TALK OF THE TOWN

A large saving in Abbott's bargain basement. S. C. Ward, state commander of the Maccabees, is in the city for a few days. H. G. Woodruff of Maple Grove street left this morning on a business trip to Brandon and Vergennes.

The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. Annie Reid at 59 Elm street to-night at 7 o'clock. Don't miss going to the masque carnival dance Nov. 4 given for the benefit of the Barre City hospital. Big time for all. Carroll's orchestra. Bill, $1 per couple.

The monthly meeting of the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church will be held at the home of Mrs. Murdo McIver, Perry street, on Wednesday, evening at 7:30.

Mrs. William Carrigan of Washington was in the city to-day on her way to visit her daughter, who is a trained nurse in Mt. Sinai hospital. On her way home she will visit her son, who is an officer at Comstock prison.

Rummage sale at the Universalist church vestry Thursday and Friday, Nov. 4 and 5. Articles may be left in the vestry on Wednesday afternoon. Anyone having articles which they would like to have called for may notify Mrs. Carrie Brooks.

A party of about 25 young people gathered at the home of Thad Martin on the east hill Friday evening, Oct. 29, to celebrate Halloween. A very pleasant evening was spent with games, singing songs, etc., and refreshments were served. The committee in charge were Pauline Moxley and Emma Martin.

The woman's association of the Congregational church will meet in the church parlor Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. to pack a barrel to be sent to the Lincoln normal school, Marion, Ala. The parish is asked to contribute second-hand clothing, table or bed linen. A picnic supper will be served. All committees for the sale are asked to be present at this meeting.

Since the statement in The Times of last week that goods to the value of $289.77 were received at the hospital on bag day, a generous load came in from East Barre. This contained fruits and vegetables valued at $6.08; miscellaneous articles, $1.87; pickles, $1.00; and $13.08; groceries, $4.30, or a total of $25.41. Another donation from the East Montpelier road, value 88 cents, has been received.

The ladies and pastors' union of the Hedding church have all plans and committees ready for this afternoon when their two-day sale begins. For some time the ladies have been planning on these two days and they feel that their work is to be well repaid. This afternoon a sale of food and other things in the line of dry goods, such as towels and aprons, will commence. This evening there will be an entertainment in which the Montpelier seminary orchestra, Miss Bradley and Miss Barber will take part. To-morrow the sale will continue in the afternoon, and in the evening a chicken pie supper has been planned to end the affair.

One of Barre's better known granite carvers is the creator of a finely wrought monument in rock face which Malnati Bros. have set in Hope cemetery for John Colombo, the memorial marking the resting place of Mr. Colombo's wife. There are two bases of ample size and much of the unusually artistic carving is seen on a sizeable die. A broken column at one corner of the die and lilies, roses and palms are harmoniously arranged over the front surface. Dark medium granite from the E. L. Smith Co.'s quarries was used by Malnati Bros., and the carving was done by P. Altrami. A number of people in the past few days have walked up the heights of Hope cemetery to inspect the memorial.

Almost everybody these days has some sense, therefore a large crowd is expected at the seven-cent fair, which will be given by the young ladies of Goddard seminary on November 9. There will be the "Seven Wonders of the World" on exhibition, for the first time, too, in this city. It will not take a seventh son of a seventh son to appreciate the wonderful side of these wonders, for they will make a great appeal to all classes; even the most astiated globe trotter will have to admit that he has never seen the like before. The display of fancy articles will repay the curious, critical connoisseur, and the moderate price of seven cents, or a multiple of seven, will certainly surprise the bargain hunters. Many good things to eat will also be on sale and the confections will tickle the palates of the timid children, and satisfy the innate longings of the inner man. Let everybody come and bring their cents for a good cause. There is no sense in staying away and losing the nonsense of this wonderful seven-cent fair. Come and enjoy a good time.

Liberation Notice.

This is to give notice that on and after this date I will pay no more bills contracted by my wife, Mrs. Luigi Longo, and all persons are hereby warned not to trust her on my account. Luigi Longo. Barre, Vt., Nov. 2, 1915.

Now is the Most Opportune Time

As we enter on the month of November, we all realize that the winter days are soon upon us, and in order to be ready we must begin to get together the warm garments we will need for that time. We now have one of the largest assortments of Coats, Suits and Dresses that we have ever been able to show. We received last week some extra values in Cloth and Velvet Coats. These are the garments that everyone is looking for, and the demand all over the country is for Velvet, Velour and Plain Cloth Coats. We also have a lot of odd Coats in medium sizes, in plain cloth and mixtures, that we are selling at much less than the regular price. These are odd Coats that we cannot duplicate, and are Coat values worth your consideration and inspection.

