Fair and warmer to-night; Tuesday partly cloudy and warmer in the interior. Moderate winds, becoming southerly.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Frank T. Colvin of the east hill returned yesterday from a business trip to Plattsburg, N. Y.

W. J. Summerville went this morning to Burlington, where he is to pass the week with friends.

Mrs. Thelma Dasch, who has been visiting friends on Laurel street, left to-day for Hagerstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. John Toussaint of St. Johnsbury were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Nellie S. Roscoe of French street.

A party consisting of B. A. Eastman, Gale Bennett and W. F. Harvey returned to-day from a week-end hunting trip to Pittsfield.

C. Ray George of South Main street left this morning for St. Johnsbury, where he expects to make a stay of several days with relatives.

Paul Leavitt returned this morning by automobile from St. Johnsbury, bringing with him Mrs. Leavitt, who has been visiting there for a few days.

Mrs. H. H. Whitcomb and daughter, Marjory, of South Royalton are spending a week with Mrs. Whitcomb's sister, Mrs. James Gow of Liberty street.

Mrs. E. K. Ellis and daughter, Marion, returned to-day to their home in Medford, Mass., after visiting relatives and friends in Barre for a few weeks.

Duncan McMillan of Thurston place left the city Saturday for Groton, where he will be joined by a party of friends who have been in camp for the past 10 days.

J. M. Martell has moved his household goods from Graniteville to 104 South Main street. Mr. Martell is to work for the Singer Sewing Machine Co. on Elm street.

The condition of Mrs. Nellie Milne of 167 Washington street, who has been ill for the past three weeks, is much improved and yesterday Mrs. Milne was able to be about the house.

Sprague Drennan is at his home on Washington street. Mr. Drennan's eyesight suffered from too close application to his studies and the date of his return to Dartmouth college is uncertain.

George W. Hunt, who has been passing a few weeks at his former home in Barre since returning from an extended stay in Bennington, left last night for Vergennes, where he is to reside at the soldiers' home.

Clan minstrels, with the same "go" that has drawn the crowds, will be at Howland hall Thursday and Saturday. New choruses, new song hits. Come and have a hearty laugh for the small price of 10c.—adv.

T. C. Carson stated that anyone desiring to see the model of the battleship Arkansas at his place of business on Main street will have to come this week, as the model is to be shipped to Newport, N. I., next Monday.

Two granite concerns, Young Bros. and the Dewey Column Cutting works, were shut down this morning because of broken derricks. Young Bros. resumed work this noon and the other concern will probably start up to-morrow morning.

Elder Chaffin and Elder Holt of the Vermont conference, connected with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, arrived here Saturday and will probably remain through the winter, laboring as missionaries in their religious faith.

Mrs. Lena Marchal of Bolster place, who has been employed at the Diversi Fruit store during the summer, completed her duties there Saturday night, and after a week's stay in the city is planning a month's vacation through the southern cities.

Master William McDonald of 31 Perry street marched into The Times office this morning to display the work of a two-year-old White Wyandotte hen which he possesses among many. Evidently the feathered one worked overtime, for the egg measured in circumference 7 1/2 inches and 6 1/2 inches around the thickest part. When it was weighed the scales registered a trifle over 3 1/2 ounces.

Pasquale Iardiseno, who has been passing several days with relatives in New York, resumed his duties in William Miers' uptown barber shop this morning. Mr. Iardiseno reached the city Sunday morning, accompanied by his sister, Miss Mary Iardiseno, who has been visiting her uncle in New York since her arrival from Italy a week ago. With his brother, Mr. Iardiseno has leased an apartment at 77 Franklin street.

Eric E. Pirie, who has been installing tool sharpening machines in several of the stone sheds in the city, has just completed the installation of the fourteenth one at the shed of Bianchi & Sons in North Barre. Workmen under the direction of Mr. Pirie have been busy for some time setting the machine and it was not until late yesterday that the work was finished so that the machine would be ready for operation this morning. With the new machine ready for working, the Bianchi shed is one of the best equipped in the city. Mr. Bianchi plans to do the sharpening for several of the stone sheds in that vicinity.

