

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

There were only ten marriages in Johnson during 1914. The number of births was 33 and deaths 19.

In 1914, there were 225 marriages in Brattleboro, it being a Green for many parties outside the state. This number was an increase of 109 over the year 1913.

The appointments of James A. Donahue and Frederick L. Smith to be postmasters at Essex Junction and Brandon, respectively, have been confirmed by the United States Senate.

Two sliding accidents occurred in Jericho last week, when Percy Hanley fell from his sled and his teeth cut through his lower lip and Ralph Quillman had quite a gash cut in his leg in a collision between his sled and a stone wall.

Harry B. Scruton, formerly a resident of Newbury, received injuries at Littleton, N. H., where he was working recently, which caused his death within a few hours. Attempting to drive into a stall a kicking horse, which had become loose in the barn, the animal gave him a blow with its hoofs which fractured his skull.

T. N. Vail has offered to remodel the town hall at Lyndonville so that it may be used by the schools as a gymnasium and assembly room, the chapel being of too small capacity to accommodate all the pupils. Mr. Vail will put a heating plant into the basement, add baths, remodel the balcony and build a stage, putting the building in fine shape.

Marion, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Badger of Morrisville, accidentally sat down in a pail of hot water, with which Mrs. Badger was about to mop the floor, one day last week, and received burns which have made her condition very critical ever since. Having survived so long, it is thought she will recover, though she is badly burned from her waist down.

Mr. and Mrs. William Roy of West Barre observed the 90th anniversary of their wedding Jan. 11, by entertaining a company of 14 at dinner. Mr. Roy was born 86 years ago on the farm where he now lives and Mrs. Roy, who is 81, was born about one and one-half miles from the same farm. Mr. Roy went to the gold fields of California in 1851, and remained two years, but aside from that has always made his home in West Barre. Mr. Roy's health is excellent, but Mrs. Roy is not very strong.

$100 Was Gone. State's Attorney B. L. Stafford of Rutland county is trying to ferret out a thief in Cuttingsville. Miss Frances Hutton lost $100 last Saturday night and it is not known whether the case is one of burglary or plain larceny. On Sunday morning she went to the box for money to pay for some oysters which she had ordered and discovered that some person had cut a hole in the box and extracted the money. The theft was committed while Miss Hutton was in the house. One person who was suspected went to Rutland Monday and was met at the train, on request, and searched by Chief of Police Jesse Young, but no money was found on her person.

Strong for Sabbath Observance. An important meeting of the Inter-Church Federation of Vermont was held at Burlington Tuesday afternoon and evening. Representatives were present from all parts of Vermont. Among the number were Henry Bond of Brattleboro, chairman; Dr. Pratt of Bellows Falls,
