

USEFUL CHRISTMAS GIFTS

CHRISTMAS is only four weeks away and, you, of course, realize that if you want to make early selections while the assortment is complete, you must begin now. We have been busy for months carefully selecting desirable, useful gifts which will merit your approval, both for their attractiveness and the savings they will give you.

Linens

that will delight any housewife.

There are very few women who do not admire pretty Linens. Good Linens are so attractive and serviceable in any home that there is no question about them as worth while gifts. Our Christmas Linen stocks offer every facility for the selection of acceptable gifts. There's almost anything you want—beautiful Damask by the yard, with Napkins to match, if you want them; Lunch Cloths, Tray Cloths, Center Pieces, Dresser Scarfs, Dollies and fancy pieces of endless array. The prices on these goods are certainly very low and will please you.

Umbrellas For Christmas

Umbrellas always make appropriate and acceptable gifts for men and women. We have a splendid stock of them, and there's a wide range of prices to pick from. There are Natural Wood Handles, perfectly plain; others with neat trimmings; while still others are quite elaborate. In Ladies', we have a good variety of colors, with both long and short handles.

The Best News of Christmas Handkerchiefs

Thousands of dainty, pretty Christmas Handkerchiefs are here, and thousands of them will be sold, for a Handkerchief is always a worthwhile gift. Ours were bought months ago, before prices advanced, and no store anywhere offers you better Handkerchiefs for the money, and few stores offer you such a really wonderful variety to pick from. For your Christmas Handkerchiefs turn to this store confidently, expecting what you want at the price you want to pay.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Russell's display of Symphony Lawn stationery. George H. Cook, who left the city Saturday to take possession of the farm which he recently purchased in Wolcott, has sold his double-tenement house at the corner of Elmore and South Main streets to his father, James H. Cook of South Main street, possession having been given today. The present tenants, Richard Attridge and Albert Tacy, will continue to occupy the house. Mr. Cook, jr., purchased the property a year ago.

EAST BARRE.

Grover Greenwood, a student at the University of Vermont, spent Thanksgiving at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Carl Taplin. Miss Dorothy Moore spent the week end in Montpelier with her sister, Miss Hattie Moore. Mrs. R. P. Simpson of Corinth spent Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Addie Taplin. Miss Madeline Sullivan was the guest of Olive LeGrand over Sunday. T. W. Boark is ill and confined to the house at present. Miss Alice Downing of Barre spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. LeGrand. Miss Laura Wellington, who has been teaching in Northfield, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. A. L. Wellington. Nearly all of the young people home from the various schools and colleges returned last evening to their studies.

Special fur values at Vaughan's. Special sale of coats at Vaughan's. Miss Marion Tupper, who has been spending a few days at the home of her father, George H. Tupper, of South Main street, returned this morning to North Troy, where she is engaged as a teacher in the graded schools. Goddard's basketball season is to open in the Church street gymnasium Friday evening when the first team is to meet a quintet from Fort Ethan Allen. Officers for the 1915-1916 team at the seminary have not been elected as yet, but a strong schedule is being prepared. The coaches have approved of several early games in order that their charges may be in form Jan. 8, when the team journeys to the Dartmouth gymnasium at Hanover, N. H., for a game with the college freshman team. Employees of the American Express Co. in this city nearly established a record in handling shipments of Barre granite this morning when they transported from the plant of the Presbrey-Coykendall Co. to the Central Vermont station a massive-voisair weighing 2,750 pounds. The voisair is to be used over the entrance to a mausoleum which the local company is erecting in Philadelphia. Little difficulty was encountered in loading the granite into a baggage car at the station and trainmen expected to make the transfer at Montpelier Junction with ease. Granite manufacturers have resorted frequently to the express company's medium of transportation in times of emergency, but to-day's shipment was one of the heaviest on record.
