must stop this speedy trio if they wish to come out on the long end of the score."

Seniors of Spaulding high school enjoyed their annual sleigh ride to Willamstown last evening, when barge accommodations provided for the entire membership were rapidly assigned as the students gathered at the starting point. They were accompanied by Miss Hagley and Miss Sullivan, Mr. Ryan and Mr. Hubbard of the high school faculty. On their arrival in Willamstown a substantial supper was served in Grange hall, afterward there were other pleasurable features of the outing. A number of the students spelled each other in furnishing music and an impromptu dance order afforded an excellent diversion until the class was ready to start its homeward journey. The trip to Barre was made late in the evening, the seniors arriving in town without mishap.

C. F. Smith of the real estate firm of Smith & Daxner has sold his entire interest in the business to J. J. Deane, his partner. The firm started handling real estate a little over a year ago and has worked up a large and prosperous business, in that period having sold $1,445,000 worth of real estate, conducted 90 auction sales, had charge of operating the Dodge creamery for seven months, aside from considerable outside business. Mr. Smith's reason for retiring from the firm is to take his little money and to devote his time to his other interests, which have grown into a large business. Mr. Deane will continue conducting the real estate business in the Howland & Cave block and will extend the same prompt, fair and honest measure of dealing to all customers and patrons, as in the past. For his part, Mr. Smith thanks the people of Barre City and surrounding towns for the patronage the firm has enjoyed in the past year. He will be ready to handle all classes of property at public auction, as in the past, and will have some time to devote to that line of business.
