TALK OF THE TOWN

Thursday is bargain day at Vaughan's. Miss Lucile DeReynolds returned yesterday to her home in Randolph, after passing a few days with friends in the city.

Madame Bernett, scientific palmist, will tell you all about business transactions, love, courtship and marriage. Don't fail to consult her. Room 2, Bazzell hotel.—adv.

Minor changes to the interior of the J. L. Wallace residence, so called, on Franklin street, which was purchased recently by the First Baptist church as a parsonage, are in progress, although everything will be in readiness for the occupancy of the house when the pastor-elect arrives near the end of the present month. It is expected that Rev. Bert J. Lehigh of Oswego, N. Y., who has accepted a call to the Barre pastorate, will be accompanied here by his family. J. L. Wallace, who is residing temporarily on Tremont street, plans to move his household goods to Montpelier in the near future.

MONTPELIER

P. J. Connolly Re-appointed Chief of Police.

The regular meeting of the city council will be held this evening but it is possible that only a small amount of business will be transacted because of the illness of Mayor Boutwell. Alderman Harry C. Shurtluff, who succeeds Alderman Frenier is also absent from the city. Yesterday afternoon P. J. Connolly was reappointed chief of police for one year and was sworn in by the city clerk and he immediately appointed the following officers to succeed themselves: P. J. McAvoy, E. D. Sloan and Frank Baldwin. Although there are several candidates for the other position on the police force, caused by the resignation of Officer McDonald, a selection has not been made, and it is possible that a decision will be made not to have the fourth officer.

In probate court, Mrs. Mary Mortimer of Barre City was appointed guardian of Alexander J., and Edward J. Mortimer, minors of Barre City.

Coach Fredrick Edwards of the high school basketball team has arranged for a game next Monday evening in armory hall with the Dartmouth freshmen five, captained by Fred Laird, jr., the former local star. Nelson Brown of Barre is playing a guard position on the same team, which is one of the strongest ever turned out by the Dartmouth first classmen.

The funeral of William A. Backus, who died Monday morning at his home, 5 State street, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon, services being held at the chapel at Green Mount cemetery.

Robert Whitney is quite seriously ill at his home on Kent street with bronchitis.

Attorney-General H. H. Barber of Brattleboro and Mrs. Barber are the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whittier on East State street.

Glenn Wilkins of Morrisville is spending a few days in the city on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crossett left yesterday afternoon for Boston, where they plan to attend the automobile show.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Andrews, who were married in this city last fall, have returned from Lowell, Mass., where Mr. Andrews was employed, he having secured a position with the Lane Manufacturing company.

Alexander McCone, foreman for the W. Shelton Swallow Co., in charge of the construction of the Playhouse on State street, has returned to his home in New York because of illness. He was taken ill with the grip several weeks ago and heart trouble developed.

A resolution was adopted at the city meeting, on motion of Joseph G. Brown, to have a committee of three appointed by the city council to investigate all matters and practices in relation to the contract between the city and hospital and to ascertain if the hospital needs financial assistance for the general support of the institution. If the report of the committee is favorable, the usual appropriation, $3,000 is to be continued.

Reports of two fatal accidents, which occurred in West Pawlet last week, have reached the industrial accident board, the men who were killed being employees of the Rising & Nelson Slate company. William L. Lewis and Griffith J. Hughes, employed as foremen, were the victims of the accident. They were standing on a waste pile when a big stone dropped from a chain striking them, killing Hughes instantly and inflicting injuries to Lewis which caused his death twenty minutes later. Lewis was 48 years old and his companion 65. Miss Laura M. Burbank, secretary of the board, went last evening to Bennington, where a hearing is to be held to-morrow, and Friday, Manchester will be the scene of a hearing.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Frederick J. Ahern of New York was a visitor in the city yesterday. Dr. H. Nelson Jackson of Burlington is passing several days at Hotel Barre.

One-half price sale of silk and muslin waists, odd lot, on sale Thursday at Vaughan's.

Mrs. H. P. Hinman of Orange street is recovering from an operation to which she recently submitted at the City hospital.

Miss Laura Granger of Short street left the city last evening for Burlington, where she is spending a few days with friends.

The Maccafee public 500 party will be held in K. of P. hall, Blanchard block, Friday evening, March 10, beginning at 7:30. Tables for whist.

Among the Barre men who left the city last night for Boston to attend the automobile show were: F. D. Ladd, C. M. Willey, F. H. Rogers and George W. Mann.

M. Kearney of Merchant street, who had the misfortune to have his second finger cut off at the second joint while at work at Young Brothers' Monday, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Allen of Allen street, who have been passing the greater part of the winter with their son, Charles R. Allen, jr., of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., have returned to the city.

Misses Celia and DeLoree Glynn left the city this morning for Burlington, where they are to enter Mount St. Mary's academy. They were accompanied by Miss Nellie Murphy, who will return to Barre this evening.

The condition of Romeo Scampini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Scampini of Berlin street, who suffered severe injuries in a derrier accident Monday, is reported to be quite comfortable. The young man is confined at the City hospital, where he was taken soon after the accident.

To-day being Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, the fast day was very generally observed in the Catholic and Episcopal churches. In St. Monica's church Rev. Fr. P. M. McKenna, the parish priest, officiated at services this morning and will conduct services again this evening. A special program of Lenten devotionals at St. Monica's is to be announced. At the church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. W. J. M. Beattie will be celebrant at a celebration of the holy communion at 10:30 o'clock this forenoon. Evening prayer will be said in the church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. After this week Tuesday and Friday evening services are to be held in the church of the Good Shepherd.

In the vestry of the First Presbyterian church Monday evening, William H. Hurry gave an interesting informal talk before the members of the Men's club on the topic, "Church Finances." Some of the more abstruse problems encountered in financing rural and city churches were considered along with the fundamentals in which the business side of church existence is grounded. Mr. Hurry was given a warm hand when he had finished his remarks. A social hour followed the address and then refreshments. On the 3d of April, Principal H. H. Jackson of Spaulding high school will be the speaker at the monthly meeting of the club and on the first Monday evening in May, Rev. Edgar Crossland will be the last speaker in the winter and spring series of meetings.

Francis O'Grady of Merchant street received a message yesterday advising him of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Mary O'Grady, who passed away in Hardwick yesterday at the age of 82 years. Mrs. O'Grady had been in failing health for some years. Mrs. Rose O'Grady and her son and daughter, Francis and Irene O'Grady, expect to be in Northfield to-morrow to attend the funeral, which is to be held in St. John's church in the morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Lynch, the parish priest, will officiate at the requiem mass, and interment will be in the Catholic cemetery in Northfield village. Mrs. O'Grady is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Lambert of Hardwick, with whom she had resided, and Mrs. William Lawler of Claremont, N. H., and two sons, Michael O'Grady of Worcester, Mass., and Thomas O'Grady of Northfield.

WON THE SERIES. Barre K. of C. Defeated Their Montpelier Brothers.

A decisive victory over the Knights of Columbus at the capital came to Barre council, No. 401, in Montpelier last evening when its cribbage team won the sixth and deciding tournament by a comfortable margin. Although the Barre knights lost in the pool tournament, the majority in cribbage was sufficient to give them a lead for the evening of 300 points. The sixth set in the winter matches gives the series to Barre by a margin of 377 points. Only twice since the first tournament was held late in January have the Montpelier knights eclipsed their opponents. A forfeit dinner to the winning team is to be tendered by the Montpelier knights in the near future. The scoring last night is given in the tables below:
