Decorative Cut-Out Borders

are more in vogue this season than ever before and they are eliciting the admiration and approval of discriminating buyers everywhere.

This popularity may be attributed largely to the improved effects obtained in enlarging the proportions of a room as well as offering greater decorative possibilities at a minimum of cost than any features heretofore introduced. We are showing a pleasing assortment in a great variety of colors and widths.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Everything in silks at Abbott's.—Adv. A daughter was born Saturday, Oct. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Averill of 123 Elm street.

Constable George L. Morris and H. F. Cutler were business visitors in Essex Junction to-day.

O. Blair went this morning to Waterbury, where he has secured employment in the granite industry.

Edward O'Keefe has returned to Barre, after spending several days with friends in St. Johnsbury and vicinity.

Mrs. Stella Lavolette left last night for Boston, where she is to make a business visit of several days in the interests of her millinery store.

Harry Bassett of Orleans arrived in the city Saturday for a few days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman of upper Washington street.

Thomas Brady of Graniteville was a visitor in the city yesterday, leaving last night for Boston, where he expects to make a business visit of several days.

Officers of Ruth chapter, O. E. S., are requested to meet Monday evening, Oct. 4, at 7:30 o'clock for practice. Please note change of time.

Lieut.-Gov. Hale K. Darling of Chelsea is making his headquarters at Hotel Barre for a few days while transacting business at the capital.

The Independent Order of Foresters will hold a public dance in K. of C. hall Tuesday, Oct. 5. Per couple, 50c; ladies, free.

Bruce's orchestra for the first time in several weeks a week-end passed without the detention of any offenders at police headquarters. There was a clean blotter on the chief's desk this morning.

Owing to Clan Gordon hall being engaged for Friday, Oct. 1, the Clan Gordon minstrels will not meet for practice until Monday, Oct. 4, at 7:30 p. m. All those wishing to take part in this chorus will please attend.

Some of the best stock to be found anywhere will be sold at auction tomorrow at the Mrs. Murray Clark sale. All young cows, and great producers, D. A. Perry, auctioneer. See ad., page 7.—Adv.

Miss Anna Brown, who has been passing a two weeks' vacation at her home, 9 Grant avenue, returned this morning to Montpelier, where she is attending the training school for nurses at Heaton hospital.

Scribnaught, Rabbitite, Kid Halton, Sterior Boy and Moon, a string of northern Vermont horses which figured in the races at Washington fair last week, were brought to Barre Saturday and shipped to Franklin county.

A pocketbook containing 75 cents and a note found Saturday night and a silver handbag picked up in City square Sunday afternoon are at police headquarters and may be claimed by the owners after paying for the public notice.

Auction sale to-morrow of high grade Holstein cows and a lot of nice shoats for B. A. Denny of Northfield. This is all extra good stock and a chance to get some nice dairy cows. See ad., page 7, this paper. C. F. Smith, auctioneer.—Adv.

Fitch R. Wiley, who passed the week-end with Mrs. Wiley at their home on Park street, returned last night to St. Johnsbury to resume his duties as an express messenger on the St. Johnsbury & Lake Champlain railroad. Mr. Wiley has been assigned to duty on the run between St. Johnsbury and Swanton.

A Sunday crowd of music lovers heard the Barre Citizens' band in the last open air concert of the season in City square yesterday afternoon. Considering the lateness of the season, the weather was well suited to the musicians' farewell appearance in the open and the several sacred selections which constituted the program were warmly received. During the winter the band will not discontinue its regular rehearsals and to the end that the musicians may be in their prime when they usher in the concert season of 1916 next Memorial day, the management has engaged "Staccato Loft," a spacious room on the second floor of the old city building, for the weekly meetings.