The second annual and incidentally the most successful fair in the history of the Barre Athletic club closed in Howland hall Saturday evening with an attendance that was quite as gratifying as the big turnout of the night previous, when cadets from Norwich university in a series of drills were the leading attraction. It is yet too early to determine the exact amount of revenue accruing to the club from its three-night luncheon, but the receipts exceeded expectation and the indication is that the club's sinking fund will be considerably swollen when outstanding bills have been paid. The committee for the club was composed of David McDonald, Henry Patrie, Bert Bartlett, James Gallagher, Duane Proulx, Francis Smith and Alfred Morgan.

King Football will hold the center of the stage again this week, although in what round measure that monarch of the outdoor sporting calendar will crowd out other sporting entries remains to be seen. After a hot-off of more than a week, football exercises on the Howland hill are being held in anticipation of next week's contest with the University of Vermont. Norwich or the second cavalry at Fort Ethan Allen will be asked to furnish opponents for the preliminary football games with teams at both schools and at the fort have been invited for some time. As for Squawdam, Coach Brown will put in a busy week with his charges in anticipation of next week's contest with the University of Vermont at the Gospel Village campus Saturday afternoon.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Sale this evening ladies' flannel robes, $1.00 kind for 79c, at Vaughan's.

Miss Jean McDonald of Fairview submitted to an operation at the City hospital this morning.

A son was born at the City hospital Sunday, Oct. 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Irman Hill of Washington street.

Mrs. R. G. Robinson of Academy street has gone to Springfield, Mass., for a visit of several days with relatives.

Mrs. A. L. Smith of Montreal, P. Q., is passing several days in the city as a guest in the home of Donald Smith of Perry street.

E. R. Davis of Allen street is back in his law office, after having been confined to the house for a week on account of blood poisoning.

Charles and Edward Macia, who have been patients at the City hospital, were able to return to their home in East Orange yesterday.

Mrs. Peter Laxson returned to her home on Mount street yesterday from the City hospital, where she has been receiving treatment for typhoid fever.

Miss Harriet Houston of Maple avenue resumed her duties in the office of the Consolidated Lighting Co. this morning, after a vacation of two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornidas Marin and two daughters, Eva and Leona, of North Vermont street, returned last night from a few days' auto trip to Burlington and vicinity.

And now comes the clan fair, the best of them all. Howland hall, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 28, 29, 30. Carroll's orchestra for dancing. Admission to fair, 10c.—adv.

Friends of Edward McKay of Cliff street, who has been receiving treatment at the City hospital for typhoid fever, will be glad to learn that he is making steady progress toward recovery.

Mrs. Ernestine Jacques of 35 Branch street, who has been receiving treatment at the City hospital for the past five weeks, was able to return home yesterday. Her brother, Marcelle Bernasconi, who has been treated for typhoid fever at the hospital, returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilcox, who have been residing in the Morse block for the past year, have removed to Gardner, Mass. During their stay in this city, Mr. Wilcox has been employed as a candy maker for E. M. Laws in the Vermont Fruit store. He will be employed at the same trade in Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckman, who have been spending the past month as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Miers of Keith avenue, left yesterday noon for New York City, where they will remain until Wednesday. From there they will sail for Ormond Beach, Fla., where they will remain during the winter as has been their custom during the past few years. Mr. Beckman is employed as a barber.

On the ground that the complaint made by the grand jury against Jacob Aaron of Montpelier for alleged careless operation of an automobile was insufficient, Atty. J. W. Carver and W. A. Lord are to argue their demurrer before the next term of supreme court. Magistrate H. W. Scott's overruling of the demurrer made by the respondent's counsel was recorded in city court Saturday. Inasmuch as Aaron's lawyers waive any contesting of the violation charges, should the higher court see fit to sustain the magistrate's decision on the demurrer, the respondent may be sentenced by a supreme court justice, or he may be remanded to the municipal court for sentence. In any event, the case will not come to trial.
