Clean Up of Summer Dresses!

We are now making prices on a lot of Summer Dresses to clean them up at once to make room for our fall stock which is fast coming into the department. These are odd dresses left from our season's large stock of these desirable dress models. You now have two months' at least to wear these thin dresses. The styles are good, the materials are the best, the price is very small.

At 98c are a lot of dresses that are extra values, are worth from $2.00 to $3.50, now at less than the price of the material alone.

At One-half price are a lot of odd dresses in both light and medium colors, such as voiles, dimities, linens, and in combinations of different materials. These are values from $3.50 to $7.50, now at only one-half price to close.

Clean-Up Sale of Coats

We are putting prices on a lot of odd Coats to close them at once. These are Coats of different materials—no two alike.

At 98c each are eight Coats that are made of a good quality material. The style, while not the best, is not bad, and the materials are the best. Are qualities that sold at from $8.75 to $15.00. The materials would be good to make over into a child's coat. The price is only 98c each.

At $1.98 are a few Raja Linen Two-piece Suits. These are a good Suit for the next two months' wear. The quality and style are all right. The regular prices were from $6.50 to $10.00; now, to close, at only $1.98. The skirts alone are worth twice that price.

At 98c are a few odd White Skirts that sold at from $3.00 to $5.75. To clean up at 98c each.

At one-half price are what we have left in White and Colored Skirts.

New Fall Skirts

We are now ready with our early fall showing of Ladies' Separate Skirts. While this is early to begin to talk of the new fall materials we find that many like to get the early selection of the new materials as soon as they are in.

The new fall Skirt styles are very attractive this year. The materials are different, and the styles entirely new. These are the M. & C. and Veits Brothers lines of Skirts, which is a guarantee as to quality and style.

The special values we are showing are priced at $2.98 to $3.98. Are made from an all-wool Serge and are in the latest style.

Our popular lines and styles are those we sell at from $5.00 to $5.75, and these we are showing in a large range of styles and in the season's best materials.

At from $6.50 to $10.00, we have some extra values in Novelties and Silks. These are made in extra good styles that are different.

Silks for Fall of 1915

New Silks, new in make and new in style. These are very beautiful. The most of these Silks come yard wide, so that a garment can be cut with less waste and less seams than from narrow Silks.

Prices on these Silks are very low, selling at $1.00, $1.25, $1.35 and $1.50—yard wide.

We have a notice this morning that colors of Navy and Cadet in all foreign dyes will be off the market in many kinds before the fall business is fairly under way. German dyes are nearly all at the present time held up. Conditions seem to be growing worse. We do not expect to see another good lot of Navies, Reds and Cadets until the war is over.

If you have Dress Goods to buy, you can now be sure of foreign dyes. Later reliable manufacturers will not pretend to sell these colors. We will not use domestic colors in Dress Goods: we will go without. So, if you buy here, you will get the best or not any.

Specials for a Few Days

Twice each year we have a Remnant Sale. These Remnants are now on one of our bargain tables. This is an assortment of short lengths from all of our departments, marked so that anyone can make a saving of one-half or more on what they can use.

One table of 50c goods. These are all this season's goods—odd lots that sell now at less than cost, 29c per yard.

Hoagknit Sweaters

This is the season for Sweaters. We sell nearly as many now as in the winter. Ladies use them on outing trips; they wash perfectly, keep their colors, and are just the thing for cool evenings and rainy weather. We have a special in a Shaker Sweater that we sell in all colors at $5.98.

Children's and Ladies' cheaper Sweaters from 98c up. Ask for HOAGKNIT SWEATERS and get the best your money can buy.

The increased demand for Ladies' Silk Hose has been encouraged by improved quality. Ask to see 50c Silk Hose Special in black, white and colors.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See the fall line of skirts at Abbott's. James Rickett of Boston arrived yesterday by auto and will spend a few days visiting friends in the city and vicinity.

A telegram received by Leigh Myers of North Main street last night brought the news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Andrew McKay of Plattsburg, N. Y., for a number of years a resident of this city. She submitted to an operation at the Physician's hospital in Plattsburg early last week and her death occurred there yesterday at 1 o'clock. The deceased was born in Plattsburg 29 years ago, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Myers, who survive her. She leaves two sisters, Mrs. Howard Winch of Standish, N. Y., and Daisy Myers of Plattsburg, and two brothers, Harry Myers of Windsor and Leigh Myers of this city. In this city she was better known as Essie Myers. She came here at about the age of 15 and was employed at the Vermont Tel. & Tel. Co.'s office as operator for two years. It would be nine years ago in October that she married Mr. McKay, who being well known in this city as a clerk in the Merchant & Fraser store. For the past three years they had resided in Plattsburg with her parents. Leigh Myers left this noon for Plattsburg, where he will attend the funeral. Miss Beulah Grant of Trow hill, another relative of the deceased, left this noon also.

"Fi-Fi" Cast Doing Well.

"Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," the much heralded musical extravaganza, has taken on a professional aspect and everything is now in readiness for the initial performance Thursday evening.

At the recent rehearsals the local players act like veterans trained for months, and everybody connected with it is confident that "Fi-Fi" will be the greatest production ever presented by home talent in Barre.

The theme of "Fi-Fi" is very clever and much out of the ordinary for an amateur show. Bonnie, the Toymaker's daughter, cast into a sleep by the Sandman's magic spell, dreams a wonderful dream, wherein all the bisque and wooden creatures of her father's shop come to life and a night of revelry follows. Transported by dreams of fancy, exciting adventures befall the toys and dolls until the morning light scatters the charm away. Bonnie awakens in the toy shop to find it all a dream with only the vanishing strain of the magic music ringing in her ears to remind her that anything unusual has happened.

By those who have witnessed "Fi-Fi" it has been said that the extravaganza, fantastically and elaborately costumed, far surpasses many similar productions put on the stage by many professional companies. In fact, it would be hard to imagine three prettier scenes than some one of the first act. As the Sandman sings over the prostrate form of sleeping Bonnie, the scene changes from the lonely woods to the great top shop, filled with interesting inanimate creatures of bisque, tin and wood. In the second act, where the little dog bays at the moon, the toy shop suddenly changes to the milky way. Whereon the moon, "Fi-Fi" and "The Man in the Moon" will away to the stars to the tinny accompaniment of their "Ride on a Comet" song. Then, at last, with the entire toy shop assembled in the fairy's garden, to grace the recitals of "Fi-Fi" and "The Heart," the Sandman the man took his own life as he had appeared in the toy shop, as the scene changes and the dreams of Bonnie fade into oblivion.

Tickets for the production have been in great demand and indications are that capacity houses will greet the toy shop fantasy. The box office will open Tuesday morning for the reservation of seats.