Ladies' Furs and Fur Coats

Our line of Furs is now ready for your inspection and approval. We are showing a large line of the season's best values in all the popular Furs of the season and at the old prices. This means at from 25 to 40 per cent. less than they can be bought for to-day.

There seems to be a great demand for Muffs, and these we have in all the different Furs at prices from $2.00 to $40.00 each, and this means about one-third less price than we can duplicate the same Furs for. These we bought last June, when the prices were the lowest.

We can give you some good values in Fur Sets, such as Beaver, Civic Cat, Black and Sable Fox, Marten, Black and Blended Opossum, Black and Blue Wolf, and many others of the season's popular Furs.

See our line of Fur Coats. These you will find very cheap, but we cannot give you orders at anywhere near the prices we are asking.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

The dressy garment of the season is the Tailored Suit, and the demand for these Suits was never so great as it has been this season. The styles, while plain tailored, have those graceful lines which give them the style and snap that appeals to those who want the season's best.

We have some special Serge Suits values at $12.00 each that are made in a number of different designs.

At $15.00 we have a lot of extra Suit values. These are the Suits we advertised last week and are values that were made to sell at $18.00 and $20.00. Our special price is $15.00.

In the better grade Suits at from $22.50 to $30.00

we can show you some of the best values for the money that the best tailors can produce. These come in all the season's best and most popular cloths. In the better grade we show a variety of sample Suits that are extra values.

Linen centers, with scalloped edge, stamped on white or tan linen; all sizes from 10-inch to 36-inch; priced accordingly. Ten-inch centers at 15c; 36-inch centers at $1. At Miss Rowell's, 161 North Main street.

The Winner class of the First Baptist church held its quarterly business meeting Oct. 29, and the following officers were elected: President Burton Jones; vice president, Milton Bradley; secretary, Max Smith; treasurer, Gladstone Clark; reporter, Wayne Perry.

An augury of a prosperous year for the school publication at Goddard seminary is at hand in the current issue of The Goddard Record, distributed to subscribers to-day as the first handiwork of the editorial staff that is to direct the destinies of the little journal through the school year. Except for a redeeming change in the color of the cover, the make-up of The Record preserves the familiar appearance of other years. The editors do not start out in this October compendium of hill doings since Sept. 1 with any unnecessary flourishes of rhetoric or brave ebullitions of what its readers may expect in the way of literary treats in the months to come. Instead, the guiding factors address themselves very seriously to the task of furnishing Goddard students and alumni an interesting review of happenings on the hill. Which is well and adequate. A statement concerning Goddard's athletic policy in the future is given prominence and much space is devoted to athletic encounters on the hill top this fall. The October Record has set a pace that is worth emulating.

"Cornwall and the Cornish People" was the subject of an interesting informal talk which Rev. Albert Abbott, pastor of the Williamstown Methodist church, gave before the Men's club of the First Presbyterian church in the church vestry last evening, the occasion being the second of a series of monthly get-together meetings which the club has planned for the fall and winter. Forty members of the club and a number of invited guests, including a representation from Hearts of Oak lodge, Sons of St. George, were present when the president, William Hurry, introduced the speaker. Rev. Mr. Abbott gave an intimate description of the Cornwall country, its geographical appearance, and the men who inhabit it. Afterward there was a delightful social hour and refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served. "Ladies' night" will be observed by the club early in December and S. Hollister Jackson will be the speaker.

No Beauty Show But a Scientific Contest.

Do you know how to bring up a baby? Are you sure that he is as big and strong and healthy as nature intended him to be? You can easily find out whether your method is right by bringing your little one to the better babies' contest to be held at Howland hall on Nov. 9 and 10 under the auspices of Barre Woman's club.

Better babies' contests are not merely for the big fine babies. The standards used are for average children and it is a fine opportunity for mothers to learn of the little imperfections in their children and the mistakes they are making in the care of them. After a better babies' contest in New Jersey last year, one unhappy mother wrote the authorities in charge: "I am so disappointed. I thought surely my baby was perfect; he is so cute, but he only scored 53 per cent. The doctor told me what was the matter, so I do hope you will have another contest next year because I am going to try and make him perfect between now and then." At the next contest this same mother was overjoyed to find her baby scoring 96 per cent. So if your baby seems puny or not quite as big and fine as your neighbor's, come to the contest and find out why.

A committee will meet the mothers and their babies at the school commissioners' room, city hall, Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m., that the babies may be properly enrolled for the better babies' contest.
