The men's club of the Presbyterian church observed ladies' night last evening, the affair being the third in a series of social evenings to be held during the winter months. After the business of the club had been completed the members gathered, together with their guests, in the auditorium of the church, where they listened to a very well-defined and interesting, as well as instructive, lecture delivered by S. Hollister Jackson. Mr. Jackson's topic was, "The Law and the Gospel," and, as he is well fitted to handle such a subject, needless to say his words found open minds and set them to thinking. He brought out the relationship the gospel has to the laws and told of law making in the early history of the church. Mr. Jackson's talk came in for a generous round of applause. Adjournment was made to the vestry, where refreshments of cocoa, cake and sandwiches were served by the men.

AS WE SEE IT

Conditions that All Will Have to Contend With!

As people have just begun to learn the cheaper way of sending goods, deliveries by parcel post will have to be a little slow. You should plan deliveries fully one week ahead. Two weeks before Christmas, the Barre Savings Bank and the Quarry Savings Bank pay to their Christmas Club members several thousand dollars. This money goes to buy Christmas gifts. Stocks are unusually large. It is going to take you longer to make your selections. Unless you start right in at once, you are not going to get as good service as Barre merchants usually give, or would like to give. We will be the busiest this Christmas that we have ever been. The more you help us by early shopping, the better we can please you.

We are putting out several very tempting values that won't last but a few days. These are on our tables and in our Garment Department.
