HAIR AND SCALP NEED DAILY CARE

Beautiful Hair is Within the Reach of All

If you value the appearance of your hair, you should treat your scalp as often and well as you brush your teeth, and rub into the scalp pores twice daily a little Parisian Sage. This treatment is not a mere "hair tonic." It is bottled enrichment for the hair roots, and it is simply wonderful what an improvement its use for even a week will make in the appearance of anyone's hair. It cures itching, is delightfully cool and pleasant to the scalp, and takes out the dull, lifeless look in the hair, making it soft, fluffy, glossy and beautiful. Two or three applications remove every trace of dandruff, and daily use will prevent its return. The Red Cross Pharmacy and the leading druggists everywhere can furnish you with Parisian Sage—it costs but a trifle—40c.

follows Dec. 2 and 3. There will be some very attractive articles of fancy-work for Christmas gifts. Come and see them. An entertaining program will be given each evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. Plenty of attractions to satisfy both old and young. The children will be interested in the "big fish" and the wonders that he produces for them. All lovers of the rod will want to test their skill.

WATERBURY

For the Thanksgiving dinner at the state hospital there was used: 520 pounds roast turkey and dressing, one barrel cranberry sauce, 354 pounds fried chicken, with dumplings, nine bushels of mashed potatoes, four and one-half bushels boiled onions, 400 pounds baked squash, 400 bunches of celery, 800 bananas, 170 mince pies, 200 pounds candy, bread, butter, milk and tea. This was much appreciated by all connected with the hospital.

Officers of the Waterbury Center grange elected this week are as follows: Master, Edward Morway; overseer, Herbert Pike; lecturer, Mrs. Mary Morway; steward, D. J. Adams; assistant steward, Francis Grout; chaplain, Mrs. Della Watts; treasurer, John Parker; secretary, Mrs. Frances Adams; gatekeeper, Herbert Miller; lady assistant steward, Miss Maude DeCell; Ceres, Mrs. Cora Morrison; Pomona, Mrs. Lilla Merriam; Flora, Mrs. Minnie Pike.

Raymond Buzzell was at his home in Waitsfield over Thanksgiving.

Nothing Adds More

to the beauty and good cheer of the home than electric light. There is something bright and cozy about electric sunshine that makes the home the most attractive place in the world.

This is especially true during the holiday season when you naturally want to have your home as attractive as possible. Moreover, you can have electric service in your home at very little expense, this year.