A heavy fall of rain interferred seriously with the football plans of Barre's two secondary schools Saturday and in consequence of a drizzle that began in the morning and seemed to be doing its worst in the hours when football games would ordinarily have been in progress, the game between Goddard seminary and the 24 cavalry of Ft. Ethan Allen was postponed until this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The referee's whistle was advertised to sound promptly at that hour. Spaulding and Montpelier seminary did not come together at the capital for reasons that were similar to those that accounted for the postponement of the game here in Barre. The two teams were notified to meet in Montpelier this afternoon.

Visitors in the city over the week-end included the following: H. Clay Waldemar, jr., Wells Tyler, L. D. Tyler and chauffeur of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. James Duckworth and H. S. Duckworth of Springfield, Mass., who were motor arrivals at Hotel Barre, Dr. Clarence F. Worthen of Boston, Norman Carr of St. Albans, who visited his father, J. L. Carr of Keith avenue; Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Colton of Rutland, F. P. Rowell of Woodville, Miss Margaret Graham of Shelburne, Lieut.-Gov. Hale K. Darling of Chelsea, J. V. Kennedy, Miss Lena Martin of Manchester, Dr. H. A. Ladd of Burlington, R. A. Hershey of East Corinth, Miss Essie Slater and Miss Irene Banks of Plymouth, N. H., H. C. Sturges of Montreal, Francis Crandall of Middlebury.

Prices Always Interest

Quality Should Interest You More

An assortment is one of the pleasing parts of shopping interests. We appeal to your judgment on all of these shopping features. Our stock is very large and well selected. We believe that no store of our size (and we are the largest in this part of Vermont) has a newer assortment. Our prices are guaranteed. We do not expect that you can do any better. Ask to see the following.

Materials for Misses' Dresses

If you follow this list, you will get best values.

If Wash Goods, buy Endurance Cloth in all colors; very stylish patterns, 27 inches wide, at 12 1/2c per yard. Better than 16c Galatea or Gingham.

Renfrew Devonshire Cloth is better than any of the 25c Imported Wash Goods. Comes 32 inches wide and sells at 18c per yard.

Scotch Ginghams are very good, especially in stripe patterns. These at 25c per yard.

Nice assortment of 18c Crepe with small figures on white grounds. These now at 15c per yard.

For Wool Dresses, buy Hamilton Serges. They will wash perfectly. Being all wool, they will keep their shape and color. They are the best money values on the market to-day.

36 inches wide, in all colors at, per yard, 50c

42 inches wide, in all colors, at, per yard, 75c

These cloths will cost you more a little later.

Ladies' Separate Coats

This is a very busy Coat season. The Coat designs are very attractive and are made of materials that are warm and serviceable. The styles are made in a large range of very attractive models, the high collars coupled with the close high collar makes an extra warm serviceable garment.

Cloth mixtures are as popular as ever. These are made up in styles that are very attractive; the full-sweep skirt and the high collar give them a style that is very new and attractive.

The Mixture Sport Coats seem to be getting more popular every day. They are just the Coat for business and general street wear. Prices ranging from $7.50 to $14.00 each.

In the Plain Cloth Coats, we are showing a large range of the newest and most popular models of the season. These are interesting many who want the season's best models.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

Last week was a very busy Suit week with us. We have never seen the time when we have had such a demand for Tailored Suits. The styles this season are made on very attractive lines, while the models are entirely new. The Coats are made in a good length. The Skirts are in a good fullness that makes a Suit which is very attractive and serviceable.

These special values that we are putting out at $18.00 are sure to meet with your approval if you want a good serviceable quality. There are many very attractive designs in this line.

In the better Suits we are showing an unusually large variety of the season's best models. These are models that are made from the season's best cloths and in nearly as many models as we will show you Suits.

We are showing some unusual values in large-sized Suits for stout people. See our special Serge Suits at $12.50.

New Hoagknit Sweaters at Old Prices

This means more than it seems to say. There has already been two price advances with another close at hand. When we sell you at old prices you get a part of what should be our profit. We do this for more business, and when we sell Hoagknit Sweaters it is better business. They are satisfactory kind.
